DOMINIES REAPING A BIG HARVEST

Four Weddings Reported and More to be Solemnized—Contracts for Bridges Let.

Three Marriages.

Married, October 10th, at the county court house of county of Washington, in Hillsboro, Oregon, Mr. T. A. Hoodenry and Miss Winnie Matteson, His Honor, Judge Cornelius, officiating. Bride and groom are prominent young people from the Wapato district.

Married, October 11th, at the residence of Rev. John Grat, in Washington county, Oregon, Mr. Christ Younger and Mrs. Susanah Dapp, Rev. Grat officiating.

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Clark, of Forest Grove, was last Sunday, the scene of a very pretty wedding. The high contracting parties were Mr. Chas. O. Roe, one of Forest Grove's bright young business men, and Miss G. Bella Clark, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark, Rev. Chapp, of the Congregational church, officiated. The wedding ceremonies were attended by a large number of friends and relatives. The happy couple have many friends in this county who wish them a long and happy life. They will at once commence housekeeping in the Grove. This wedding is of considerable interest to disciples of Pythianism, as the groom is Chancellor Commander of Delphos Lodge, No. 39, and the happy bride is Most Excellent Chief of Delphi Temple, Rathbone Sisters, both Forest Grove Pythian lodges.

Will be Examined Saturday. Saturday last an officer arrived here with Jack Geddis, who is charged with larceny by bailie, of a horse, saddle and bridle from the Wiley & Dennis stables, of this city. Nearly a month ago young Geddis, who has a claim in Nehalem country, hired the horse to go to his place, stating that he would return in a week's time, or thereabouts. The days slipped by until the week extended into several, when some alarm was manifested as to the gentleman's intent. No trace was had of where Geddis was until Thursday last, when he repaired to St. Helens to marry one of Columbia county's fair daughters, which by the Grace of God and the statute of the grand old state of Oregon, he did. Friday he was arrested, cutting short his honeymoon. His examination will be held Saturday, before Justice Knight, and Mr. Geddis will doubtless go free, as it is stated that he says his horse went lame, so much so that had he attempted to have brought him home, he could not have been present at the stipulated time to have become the husband of the now Mrs. Geddis. The defendant has always borne an excellent reputation for honesty. At one time he worked for Hon. T. H. Tongue of this place.

School Report. Following is the report of the School District, No. 41, for the month beginning September 16th and ending October 11th: Number of days taught, 20; number of days attendance, 671; number of days absence, 52; number of times tardy, 11; number of boys enrolled, 23; number of girls enrolled, 20; total number enrolled, 43; average daily attendance, 33. Those neither tardy nor absent during the month were: Ethel Edgar, Roy Watson, Bertha Bradford, Delbert Fowles, Elsie Willis, Lucia Leighow, Effie and Rosa Adams, Amel and Matilda Luck, Orpha Peters and Ralph Uglov. Following are the visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Willis, and Misses Lucy Miller, Addie Uglov, Mamie Murphy, and Theresa Reiling. G. W. TAMMIESE, Teacher.

A Hillsboro Wedding. Last Sunday, at the residence of Mrs. Julia A. Coleman, Mr. T. M. Kelso and Miss Adelmay Coleman were united in marriage, Rev. W. E. Smith officiating. The wedding was a quiet one, but relatives and a few invited friends being present. The groom is a well-known figure in this section, having resided here for several years, at one time having been employed by J. C. Hare as foreman. He has considerable literary ability, and is the author of an excellent and meritorious poem on the story of Damon and Pythias. The members of Phoenix Lodge K. of P., to which he is an active devotee, congratulate the young people on their new life. The bride is well and favorably known in the county having been reared from early childhood in the vicinity of Hillsboro.

The Carlton Opera Company. Last night the Carlton Company, under the management of Jed Carlton, closed a 3-nights' engagement at the opera house. Monday evening they presented "Destiny," Tuesday evening, "Ole Olson," and last night the opera "Hazel Kirke." That the Carlton company is a good one goes without saying, and all who heard them are loud in their praises. Messrs. Kay and Carlton are both finely adapted to their parts, and in comedy all agree that Mr. Carlton leads all who have visited this section. These gentlemen had good support, and if they come this way again they will be assured of receiving good houses. Stanley J. Ross, Jack Ellis, Leon Henry, and J. W. Peters drew to themselves much admiration while the Misses Florence Earl, Emma Morris and Ada Sherman showed themselves mistresses of the art.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS. S. T. Bowers, Hillsboro's veterinary surgeon, accompanied by Mr. Davis, of Plamoy & Davis, did business in Portland Saturday last.

M. M. Bridges, of the Climax Milling Co., made a business trip to Portland the last of the week accompanied by his wife.
