

THE ARGUS CALENDAR

Calendar table with columns for days of the week and numbers 1 through 28.

Daily Mail Arrivals: Forest Grove, Portland, Way and Eastern, etc. Daily Mail Departures: Portland and Eastern via S.P., etc.

Wm. Bagley, Sr., was in the city Tuesday. He is one of the farmers who were fortunate enough to hold the bulk of their wheat and reap the benefit of the advance.

H. Wehrung & Sons have just received their fall line of dress goods. Don't fail to call and examine goods and prices before buying elsewhere, as they defy all competition.

Why pay your money for Wildcat paper when for the same money or less you can get as good an insurance policy as the world produces, for the same price or less, by calling on J. I. Knight, Hillsboro, Oregon.

Geo. Wan has returned from his trip to the mines. If you want to see something fine go two doors north of the post office. Call and get prices before purchasing clothing elsewhere.

Robt Walker, of Dairy Creek, was in town yesterday. C. Jensen, who for a long time was connected with the Tualatin Creamery, is now located in Denmark where he has purchased a small farm and gone into the dairy business. He says times are fairly good in his native country and that he will reside there permanently.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of the Congregational church will give a Social of Nations at Grange hall, Friday evening, November 27th. An interesting program will be rendered. Admission, 10 cents; refreshments, oysters, etc. extra.

See Haines & Bailey before you sell your wool. They are paying 12 cents per lb. for first quality. The Jackson bottom is again a lake, being bank full. The water has risen earlier this fall than for many seasons.

Calvin Pomeroy will have a new trial. The Supreme court has reversed the decision and sentence of the Circuit court of this county, and the case will probably come up at the coming term of Court.

The cheap rates of 12 dollars cabin and 6 dollars steerage, including meals and berth are still in effect on the O. R. & N. Co's steamers from Portland. Steamers leave Portland every five days.

Grand Lecturer Herrin, A. G. U. W., was in the city the latter part of last week and talked on fraternity at the Odd Fellows' hall Friday evening. Mr. Herrin is a genial gentleman and awakens an interest in A. O. U. W. circles wherever he goes.

Miller, the Second street barber, still continues to do first class work at hard times prices. Shaving 10 cents. Best in the city.

The Hatchet tells in the last issue of a party having "difficult teeth." What next—a "difficult" head?

W. E. McCourt Sundayed in McMinnville. Don't forget John Brown or his magnificent line of clothing samples. The best ever in the city without exceptions.

The overland, which has been running through this place for several days since the freshest, was sidetracked Tuesday night at the depot. It was not on the program but some one had thrown the switch whether intentionally or in a spirit of devilment. It is supposed to be the work of boys.

When you want an "up to date" hair cut, or a neat comfortable shave or both, call at the City Shaving Parlors. Hot and Cold baths immediate on order.

The first hard freeze of the season occurred last night. Ice was frozen to the thickness of about one-eighth of an inch.

Thanksgiving will soon be here and turkeys are roosting high—too high for many people in Oregon.

Thanksgiving day will be signalized in Hillsboro this year by the conducting of a union service at all the churches, in the Congregational church, at 11 a. m. on Thursday, November 26th, Rev. C. E. Clime preaching the sermon.

It is designed to make this meeting thoroughly representative in character. To it are invited all; Romanists and Protestants and those of no particular faith. Special request is made that the stores and various places of business be closed on that day, or at the least for a portion of the day, thereby giving opportunity for employes and employers, business and professional men, and all others to unite in the noble task of giving "Thanks to the Ruler of the Universe" with one accord. Especially appropriate and fitting, also, would be the attendance of the school children in a body, as far as practicable.

Let farmers and others bring specimens of fruit, vegetables, grain, etc., which will serve, placed in a conspicuous position, as concrete illustrations of the never-ceasing bounty of a loving Providence. A committee will be in waiting at the church, before the service, to receive all such contributions, and assign them their appropriate place.

To this Union Thanksgiving service we invite you all. R. L. SHELLEY, C. E. CLINE, H. L. PRATT, E. P. HUGHES.

