

THE ARGUS

THURSDAY, OCT. 3, 1895.

The hunting season is about over, although the chins are yet quite numerous. In localities where they are not much hunted, the birds are quite tame, sitting on fences skirting the highway.

Go to H. Wehrung & Sons and price their goods before buying elsewhere.

The Independent is authority that L. E. Wilkes, county surveyor, is completing a type-written record of work on large bound volumes. The Argus wishes L. E. success.

Schulmerich & Son carry a better and cheaper line of Ladies' capes and cloaks than you can get elsewhere.

H. V. Gates returned the first of the week from an extended trip to points in Washington state.

For a neatly conducted farm there is none better than that owned by T. G. Todd, whose place is just above Forest Grove, on Gales Creek.

H. Wehrung & Sons have some choice Oregon timothy seed for sale.

Hon. C. P. Yates was in the city Monday and went on to Salem in business and to take a glimpse at the state fair. Thursday he will return and be present at the meeting of the executive committee of the Washington county Veteran Association.

Go to the Bazaar for school supplies.

Twenty years ago Tuesday morning Miss Mary A. Brown took charge of the Hillsboro post office. The building now occupied by F. H. Heide's bakery was then used as the office. Twenty years of government service is a record few people can show.

Caples & Thomas buy a heap, sell cheap and keep forever at it.

The foliage of the trees around the court yard is turning rapidly, and soon the trees will be left bare of their summer garb.

If you want school shoes that will wear well, get them at Schulmerich & Son's.

Several carloads of hardwood are being shipped from the Thos. Connel farm to Portland.

J. C. Hare made a business visit to Columbia river points last week.

Even Change tobacco 15 cents at Haines & Baileys.

The weather for the past week has simply been delightful. No more in the world equals Oregon—whether it rains or shines.

William Mawhor left Tuesday afternoon for Kansas to permanently reside. Mr. Mawhor has been a resident of Hillsboro for several months. His daughters will regret.

Remember the Bazaar has a complete line of school supplies.

Gobbie, Rocco and Ferrara are three names which appear in the papers of a civil suit recently brought before Justice Knight. The first two named are complainant and surety and the latter an attorney, all Italians.

Highest prices paid for produce in exchange for goods at Schulmerich & Son. Get their prices on sheet.

E. J. Bryan has taken a position in the Bryan Laidlaw store.

The work on the motor extension is progressing, and before many weeks the temporary terminal will be at Cedar Mill.

Just received, fresh from the factory, the finest line of umbrellas ever shipped to this market. If it was come in; if it didn't come anyway. Our prices will surprise you. Bryan Laidlaw Co.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Sammons, of Cedar Mill, celebrated the tenth anniversary of their wedding last Saturday evening. A large number of friends were present.

It is now known that Adam left the garden of Eden in order to buy a pocket knife at the Pharmacy.

John W. Gwilt, a prominent young attorney with offices in the Washington building, Portland, was in the city Monday morning in the interests of a client. He was accompanied by his mother, the driving out in a carriage.

Money to loan in sums to suit. Mortgages and notes bought and sold. Room 13, Morgan Block.

Wm. Pointer is over on Wilson river working with John Heister, building bridges.

—H. Wehrung & Sons are talking of remodeling the upper story over the Archbold store for a lodge room. A fine hall could be fitted up and doubtless it would readily find occupancy.

—W. T. Lyon, of Forest Grove, will soon move to Hillsboro to engage in dental surgery in the office recently vacated by Dr. Adkins, who has moved to Corvallis to operate in that city.

—Did you have cold wet feet last winter? Yes! Well get a pair of Schulmerich & Son's water-proof shoes and you'll have no trouble this year.

—H. Wehrung & Sons' stock of boots and shoes can not be beaten in this county for price and quality.

—W. S. Phelps, now manager of the Pacific Sewing Machine Co., of Portland, was in the city last week doing business and incidentally calling on friends.

—Robert Imbrie, Sr., was much improved in health at last reports.

—For every $1.00 cash purchase of school supplies at The Delta drug store you will receive one sheet of popular music, selected from a large assortment.

