

THE ARGUS

THURSDAY, OCT. 10, 1895.

—L. P. W. Quimby was a passenger on Monday evening's train to Portland.

—Genial I. W. Patterson, of the Times force, Forest Grove, spent Friday afternoon in the city. Mr. Patterson speaks in high praise of our little city. Of course he will call again.

—H. Wehrung & Sons have some bargains for you. Call at their place of business and see for yourself.

—About 30 members of Rebecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Forest Grove, came down Saturday evening last and affiliated with the Hillsboro Lodge. A royal good time was had. Lunch was served, addresses made, and it was a late hour when adjournment took place.

—Go to H. Wehrung & Sons and price their goods before buying elsewhere.

—Ben. C. Irwin, who recently died in Idaho, and was buried Tuesday in Portland, was well known here. Mr. Irwin was a young man and made many friends in the Northwest.

—Schulmerich & Son have got a nice line of clothing which they can sell for very low prices.

—A. K. Watson, of Mountaineers, and John W. Jackson, of Glencoe, were in the city Monday, and in company with Herman Schulmerich, left on the evening train for Salem. George Schulmerich left Tuesday morning for the capital city, going overland. His wife accompanied him. These gentlemen will have seats in the K. of P. grand lodge.

—H. Wehrung & Sons have some choice Oregon timothy seed for sale.

—Wm. Connell is getting along nicely with his new residence. A few days more and all will be enclosed.

—H. F. Behrens is again in the city after several weeks of absence.

—Caples & Thomas buy a heap, sell cheap and keep forever at it.

—Publisher Craig is after publisher Marsh with his "little Hatchet," and evidently from his tone believes forbearance has ceased to be a virtue.

—The potato crop in this county is not so good as usual, owing to the scarcity of rains at the proper time.

—If you want school shoes that will wear well, get them at Schulmerich & Son's.

—One of these days Forest Grove will have a fine drive of six or seven miles, starting from the city, going up Gales Creek to the Watts school house, thence down the right bank of Gales Creek, via Groveland farm, and the Stewart place, back to Forest Grove. Part of the road is already in good condition for annual travel, and some time the circuit will be macadamized.

—Even-Change tobacco 15 cents at Haines & Bailey's.

—E. D. Curtis, well known in this county, is now principal of the Cornelius schools.

—John Cornelius, of Cornelius, was in town the last of the week.

—Sheriff Ford has recently executed 75 deeds, titles on lands that are for which were delinquent in 1892.

—Secure your rubber goods while they are unbroken. Fine line of autos for ladies and gentlemen at Bryan Laidlaw Co. Cash.

—Mrs. H. Unterhahner visited and Sunday, returning the first week.

—The hop product is not moving well, and prices on wheat remain the same.

—Men in Forest Grove go to Caples & Thomas Large Double for bargains in Dry Groceries, Boots, Shoes, and Tinware. They buy sell cheap and keep forever.

—A large number of Washington Knights of Pythias are en route at the Grand Lodge now holding at Salem.

—Whitley, of Glencoe, went to Yamette valley the first of the week on a prospecting tour.

—And Mrs. R. H. Greer went Monday morning, R. H. lodge officer, K. of P., doubtless go up a step.

—Gates has returned to Falls to look after his inheritance.

—Haines & Bailey sell: 100 lbs. rice, $1.00; 100 lbs. American Granulated, 1.00; 100 lbs. best flour, .60; "Even Change" to .15; and Lion Coffee 2 .45.

—Mr. Spear Head and other goods as low as the you pay more? If so, call at Haines & Bailey's.

—City prices go to shoe store, Forest Grove.

W. W. Annans Chaplain
Chas. Bowen Officer of the Day
E. G. Tate Officer of the Guard

Appointed officers were:
Rudolph Crandall Adjutant
J. P. Hicks Sgt Major
A. W. Barber Q M Sergt

The officers elected and appointed were then duly installed into their respective offices by department commander E. W. Allen, who then surrendered the gavel to J. D. Meryman, Post commander.

On motion it was voted that the name of the post shall be Gen. Ransom Post No. 69, and that the next meeting should be held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday the 19th of October, to fix the time of meeting, etc. It was also voted that the fee for joining this post until January 1, 1896, shall be 50 cents. Closed in due form.

RUDOLPH CRANDALL, Adj. Gen. Ransom Post, No. 69, G. A. R., Dept. of Oregon.

Sued for Breach of Promise.

Miss Mary M. Halter, of Tigardville, has commenced action in the circuit court against John H. Brook, for breach of promise to marry. Plaintiff asks for the damages sustained by virtue of the cloud cast upon her character, the sum of $10,000. The complaint and summons are very brief. W. J. Rice is attorney for plaintiff. Defendant has no real property of record in this county, and it is said he is somewhat indifferent as to the proceeding. Service of the summons was had upon him Tuesday of this week and he will now have to show cause why he broke the promise, thereby destroying her happiness.

