Mrs. C. G. Knight of Oakland Visiting Here.

Mrs. I. A. Cremer (Mrs. Piccioni) a Recent Bride.

Miss Lynn Zimmerman, Jr. Who Entertained With A Birthday.

Quikenden of Portland. Mr. Quickenden attended the bridegroom. Preceding the ceremony Miss Nell Gaybird sang "Because." A reception followed for the family and guests, a few friends of the bride. The wedding was the culmination of a college romance, both having attended the University of Oregon, where Mrs. Merrick was a member of the Pi Beta Phi.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Weaver (Helen Miller) will keep open house for their friends. New Year's afternoon from 2 to 5 at their new home, 212 East Forty-third street North.

Miss Frances Cummins entertained at a smart luncheon Friday morning at her college and high school friends. The guests included the Misses Letitia M. Capell, Margaret Stahl, Vera Carey, Kathleen Pumphrey, May Arlin Barr, Gladys Waldede, Dorothy Andrews, Grace Auchinclole, and Mrs. S. Benson.

Miss Rosamond Hart of Portland was hostess to a number of her girl friends at a party given Saturday night in Anna Mann Cottage at Reed college. The girls repaired to Anna Mann cottage following a dancing party and had breakfast there Saturday morning. Miss Hart is a student at Reed.

In addition to the hostesses those present were Miss Harriet Adams, Miss Mary Anne Bishop, Miss Ruth Cochran, Miss Constance Hall, Miss Virginia Hall, Miss Carolyn Jones, Miss Hannah Lewis, Miss Betty Lively, Miss Frances Morgan, Miss Lillian Covey, Miss Hazelmary Price, Miss Mary Carter and Miss Lucille Umbdenstock.

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Moreland have rented their home in Alameda Park to E. K. Stanton, auditor of the Willamette Paper company, and recently of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Moreland and son Jack Gadsby are living temporarily in the Irvington Apartments.

Among the holiday events of the past week was the Christmas banquet party of the Eastmoreland Community club, held Wednesday night in the Reed college commons. One hundred and fifty members of the club, whose membership extends to all residents of Eastmoreland, were present and devoted the annual Yuletide gathering to a brief business session, a very enjoyable programme and dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Euwer were present and gave readings for the entertainment of the guests. Mrs. Euwer, who was introduced by Mrs. Lawrence Phillips, president of the club, gave Booth Tarkington's "Mr. Antonio." Mr. Euwer, who was introduced by Norman F. Coleman, gave readings of his own humorous selections. Steps were taken in the business meeting toward the formation of a permanent Eastmoreland club, and in science at Washington high school. The party was sponsored by Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Knowlton and Mrs. W. H. Hallam.

A complete surprise to the many friends of the young couple was the announcement of the wedding of Miss Evelyn Victoria Capell to Maurice W. Howard at an informal tea given Friday afternoon at the home of the bride, 875 East Twenty-third street North.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard were quietly married in Portland April 22 and have kept their secret until now, while the bridegroom, who was graduated in June from Reed college, has been teaching high school in Choteau, Mont., and the bride, at present a senior at Reed, has continued her studies.

Mrs. Howard will accompany her husband to Choteau when he returns after the holidays and both plan to attend Columbia university next year, where she will complete her college course and he will do graduate work.

About 40 Reed college girls, friends of the bride and members of the Reed faculty, attended the tea. Mrs. Harry G. Capell and Mrs. George C. Howard poured. Assisting the hostesses were Miss May Bergquist, Miss Madeline Reinhardt, Miss Frances Cummins and Miss Letitia Capell.

Mr. Howard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Howard of Portland, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Capell.

The marriage of Kathryn Ball, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon F. Ball, to George Metzger, which took place Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents on East Seventy-fourth street, was attended by approximately 60 relatives and friends.

