

CHANGE IN SESSION OF LEGISLATURE AIM

Sixty-Day Meeting Every 4 Years Is Proposed.

VOTERS' ACTION NEEDED

Author of Measure Holds That $40,000 Annually Would Be Saved by State.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 16.—(Special.)—Amendment of the state constitution so as to provide for a 60 days' session of the legislature every four years instead of a 40 days' session every two years, as at the present time, is proposed in a resolution that is now being prepared for submission to the lawmakers when they assemble here January 8.

In case the resolution is approved by the legislature, the proposal to amend the constitution will be referred to the voters of the state at the next general election. Under the provisions of the resolution the 60-day session of the legislature shall start in January, 1925, and continue every four years thereafter. In event of emergency, the governor will be authorized to call a special session of the legislature at any time, as provided by the present constitution.

Costs Are Investigated.
The author of the resolution, in a statement given out today, said that he had investigated the cost of the legislative sessions and had found them to be expensive to the taxpayers. By holding these legislative sessions every four years instead of every two years, a large amount of money would be saved, he said.

Statistics assembled in the office of the secretary of state, which will be included in the argument for a reduction in the number of legislative sessions, showed that the 1921 legislative assembly cost the taxpayers of Oregon a total of $110,541.67. The salaries of the legislators, including the members of both houses, aggregated $10,500. Of this amount, $5,000 went to pay the members of the senate, while $5,500 covered the salaries of the representatives. The mileage of the senators totaled $1,412, while the mileage of the representatives aggregated $2,356.55.

Senate Payroll $21,094.
Eighty-five clerks and stenographers employed in the senate received $21,094.50, while 103 clerks and stenographers in the house received $25,937.50. Additional janitors employed in the various departments occupied by the legislature cost the state $197.58.

The following summary based on statistics obtained from the records of the state department are indicative of the expenses of the 1921 legislative session:

Senators' salaries	$ 3,600.00
Representatives' salaries	7,900.00
Senators' mileage	1,412.50

Printing session journals	2,800.30
Printing journals	1,135.37
Binding journals	486.00
Hills, calendars, etc., printing	14,700.00
Total	$110,541.67

Increases Are Shown.

Going back for a period of 20 years the statistics show that the expenses of each succeeding session of the legislature have increased. This would indicate that the amount of $110,000, which was the cost of holding the 1921 session of the lawmakers, will not cover the expenses of the assembly which convenes here next month. Based on the averages of increase, it was predicted that the 1923 session of the legislature will cost the taxpayers of the state not less than $120,000.

Besides the actual cost to the state of holding legislative sessions many of the state departments are disturbed, with the result that their costs of operation are increased. In some departments this increase amounted to several hundred dollars in the 40 days.

Under the proposal to hold the legislative sessions only once in four years, the saving to the taxpayers would aggregate $40,000 annually, the author of the resolution said.

FUNDS TAKEN FOR WIFE

BANKER, UNABLE TO BE FATHER, GIVES PRESENTS.

$51,000 Embezzled in Effort to Gratify Wishes of Mate; Leniency Asked.

(By Chicago Tribune Leased Wire.)
NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Max W. Hensel, former manager of the Warren branch of the Corn Exchange bank, appropriated $51,000 from the bank's funds in an attempt to compensate his wife for the fact that he could not be a father. This was revealed in court Friday by his counsel, in a long plea for leniency. Hensel was sentenced to the penitentiary for from six months to three years.

The branch bank manager admitted taking $51,912 in all, and made restitution of about $24,000, partly in real property and jewelry he had bought for his wife. He was a trusted employe of the bank and his thefts ran over several years. "He married, and discovered that he could not become a father," said the lawyer. "From then on he suffered a morbid fear of losing his wife's affections. In order to assure retention of her love he endeavored to compensate her for the distress which he knew she was suffering. He tried to anticipate her every wish and to gratify it. In order to do this he increased the amount of the shortage on the bank's books, caused by a former honest mistake."
Dr. Smith Ely Jelliffe, the specialist, who examined Hensel before he pleaded, said that while the man knew the nature of the act of theft, it was undeniably caused by an unconscious compulsion, the result

"If You're Waking Call Me Early!"

A quarter million dollars' worth of diamonds, watches, silver and gold in the Friedlander sale—gifts that endure—scarce anything full price—and Christmas morning but six short days away!