—Jas. Whitley was in the city from Glencoe Monday and reports getting fair prices at his auction sale Saturday last. Mr. Whitley will soon leave for Ontario, Canada.

—You can learn of a bargain in real estate by inquiring at this office. One of the best farms in the county will be sold at a sacrifice.

—Gales Creek road district has a fine road from Forest Grove to Gales City. It is said that Heister gives such good satisfaction as supervisor that his district was extended to within a short distance from Forest Grove.

—Remember you can buy your school supplies cheap at the Hillsboro Bazaar.

—While in the city call on Dr. Brown, and have your teeth examined and try a box of his tooth powder.

—Rubbers in all styles of toes at Gregg's Shoe Store, Forest Grove.

BIG DAY AT THE GROVE

A Lively Runaway on the Main Street of This City.

THE BOYS TELL A QUEER STORY
Young Men Taken to Yamhill County Took Chickens in a Spirit of Fun and are Now Serving Time—Two Cornelius Young People Wed.

Dedication of Marsh Hall.

The dedication of Marsh Hall, Tualatin Academy and Pacific University, Friday last, was a very pleasant affair. The exercises were marked by a large attendance, many old time graduates being present. Addresses were made by Hon. H. W. Scott, of the Oregonian, and Hon. T. H. Tongue of this city. A large number were present from all over the valley, notable among whom were: Portland, Rev. Geo. Wallace, H. W. Scott, Rev. C. H. Curtis, Mrs. Harvey, and Messrs. Whalley, Caples, McCoy, Davis and Marsh, who rank amongst the best legal talent of the Metropolis. Hillsboro; Hon. T. H. Tongue and Rev. Dick. The Dulles and Oregon City were also represented as were all the prominent towns on the West Side.

A Runaway on Main Street.

Monday afternoon, while John Peters, of the Connell farm, was unloading wood at the depot, the falling of part of the load frightened the team, and it indulged in an exciting runaway. They came up 2nd street at a lively gait and turning the corner at Schulmerich's store, the front trucks struck the electric light pole with terrific force. The traces broke, freeing the animals, and they continued on for a short distance before stopping. Some damage was done to the trucks and the large are-light, which was held in place by a pulley attached to the pole, fell to the street smashing it badly. The horses were not hurt in the least.

Prime Hunters.

When it comes to Nimrocks, Hillsboro is not far behind its neighbors. Wm. Hay, who lives below Newton, and Mr. Clark, of Clark & Wilks, Cornelius, recently returned from a trip to the Tillamook and Nehalem countries. They were very successful in their quest of game and fish, bringing back 9 deer, 2 elk, and a barrel of salmon trout. They were out over a fortnight.

A Questionable Story.

Every reporter occasionally runs up against some pretty good stories and discretion sometimes causes the authorities to be withheld in narration. Here is one related by a member of a party which recently went over Tillamook way on a fishing trip. "Just as we were coming down a hill this side of Tillamook, we met a farmer with a load of hay. He was walking and his son was driving the team. He stopped to let us by and his team balked, refusing to start the load. Every possible effort to start them being without success we watched his next effort. Presently he gathered some fagots, and built a fire under his horses' heels. As the fuel burned slowly, he stepped away to replenish the smudge, when suddenly the team started, going about four feet, and again halting. About this time the flames shot upward igniting the entire load. The boy descended from his perch, and the old man cut the horses' traces, freeing them, and stood there, watching hay and wagon go up in smoke." As the party telling this never tells a fish story, our reporter is prone to believe it, but for the present the author's name will be nil—anyway until the Tillamook papers are given a chance.

Arrested for Pilfering.

Saturday last Constable Annans, accompanied by a constable from North Yamhill, went out to Laurel neighborhood and brought in a Mr. Moore, a young fellow in the neighborhood of 20 years of age, charged with petty larceny in Yamhill county. The officer also took back with him, in company with Moore, Ed Beauman, on the same charge. Another officer captured two of the same party, who were bound for the Tillamook country. The quartette have been picking hops up in the Yamhill yards, and the officers say they have a sure case against them. As all are young men who have hitherto borne good reputations it is to be hoped they will prove themselves innocent of the charges preferred against them.

A Quiet Wedding.