Rev. Griffiths of the First Christian church performed the ceremony, while Miss Helen Franpton acted as maid of honor to the bride and

Miss Aleda May Ten Haaf entertained with a delightful dancing party last Friday evening at her home, 335 East Twenty-fourth street North. Among the invited guests were: The Misses Dorothea Wolfkin, Helen Ross, Florence Hansen, Katherine Viggers and Margret. Mills; Messrs. David Robbins, Carl Pheterplace, Henri Freeburg, Paul Treadwell, Porter Rugg and Donald Nelson.

Miss Thelma Reed, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reed, was married to Mr. Paul G. Davies, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Davies, at Westminster church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock. Dr. E. H. Pence read the marriage service.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Marie Lessing sang "The Sweetest Story Ever Told" and "Love's Coronation." Mr. J. Hutchison played the wedding march.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white velvet, made with panel train and trimmed with pearls. Her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses, orchids and lilies of the valley.

Her attendants were: Mrs. Robert B. Sprague, Miss Marjory Reed, a sister of the bride, and Miss Marguerite Burrill. John Porter was ring-bearer. Barbara Lively, Katherine Zimmerman and Thora Ann Reed were flower girls.

D. Lloyd Davies, brother of the groom, acted as best man. The ushers were Malcom K. Reed of Seattle; Fred C. Reed, Dr. Lloyd B. Davies, Robert B. Sprague and Robert E. Dunaway.

After the marriage ceremony a large reception was held in the church parlors. In the receiving line, besides the bridal party, were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Reed and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Davies.

Mrs. Metzger was a former student at the University of Oregon, while Mr. Metzger attended the Oregon Agricultural college. Mr. Metzger is now connected with the Telephone & Telegraph company at Myrtle Creek, Or.

The Alberta Forward club held its quarterly birthday dinner last Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Clark, 938 East Seventeenth street. Eighteen members answered roll call with quotations from old autograph albums.

On account of the holidays no regular programme was prepared. Christmas greetings and gifts were exchanged and a popularity contest was held. The next meeting will be called January 11 at the home of Mrs. Fishburn, 1115 East Eighteenth street North.

Miss Aleda May Ten Haaf entertained with a delightful dancing party last Friday evening at her home, 335 East Twenty-fourth street North. Among the invited guests were: The Misses Dorothea Wolfkin, Helen Ross, Florence Hansen, Katherine Viggers and Marg-

Assisting in the dining room were the Misses Gertrude Acheson, Mary Cook and Maud Daggett.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ella C. McCoy and the late W. H. McCoy and a member of pioneer families.

Mr. Guy is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Guy and is connected with the Oregon Journal.

After a trip to British Columbia and sound points Mr. and Mrs. Guy will be at home at Aloha.

Mrs. A. Kartlin has announced the engagement of her daughter Mary to Benjamin Abrams of this city.

The Rose City Park community church has been the center of very extensive Christmas activities. On Tuesday afternoon the officers and teachers of the beginners' department entertained the mothers and children. Exercises were given by the children, after which refreshments were served and each child received a treat.

On Friday evening there was a general programme in charge of Mrs. W. W. Wilkinson, assisted by Mrs. John Lewis, Mrs. R. M. Feenster, Mrs. J. M. Reid, Dr. J. McMichael and Rex L. Morse. All departments of the Sunday school were represented. There were a number of exercises and songs given by the younger children of the school. Mrs. O. M. Washburn gave several readings and Mrs. M. Berge sang a solo. One of the interesting features of the evening was an occasional telegram from Santa Claus who finally, after a strenuous trip, arrived in an airplane. At the close of the entertainment the children all received their usual Christmas treat. On Christmas eve the choir rendered a cantata entitled "The Manger Throne," by Manny. The church was profusely decorated in evergreens and poinsettias, while two trees adorned the platform.

Among the many family dinners Christmas day was that at the O. W. Newlin home. All members of Mrs. Newlin's immediate family were present, including her mother, Mrs. M. M. Tucker; brother, William S. Tucker, and son, Cline M. Sals.