"This One!" "Which, in your opinion, is the biggest and best Diamond Bargain in the Sale?" The question is asked by friends and patrons a dozen times a day and more. Today's answer: "This one!"—a Diamond which weighs two and forty one-hundredths carats, set in a Gentleman's setting. The setting can of course be changed at small cost. The Diamond is valued at twelve hundred dollars—it can be bought for $850. And it is a veritable prize!

Here's another: A Man's Ring of Platinum with a center Diamond of extraordinary size and brilliancy, the mounting embellished with Emeralds and Sapphires. This ring is valued at $1050. Yet the sale price is $675.

A Lady's Ring, of platinum, the mounting covered with small Diamonds and the center stone weighing nearly a carat and a half. It is valued at twenty-two hundred and fifty dollars. The sale price is $1775. A Solitaire in a Tiffany setting weighs a carat and twenty one-hundredths. Its market value is nine hundred and fifty dollars. The sale price is $645. Another Solitaire weighing a carat and a half is $495 instead of seven hundred and fifty dollars. Here, too, is a Steel-Blue Diamond which weighs half a carat. The value is two hundred and twenty-five dollars. The sale price is $175.

Rings Below Value
A magnificent Dinner Ring of Platinum—all ablaze with Diamonds—is marked at $685 instead of a thousand dollars. An opal, set in a white gold ring, is priced at $100 instead of a hundred and seventy-five. A Sapphire combined with two large Diamonds in a white gold setting is marked $110 instead of a hundred and fifty dollars. A very large Diamond in a square mounting of white gold is reduced to $217—the former price was three hundred. A very charming Diamond Ring in a new and novel effect—the square Diamond surrounded by rectangular Sapphires—beautiful!—and marked from $150 to an even hundred dollars.

Bar Pins
Bar Pins are immensely popular. Trouble is that we shall not have nearly enough to supply the demand. White Gold Bar Pins with Platinum fronts are marked $25 and $35 instead of forty and fifty dollars. They are set with Diamonds and Sapphires, too. Less elaborate ones, minus the Diamonds, are priced at $11.50 instead of $16. The twenty-five dollar Bar Pins of White Gold set with a Diamond can be had for $16.50. Here, too, is a bar pin set with Sapphires and Diamonds which was $45 and is now $29.50. Another set with Sapphires and Pearls is $17.50 instead of $22.50. And still another, set with Diamonds, is reduced from $55 to $39.50. The finest Bar Pin of the sale is one which measures two and a half inches long. It is a mass of Diamonds and is valued at $1200. The sale price is $750.

Ear-rings
Ear Drops are in the heyday of their popularity. And there are exquisite affairs here to choose among. $5 Jet and Gold Drops for $3.75; Coral the same price; Solid Gold and Amethyst at $24.50 instead of $32, and real Jade at $9.50 instead of $12. Pearl and Jet in combination can be had for $3.75 instead of $5. The fringed affairs—beaded fringe which can be had in a variety of colors—are $2.85, though most stores get very much more.

Silver Plate
Silverware is all marked down. Coffee sets on a tray which were $30 are now selling for $22.50. Fruit Baskets with handles which were ten dollars are marked $5.85. Sandwich Trays highly burnished and in the newer pierced designs are marked $2.75 instead of five dollars. Tea Sets of four pieces that were twenty-five dollars are now $16.75—the finer ones that were $75 are marked $57.50. And all manner of platters and vegetable dishes are to be had under price. All are of the highest quality plated silver.

Bracelet Watches
Gold-Filled Bracelet Watches with 15 jewels are marked $13.50, though most good stores are asking twenty dollars for them. Solid Gold Bracelet Watches are reduced in like fashion. Here is a $75 one marked $54. An eighty-five dollar Longines is reduced to $56. A ninety-five dollar Waltham is $62.50. A $75 Waltham is $48.50—and a Solid Gold Elgin which was $72.50 is now $58. And in the same section are

Men's Watches
Men's Watches. All excepting the Hamiltons are reduced. The $22.50 Elgins are now $16.50, the $63 Howards are $51.50, the forty-dollar Illinois are $32, the thirty-five dollar Omega is $26.50, the hundred-dollar Solid Gold Walthams are now $68.50 and the finest Lord Elgin in solid white gold case is marked $120 instead of one hundred and fifty dollars.

