

SOCIETY

Friedenthal has been the house guest of her sister for several weeks. After Christmas Miss Friedenthal will go to New Orleans.

One of the big holiday social events this year will be the ninth annual charity ball to be given by the Portland alumni chapter of Chi Omega at the Multnomah hotel Wednesday evening, December 27. On the committee completing arrangements for the affair are former active members of the Chi Omega chapters at Stanford University, University of California, University of Washington, University of Oregon and the Oregon Agricultural college.

Proceeds of the ball are to be turned over to the mother's pension fund, which the organization has been contributing to monthly for the past year. The alumni chapter here has taken an active interest in charity and social service work in Portland and among the creditable acts performed is the establishment of a milk station at one of the Portland grammar schools and the operation of a five-cent luncheon for three successive years in another Portland school.

Social service work is one of the prime objects of the fraternity and throughout the country an enviable record has been made through the efforts of the active and altruistic chapters. Free libraries and lunch rooms in tenement districts of the city have been established, birth and infant mortality statistics and records form an important part of their work in many eastern states. In one of the southern states the fraternity has complete supervision of all social service work.

Several features have been arranged for the dance and number of dinner and supper parties by prominent Portland society folk are being planned.

The Tillamook entertained with a Christmas dance last night. The next dance will be January 6. Mrs. Andrew Porter will act as hostess for tonight.

Dr. and Mrs. O. Miller Babbitt will entertain with a dinner preceding the dance. The list of patrons, Mrs. Mielke will also give a dinner preceding the dance.

Many art lovers called Wednesday afternoon at the Multnomah hotel, when Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Duver entertained with an exhibition. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Nait McDougal and Mrs. H. C. Wortman. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. George Guthrie, Mrs. M. Donald Spencer and Miss Irene Day.

Sara Truax Albert will give a dramatic impersonation for the benefit of the Peoples Institute on Friday, January 5, at the Portland Women's club building.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Bailey were dinner hosts preceding the subscription dance.

Miss Cornelia Cook entertained with a dinner before the subscription dance. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lang, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Crumpacker, Mrs. Mary Scarborough, Gus Wagman and Wade Pipes.

A charming afternoon tea was given last Sunday for Mrs. Sara Truax Albert, whose dramatic impersonation have been much enjoyed by Portland society folk. When Mrs. Lucius Allen Lewis entertained, presiding at the attractive tea table was Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett.

Mrs. Sara Truax Albert will be the motif for a delightful buffet supper this evening, at which Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Sealey Parsons and Mr. and Mrs. M. Donald Spencer will be hosts at the Spencer residence on Cornell road. The guests will include about 100 people who have been actively interested in these impersonations.

Society is anticipating a series of plays which will be produced under the direction of Mrs. Dent Mowrey, December 29, by the dramatic section of the arts and crafts society at the Portland Women's building. "The Shepherd in the Distance," a pantomime by Holland Hudson, and "Abraham and Isaac," a 15th century miracle, will be presented. Between the plays Christmas carols and a monks' chorus, composed by Dent Mowrey, will be sung.

Miss Georgianna Gerlinger will entertain the members of the debutantes with a tea at her home Christmas afternoon.

Umpqua chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, were entertained last Monday evening by Mrs. F. H. Churchill and Mrs. D. E. Hendrich at the home of the former. The churchill home was decorated with chrysanthemums and the national colors occupied a prominent place. After the business meeting Mrs. W. A. Smick gave an historical sketch of Douglas county. Mrs. E. B. Stewart read an account of the recent meeting of the American Legion at New Orleans. Mrs. George E. Houck, the regent, told of her visit last month to the Daughters of the American Revolution memorial hall in Washington, D. C. Following the programme refreshments were served by the hostesses.

An event of social significance will be a testimonial and "silver shower" for the benefit of the Willson foundation fund, which will be held on the 66th anniversary of Woodrow Wilson's birthday, December 28, in the parlors of the Hotel Portland at 8 P. M. This day will be celebrated in most all of the large cities of the nation. The Portland gathering will be unusually brilliant in its arrangement.

J. Ross Fargo and Miss Nina Dressel will entertain with a series of selected songs. A small group of the Whitley Boys' chorus will sing a special arrangement of the "Holy City" and other carols, reflecting the yuletide season. "Open House" will be kept. Tributes will be paid the ex-president by representative men and women in all walks of life.

