Miss Irene Sullivan left Thursday for Denver, Colo., to spend several weeks as the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. C. Walsh.

The Misses Jean Pulliam and Phyllis Morelock are spending a few days in Astoria visiting friends.

One of the most enjoyable events of the week was the annual Oregon Agricultural college dance, given at the Multnomah hotel Wednesday night, when students, alumni, faculty and friends of the college united in giving to the high school seniors of Portland an evening of music and dancing.

The Seven Sereaders, an orchestra of Cornell students, produced some special features on the occasion and proved an unending source of interest and delight to the party of young folk who thronged the assembly ballroom.

Miss Josephine Goldstau of Portland, a student at the college, danced "The Dance of the Crystal Gazer" as a feature of the evening.

The greater committee of students, represented by Ralph Westering of Portland and Wayne K. Davis of Pomeroy, Wash., together with Claude Palmer and Henry Holmstrom of Portland, acting for the Portland college, were directly in charge of the arrangements for the evening's programme, which is reported to have been one of the most successful entertainments of the holiday season.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hart left Thursday for British Columbia.

Miss Catherine Caldwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Caldwell, was hostess at a bridge at her home in Irvington. The house was attractive with its yuletide decorations. Miss Virginia Leiby received the cards. Also present were Mrs. Henry Dickson and Mrs. Edgar E. Piper. A bevy of young girls assisted about the room.

Miss Marguerite Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. C. Thompson, and Myron Page Hoeller, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hoeller of San Francisco, were married December 23 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. William F. Kaiser, Dr. Harold L. Bowman performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few friends. Miss Mary Bullock played the wedding march and Mrs. George Buehler sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Bullock. The bride was attended by Mrs. Christensen, Raymond Hoeller was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Hoeller left December 29 for San Francisco, where they will make their home.

A large dinner party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Squires preceding the New Year's "Story-Book Ball" to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Cicero Hunt Lewis, which begins at midnight. Mr. and Mrs. Squires' guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton F. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Varad D. C. Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Kurt H. Koehler, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. L. MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. Guy W. The home of Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Moore was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening when Miss Myrtle MacLean became the bride of Walter S. Garrett, Jr. Rev. Oswald W. Taylor officiated. Miss Katherine Chapman MacDonald sang "Because." Miss Floy Rossman played the wedding march. The ceremony was performed before an altar of banked holly and Christmas greenery and red roses. Myriads of red candles in silver scences gave a charm to the yuletide setting. The bride was attractive in a gown of ivory-toned Roumanian crepe, her court train of satin was trimmed with touches of rare old lace. Her veil was arranged from a wreath of orange blossoms, and she carried orchids and Ophelia roses.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Earl Zimmerman, wore a stunning French model of tiger lily gold brocade and carried a shower bouquet of orchid sweet peas. Four bridesmaids carried gold shepherd crooks, crowned with red tapers and holly, forming an aisle for the wedding party. They were Miss El Vera Anderson, in pink georgette; Miss Mildred Pegg, in tangerine; Mrs. Arthur Eudeen, in apricot, and Mrs. Edgar Garbar, in blue. Wilson E. Schiffer was the best man. The ushers were Clarke Webster, Edgar Garbarde, Earl Zimmerman, Lanou Matta, Frank Streibig and Dr. Arthur Rossman.

A reception followed the ceremony. The dining room was decorated with Christmas holly and poinsettia. Presiding in the dining room were Mesdames M. L. Kline, E. E. Larrimore, D. M. Slocum and J. C. Boyer.

A holiday dinner and dance was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kelly of Laurelhurst. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. George Forrester Alexander, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Conover, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Duffy, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Mellish, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Poorman, Mr. and Mrs. David Sutar, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph A. Watson and the host and hostess.

After passing the summer in New York, Mrs. Goodman Bettman returned home the early part of last week and is domiciled at the Nortonia hotel.

Laurelhurst club's Women's Progressive unit will meet for luncheon at 1 o'clock Tuesday at the clubhouse.

Coming as a surprise to their friends was the wedding Christmas day of Beatrice Gaylord and Emerson P. Merrick, at the home of the bride's father, A. H. Gaylord, in Tillamook, Or.

The bride wore a gown of georgette and canton crepe and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. R. G.