Right nearby are Poker Sets, Cigar and Cigarette Humidors—Cigarette Cases and a long list of giftable things for men. Not forgetting the Flasks!

Diamond Scarf Pins—Here's a sixty-dollar one set with Diamond in White Gold for $39.50. Another which is a surprise at $25 is reduced to $17.50. A third which was $75 is now marked $57.50. The one here marked $125 with a very impressive Diamond is now $68.50. And a combination of Black Onyx, White Gold and a small Diamond can be bought for $14.50.

Cuff Links are here aplenty. White Gold ones sell best of all. This is because they have all the beauty of Platinum without the terrific cost. Sixteen-dollar Cuff Links are now $11.85. The twenty-five dollar ones with small Diamonds are $19.50. The eight-dollar ones are $6.

Men's Pocket Knives are also reduced. White Gold, Gold-Filled, Yellow Gold and Sterling handles are all included in the Sale. The cheapest is $1.85, which is as low priced as it is safe to go. And really fine ones with dependable steel blades are offered at $3 and $4 apiece.

Come we now to the corner devoted to Clocks. Row upon row of Mantel Clocks and nobody has to pay full price for any! The most famous Clock makers in the world are represented and every clock is guaranteed.

The Mantel Clocks which strike the hours on a soft-toned gong are marked $9.85 and $14.85 instead of twelve and twenty dollars. The famous Waltham Clocks are offered at $19.50 instead of $25. A long mirror in a gold frame has a Waltham Clock at the top—it is $37.50. A Normandie Chime Clock is marked from $25 to $16.85. A Westminster Chime Clock can be bought for $44.50 instead of $60, and all the Traveling Clocks are reduced about a third. There are two very magnificent Hall Clocks in the sale. The larger one is $585 instead of $850 and the smaller and less elaborate one is $275 instead of $375. Both have the famous Westminster chimes and run for eight days. But alas, there are only two!

Here is a case filled with Mesh Bags and Cigarette and Vanity Cases. The $50 Mesh Bags are $37.50. The Sterling Mesh Bags are $28.50 instead of $37.50, and $40 ones can be had for $29.50. Cigarette Cases are priced in the same decisive manner—$22.50 ones of Sterling Silver are now $16.50 and the $40 ones are $32.50.

Ladies' Pocket Books and Purses of high degree occupy a show case of their own. They are very exclusive—very practical—and all are reduced. For example—you can buy $7.50 Silk Purses for $5.75, thirteen dollar ones for $9.85. Bags of Panne Velvet that look costly are really not expensive at all—they are marked $5.25. And those ornamented with cut steel beads are marked $9 instead of $12. The finest with frames and corners of solid gold are also reduced in like fashion.

Diamond Set Bracelet Watches are to be had for less than is ever likely to happen again. And they are princely gifts—as anybody will acknowledge! Here's one with twenty-four diamonds—it was marked originally $275—the sale price is $215. Another which is valued at $200 is now offered at $135. A small Octagonal Bracelet Watch in Yellow Gold set with Sapphires is offered at an even hundred dollars. It was $150. And there are many others equally attractive both in price and in the exquisite beauty of their design and workmanship. But this space is needed to tell of—

Ladies White Gold Watches—14K— with fine 15-jeweled movements that are offered at $18.50 for the $25 ones and $24.50 for the $35 ones. All are set on black ribbon bracelets.

But the foregoing will be enough to indicate that there are gifts for everybody in the Friedlander Sale. Even if you "don't know what to give," feel free to come and see the show and the sale. Nobody will tease you to buy anything. And come as early in the day and as early in the week as you can. It makes it easier and better for everybody. Think of the men on the delivery wagons—they're entitled to a little "Merry Christmas," too.

This is in all probability the last Christmas advertisement we shall print this year. We shall have all the business we can well attend to for the next six days—indeed, we are usually "swamped" in the afternoons, even this early—this is written on Friday morning. Not even the snow-storm has lessened the volume of dollars—though not as many people have been in the store. Still business is nearly 25 per cent ahead of the same period a year ago. Which speaks volumes for the values in the sale—for the prosperity of the city—and, incidentally, is highly complimentary to the F. Friedlander Company.

But it is time to end this advertisement, and we'll end it as we started—with the same lines from Tennyson: "If you're waking, call me early; call me early, mother dear" (and, with apologies to the poet—"For we have much to do, mother, and Christmas day is near!")
