BIBLE CLASSES TO CLOSE.—The meetings of the Portland union Bible classes held in Calvary Presbyterian church will be discontinued during the holidays, the closing session for this term being on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The classes will not reopen until the middle of January, as the first part of the month is to be eccupied with a Bible conference which will begin January I and continue for 10 days. January 7 and continue for 10 days. and Jeffers.
The teacher of the classes, Rev. B. B. ning.—Adv.
Sutcliffe, is arranging for both local and outside speakers, and the programme with the names of the speakers and their subjects will be announced in the near future. An unusual opportunity is in store for the people of Portland who are interested in Bible study, and a real treat is anticipated by the members of the classes. LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT WANTED. To fill one vacancy in the position of landscape architect, bureau of parks, the municipal civil service board will hold an examination Fri-day, December 23, in the council chambers, city hall. So far only one application for examination for the position has been filed at the office of the board in the city hall. The position pays $150 a month and the examination is open to all registred voters of the city or those who have honorable discharges from the

KENNEL CLUB TO MEET.—A social meeting of the Oregon State Kennel club will be held in the new Rodmen's hall at East Ninth and Hawthorne avenue Tuesday night. The club recently elected officers for the ensuing year as follows: D. I. Clough, president; Dr. J. H. Held, vice-president; Mrs. M. F. Vance, secretary, and Mrs. E.