Sunday, Sept. 27, the residence of J. W. Marsh, of Cornelius, was the scene of a very pretty wedding. The high contracting parties were L. G. Weidewitsch and Miss Bertha Marsh, two of Cornelius' popular young people. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. S. Wigstead, of the M. E. Church. The groom is a popular merchant in Cornelius and the bride was married in the house in which she first saw the light of the world. The happy couple will reside in that city.

Attention Comrades!

The G. A. R. post will be organized on Saturday, the 5th of October, 2 p. m., at the Grange Hall, Hillsboro, Oregon. Please "fall in" promptly.

By order of the Committee.
RUDOLPH CRANDALL,
Chairman.

JAMES McCULLOCH, Secy.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—Joe Schulmerich and the party under his captaincy, have returned from Tillamook with a plentitude of fish—stories.

—N. A. Barrett is now duly installed as janitor at the court house.

—Caples & Thomas buy a heap, sell cheap and keep forever at it.

—Assessor Wilcox has completed his assessment labors and the rolls are now in the hands of the county clerk for extension. The rolls will now be transcribed and copy sent to the secretary of state, for state equalization. Mr. Wilcox is now preparing the military list of the county for filing.

—Harry Watkins is raising this year, and says that he raised over 40 bushels to the acre, which is better than his neighbors did, then adds that he is a "theory farmer," also that he did not allow the harvester or threshing machine to run on Sunday at his place.—Reporter.

—John Kamna, of Farmington, was in the city last week and took home with him a flexible disc, and a drag harrow from Bisaulon's establishment.

—The board of equalization has concluded its labors and the changes made are trifling. Considerable more assessment was added to the list. Taken altogether there was very little complaint, everybody seeming to think the assessor's work very equitable.

—H. Wehrung & Sons have some bargains for you. Call at their place of business and see for yourself.

—E. G. White, aged 32, and Antje Pyl, 21, both Hillsboro people, have taken out license to wed.

—The county will soon record over 80 pieces of realty in its name, in consideration of the delinquent tax cases.

—A merry picnic party was that which went to Kenton, yesterday. Those participating were R. E. Bryan and family, Mrs. W. E. Brock, Mrs. J. J. Morgan, the Misses Warren, the Misses Tongue, Miss Merryman and L. K. Adams.

—Hair cutting, 25 cents; Shaving 10 cents, at the City Shaving Parlor. Open from 7:30 a. m. to 8:00 p. m. Hot or cold baths—Phillips and Colestock, Main street, opposite Tualatin Hotel.

—Daniel Baker, one of Green-ville's substantial democrats, was in the city Tuesday, accompanied by his son.

—For Timothy and clover seed, see J. W. Goodin, of Glencoe.

—Miss Emma Everitt returned to Portland Monday evening after several weeks stay in this city.

—The Wood hop yard below the city harvested about 30,000 pounds this season. No further sales are reported in this section.

—Tuesday of this week John E. Beam received a telegram conveying to him the sad intelligence that on Monday, Sept. 30, their only child, a bright boy baby, about seventeen months old, had died of intermittent fever. Mrs. Beam left here some weeks ago to be present at the bedside of a sick relative.

—Quite a number of townspeople have recently visited Linnton where hundreds of horses are weekly being slaughtered. The boys report it a very interesting sight. Among those who were visitors last week were: E. J. Lyons, W. V. Wiley, Jno. Dobbins and J. H. Freeman.

—John Dobbins has taken personal charge of his ranch and is already commencing to read the market reports. It is stated that he took Dr. Freeman out to the place the other day, to help him superintend the hired man.

—Latest reports from Robt. Imbrie Sr. give the information that he asserts that he is well and that he is coming into town Saturday if the weather is fair.

—T. H. Tongue has rented one of his farms near this city to G. W. Duncan of Patton valley.

—Deputy Sheriff Bradford made a flying trip to McMinnville Tuesday evening to ascertain whether or not two men, who were being held there for identification, were wanted by the sheriavalty of Washington county. They were not wanted, and so allowed to go on their way rejoicing.

—Look at the Coast Carriage & Wagon Co.'s ad in another column.

—A Juvenile Good Templars lodge will be instituted at Forest Grove this week.

