EVENTS OF THE DAY

PERSE TICKS FROM THE WIRES

An interesting collection of items from the two hemispheres presented in a condensed form.

A dispatch to the San Francisco Merchants' Exchange says the bark Mohave from Vancouver for Santa Rosalia is ashore at Sooke inlet, and will probably be a total loss. The crew was saved.

In Walla Walla fire destroyed two one story buildings and the upper floor of a two-story building on Main street between Fourth and Fifth. The fire was caused by a lamp exploding in the rear of a millinery establishment.

Yalp was defeated, but not disgraced in the third heat of the Grand Challenge cup, which was rowed at Henley-on-Thames. Leander won by one and three-fourths lengths in 7 minutes and 14 seconds. The record is 6 minutes and 41 seconds.

The rush of tourists to Alaska this season is remarkable. The Queen which has just sailed, carried as passengers 180 first-class and almost as many more in the steerage. All the glaciers and points of interest are visited during these summer trips.

From advices received by the Australian steamer Miwera, which has just arrived in Vancouver, B. C. it now seems probable that the Queensland government will join New South Wales and Canada in granting a subsidy to the Canadian-Australian steamship line. Captain Bird, on behalf of James Huddart, managing owner of the line, recently interviewed the Queensland government, and it is said the government will recommend that parliament grant a subsidy of £8,000 per year for three years. The company is at present negotiating in England for the construction of larger steamers for the line.

At the first day's session of the national Democratic convention but little was accomplished. The convention was called to order by Chairman Harney, of the national committee, who reported Hill as the choice of the national committee for temporary chairman. The announcement was greeted with great cheering from all parts of the house. Clayton, of Alabama, representing the silver forces moved that the name of Daniels be substituted for that of Hill, and on a roll call by states this motion prevailed, the silver men thus scoring their first victory. The temporary chairman was escorted to his seat amidst the applause of the vast crowd.

Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe died at Hartford, Conn. Members of the family were at her bedside.

Attempt on Baldwin's Life.

During the process of Lillian Ashley's suit against E. J. Baldwin for $75,000 for seduction, in San Francisco, Emma Ashley, a sister of Lillian, tried to shoot the millionaire defendant. She fired at Baldwin, but the bullet missed. Emma Ashley is believed to be insane. During the trial she has spent her time in court reading the Bible. When taken to jail she sang "Nearer My God, to Thee" in a loud voice. Baldwin was crazy with rage and wanted a chance to fight some one. His hair was singed by the powder and the bullet passed within an inch of his head. His escape is ascribed to the woman's inexperience with firearms. The pistol was thrown upward by recoil after the trigger was pulled.

Whelling Injures Women.

A remarkable circular has been issued by the Women's Rescue League of Washington, D. C. It is signed by Charlotte Smith, president, and Virginia N. Lount, secretary of the legislative committee, and it calls attention in a most sensational manner to what these ladies consider the manifold, moral and physical ill effect of the riding of bicycles by women. The occasion of the issuance of the circular at this time is that next week there will be a bicycle parade in Washington in which it is thought that fully 40,000 wheels will participate. Of the 45,000 bicyclists in the city at least 15,000 are women.

Counterfeiters Caught.

A St. Louis detective has succeeded in capturing a gang of counterfeiters. A complete set of tools was found in their possession. Those arrested have hitherto borne good characters, one of whom is a regular practicing female physician. There was also found by the detective a photographic engraving of a $20 bill, some of the bills, the copper plates and all necessary paraphernalia for etching the plates.

Jury Disagreed.

The jury in the case of John D. Hart, Captain John O'Brien and the others of the steamship Bernuda, charged with violation of the neutrality laws by aiding and abetting a military expedition to Cuba, have rendered a sealed statement of disagreement to Judge Brown. They were discharged.

Revolution in Bolivia.

Dispatches received from La Paz, the capital of Bolivia, announce that a revolution has broken out at Sucre, an important city, which was the capital of Bolivia until 1869. Election troubles are supposed to be the cause of the uprising.

The Lone Highwayman.

Another stage robbery is reported from California. The Sonora coach was held up by a lone highwayman. He secured a few registered letters, one of which was valuable. He then made good his escape.

Canadian Pacific in It.

It has been decided that the Canadian Pacific railway shall, at least tentatively, become a party to the joint

ON AN UPTURNED BOAT

Perilous Adventure of Two Astoria Fishermen.

BOTH BOAT AND NET WERE LOST

Capized in the Ocean, They Were Rescued by Men on Board the Lightship.