A Good Company.

Carlton's Company of Players will be at the Hillsboro Opera House for three nights, commencing Monday, Oct. 14th. This company will present a play not yet seen in this city, entitled, "The Destiny of a Gambler's Wife." Clay M. Green is the Author, and Carlton's people will give the piece a splendid portrayal. Hillsboro people who appreciate high grade drama should go and hear this.

Had Many Friends Here!

The Heppner Gazette has the following relative to Mrs. Katie Kehm Smith, who recently died in Eastern Oregon. Warren Carners, of Wagner, Oregon, is the author:

Died at John Day, Grant county, Oregon, September 18, 1895, of typhoid fever, Mrs. Katie Kehm Smith, in the 27th year of her age.

Mrs. Smith was brought to Wagner, a distance of twenty-five miles for interment, and was buried in the Wagner cemetery by the Wagner Secular Union. The funeral services were conducted by C. N. Wagner and were strictly secular.

Mrs. Smith was born in Warsaw, Illinois, in 1868, and received her education in the public schools. In 1885 at the age of seventeen, she graduated from the Ottumwa, Iowa, high school and immediately began life as a teacher, which she successfully followed in Iowa and Oregon for six years. At sixteen she became a convert to free thought and ever since she has been an outspoken and aggressive worker in the cause.

She was a student, an observer and a thinker. She delivered her first lecture at the age of seventeen. She never neglected an opportunity to expose the myths and evil effects of Christianity.

In 1891 she married Hon. D. W. Smith, of Port Townsend, Washington, but did not sacrifice her identity nor lose her interest in free thought. Her husband encouraged and seconded all her efforts.

Mrs. Smith organized, January 29, 1893, the first secular church in Portland and soon afterward the Portland Secular Sunday School, and has lectured for this church ever since, and was, perhaps, at the time of her death, the youngest liberal lecturer in the field.

Mrs. Smith was quiet in manner and speech, was an orator of the highest order, and will forever live in the minds of those who best knew her.

Valuable Horse Lost.

Mr. Hinchshaw, who is buying oats in this vicinity, had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse one day last week. He and Warren Williams went out to Leisville, and while enroute the animal sickened and died in a few hours. L. P. W. Quimby was owner of the equine, and feels his loss deeply. No blame was attached to anyone. Even horses have to die.

Washington County Public Schools.

The Annual Teachers' Institute will be held in Forest Grove, Oct. 24, 25, and 26, beginning at 10 a. m. Thursday and closing in time to enable those wishing to leave by the evening train. Teachers holding licenses from this county and those teaching in the county who hold State papers, are expected to be present. [See School Laws: p. 23, sec. 23, p. 128.] If unable to be present please send the excuse before Nov. 5.

Any specimens of pupils' work, map and freehand drawing, penmanship, etc., which you may be able to bring with you, will be exhibited at the Institute.

AUSTIN CRAIG, Co. Supt.

A Peculiar Case.

A peculiar case is now under headway before the county court. Some time since, a widow, who was executor of the will of her deceased husband, married before the estate was settled up, and some of the heirs are now trying to have her removed as an officer of the estate. The case will be fully argued next week some time. It appears that a man could marry again, without incurring his rights as administrator of his wife's estate, but counsel for plaintiff contends that the wife abrogates her right if she wed before the estate is closed records.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—The dray team of L. A. Whitcomb indulged in a little chase down Main street Tuesday evening. They were standing at the intersection of Main and 2nd, when one of the animals succeeded in getting hold of one of the lines. This accomplished, the equine drove himself and mate at a record breaking pace toward the Connell farm. Having held of but one line, and there being a limit to the circle, their career soon ended with but slight damage.

—Caples & Thomas buy a heap, sell cheap and keep forever at it.

—Rev. Schofield, of Forest Grove, will preach at the Baptist church in Hillsboro Sunday next at 7:30 p. m.

—Tickets are now on sale at the S. P. station, Portland and return, two tickets of admittance to the exposition included, at the low rate of $1.60. Days of sale, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, until November 4th.

—If you want the news, step up and subscribe for this paper. It will be one dollar well spent.

—S. A. Howell, a prominent Beavertonite, and an old veteran who takes great interest in G. A. R. circles was in the city Saturday last.

—H. Wehrung & Sons' prices on clothing and dry goods are O. K. No trouble to show goods.

—The young men of the public school have organized a foot ball team, and in consequence thereof the barbers of the city are in despair. No hair cuts from that source this winter.

—Subscribe for THE ARGUS and get the news.

—Kester's preserving works sustained a breakdown Saturday last but is again running full blast.

—There will be a pound social at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Annans on Saturday evening for the benefit of Mrs. Hall, whose husband recently departed this life.

