

Lloyd Carver, Fred Barron, Harold Rogers, C. Clair Hunt, Hubert C. Fortmiller, C. P. Boutey, William Broder, Dr. Loren O. Calais, Dr. Frank O. Milnes, Dr. William Cole, Dr. Harold Fosse, Eric R. Nordin, Nelson C. Davidson, Fred Fesse, Leon Huston, Acie McClain, Virgie Ione, Cleve Olson, Dale Breakey, Roy T. Stickle, Joe Parker, Menzo Mattice, Dalton Blake, J. Julian Leslie, William Jenkins, Fred S. Shandley, George Hoffman, Leslie Schwering, Raymond Douglas, Merrill Gibson, Floyd Scott, Max Moon and Peter A. Sweeney.

With the holidays ahead and a spirit of Yuletide in the air, Reed students, enjoying pre-vacation week and brimful of significant social, musical and dramatic events.

The happiest event of all was the Christmas dinner for the Reed community which preceded the annual Christmas concert of the Reed chorus Thursday night, around a massive Christmas tree brightly decorated and glittering in vari-colored lights, which stood in the middle of the Reed commons, tables were crowded for more than 300 diners.

A community dance was held in the men's social Friday night preceding the presentation of Moore's "A Doctor in Spite of Himself" in the chapel by the Drama club. The informal party was well attended by visitors and alumni.

Seniors who are majoring in economics were hosts to Dr. and Mrs. Clement Akerman and Professor and Mrs. A. A. Friedrich of the economics department at a delightful dinner party Wednesday evening in the Japanese room of Commons.

Those attending were Dr. and Mrs. Akerman, Mr. and Mrs. Friedrich, Miss Nancy Gavin, Harold Brownson, William Helms, Clifford Johnson and August Belch.

A special dinner party honoring Mr. and Mrs. J. McMaisters of Canas, Wash., given by a group of intimate student friends of the couple was one highlight of the community dinner Thursday night. Covers were laid for 16. In addition to the guests of honor, those present were Miss Beatrice Olsen, Miss Margaret McGowan, Miss Julia Opp, Miss Gertrude Opp, Miss Nancy Gavin, Miss Helen Pippy, Miss Ruth Chambers, Miss Alice Johnson, Harold Brownson, Herman Kehrl, Victor Reid, Clifford Johnson, Forest Foster, Anton Lindstrom, William Helms.

Among other dinner parties was that held in the Commons by the Freshman class Friday night and that held Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Friedrich at their home, near the campus. Guests at the latter dinner were Miss Alice Abbott, Miss Alice Lathrop, Miss Frances Barbery, Miss Margaret Westgate, Miss Rachel Cronquist, Miss Barbara Trumbull and C. Bachman.

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Dec. 16.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Morris celebrated their golden wedding anniversary December 15 at their home on North P street. A number of friends and neighbors called. Valuable presents were received by the couple as well as letters of congratulation from more distant friends.

Relatives present were Mrs. Stella Y. Fouts and children, Lucile and Nell Davidson of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Morris and son Maxwell of Eugene; Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Smith and daughter, Carol, lately of Los Angeles; Mrs. Owen D. Palmer of Portland, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Morris. Others who came to celebrate the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris, Mrs. Hubbard, Mrs. L. E. Morris, Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Lester Abbott and daughter Leone of Cottage Grove, and Mrs. William Beholdt and daughter Lois of Bonanza.

MEDFORD, Or., Dec. 16.—(Special).—Miss Catherine Duet, prominent member of the younger set of this city, and Ned Vilas, overseas veteran and also prominent young orchardist near this city, were married Thursday morning at St. Mark's Protestant Episcopal church, by Rev. William B. Hammond, in the presence of a few of their intimate friends. They left shortly after by automobile to spend their honeymoon in California.

Miss Gertrude Wood and Miss Helen Pilkington will entertain Tuesday evening, December 26, in the Arcadian gardens.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK. One of the notable events of the social season is the link party given by the Alpha Beta Theta and Gamma Sigma societies of the Oregon State College of Chiropractic at the Portland hotel Saturday evening, December 16. A splendid programme was furnished by the following well-known artists: Vocal solos, Mrs. Mary Gordon Forbes, soprano; reading, Mrs. Ross Elliott; vocal, Miss Nellie Wehoffer; contralto; reading, Miss Margaret Gettly; vocal, H. E. Smith, baritone; vocal, Mrs. Mary Price, soprano. Mrs. Mary Holder Williamson was the accompanist for the evening.

