Calendar table with columns for Sun, Mon, Tues, Wed, Thu, Fri, Sat and rows for dates 2 through 30.

Daily Mail Arrivals and Departures table with columns for location, time, and arrival/departure details.

—J. H. Dobbins has sold his interest in the Main street livery stables to Wes. Redmond...

—Fore sale—52 acres 1 mile East of Forest Grove, occupied by R. M. Brereton...

—J. J. Morgan has leased his residence to County Clerk Imbrie for a number of years...

—When you want an "up to date" hair cut, or a neat comfortable shave or both, call at the City Shaving Parlors...

—The San Francisco Chronicle, a strong McKinley paper, recently gave what purports to be the individual handshakes of the republican and democratic presidential nominees...

—We have the finest and largest stock of hats in Washington county at the lowest prices ever offered. Bryan Laidlaw Co. Cash Store.

—F. B. Mackinder, the guest at the Warren home, leaves the latter part of the week for his home at St. Helena, California.

—Why pay your money for Wild cat paper when for the same money or less, you can get as good an insurance policy as the world produces, for the same price or less, by calling on J. I. Knight, Hillsboro, Oregon.

—J. I. Knight is now located in his ground floor office on the south side of Main street, in the building at one time occupied by Morgan & Barnard.

—J. M. Brown has disposed of his news business and W. E. Brock will hereafter supply the people with magazines and monthlies.

—C. Blaser was up in the mountains Friday last and caught 85 fine trout and brought down a fine two-spoke buck, which weighed considerably over 100 pounds when dressed.

—Prof. Ben Dillon, an accomplished phrenologist and physiologist, has been holding forth at the Christian church each night of his week. He is registered at the Hotel Hillsboro.

—Thirteen acres, half under cultivation, rest slashed and seeded. Three acres is of beaverdam and wall. Situated close to Base line road between Hillsboro and Forest Grove. Goes at $50 per acre. Call at this office.

—L. L. Whitcomb and family arrived from their trip to the coast the first of the week.

—Marriage license has been taken out by the following named parties: R. Welch, 48 and Mrs. Fidelia Wright, 50; Heinrich Peterson, 35, and Mrs. Pauline Richter, 32; Oscar Voigt, 28, and Sadie Krimnick, 19, all of Washington county.

—You can get 20 pounds of best granulated sugar for $1.00 at Bryan-Laidlaw Co. Cash Store. See our McKinley hats.

—Bryan spoke to 20,000 people in the Madison square gardens, New York, last evening. His address of acceptance was read from manuscript but at the close he made an eloquent plea for his platform and financial convictions. Bryan made votes for his cause and McKinley will have a fight to carry New York.

—Bicycles to rent at Brock's Drug store. —Jesse Stewart left this morning to spend a several days' vacation at Tillamook and the Netarts country. He will make the trip "a la cayuse" and return with the band boys who will leave in a day or so for the same place.

—County Judge Cornelius delicately tied a knot matrimonial at the court house yesterday, the witnesses being the county officers and Col. Campbell of the Life Guards. The principals were Mr. Oscar Voigt and Miss Sadie Krimnick.

—John Bohart came down from Idaho last week and reports the silver cause growing steadily in that section. —Bryan seems to be meeting with popular favor even in New York city, the home of supposed opposition in his party. This causes the Oregonian to groan very "vinegary" and sarcastic. Of course it will hurt Harvey to see Bryan elected, or for that matter McKinley. Laying aside questions of financial preference, Scott loves a man who knows where he is and is not afraid to say so.

—Married: At the residence of D. A. Lynch, Gaston, July 31, 1896 Mr. J. F. Barton and Miss Maggie E. Duren, both of this county.

—Attorney Kindt and wife were guests at the Tualatin over Sunday. —Bicycles to rent at Brock's Drug store.

—Hon. C. P. Yates of Manning, was down Wednesday on business with probate court. —H. M. Cronkite and wife and daughter Grace have gone to Newport where Mr. Cronkite will again take charge of the public schools of that place. Miss Cronkite will spend a few weeks at that famous resort prior to school opening in this city.