Astoria, Or., July 7.—Simon Pakkalo and his boatpinner, Erick Paso, two fishermen working for Elmore, disappeared in this city today after an absence of several days, having been brought in from the lightship. Their boat was capized on Thursday night, when a number of men ventured too far out and were caught in a heavy swell. Pakkalo's boat was the only one capized, and he and his companion managed to cling to the upturned craft until seen by the men on board the lightship, when they were quickly rescued. Both boat and net were lost. Their escape from death was a narrow one, and was only due to the fact that they reached the vicinity of the lightship about daybreak.

The coroner today brought down from Bear creek the body of Samuel Farley, who died in a drunken spree. The man, with several companions, had a gallon jug of whisky, and in the evening laid down in the road. The others left him, and the man rolled down a hill, landing face down. It is supposed he smothered in that position. He was 80 years old, unmarried, and was employed in Fraser's logging camp.

FRASER RIVER FLOOD.

Canadian Pacific Tea Train Went Into the River.

Vancouver, B. C., July 7.—The first fatality as a result of the high water in the Fraser river, occurred last night, about 11 o'clock, when a portion of a Canadian Pacific freight train, laden with tea, went into the river near Agassiz, and Edward Dearden, a brakeman, was killed.

It seems that the water had washed away the bank, leaving the rails and ties in place. The engineer in the dark did not notice this, and ran into the fatal spot, with the result that the engine and eight cars went into the river. Engineer Carey and Fireman Coughlin jumped and escaped with a few minor injuries, but Brakeman Dearden was never seen again, and is probably buried beneath the wreckage in the river.

Reports from Fraser river points state that the river is steadily rising. At Chilliwack considerable damage has been done to crops on low lands, and the steamer Gladys has been busily engaged for the past few days in running cattle and settler's effects to high ground. Niocmen island is also suffering from high water, and all down the river on both sides, wherever the low levels are not fully protected by high dikes, they

BRUTAL DOUBLE MURDER.

A Woman and Her Daughter Killed Near Santa Barbara.

Santa Barbara, Cal., July 8.—A double murder was committed last night in the Montecito valley, the victims being Mrs. H. C. Richardson, aged 55, and her 17-year-old daughter Ethel. A workman discovered the body of the daughter in a vacant field near the Richardson house, and her throat had been cut and there were several wounds on her head. Near the body was a club, which had evidently been broken in the hands of the murderer. The news of the crime soon roused the whole countryside.

The Richardson house was found locked, and when an entrance was forced, the coroner and sheriff found a trail of blood leading from the front door to Mrs. Richardson's bedroom. Near the bed lay the body of Mrs. Richardson, face downward, in a pool of blood. A bullet hole in the head of the bed and one in the window-casing told of her efforts to escape the pistol of her assassin. Below the woman's left eye was a bullet hole, and there was another through the left hand. About the face and forehead were deep gashes and the back of her head had been beaten by a stick loaded with lead. When found Mrs. Richardson was still alive, but did not recover consciousness and died at noon.

The murder was probably committed last night, the victims being in their night-clothes. Citizens are greatly excited, and the murderer, if caught, will undoubtedly be lynched.

The suspicions that the officers first entertained, throwing the blame on Thomas A. Richardson, were entirely dispelled by the startling developments tonight. If Cyrus Barnard was the man who murdered the Richardsons, he was certainly brought to a swift reckoning for his crime. While resisting the attempt of Officer W. W. Hopkins to arrest him tonight, and after he had shot twice at the officer, the latter returned the fire, killing him instantly. Barnard was under strong suspicion of having committed the crime, and was kept under close surveillance. About 9 o'clock tonight, Hopkins fired one shot, the ball passing through Barnard's head, killing him instantly.

RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS.

Report of What They Have Done During the Last Six Months.

Salem, Or., July 8.—The board of railroad commissioners was in session at the capitol today. A new freight and passenger schedule for the seashore railroad is being considered. The board is being run, freight handled and passengers carried from Astoria to the seaside, instead of from Young's Bay bridge, as before, it is necessary to make some changes.

A RIOT AT CLEVELAND

One Striker Killed and Many Others Hurt.

STUDENT HELD FOR MURDER

Militia Was Called Out and Charged the Mob - Attempt to Lynch a Prisoner.

Cleveland, July 8.—The strike at the Brown Hoisting Company's works has reached a point where the authorities, as well as the strikers, are in no mood for trifling. When the non-union men left the works at 5 o'clock this afternoon, there was rioting. Two hundred and fifty police emerged from the gates guarding 500 workmen. An immense crowd had gathered a block away, but the police took a new route and eluded them for the moment. The strikers set up a yell and ran, soon overtaking the marching column, shouting and yelling. A huge moving van was in the rear filled with strikers, and with it a small wagon, laden with empty beer bottles. The police suspected that the bottles were intended as missiles, and compelled the driver of the wagon to turn back.

