Sheriff Ford did business at Portland Monday, and incidentally attended the meeting of the Sheriff's Association while there. He brought back with him the A. A. Meade who is now serving time in the state penitentiary for bigamy. It will be remembered that Meade married a very respectable young lady of Middleton while wife No. 1 still occupied space on this earth's glorious sphere. He was brought here as a witness on a suit instituted by the First National Bank.

The Forest Grove Times is taking time by the forelock, as it were, and is already making nominations for the office of sheriff, the same being available timber for the republican county nominating convention. Just exactly what fill will The Times bears the gentlemen mentioned remains to be seen. Such good men as he placed before the public deserve a better fate than to be so "ho-o-dood" this early before the campaign opens. Perhaps some one wants to see the early frosts nip the prospective ones ere the season of bloom.

Try your luck. See Gregg's, the shoe man, show window, Forest Grove; it will pay you. A guess given on every purchase.

The case of State vs. F. J. Bailey was concluded Friday last, and after the evidence had been submitted, Judge McBride instructed the jury to return a verdict of "not guilty," without further deliberation. In summing up the case His Honor stated that the case should never have come to trial. A verdict was drawn up, and the foreman of the jury selected, repaired to the Judge's stand and signed the instrument. The many friends of Dr. Frank Bailey are congratulating him upon the outcome of the case. As it appeared that the transfer of title by the holders of the O. E. Miller business was not good and sufficient, the Judge said that property rights were not sufficiently involved to make the action tenable, and the case was thrown out of court.

THE GRAND JURY FILES ITS REPORT.

After a Thorough Search That Body Says

ALL THE ACCOUNTS ARE PERFECT

Makes a Few Recommendations but is of the Belief That Times are Too Hard to Build a New Jail.

To The Hon. Thomas A. McBride, Judge of the Circuit Court for the County of Washington, State of Oregon:

We, your undersigned Grand Jury, for the November term 1895, of said court, make this final report, and respectfully represent that we have carefully investigated all charges of crime presented to us, and have returned into court 16 true bills and 3 not true bills.

We visited the county poor house; we found it well kept; we would recommend that a small heating stove be furnished to all rooms now not containing one. We would also recommend that caves troughs be added to the building and the old part of the building painted.

We have visited the county jail, and although it does not meet our approval, we do not deem it advisable to recommend the building of a new jail until the return of better times; we find it as well kept as the condition of the building will permit; and while we do not wish to censure the Sheriff for the escape of certain prisoners, we would recommend to the said officer the exercise of vigilance and care.

The experts, W. H. Wehrung and H. S. Hudson, employed by us to expert the accounts of the different officials, have found them correct, and balances on hand as per statements made to us by them, which statements are annexed to our report.

We recommend that hereafter, the county judge, with the assistance of one expert, if necessary, make an examination of the accounts of the various county officers, semi-annually.

Owing to the system at present employed in subpoenaing witnesses we experienced considerable delay in securing them, and we recommend that some measures be adopted to remedy this in the future.

Pursuant to your instructions we have examined with due care and diligence into the case of alteration of records from a Justice's court submitted to us by your Honor, and while there seems to be no doubt that such alteration was made, we have been unable to determine who is guilty of the offense.

We have visited the offices of county Clerk, Sheriff, Recorder of Conveyances, Treasurer, Assessor and Surveyor, and found the books and accounts neat and properly kept, the officers courteous, and new systems and methods used, which improve and expedite the business of the county.

And now, having completed our labor, we most respectfully ask to be discharged.

Dated this - day of December, 1895. [Signed] THOMAS PAULSEN, Foreman, and members of the Grand Jury.

EXPERTS' FINDINGS. To the honorable gentlemen of the Grand Jury of the Circuit court for the November term, 1895: In obedience to your instructions, we have made a careful and thorough examination of the accounts of the several county officers and we have found them correct, with balances on hand as per statements herewith attached. Trusting our work will meet your approval, we are, Yours Respectfully,

W. H. WEHRUNG and H. S. HUDSON.

PRECECHTIL IS FOUND GUILTY

The Bank Wins a Verdict on the Wiley B. Allen-Meade Note—Bailey Residence Entered.

The President Speaks.