Blood Will Tell. The many different skin diseases, such as ringworm, tetter, salt rheum, eczema, etc., are directly the cause of impure blood. The Election. Since so many statements have been made relative to the election THE ARGUS deems it important to show how close the race was at the same time acknowledging that the popular vote went for McKinley overwhelmingly. It was a wise provision of our forefathers that each state was made to elect electors and they go into an electoral college to elect a president.

These 57 votes with the 167 of the votes given him by states which went safely for him, would have elected Mr. Bryan by one majority. The total number of votes changed from McKinley to Bryan must have reached the dimensions of 20,800 divided amongst the eight states as above.

A Bargain. A neatly constructed 5 room cottage with 2 1/2 bks of business part of town. Good fence around lot, good woodshed, and two roomy closets in residence. Also pump in good repair. Goes for $600. Inquire at this office.

Brice Wilson Written Up. Away up in the mountains near Wilson river lives Brice Wilson, an Englishman, with his family. Mr. Wilson is well known by many in Hillsboro, he having been on the jury list a year or so ago. He is known as a steady reliable sort of fellow, a genius and philosopher, as well.

The Evening Telegram of Monday, this week, had a column article about Mr. Wilson's home and occupation in the mountains. It seems that Mr. Wilson went on his uncle's mountain ranch with the desire to make his living from the place without going abroad. He has been working up his cedar into decoy ducks, so says the Telegram, and has made hundreds of dollars by so doing. His market is Portland and San Francisco and as he can set his price under that of the manufacturers, he finds a ready sale. Mr. Wilson also makes gloves from elk and deer hides and occasionally does a little tanning. He is making a great success of his ranch and no one can read of his efforts in the backwoods without admiring the pluck and determination exhibited.

Thirteen acres, half under cultivation, rest slashed and seeded. Three acres of beaverdam and gravel. Situated close to Bay line road between Hillsboro and Forest Grove. Goes at $50 per acre. Call at this office.

Members of all political parties are requested to meet together at Shute's Hall on Friday evening of this week at 7:30 p. m. to commence a series of meetings to discuss prospective legislation, both state and national. The long winter evenings will be specially adapted to the discussion of such issues and it cannot fail to be beneficial to all concerned. A frequent meeting of this kind will bring out many ideas and as all are interested in public affairs this is a good opportunity to be made to have a legislature or Congress formed from our leading politicians and the issues of the present and future debated.

Consumption and bronchitis are not by any means the same, although it is hard to distinguish one from the other. Bronchitis is an inflammation of the lining of the wind tubes or air vessels of the lungs, causing soreness of the same, cough, sore throat, hoarseness, difficulty of breathing, spitting of matter and sometimes blood. Throat is annually with this dread disease. Wilbur's Cough Cure will cure. Price 50 cents. For sale by W. E. Brock.

Mitchell and the Quadrant. There are many settlers up on the quadrant who are wondering whether Mr. Mitchell, the senior senator from Oregon, should be returned; will have so great a change of heart as to their rights on the land in controversy as to bid on the money question. It will be remembered that many have made their homes on this now disputed territory, have spent years of toil in the improvement thereof and they are naturally interested. One man who settled on a piece of this land several years ago and who has cleared up 15 acres in the heavy timber, passed through here Monday in a prairie schooner, enroute to Kansas. To an Argus reporter he said: "Life is too short to wait any longer on the quadrant decision. Eight years ago I settled up there and each year added a trifle to the tillable land. I am going home to Kansas before I get as poor as some of my neighbors up there." "How poor is that?" ventured our scribe. "Well, I'll tell you," was the response. "When one man moved away from up there all he had to do was to sling the kid on his shoulder, throw a bucket of water on the fire, call to his wife, whistle for his dog, and he was ready to start."

This man further stated that the settlers on the quadrant had little faith in Mr. Mitchell's sincerity on the land question and that many of their number were of the belief that the railroad company would get the land beyond a doubt within three years, title improvements and all.

Oil of Gladness. Is a pleasant, palatable preparation, entirely free from all oily taste, and may be administered internally or applied externally.