The visitors will be received by Messrs. and Mesdames J. N. Teal, H. Van Duzer, Oswald West, Miss Helen West, Harvey G. Starkweather, C. S. Jackson, Dr. C. J. Smith, Dr. J. W. Morrow, Bert E. Haney, Elton Watkins, F. C. Whitton, George A. Lovejoy, Fred Vogler, Richard W. Montague, C. L. McKenna, D. Chambers, Lotus L. Langley, Will Moore, Dr. E. H. Hedlund, George F. Alexander, W. U'Ren, J. D. Mann, Mesdames J. Coulsen Hare and L. K. Pastrouch and Frederick W. Holman.

The patrons and patronesses for the Kappa Kappa Gamma alumni dances which will be given December 27 at the Portland Women's building will be Mr. and Mrs. George T. Gerlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Louis G. Acton, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fliegel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Strawbridge, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Montgomery, Judge and Mrs. Robert Tucker, Judge and Mrs. Walter Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Earl C. Brough and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gage.

The Rose City Dancing club will give a Christmas party next Thursday evening at Christensen's hall. A special programme is being arranged by the committee, consisting of William J. Hofmann, Robert Krohn, Frank J. McCarthy and Walter H. Evans.

Miss Edith Pierce, daughter of the Governor-elect and Mrs. Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, was the guest of honor at a number of social functions held in Salem during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Pierce is a member of the freshman class at the University of Oregon and spent her Thanksgiving vacation in Salem as a guest of Miss Margaret Goodin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin, the former of whom is secretary of the state board of control.

In addition to being entertained by Miss Goodin, the visitor was a guest at a dinner served at the home of Mrs. Dan Frye, and a dance held under the auspices of the student body of the Salem high school. Miss Pierce expects to complete a year's course at the university and is looking anxiously ahead to the arrival of her parents in Salem. She then will be able to spend the week ends here.

The Misses Elvera and Lillian Anderson entertained with a luncheon yesterday, honoring Miss Myrtle MacLean, bride-elect. Their guests were: Mesdames T. A. Garbade, Ward A. Irvine, Owen Marks, Thomas H. Banfield, Arthur Rudeen, Larry Cunningham and Earl Zimmerman; Myrtle MacLean, Edna Cobb, Hilma Fox, Mildred Pegg, Lillian Anderson, Dorothy Anderson and Elvera Anderson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kahles and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wagner were hosts to an attractive dinner party Saturday evening at the Portland hotel. Covers were laid for 16. The guests were W. W. Banks, Paul French, E. W. Whitley, M. H. Whitehead and Frank McCarthy.

Messages of congratulation are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Wallace H. Martin of Chicago, on the birth of a daughter, Nancy, born November 15. She is a granddaughter of Mrs. and Mrs. W. Martyn Margaret Goodin, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin, the former of whom is secretary of the state board of control.

Miss Sallie Stuart was hostess for an attractive dinner Tuesday evening at Hotel Portland. Covers were placed for Judge and Mrs. Martin Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Coon, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Boquist, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Tidball, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Noe, Wendell Kelch Phillips and the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Nordby were hosts Monday evening at Hotel Portland for a beautifully appointed dinner of ten covers. Mrs. Coleman H. Wheeler, who will leave soon for an extended visit abroad, was the inspiration for the occasion. Following the dinner the party attended the Orphan.

Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Andrae announce the engagement of their daughter, Gertrude Eloise Andrae, to Eric E. Hopsan, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hopsan. Miss Andrae is a Delta Zeta from the Omega chapter, and Mr. Hopsan is a graduate of the University of Washington and a member of the Sigma Phi Upsilon fraternity. The date for the wedding will be set later.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Johnson (Ethel Kinsel) are now residing in their new home in Alameda.

At a recent luncheon Mrs. Emmett Rathbun announced the wedding date of Miss Georgianna Gelsler and Morris Morgan. The date chosen was February 9.

Covers were placed for nine of Miss Gelsler's intimate friends, including Mrs. Edgar Garbade, Mrs. Leonard Shaver, Mrs. Frank Holmes (Margaret Hamblin), Mrs. Donald Byrd, Miss Ruth Englehorn, Miss Esther McCulloch and Miss Hilma Fox.
