THE ARGUS

THURSDAY, NOV. 21, 1895.

—The school directors of this city have purchased a modern map of Oregon for the higher departments.

—Circuit Court opens Monday.

—The Bryan-Laidlaw Co. is now agent for the Studebaker wagon Company.

—A civil suit in which J. J. Nothrop was plaintiff, and N. Berdan and wife were defendants was tried before a jury in Knight's court Monday last, Geo. R. Bagley, being attorney for plaintiff and T. H. Tongue, counsel for defense. The jury was retired for 20 minutes when they brought in a verdict for plaintiff.

—From and after Dec. 1st., the K. of P. will meet in the Masonic hall. The new quarters will be appreciated.

—J. H. Smith, of the Bazaar, Main street, will have a branch store at McMinnville, having already made several shipments of goods to that place.

—There will be a grand ball at Mays' Hall, Glencoe, Thanksgiving evening. Walker's orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets with supper included, $1.00. A splendid time is promised.

—The State Insurance Company, which recently went to pieces, had a large number of risks in the farming vicinities of this county.

—The M. E. church is this week the scene of revival services.

—Board, with or without rooms, with use of bath Charges moderate. Inquire of Mrs. M. H. Malone.

—R. H. Walker and daughter were in the city Monday, from Beaverton precinct. Miss Walker was the guest of the Misses Archbold.

—Men's laundried shirts, 50 cts. each at Schulmerich & Son.

—The State Insurance Company has failed and those holding policies issued by that institution are now without insurance. J. I. Knight has made arrangements with some of his Companies, the best in the world, whereby he can take up the policies of State and allow what they are worth for unearned premium toward a Good Solid policy. Parties in this situation will find it to their interst to call and see him.

—Schulmerich & Son are selling ladies' wraps the equal of which can not be had in this country. All the latest styles in cloaks and capes in cloth and fur goods.

—J. D. Phillips, of Cornelius, was in the city Tuesday attending to business

—W. F. Ralston, the Gaston hotel man, was in the city, Saturday last Mr. Ralston is one of Gaston's republican wheel "horses."

—Bargains all the week in Groceries at Bryan Laidlaw Co. Cash Store.

—R H. Greer and family are now comfortably domiciled in their new residence on First street.

—THE ARGUS erred last week in stating that the new firm of the Harness shop on Main street was Davis & Brown. Mr. Davis retired and the firm is Phinney & Brown.

—Money to loan in sums to suit. Mortgages and notes bought and sold. Room 13, Morgan Block.

—J. T. Fletcher was in the cit Tuesday from Gales creek, the populist stronghold. Mr. Fletcher says many people up there think that Coxey is now governor of Ohio, inasmuch as they read no newspaper except the Cornelius Colon.

—Glascoe's Jubilee Concert Company will give a concert at the Hillsboro Opera House on Monday evening, November 25, 1895. They come highly recommended by the press and by all who heard them at the Oregon Industrial Exposition where they recently gave a series of concerts.

—We have a big job in soap. See our window. Bryan-Laidlaw Co. Cash Store.

—W. V. Wiley attended the funeral of his little niece, Minnie Waters, at Corvallis Sunday last. She was the 2d child of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Waters. The little one was unusally healthy and the death was unexpected, occurring from peritonitis while Mrs. Wiley was visiting with her sister at Newburg. Mrs. Waters will be remembered as Miss Dora Wiley, who grew to womanhood in this city, and her husband is the recorder of Benton county. The parents have the sympathy of their Hillsboro friends in their bereavement.

—Buy your dry goods at a Dry-Goods store, and your groceries at Greer's Grocery.

—Miss Lena Parker, the gifted young elocutionist of Forest Grove, will deliver a temperance lecture at the Christian church tomorrow evening.

Special sale in Ladies' fine dong. button, in square or picadilly toe, only $1.75, former price $2.25, at Gregg,s Shoe Store, Forest Grove.

—Wheat will doubtless go no higher this season. It may go lower. Those indebted to us should make a note of this and sell. We want to close all this year's accounts on our books, and cancel all overdue notes by Dec. 1st.