—A very pleasant pound social was held Tuesday evening at the residence of H. L. Pratt, of the Evangelical church.

Special sale in Ladies' fine dong, button, in square or picadilly toe, only $1.75, former price $2.25, at Gregg's Shoe Store, Forest Grove.

—Mr. Martin, representing the Home Mutual Fire Insurance Co. was in the city this week, doing business.

—John Armstrong, a prominent Forest Grove citizen, was in the city yesterday.

—E. L. McCormick, our genial county recorder, spent Sunday in Portland.

—If you want the news, step up and subscribe for this paper. It will be one dollar well spent.

—A newspaper published 60 miles below Lake Ontario, on the line between the United States and Canada, issued Wednesday, reached Hillsboro Monday morning. The paper was addressed to R. B. Goodin, and it would appear that the transit was swift enough, and beats the Cornelius publication published on the same day.

—The post office store keeps constantly on sale a line of standard periodicals, magazines and monthlies. Anything not on sale will be ordered for you. Inquire of J. M. Brown.

—L. W. House has a county right for a patent gate which is attracting much attention. The gate is now properly equipped and stands in the yard back of his carpenter shop. Go and look at it.

—Dr. J. P. Tamesie and wife returned yesterday morning from a trip to Portland.

—Cecil Humphreys, of this city, is attending the Grove University.

—Subscribe for THE ARGUS and get the news.

—Jas. Tuttle, who worked in the Down's smithy several years ago, is again at his old post.

—Warren Williams, of the City Bakery, did business at Portland Tuesday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McCourt are now the proud parents of a baby girl. So says the Telephone Register.

—George W. Patterson and wife, John Dennis and Hon. T. H. Tongue were passengers to Portland on Wednesday's morning local.

—Novelties in Table Linens, a large assortment of table linens, table material just received at the Pharmacy.

—O. R. Spence, of the City Grocery shop in this city, has just received a new lot of Koch's butcher soap.

—Chas. Cave has just returned from a several weeks' stay in the Dilley country, where he has been engaged in harvesting, fishing, hop picking, etc.

—A considerable number of homesteaders will probably find their places in the near future.

—A. K. Milner and wife, who have been attending the conference at Portland, from the city of Corvallis, were in the city the first of the week the guests of Mr. and Mrs. R. Waggener, of the Hotel Tualatin. Mr. Milner is agent for the S. P. at Corvallis, and at one time held a like position at Cornelius.

—New evidence in the Durant case is found every day, but the Pharmacy remains in the lead with an immense line of fine stationery, tablets, etc.

—Mrs. S. C. Kennel and two children have been spending several days in the city, the guest of her sister, Miss Buck, of the county clerk's office. Mr. Kennel is one of the wellknown commercial traveling men of the northwest.

—J. J. Northrop went to Salem Sunday to bring back the colt, which he bought at Tongue's sale of speedy stock last spring. The animal has been in charge of Chas. Hawk, and upon receiving the news that Mr. Hawk was mentally a trifle unbalanced, John concluded he would go and bring his equine home.

—H. Wehrung & Sons' prices on clothing and dry goods are O. K. No trouble to show goods.

—The young fellows who recently were taken to North Yamhill on a charge of petty larceny were convicted and are serving time in the Yamhill county jail. Twelve and one-half days apiece will they lodge at county expense, in default of $25 fine.

—Those from this city attendant at the state fair are: Messrs and Mesdames W. H. Wehrung, McNally and G. W. Patterson.

—For sale—A full-blooded Holstein bull, 3 years old. Inquire of or address Dan'l Baker, Greenville, Oregon.

—A German, who lives south of town, had the misfortune to have a horse run away the other evening when the down train came along. The horse was standing by the depot, and the engine not being particularly to his liking the animal took French leave, running clear across the Jackson bottom before stopping.

—H. H. Fenton spent the latter part of the week at Forest Grove. Capt. Collins is also a temporary resident of the college city, he being the millwright who has charge of placing the machinery in the new flour mill. This mill has four new roller machines, and will be finely equipped all round when ready for operation.

—Mrs. J. C. Hare, of this city, attended the Congressional Association at Oregon City last week, and was elected Recording Secretary.