On Tuesday of this week, the president sent to congress a message giving in detail the correspondence between this nation and Great Britain on the Venezuelan boundary dispute. Following the statement the president delineated the proper action to be taken by the United States in the affair, and insisted that the line should be decided by arbitration, that it was the duty of this country, in case the South American Country was unwilling to have Great Britain survey the line to its own pleasure, to see that arbitration obtained. He asked, or suggested that congress make an appropriation, and appoint a commission to investigate the true status of the dispute. For years no message from a president was received with so much satisfaction as was this one.

Precechtill Guilty.

Some time last summer one John Precechtill, who lived in the south end of the county, was brought before Justice Day on a charge of carnal assault upon his little step-daughter, the offense alleged to have been committed on June 5th. The wife and mother prosecuted the case vigorously and as a result Precechtill was bound over to appear at the November term of Circuit court. A short time after the trial in the Justice court Mrs. Precechtill assumed a change of front, in fact, went on her husband's bond. The wife thereafter accompanied the husband to Portland where the little one swearing to the complaint signed an affidavit setting up that her charge was the result of spite work and hatred. The accused went to California, and upon Monday last returned. By this time the attitude of wife and mother had again shifted and upon going to trial, the child gave in such damaging testimony. The verdict of the jury was "Guilty as charged." Defendant was given until Monday to move for a new trial.

The Bank Wins.

Tuesday and Wednesday were partly occupied in the Circuit Court by the case of the First National Bank of Hillsboro vs. Mr. Mack, of Reedville. It appears that A. A. Meade, at one time an agent for the Wiley B. Allen Co., of Portland, sold Mr. and Mrs. Mack an organ, taking a note, which the defendants claim, was to be payable in cash or potatoes, at their option. Meade sold the note to the bank without recourse, and endorsed the Wiley B. Allen Co.'s name on the back of the note. Subsequent to this Mr. Mack went to Allen and turned over the organ, Allen agreeing, so it appears, to protect them against the note, as Mr. Allen claimed he had given Meade no authority to endorse the paper. Mr. Allen was a witness to the suit, as was also Mr. Meade, who was brought down from Salem, and the evidence seemed to be that Meade had a right to endorse the notes of the Wiley B. Allen Co. The jury was out but a short time when it brought in a verdict for plaintiff. The defense was allowed ten days in which to move for a new trial.

First Annual Banquet.

The first annual banquet of the Hillsboro Fire Department, including both the Hook and Ladder and Vulcan Engine companies, will be this Friday evening at the Department rooms. The ladies of the Coffee club have been notified, and a royal good time will be enjoyed. The fire ladies and wives, or sweethearts, as the case may be, and the ladies of that valuable auxiliary, the Coffee Club, and their husbands, or escorts, as their state proclaims, will partake of the festivities, and listen to an informal program. The efficacy of the Fire Department means much to the business interests of the city, and if this move be a social success, it will arouse some interest in department circles, and go to show that the boys are appreciated. All members of the companies are requested by the chief to be on hand.

A Successful Raid.

The fellow who raided the residences of T. H. Tongue and R. E. Bryan without avail, made a third trial and met with some success. Dr. F. A. Bailey and wife, knowing of the attempt to burglarize Mr. Tongue's residence, had fastened all the windows excepting that of the bathroom. Some time last night the window was forced open and the prowler went into the Doctor's sleeping apartment and borrowed his gold repeater, a valuable one. For fear it might need repairing he gratefully accepted the Doctor's purse, containing a few dollars, and as the M. D. was luckily engaged with Morpheus, he made no objection. From the bed room he went back to the family larder and ate pie to his heart's content. This is sufficient evidence that he is not a foreigner. Some one will get into trouble soon over these nocturnal calls.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Deputy Sheriff Bradford and Geo. R. Bagley arrested two men this morning near the long bridge, who are supposed to have robbed Bailey's residence last night. The boys were putting them in the conveyance when the smaller of the two opened fire on Bradford. Bradford returned the fire, Bagley having covered the larger fellow at the first move, when the prisoners broke and ran. Jas. Young came to the rescue and after a fusillade of shots the desperadoes were taken and brought to town. This is as near the truth as could be learned from the conflicting reports current. Messrs. Bradford and Bagley have made a valuable capture and Sheriff Ford is of the opinion the chaps are wanted elsewhere.