H. WEHRUNG & SONS.

—Mr. Geo. Tamiesie was in town from Mountaindale Saturday last.

—The recent rains have started the fall plowing, and many are the shares being hammered at our smithies.

—Pickled pig's feet at C. Blaser's, 2nd street.

—W. H. Wehrung and wife were Portland visitors the first of the week.

—Miss Stella Miller, who is teaching the Heywood school, was in the city Monday.

—When you want an "up to date" hair cut, or a neat comfortable shave or both, call at the City Shaving Parlors. Hot and Cold baths immediate on order.

E. E. COLESTOCK, Prop.

—A considerable number of converts to the Baptist faith were baptised in Dairy Creek Sunday last by Rev. Scholfield. The ceremonies were held in the afternoon and a large crowed witnessed the immersions.

—A neat little water tower is being constructed on the residence of C. D. Kimberlin, in East Hillsboro.

—Bargains in groceries at Greer's.

—The new residence of Wm. Connel, on 3rd street is rapidly nearing completion. The plastering is nearly done, and the painting will soon be completed. H. Behrens swinging the brush. The house will be a model of neatness and convenience.

—For sale—A full-blooded Holstein bull, 3 years old. Inquire of or address Dan'l Baker, Greenville, Oregon.

—H. P. Ford has been attending court at Corvallis the fore part of the week, hobnobbing with Dave Osburn, the only democratic sheriff in the Willamette valley. Dave is the sheriff, who, when asked how he felt when present at Sheriffs' convention, he being the only democrat, said "well I feel just like a great big kernel of No. 1 wheat in a half bushel of cheat." Messrs Ford and Osburn have discovered they were born on the same day, each has served two terms as sheriff of an Oregon county, and their terms will expire simultaneously.

—First class groceries at hard times prices at the Bryan-Laidlaw Co. Cash Store. Even change tobacco at 15 cents per pound.

—Marriage licenses have been granted to L. L. Schuman and Lida Seigenthaler, Fred Mast and Lena Shaer, and George Laemerman and Wilda Hunger. Chas. Krebs and Eva Brookman were recently married near Middleton by virtue of a license issued out of the Clackamas court.

—Dr. J. E. Adkins has opened dental parlors in the Morgan block room 8, where he will be pleased to meet his old patrons. Charges very reasonable.

—You need not go to Portland or any other place to get your winter wraps. You can get them cheap at Schulmerich & Son.

—Johnston Freeman has sold one-half of his farm to some Germans recently from Iowa.

—E. E. Colestock entertained a number of his gentlemen friends at his residence last evening in occasion of his birth anniversary. The hours were pleasantly spent with music, games and the host was tendered numerous presents.

—Raisins, 5 cents per pound at Greer's.

—Dell Cornell and Frank Holcomb were last evening sentenced to 2 years imprisonment in the penitentiary, by Judge Fullerton, of Corvallis.

—There will be union Thanksgiving service at the Christian church, next Thursday at 11:00 a. m., Rev. Schofield occupying the pulpit.

—Baking powder, 25 oz. for 25 cents, at Bob Greer's.

—The residence of Mrs. Benson, of Forest Grove, was burned Saturday evening about 9.00 o'clock. She was out at a neighbors when the alarm was made. A Mr. Wilson, who was one of the first on the scene, was severely burned, and had not some of those present dragged him out he would have met his death. The house was a total loss. No insurance.

—Messrs Andrews and Delaney, prominent Mountaindale people, were in Hillsboro yesterday, guest at the Hillsboro House.

—Roadmaster Russel spent Tuesday along the line in this vicinity.

Special sale in Men's oork sole shoes from $3 and upwards at Gregg's Shoe Store at Forest Grove.

GUILTY AS CHARGED

So Said The Jury in the Holcomb-Cornell Case.

WILL SERVE TWO YEARS' SENTENCE

Hop Growers in The City----Indian War Veterans Meet.

Found Guilty.

