The anonymous letter writer is busy at work in this city. This sort of work is of the lowest order and characteristic of a brutal, cowardly nature. One who has been writing such letters of late is well known by several people and there are breakers ahead.

When you want an "up-to-date" hair cut, or a neat comfortable shave or both, call at the City Shaving Parlors. Hot and Cold Baths immediate on order. E. E. Colestock, Prop.

The ladies of the Christian church will give a dinner and supper on election day in the old Bazaar building Main street. The cheap rates of five dollars cabin and two fifty steerage, including meals and berth are still in effect on the O. R. & N. Cos' steamers from Portland. Steamers leave Portland every five days.

S. H. Dunbar, a prominent populist was in the city yesterday. Mr. Dunbar thinks silver is not a cardinal principle of populism, and holds that the true populist is for the paper money—the government to loan the same on hand.

W. E. Brock can now supply the public with the choicest magazines and literature. Come and see for yourself. Miss Theresa Keiling, who is now residing in Portland, returned home Tuesday evening after making a long and pleasant visit with relatives and friends.

Mr. Craig, editor of The Hatchet, and republican nominee for school superintendent, was a pronounced democrat prior to starting the Hatchet. He was "arter offis" and knew his abilities would draw no republican votes so he hid himself over dead line into the republican camp. He is no more a republican than the present head of their ticket was during war times, when the Knights of the Golden Circle flourished.

Union memorial services for deceased soldiers will be held at the Court House, Sunday, May 24, 1896 at 11 o'clock a. m. Members of the G. A. R., W. R. C. and S. of V. are requested to meet at Grand Hall at 10:30 a. m. All are invited to attend.

Hon. T. J. Cleeton, republican candidate for District Attorney, spoke to a large crowd at the court house Tuesday evening. Cleeton poured hot shot into the populists and democratic camp. The flat money idea, as advanced by populists, received a terrible arraignment and "democratic in competency" was severely elucidated. The republicans were all right, of course.

Banty and Samuel Moon have all been duly admitted to citizenship. The first three named recently proved up on homesteads.

You can get finer and better clothing at Schulmerich & Son than any other place in the county. The Searchlight last week contained an attack—or rather, a puke—in poetry, touching upon Gault's misfortune—in having but one arm. Gault's misfortune, happily, is but in a physical sense, while a cor who would write such a piece, or allow its publication, is crippled in the head.

Men's furnishing goods just in from the factory at lower prices than ever at Schulmerich & Son. John Willis is attending to the insurance business of J. I. Knight this week.

COURTNEY MEER IS MISSING

Nothing Seen of Him for Over a Week.

CROP REPORTS OVER THE STATE Not a Large Amount of Fruit—All Crops Growing Slowly—School Report—Some Real Estate Transactions.

Courtney Meek Missing. Courtney Meek, one of the most widely known characters in Washington county, is missing, and fears of foul play are each day being augmented. On Tuesday evening of last week he left this city to return to Lapwai, Idaho, where he has lived for the past year or so.

Meek was a man of strong character, a firm friend and a bitter enemy, but was possessed of many manly and generous traits. For years he has identified himself with republicans politics in this county, and only a few days ago delivered a political speech at Glencoe, his old home. Many are of the opinion that he will turn up all right, but there are other reasons to believe he has been killed. His grip and overcoat, traps and other articles which he took with him are yet at the old National hotel, Portland, where he was a temporary guest.

School Report. The following is the report of Dist. No. 41 for the month ending May 15th. Number enrolled 42; average attendance 36; number of tardies 5. Those neither absent nor tardy are as following: Edward Metcalf, Peggie Gardner, Elmer Watson, Walter Willis, Ralph Ugo, Braudie Fowles, Archie Montgomery, John Willis, Edward Watson, Bertha Fowles, Orpha Peters, Ada and Lucy Miller, Ethel Watson, Mabel Hollenbeck, Eva Montgomery.

Albert Latham, Teacher. Crop Report. Crops—After a prolonged spell of rain, cool and inclement weather, and the past week unchanged in this respect, the crops are found to be making a slow growth. The weather is too cool for progress in any crop and the soil too wet to admit of plowing, seeding or gardening, through an attempt was made in some sections. Peas and potatoes are setting well in Curry county. Fall-sown grain has still a healthy color, except on low ground, where the drainage is imperfect. Spring grain (though a short crop) is looking well with few exceptions. Grass is making fairly good progress. No fear is expressed concerning these crops, for a little sunshine and warm, life-given weather would make them as good as could be desired. Very little garden work has been done. Some express themselves will pleased that they have made no attempt to plant garden truck. When the soil is cold, and sunshine deficient, garden seed will quickly rot in the ground.

Fruit—Concerning the fruit crop, it has changed little since last week. Correspondents still report fruit as falling, and many express themselves in doubt. There is no doubt that the cool weather is damaging to the fruit. The extent of damage can not be ascertained until some warm spring weather has had its effect. The weather becoming suddenly warm would also be damaging. Peas, prunes, peaches and cherries have suffered the most. Some trees are well set with these fruits, but the growth seems to be checked, and a sickly look is noticed. Early apples have suffered a loss, but the late blooming apple has a better prospect. Gooseberries and currants make slow growth, but are not much hurt in other respects. Strawberries are backward. Blackberries are beginning to bloom with a prospect of a very full crop. The apple and cherry crops are thought to be safe in Curry county, and the prunes have not suffered great damage from the weather in that county, the rains having been warmer than in other sections. Late blooming fruits in Lincoln county are doing well. The future ed after a spell of fair weather and sunshine.

Decoration Day. A conference meeting of the committees from the G. A. R., W. R. C. and Sons of Veterans met in J. I. Knight's office Monday evening to arrange for proper observance of Decoration day. The three societies above named, the schools and Sunday schools will march to the cemetery to decorate the graves of our soldier dead and then will return to the court house square, where addresses by one from each order will take place. Music appropriate, vocal and instrumental, will be interspersed between the addresses. Rev. Cline will talk on the G. A. R., a paper will be read by a member of the Relief Corps and Hon. S. B. Huston, 2nd Lieutenant of the Sons of Veterans camp will make a 15 minute talk.

Miss Dora Pet. is home from Portland. It has been rumored that Herma & Co sold their saw mill. The people remark that any party which advocate a promise of dry weather for a while in one of the planks of its platform will be sure of election if it comes off before the rains stop.

C. E. Deichman, of the Bryan-Laidlaw Company, sustained a severe fall from a chair to-day, while waiting on a customer. His chest struck across the back of the chair and the fall, for a moment, paralyzed the action of the heart. A doctor was summoned and he was removed to his home. He will be around in a day or so.

Coxey is holding forth at Cornelius to-day, despite the efforts of the populist state central committee. Coxey claims to be a bona fide populist and goes after Jas. B. Weaver and Chairman Taubneck in no mild manner. He is an interesting talker and had a large crowd of all parties to hear him, many going to hear the man who marched an army of tramps and bums to Washington, D. C. two years ago. Coxey wants to run for president on the populist ticket and is adverse to any free silver movement in the presidential campaign.

City Recorder Benton Bowman to-day tied his first bean-knot, the contracting parties being J. V. Hill, a prominent business man of Sherwood, and Miss Estella M. Swope, a charming young lady of the same city. They will at once commence keeping house at that

T. Hatfield in The Evanston (Ill.) Index.
