VERDICT FOR DEFT McNAMER

In the Celebrated Case of Jas. Lee.

SUIT OVER A YOKE OF CATTLE

Two Days Taking Evidence--Jury Was Out But 13 Minutes--Many Witnesses Impeached--Sanford Waits in a Pitiful Tone.

Friday and Saturday of last week, Circuit Court was busy trying the case of Jas. Lee vs. Theo. McNamer, wherein plaintiff brought suit to recover a yoke of cattle which defendant had purchased from Moses McCoy, who, apparently, was clothed with authority to sell.

When you want an "up to date" hair cut, or a neat comfortable shave or both, call at the City Shaving Parlors.

fees reduced from ten cents to five cents per mile; 3 That the jury system be abolished; 4 That the senators be elected by the popular vote at the general elections in place of by the legislature. Resolved: That we will not support any candidate for any office, whether, who is not willing to pledge himself to use every lawful means in his power to bring about the foregoing.

The above, however, would work a little hardship on our little city of Sherwood, as it is asserted that ever since the brickyard closed, quite a number of its inhabitants, when out of flour, kick up a fuss in order to make fees, and from the frequency of frasses there appears to be more truth than poetry in the assertion.