Dell Cornell and Frank Holcomb have been found guilty as charged in the Benton county Circuit court. They will doubtless serve time, as it is unlikely Judge Fullerton will grant a new trial, the evidence being conclusive. There are many Washington county people who will feel that Justice occasionally holds its own, and who will feel that for some time this county will be rid of a dangerous element. The District Attorney George M. Brown conducted his case in a very thorough manner, while the defendants were supplied with the best legal talent of Benton county at the State's expense.

School Report.

The following is the report of Heywood School for month ending November 15, 1895: Nnuber days taught, 18; number days a tendance, 682; number pupils enrolled, 45; average number belonging, 44; average daily attendance, 38. Following named pupils were present every day during the month: Blanche and Carl Oleson, Harold Taylor, Ethel Young, Lillian Johnson, Archibald and Miranda Wold, Charles and Sylvester Foricle, Winnie, Josie, Warnie and Willie Heywood, Lepha Carter, Edgar Clarence, Irene and Calla Young, Adolf, Julie and Bennie Honzaik and Delbert Bridges. Visitors were: Mrs. Jobe, Misses Antonia and Annie Honzaik and Messrs. A. Honzaik and J. Ruble, directors.

STELLA M. MILLER,
Teacher.

Would not Sell.

A large delegation of hop-growers was in from various county points, Monday, to meet a buyer from Portland. An offer of 5½ cents was made but no one semeed willing to sell. After consideration, the growers decided they would sell at 6½ but the offer was declined, and the meeting was all for nothing. Many want to sell badly, but at the same time, desire to hold till they can get growing expenses. Ranstein, the buyer, made the statement that he was offering, at market figures, and was not hunting hop men who from sheer force of circumstances, must put up their product.

Soldiers of Indian War Resolve.

Pursuant to a previous order, the Indian War veterans met Saturday last at the court house. The attendance was not very large and but little business was transacted. A resolution was passed asking the houses of congress to give the soldiers of the Indian wars the same pension privileges accorded the veterans of the civil war. H. Wehrung presided with dignity but was unable to prevent Stephen Holcomb from delivering a fullgrown populist address, which Secretary Sappington neglected to spread on the minutes of the meeting. After adjournment Mr. Holcomb repaired to the corner of Main and 2nd, where he entertained a small audience by applying choice and vinegary epithets to all opposed his political faith.

COUNTY NEWS

SOUTH TUALATIN.

Quite a number from this place attended a social dance at Andrew Jack's last Friday night. All expressed themselves as having a good time.

A good many of the farmers started in plowing this morning. There has hardly been enough rain yet.

Our neighborhood is rejoicing over the raise in butter, as every one in this place sends more or less milk to the Creamery. It is reported 50 cents per roll.

Miss Emma Simpson returned last evening from a week visit with her Aunt, Mrs A Jack, of Farmington.

Mr Lindholm has moved in the Brunson house and intends to make a number of improvements on the place.

The Directors of this school Dis't. have made quite an addition to the school supplies in the form of two large Maps, one of Oregon and one of the United States.

Our school is progressing nicely under the care of Miss Emma Tunison. There are about sixteen pupils enrolled.

FROM MIDDLETON.

Some of our hop raisers have sold but at a low figure.

The telephone poles are up and ready for the wire.

The Alaska Tea at the church last Thursday was liberally patronized and the W F M ladies were well pleased.

F M Olds, of McMinnville, was visiting friends here this week.

Mr Beatty rather denies the sfot impeachment of being lost in the mountains. He says the balance of the party was lost and he was hunting them.

Mrs William Vincent was taken suddenly ill last Monday. The doctor was summoned and she is now much better.

Rev Hinshaw who has had charge of the Friends' church here and at Sherwood the last year has severed his connection here and accepted a call at Marion. All join in wishing him success in his new field.

The singing class of Prof French is to give a concert in the near future.

