

News of World AS SEEN BY CAMERA

New Japanese Envoy

VICE-FOREIGN MINISTER HANIHARA is to succeed Ambassador Shidehara, long on sick leave, as Japanese ambassador to the United States.

Still deaf, and mute until 12 years old, Helen Heckman, "the wonder girl of Oklahoma," has been taught by her stepmother, Mrs. V. Janet Heckman, to talk and sing. In addition to her other accomplishments, Helen last year won the prize in a beauty contest conducted by a magazine, being selected out of 3000 contestants for her perfection of face and figure.

It is estimated that during the war some ten million soldiers—British, Canadian, Anzacs and Americans—marched across the site of the war memorial at Folkestone, Kent, England, which was recently unveiled.

The new Shrine of the Sacred Heart on Sixteenth street, Washington, D. C., which was recently dedicated, is declared to be the most beautiful Catholic church in the country. It cost more than $1,000,000 and seats 2500 people.

Major Charles J. Glidden, F. R. G. S., and Mrs. Glidden have motored twice around the world, visiting 39 countries and traveling over 100,000 miles. Their tour lasted eight years. Major and Mrs. Glidden have traveled together during their lifetime—by rail, steamship and automobile.

J. T. Brown, who has accumulated 31 notches on his gun during 31 years' service as a peace officer, will help maintain order at the inauguration of Oklahoma's new governor in Oklahoma City on January 8.

Attorney-General Daugherty and Chief Justice Taft are shown leaving the White House after conferring with the president on impeachment charges against the attorney-general.

P-A Photo

Mute Girl Taught To Talk And Sing

Underwood & Underwood N.Y.

Underwood & Underwood N.Y. $1,000,000 Catholic Shrine Dedicated

"On The Road To The War"

Waggoner, Champion, Tourists And Notarists

Underwood & Underwood N.Y.

For 30 Years An Officer Of The Law

P-A Photo

Discuss Impeachment Charges