—Will trade you bread for flour. Come and arrange with us at the Bakery.

—A party left for a fortnight's outing on the Nehalem, Wednesday morning. The personnel was as follows: Mrs. J. W. Morgan and son, Miss Emma Carstens, Miss Emma Esner, Susie McKinley and Walter McKinley.

—John Haller, a jeweler of Chelalis, Washington, and a brother to Mrs. Siegrist of this city, came in last week to visit for a few days, making the trip on a wheel of his own manufacture.

—Riley Cave has received from some staunch gold standard friend, a real genuine "gold bug." It will have no diet but treasury notes. With silver certificates and coin or bullion silver it will have nothing to do. Riley one day tried it with a blank bank draft but a fast of 12 hours proved its taste immitable and the next meal it ate a great hole in a $5 treasury note.

—The weather for the past 3 or 4 days has gradually been growing warmer and less comfortable, but when we read of numerous deaths in the east caused by heat, we are satisfied that with our mild winter and not unbearable summers, Oregon's is the finest climate in the world.

—Five hundred dollars worth of county warrants wanted. Apply to F. G. Mitchell, at Brock's drug store.

—T. S. Weathered and N. A. Barrett are spending a few days in the mountains above Mountaineer this week.

—Papa, what is the difference between a republican and a populist? —"There is no difference down in Alabama, my son." —"What is a republican, anyway, papa?" —"I can't tell you, my boy. McKinley hasn't defined him yet. Wait for his letter of acceptance."

—The cheap rates of 12 dollars cabin and 6 dollars steerage, including meals and berth are still in effect on the O. R. & N. Cos. steamers from Portland. Steamers leave Portland every five days.

—McKinley to coming gold standard candidate: "Here, you interloper! What are you doing here? Get out of my way! Don't you know that I'm the only, original, mortal, gold standard candidate?" —"I oughtn't to play in my yard!"

KNIGHT WON'T TALK ABOUT IT.

Messrs. J. I. Knight and W. H. Wehrung returned last Friday morning from Tacoma, whither they had attended the trial of Wm. Wilkins, charged with passing counterfeit money. Wm. was discharged, but the gentlemen contend their witness fees and mileage will not compensate them for their outlay in railway fares and hotel bills, to say nothing of their investments in "McKinley sarsaparilla" and "free silver tizes" which are now the rage as beverages.

Speaking of silver calls to mind a good story told by Sheriff Bradford at the expense of Hillsboro's ex-Judge of the Peace. It seems Mr. Wehrung was the only democrat of the trio and the two disciples of McKinley were prone to gibe Wehrung in public when occasion presented. This continuous attack made the Bryan man lose interest in life. But things changed one day, and Wehrung is yet smiling. It was thus: each street car they were about to board, Knight would ask, "Is this a McKinley car?" As the majority seemed to be that way Wehrung grew sulkier and sulkier of the frequent question. At last, revenge came, and it was complete. Two cars stood on parallel tracks and the trio approached for transit. Hailing the nearest one, Knight called out, "Hey there! Is this a McKinley car?" "No, sir, this is a Bryan car. On the other track is the car you want and it is going to the grounds. The other car!" The McKinley picnic, gentlemen! J. I. gazed at the car and saw thirty negroes bound for a

The Independent at one time, in January, 1895, contained a direct condemnation of the gold standard and in no uncertain terms stated that a condition of silver monometallism would be preferable. It is different now. If right then it is wrong now. If wrong then and right now, its record as a standard authority is broken.

RAIN FALL DOES MUCH GOOD

NO INJURY TO GRAIN Already Ripened and Under Way of Harvest.

MUCH OF THE LATE SOWN CROPS Will be Benefitted by the Moisture—Threshing is in Full Blast—Potato Crop Has a Better Outlook Than For Several Weeks.

WESTERN OREGON.