Last Monday was a day replete with festivities for Middleton. Mrs W J Smith wishing to celebrate her natal anniversary invited some of her friends to spend the day and take dinner with her. All who are acquainted with the culinary abilities of Mrs S will be willing to admit that it must have been par excellent when we say it was one of her best. In the evening by invitation, or rather by appropriation, the residence of Mr S Stein was thrown open and occupied for the time by a large crowd of merry makers, it being the anniversary of Mrs S and also the anniversary of their marriage. All enjoyed themselves. Some indulging in the light fantastic until the wee sma' hours of the morning when all wended their way home feeling that it had been a red letter day for Middleton.

CENTERVILLE.

The Centerville Literary and Debating Society was organized last Wednesday night at the school house. G W Marsh was elected president and Mrs C H Blanchard secretary and treasurer.

Walter Lyons has gone to the Cascade mountains on a hunting expedition which will probably last through the winter.

J E Wilson did business in Portland Tuesday.

W B Corum was down from his ranch on the Nehalem last week. He left on his return trip Monday.

C H Williamson returned to his home in Portland last week.

Miss Eva Fowler returned to her home in Portland. She has been visiting friends and relatives here for the past week.

Mrs M J Buford, of Portland, came out Monday evening to spend a short time in our pleasant little burg.

Mrs C W Hermens arrived home safe and sound from her visit in the East Saturday night.

There is talk of having a Christmas tree for the Sunday school children.

Considerable rain fell last week but not enough to wet the ground sufficiently to plow good.

FROM PHILLIPS.

Frank Hill, of Cedar Mill, is visiting with friends in this vicinity.

There are several cases of mumps in this community and a great many have been exposed

Born, November 10, to the wife of Phillip Pezoldt, a 13 pound girl.

The Bethany Cornet Band and Orchestra will give a concert and ball at Scappoose Thanksgiving evening. A good time is anticipated.

Herman Gans has gone up near Gaston to work this winter and the ladies in this vicinity will miss him very much.

There was a social hop in this neighborhood last Saturday night. A good time has been reported.

There are a great many who are taking lame, blind and poor horses to the "hoss works" at Linnton and returning with wild frisky ones.

Herman Toelle is giving a lady friend lessons on the violin. She receives two instructions through the week and an extra one of Sundays. Mr Toelle is a good musician.

BEAVERTON.

A ball will be given in Beaverton hall November 27. Good music and a good supper will be had.

Our town, though small, is not without excitement. Tuesday morking about ten o'clock the chimney of Mrs Dank's house caught on fire and the smoke was emerging from the roof of the house so freely that it caused many to think that the fire was burning the roof and only lively work would save the building but glad was all when they found that it was the soot burning from the chimney and was out in half an hour later.

Mrs Pike, Sr, who was quite ill last week is slowly improving.

Mr Barnes, Sr, has been quite sick for the past two weeks but at last reports was some better.

A debating society was organized last Saturday night and an entertainment was given by Prof Traver and the school. The program was excellent and was appreciated by all present.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—In another column will be found the docket for the coming term Circuit Court. It is a lenghty one and will require some weeks for final disposal.

—Just received a new line of Mens' Fine Cordovan shoes in the very latest style toes, in lace or congress. Will sell at lowest city prices at Gregg's Shoe Store, Forest Grove, Ore.

—There is strong talk of moving the Wilke's creamery to a point near Mountaindale. If the parties concerned can procure sufficient pasturage for their stock the plans doubtless will mature. Mountaindale is coming to the front.

—You can find anything you want in groceries at Greer's.

—The Andrews Lumber Company, W. T. Andrews, president, and D. W. Dorrance, secretary, has purchased the saw mill plant of the Buxton Lumber company and will soon move the machinery to Mountaindale, where it will be placed in a new mill to be immediately constructed, on the Delaney place. Their old mill will be run at the present site for another year, and next season both will be in operation.

—The post office store keeps constantly on sale a line of standard periodicals, magazines and monthlys. Anything not on sale will be ordered for you. Inquire of J. M. Brown.

—Miss Alice Mulloy, of Laurel, and Miss Bessie Buck, of Cornelius, are attending Hillsboro public school this term.