At Wilson and Euclid avenues, a railroad train blocked the way, and an effort was made to drive the van of the strikers through the guard of police. The officers dragged the driver, Fred W. Hearn, a moving contractor, to the ground, and also the man on the seat beside him, W. J. O'Neill, a paving contractor. These men resisted, and the police used their clubs on them with such effect that their heads were soon swollen masses of cuts. One man's ankle was broken. The strikers in the van jumped out, and the police charged the crowd. Frank Coopenhecker, a machinist returning from work, and not a striker, was caught in the crowd and severely clubbed on the head. Hearn was arrested and locked up. The strikers were dispersed by the onslaught of the police, and the non-union men were sent home.

Meanwhile, a tragedy had taken place at the Brown works. Albert Saunders, a young student at the case school of applied science, whose father lives at 331 Prospect street, has been working for the Brown company during vacation for the practical knowledge it would give him. He did not leave with the non-union men, under police guard, but mounted his bicycle and sought to reach home alone. As he turned up Hamilton street, a knot of strikers saw him and shouted to him to stop. He did not obey, and they began to throw stones and bricks at him. A brick struck him on the head, and knocked him off his wheel, and he claims that after he was down, they continued to stone him. Rising to his knees, he drew his revolver and fired. The ball missed his assailants, sped across a vacant lot and buried itself in the breast of William Rettger, one of the strikers who was walking through an alley with several companions. Rettger was sent to the hospital, where he died in a few minutes. He was a 44-year-old boarding house

"Three Friends" Pursued

Key West, July 8.—The steamer Three Friends passed here at 9 A. M., pursued by the Spanish warship Alfonso XIII. Both vessels were under full steam. The Three Friends was between eight and ten miles ahead of the warship. Observers say the warship fired upon the Three Friends. The warship is cutting the three mile limit very close, and is trying to head off the Three Friends. It is reported the United States warship Maine, and United States cutters are getting up steam preparatory to intercepting both vessels. Great excitement prevails.

Ugly Feeling Prevailing.

Cleveland, July 8.—Contrary to police fears, there was no violent demonstration last evening after the funeral of William Rettger, the striker at the Brown Hoisting & Conveying Company who was shot by a non-union man. There was, however, a great deal of feeling manifest, and the authorities think the prospect for trouble tonight, when the men in the works go home, are fully equal to those of the preceding nights. The militia is still in its armories waiting orders. The funeral was an immense affair, fully 10,000 union men being in line.

General Young Dead.

Turkey's Policy Condemned.

Philippopolis, July 7.—The consuls of the European powers are sending pessimistic accounts of the way in which hostilities are being conducted in Crete. The situation is such that should the Porte insist in its conduct, French men-of-war may land troops on the island. The Armenian patriarch, Isemin, has asked permission to resign. Further outbreaks seem inevitable. The Turkish battalions at Jeddah, who maintained on account of receiving no pay, have deserted their arms. There are no troops available to put down the revolt. The Porte, foreseeing complications in Greece, Macedonia and Syria, is about to mobilize all the troops of the bedi, or landwehr.

Because many of the ships naturally attached to his station, have been necessarily transferred to the Atlantic station, Admiral Beardsley will not have as many vessels available for his drills as will Admiral Bance, on the Atlantic coast. Consequently, in order to be able to carry out a programme of any value, from an educational standpoint, he must make the most of such ships as he can command, and it will be impossible, therefore, this season to withdraw any of the ships, even temporarily, from the squadron to attend the local celebrations at various points on the Pacific coast, as has been customary in the past.

The costumes are chiefly tailor-made, and include a bicycling costume of fawn-colored Venetian cloth with a narrow skirt, having little pockets at the hem to hold shot, intended to keep the dress in place. In a wonderfully short space of time, a furious mob packed the streets as far as the eye could reach and surged against the front of the office demanding that Saunders be given up to it. Some one brought a rope, and the cry to lynch him was raised.

A few began to pry at the windows of the office when Patrolman Gibbons, who was once a union workman, addressed the mob, and partly quieted it. Two patrol wagon loads of police arrived and a guard was posted in front of the building. Long before this, Mayor McKissick, Police Director Abbott, Lieutenant-Colonel Whitney, of the Fifth regiment, and others were gathered for consultation in this city.

Word of the critical condition of affairs was telephoned from the Bishop-Babcock office, and request made for the militia. The mayor responded by ordering the Cleveland city guards and company F to the scene of the riot.

The guards arrived just as the mob was preparing for another effort to capture Saunders. As the soldiers came down the street, the mob howled, and the guards were compelled to open a way for themselves with leveled bayonets. Several men and boys were wounded slightly by the soldiers.