—The post office store keeps constantly on sale a line of standard periodicals, magazines and monthlies. Anything not on sale will be ordered for you. Inquire of J. M. Brown.

—Money to loan in sums to suit. Mortgages and notes bought and sold. Room 13, Morgan Block.

—Chas. Hall, administrator of the estate of J. C. Hall, deceased, will make a trip to Tillamook county in the near future in the interest of the estate.

—Attorney Flegel, of Portland, and by the way, a good democrat, was in city Tuesday and Wednesday on legal business connected with the Circuit court.

Special sale in Ladies' fine dong, button, in square or picadilly toe, only $1.75, former price $2.25, at Gregg's Shoe Store, Forest Grove.

—Wm. Robinson, a prominent citizen of Progress, was in the city Saturday. Mr. Robinson is perhaps one of the best known figures in Washington county's political and business life.

—We have sold quite a number of capes and cloaks, but have a few left. Come and get one if you want to purchase any this year, for they are cheaper here than elsewhere. Schulmerich & Son.

—Brown Bros' sawmill, located near Laurel, burned Tuesday night, entailing a total loss. There was no insurance, and the cause of the origin of the flames is unknown.

—One day last week while J. W. Goodin and family were absent to Portland, their new residence at Glencoe took fire. The prompt act of John Dorland, deputy postmaster, who first saw the flames, soon had under control, what might have proven a considerable loss.

—Winter stock of Hamilton-Brown boots and shoes now coming on at Bryan Laidlaw Cash Co. Store. We buy cheap, sell a heap and rest Sundays. See our new Standard patterns and new prices.

—Dr. F. J. Bailey, who has offices in the Marquam building, Portland, was in the city Friday last on business connected with the county court as assignee of an insolvent estate. He returned Saturday.

Buy your apple boxes of R. H. Greer's. Cheap.

—The lodge of the Eastern Star had a very pleasant meeting Tuesday evening. After all business had been transacted a nice little collation was enjoyed.

—The barn of Jno. Witt, of Tualatin, was destroyed by fire one day last week. As John is a rustler he will not remember his loss in a few months.

—Remember the Bazaar has a complete line of school supplies.

—Hillsboro's houses are rapidly being filled up. Several new families from abroad, and a considerable number from the outlying vicinity have taken up their abode here for the winter, to enjoy the advantage of the public school.

—Fred Burgardorfer and George H. Geisel have been admitted to citizenship by the county court.

—Just received, fresh from the factory, the finest line of umbrellas ever shipped to this market. If it rains come in; if it don't come anyway. Our prices will surprise you. Bryan Laidlaw Co.

—Ben E. Jones, who lives near Scholl's, had the misfortune to have his team run away while returning from Portland. He was thrown out, and found unconscious. His left shoulder was dislocated, besides receiving various other bruises about face and body. He was left at the house of Lincoln Landess where he was attended by Dr. Bailey, of this city.

—Look at the Coast Carriage & Wagon Co.'s ad in another column.

—Mr. E. H. Palmer, who has ably represented Palmer & Rey, of Portland, for some 15 years, in the handling of printers' supplies, and publishing of auxiliary prints, has advanced to the management of the Company's business for the entire Pacific Coast, with headquarters at San Francisco. Mr. Palmer is one of Portland's most successful business men and that he will succeed in his new position goes without saying.

—William Schulmerich was in the city from Farmington yesterday, and reports much interest in his section over the debate between the Christian and Methodist ministers, which is now being carried on.

—The Climax Milling Co. is now paying 41 cents for wheat.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brock spent Sunday at Portland, having been in attendance at the Exposition opening.

—O. R. Spencer will give you the best haircut and smoothest shave to be had in the city. Popular prices.

—H. Wehrung & Sons' stock of boots and shoes can not be beaten in this county for price and quality.

—T. J. Reiling, of Verboort, has sold five tons of prunes to the New York market, receiving therefor 5 cents per pound.

—August Tamiesie is again at Brock's drug store after an absence of three weeks at the old home.

—Go to the Bazaar for school supplies.

—Hair cutting, 25 cents; Shaving 10 cents, at the City Shaving Parlors. Open from 7:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m. Hot or cold baths—Phillips and Colestock, Main street, opposite Tualatin Hotel.

—The ladies of the Evangelical church will give an oyster supper at the Grange Hall on Tuesday evening, Oct. 22nd.

—E. J. Lyons and J. H. Freeman did business at Sherwood Tuesday. They report that little city is thriving.

—For timothy and clover seed, see J. W. Goodin, of Glencoe.

—A. W. Lane, the engineer at the City Water Works is building an addition to his residence.

—John C. Kuratli, Bethany's popular blacksmith, and Miss Lizzie Treber of the same place, have taken out license to wed.