Games, cards and dancing were included in up to a late hour, when all joined hands and sang the college song. Over a hundred couples attended. This is the beginning of a number of social events to be held by the societies of this college.

The Neighbors of Woodcraft district officers, captain and drill team

PIONEER COUPLE OF THE DALLES CELEBRATES GOLDEN WEDDING.

THE DALLES, Or., Dec. 16.—(Special).—Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Schmidt, pioneer residents of The Dalles, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary December 9 with a reception to their friends during the afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt have lived in The Dalles for 48 years. They met when Mr. Schmidt came from Pommern, Germany, in August, 1867, and settled at Bellevue, Iowa, the birthplace of Lena Tackman, who became Mrs. Schmidt in 1872.

For 18 years after their arrival in Oregon, Mr. Schmidt leased and operated the first flouring mills of this city. He afterward engaged in the general grain and merchandise business. He was county assessor for several years, and during the Lewis and Clark exposition in Portland, Mr. Schmidt represented The Dalles as superintendent of the Wasco county exhibit. He also bought a large tract of land within The Dalles, planting it into what was known as the "extension to Trevitt's addition."

Mr. Schmidt has retired from business and he and Mrs. Schmidt are enjoying life in the home which they built in 1878, at 415 Third street. exemplified the floor work efficiently at Mount Hood circle, No. 151, last Tuesday evening. Minnie Hiner, grand guardian, and Grand Manager Marshall were present. One candidate was initiated in the secret work of the order. Miss Genevieve Gilbert sang two solos, accompanied by Mrs. A. Winchberger, who also played for little Agnes Peters, who danced two numbers. Nearly 90 neighbors were present. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. R. P. Graham was surprised Tuesday afternoon by a number of her women friends of 20 years ago, who were present. The surprise was arranged by Mrs. A. L. Hassler. An enjoyable time was passed talking over old times and renewing acquaintances and playing bridge. A delicious luncheon was served. Those present were: Mrs. A. L. Hassler, Mrs. N. J. Crain, Mrs. George P. Henderson, Mrs. T. J. Murphy, Mrs. O. M. Plummer, Mrs. J. H. Richmond and Mrs. W. H. Selvers.

COMING EVENTS.

The Portland Soccer Football association will hold its annual concert and dance in the Maccabees hall, 387 1/2 Washington street, Saturday night, Robert M. Rankin, secretary of the association, is in charge of the dance. A vaudeville programme will be one of the features of the entertainment.

A mask ball will be given on Friday, December 29, at 8 P. M. at the Oddfellows hall, Seventeenth and Alberta streets, by Vernont Rebekah lodge.

The annual Christmas party and children's entertainment of Columbia No. 1, DeMolay hall, Seiling-Hirsch building, will be held December 18 in East Side Business Men's hall, Grand avenue and East Alder street. Members and friends are invited to attend.

The Sellwood O. E. S. Social club will give a holiday party at the Masonic hall, Thirteenth and Spokane, Wednesday evening. The proceeds will go to the children's home at Corvallis.

The Portland Health club will give its annual Christmas party December 18 in the DeMolay hall, Seiling-Hirsch building. A programme of music and readings will be presented by some of the best talent of the city, and by the club members. All members and friends are invited.

Cathedral court, Catholic Order of Foresters, will entertain their members and friends with a holiday dance to be held Friday evening, December 22, at Cathedral hall, corner Seventeenth and Couch streets. The patronesses for the affair are: Mrs. T. S. Hogan, Mrs. E. H. Deery, Mrs. J. O'Brien, Mrs. J. V. Murphy and Mrs. J. J. Flaherty. Tickets can be obtained from members.

An invitation is extended to all members of the various state organizations, all former residents and all who desire an enjoyable evening to participate with the members of the Montana club at the Portland Social Turn Verein hall, Thirteenth and Madison streets, at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. Supper will be at 11 P. M. and cards and dancing at 1:30 P. M. sharp. Officers are: George L. MacGibbon, president; Mrs. M. F. Sloper, vice-president; Miss M. C. Church, secretary; Miss E. M. Taylor, treasurer; O. T. Lees, J. E. Bevan, D. George W. King, O. E. Walter and J. L. Cahill, directors.

