OREGON'S DISGRACE.

The county republican conven- grimage tion which convened at Portland Saturday last was characterized by unlawful acts and deeds that would hardly be countenanced by the worst element of outlawry. Revolvers were worn by many deputy sheriffs who were there in the interests A show is billed for the 7th and 8th of of the "little Joe Simon" faction and at one and the same time too last Saturday. chairmen were acting-a doubleheader, as it were; a hand to hand sister came out with them on a visit. fight was engaged in and the scenes fight was engaged in and the scenes A W Bross is working for A S Hatch that followed beggared description, in the blacksmith shop which is crowded Nearly one half of the delegation, those under the Mitchell banner, last Monday on business. left the hall after both factions had each elected delegates to the state convention and here the mockery of a convention closed. The Dolph men remained and as they are the only delegates having the proper credentials there will be war in today's convention. Will good citizens see such deviltry and yet support it by their ballots? Either faction, the Hume-Minto-Frank Combine, or the Simon-Oregonian-Dolph, represents a machine which, if put in power, will bleed the state through the legislativee nactments. When such rogues fall out it is time for men who pay taxes to get together and preserve the good name of Oregon.

Commencement exercises of the Beaverton school passed off with great credit to both teachers and pupils. The ora-ions showed careful study, deep thought and vast reading and were delivered with such force and elequence that one might easily predict a Clay or Webster. The hall was beautifully decorated with plants and the graduates received many beautiful and rare bouquets. The music was well rendered and the address of Prof Stanley of Hillsboro was very sensible and pointed. Sunday evening Rev Sykes delivered an address to the graduates and their parents urging the graduates to further study and the parents to uates to further study and the parents to give them the opportunity.