Weather—Showers continued from last week up to Friday, in the Northern portion and along the coast; in the Southern counties but little rain fell. The total rainfall from August 1st to 8th at Portland was 1.13 inches, decreasing to .11 of an inch at Roseburg. From one to two inches fell along the coast. This is the first rain on record, covering seven days, that has occurred the first part of August. Cloudy, cool weather continued up to the 10th, and today is clear though cool. Crops—The rains delayed harvesting, and may have done some slight damage to grain in shock on low land, but as a whole, the rain did practically no damage, except to delay work. Harvesting will begin again today and will be actively prosecuted. Some little threshing has been done and the results have been better than was expected. A more general spirit of encouragement prevails throughout the country. It must be admitted the grain crop is not equal to other years; yields of wheat of 25 to 35 per acre and oats 50 to 60 bushels per acre are commonly reported. Failures are spoken of when the yields are much less than those figures, yet there are few sections of the world that will produce wheat year after year and yield even 25 bushels of No. 1 wheat to the acre, and this without manure added to the soil. As the greater portion of Western Oregon has always grown 25 or more bushels of wheat to the acre, a less yield causes the farmer to be discouraged. Spring-sown grain has made some improvement since the rains, but much of it was so well advanced that the rains could do but little if any benefit. Fruit—Some correspondents report that the rains caused more fruit to fall. All conditions appear to be against fruit this year. Special reports as to fruit have been received, in addition to those reported last week. The correspondent at Langlois, Curry county, reports that the petite, silver and golden prunes have very good crops upon the trees. The Tragedy prune has a fair crop. The Abundance, Saturna and Klime Clouds have poor crops, while the Italian and German prunes are an entire failure. The young trees are making a phenomenal growth. The peach, apricot and apple crops continue to be reported as poor while pears are generally a fair crop. It must be frankly admitted that Western Oregon has this year the poorest fruit crop in quantity and quality that she has ever had. Late berries are quite plentiful, but the period of August 1st was very injurious to them. Vegetables—The rains were of great benefit to gardens and vegetables. They were especially beneficial to late planted potatoes; before the rains there was danger of the potato crop being short, while now the crop will be very fair. All vegetables are making rapid and good growth. The rains were of inestimable benefit to pastures and the second hay crop. A correspondent in Tillamook county reports clover hay yielding five tons to the acre.

SAD DROWNING Of a Washington County Boy in Lewis River.

Harry Allen Hunter, a young man who was well and favorably known here, was on August first drowned in the Lewis river, Clark county, Washington, while attempting to ford the stream. The body has not yet been recovered. The young man was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hunter, who for a number of years resided near Scholls' ferry crossing, this county. He would have been 21 years of age this October and was soon to have been married to a Miss Gertrude, a niece of the Mr. Jones, who formerly was the publisher of the Independent of this city. His parents now reside in Clackamas county and he leaves 3 brothers and 3 sisters. The young man was industrious and manly and had a large circle of friends who feel deeply his loss. His father is yet on the Lewis river trying to recover the remains.

John D. Rowell is Dead. Mr. John D. Rowell, a respected citizen of Scholls and a pioneer of 1853, died at his home Friday evening last at 6:00 o'clock, after a short and severe illness. He was a man universally esteemed and respected highly, was a prominent Odd Fellow and his death is deplored by a large circle of friends and the community at large. He was possessed of a considerable estate of which, under the provision of a late will, his wife is sole legatee. His family consists of a wife and four children, the eldest of whom is a young man of nineteen years, all of whom are possessed of liberal educations. Mr. Rowell was about 60 years of age. His remains were interred in the Odd Fellows' cemetery, the funeral services having been held at the Christian Church in this city.

The Verdict In. The verdict is already in, giving to Wilbur's Blood Purifier all that the proprietor claims for it—that it is the best blood purifier and rheumatic cure yet discovered. It is endorsed by thousands that have taken it, $1.00 per bottle. For sale by W. E. Brock.

An Incurrigible Lad. Fourteen year-old C. A. Ridgeway, whose folks live near Laurel, was brought in the other day by Constable Williams on a charge of incurrigibility performed by the father, Henry Ridgeway. The lad, so the parent affirmed is beyond all control and inclined to roam about at will. The boy was taken to the State Reform school last evening by Sheriff Bradford.