WEDDINGS.

Schaber-Howell. Before an altar banked with man were flowers girls, wearing yellow and blue taffeta.

Following the ceremony a reception was held with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lewis, parents of the bride, receiving. At the bridal party Miss Gertrude Schaber and Mrs. Arthur Beckman cut the ices. Mrs. A. C. Harms presided at the coffee urn.

SOCIETY PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Oates are spending a few days and are registered at the Nortonia hotel. Mr. Oates operates one of the finest swimming natoriums on the Pacific coast at Seaside.

Arthur M. Lewis of San Francisco is in Portland for the holidays, visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Lewis expects to be located here after the first of the year. He is in the insurance business.

Mrs. C. W. Niemeyer of Edmonton, Alta., is in Portland for a visit with her sisters, Mrs. Ralph Harris and Mrs. A. J. Lenon. She will go to Salem to pass the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Liston.

Delightful visitors who are spending two or three months here are Mrs. William Watson Reid and her daughter Mrs. J. Douglas Carrick of Carlisle, England. Both have visited Portland before, and Mrs. Carrick, who is remembered as Miss Jessie Reid, spent a year on the coast with her sisters, Miss Helen, who now lives in Burma, the wife of J. Leslie McCallum, a prominent official for the English government.

Mr. Schmidt represented The Dalles as superintendent of the Wasco county exhibit. He also bought a large tract of land within The Dalles, planting it into what was known as the "extension to Trevitt's addition." Mr. Schmidt has retired from business and he and Mrs. Schmidt are enjoying life in the home which they built in 1878, at 415 Third street. palms and greens, the marriage of Inez A. Howell to Peter J. Schabert was solemnized at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. P. Schuman, Wednesday evening, December 6, at 8:30. The ceremony was performed by Dr. William T. McElveen, presiding the ceremony Miss Rose Muller sang "I Love You Truly." The wedding march was played by Mrs. A. C. Harms. The bride, who entered with her father, wore a gown of gold crepe and carried a bouquet of pale pink bride's roses. Mrs. E. A. Freeman, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. W. H. Schuman were bridesmaids. Mrs. Freeman wore blue and gold taffeta and Mrs. Schuman wore pink taffeta. Both carried pink carnations. Arthur Beckman was best man. Nadine Schuman and Loraine Freeman were flower girls.

FRATERNAL NOTES. A very successful rally was held at Pythian temple by the members of the Woman's Benefit association (Concluded on Page 7.)

Christmas Cigars of the Better Kind. Smokers' Menu. Carabana-10c. LaGran Marca-10c Straight. Mason Ehrman & Co. THE NATION'S FINEST CIGARS. Portland, Seattle, Spokane.

H. LIEBES & CO. Broadway at Morrison. Give a practical gift. Gauntlets of imported kid, of almost caressing softness, with the beaded back and cuff, with the striped cuff, the clown cuff, the lily cuff, the barred cuff or the bracelet cuff. Negligees and house robes. Tailored blouses. Silk scarfs. Garters. Slippers. Brassieres. Glovesilk. Lingerie. Petticoats. Jwe jewelry. Fur and Individual Style Shops.

$10 for the Set. OF 3 FIXTURES PICTURED BELOW. Remember Quality Counts. STANLEY LUTZ. 200-3-5-7 Chamber of Commerce Building, Second Floor, Third and Stark—Broadway 4283.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENT SALE NOW GOING ON. Buy Your Xmas Gifts Now and Save 20 to 50 Per Cent. Late Records.....3 for $1.75. Late Music.....8 for $2.00. McDougall Music Co. Formerly Connn Co. 129 Tenth Street. Bet. Alder and Wash. Sts.

YOU'LL FIND THE ANSWER TO THE CHRISTMAS QUESTION IN THE "CHRISTMAS GIFTS" columns of the Want-Ad section. Gifts for the home. Useful presents for the business man. Toys and playthings for the kids. Home-made articles and fancy work. And many other most acceptable gifts. Also Christmas trees, holly, Oregon grape, mistletoe, etc. Just preceding the "For Sale Miscellaneous" heading.

Here Are Gifts Of Year-Round Usefulness. Pens and Pencils. Kodaks. Christmas Cards. Pike & O'Neill. 343 1/2 Washington Street. Just Above Broadway.