—Superintendent Craig was in the city Tuesday, on business connected with his office. Mr. Craig now carries his office books with him, which makes school business a pleasure to all school district officers, as they can do business whenever and wherever they find him.

—Here is a bargain for some one wanting a farm of 40 acres within two miles of this city. Somewhat improved. Fifteen acres beaver-dam and swail. Goes at $40 per acre.

—L. Reynolds, the Bethany democratic warhorse, was in the city Tuesday. Reynolds says that even some of the McKinley men out his way are kicking.

—To cure all old sores, to heal an indolent ulcer, or to speedily cure piles, you need simply apply DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve according [illegible] its magic-like [illegible] on W. E. brock.

—Second street was last week enlivened by Mr. Dickson's team running from Koch's butcher shop, it having been frightened by a passing dray. The horses left part of the wagon at the depot and proceeded on to Jackson's bottom where they were stopped and brought back. Damage about $12.

—Wm. Josse, the Lenox dairy man, was in the city last week and reports having received nearly $35 each for the product of his fourteen cows. This is the kind of farming that pays.

—Absolutely pure, perfectly harmless and invariably reliable are the qualities of One Minute Cough Cure. It never fails in colds, croup and lung troubles. Children like it because it is pleasant to take and it helps them. W. E. Brock.

—Al. Wirtz, of Dilley, is now located at Mountaindale.

—Col. F. V. Drake, a prominent attorney of Portland, was in the city Monday attendant at Circuit Court. Mr. Drake is an enthusiastic bi-metallist and is with a considerable degree of interest watching the cause of national events. Many will remember the Col. as having made several very able speeches in this county last autumn.

—When you want a first class shave or an up to date haircut remember to call on E. R. Miller, the Second street barber. Most fashionable in the city.

—The many young friends of Miss Bristow, teacher in the Hillsboro public schools, tendered her a very pleasant surprise Monday evening at the residence of Mrs. John Masters. Music and games made up a delightful evening.

—The Oregonian is booming M. L. Pipes, whom Hillsboro people will remember as associate counsel in the defense of X. N. Steeves, to succeed Judge McKenna, who left a United States Circuit Judgeship to accept a position in McKinley's cabinet.

—The thrifty young redwoods in front of the Recorder's and Clerk's office in the court yard have been trimmed by Janitor N. A. Barret, in order that light may properly be let into the office windows. These trees were set out several years ago, the donation of John R. Potter, the founder of Porter's nursery, near Forest Grove. Mr. Porter is now deceased but his monuments are still growing tributes to his public spirit.

—Machinist W. J. Benson has been up at Carstens Bros.' mill near Manning this week making repairs on the boiler.

—Miss Elizabeth Milne, who is attending school at Monmouth, visited with her father over Sunday returning Monday.

—J. R. Bailey, the prominent Buxton rancher, was down to this city the first of the week. This rustler has a thrifty young orchard of sixteen hundred trees on his ranch. It is composed chiefly of prunes, four hundred of which will bear the coming season if late frosts do not interfere. He already has seventy acres under cultivation and is each year adding to his plow land.

—Robert Edmondson and Miss Ruby Williams have taken out license to wed. Miss Williams was under the age of consent, being but seventeen, but C. H. Edmondson made affidavit that she had resided in this county the past eighteen months; that her mother was dead; that her father had not been heard from for at least twelve years; that she had no guardian; whereupon Clerk Imbrie issued license.

—"Excuse me," observed the man in spectacles, "but I am a surgeon, and that is not where the liver is." "Never you mind where the liver is," retorted the other. "If it was in his big toe or his left ear DeWitt's Little Early Risers would reach it and shake it for him. On that you can bet your gig lamps." W. E. Brock.

—Isn't it about time to know whether Hillsboro is going to do anything towards a celebration on the Fourth of July? Are the soldiers going to have their re-union then, here, afterward, or there? Some one should find out and report to the press.

—Mr. George Carleton appears to be somewhat unfortunate. After having been confined to his room for several days, he felt well enough to take the air, and was out Friday morning last, on the Jackson bottom where Dixon's runaway team came running by. Carleton in endeavoring to stop them, slipped, fell and sprained his shoulder quite severely.

—Schulmerich & Son is the place to buy a new hat for small heads or big heads. Can fit any man or boy.

—D. B. Emerick, of Scholls, was a visitor to the county seat Tuesday. He tells us that the Seelye mill, now under lease to C. R. Adams, is running right along. Adams has put a burr flouring mill in connection with the lumber mill and has been turning out a product meeting with great satisfaction in that section. This last acquisition is of decided benefit to Scholls farmers.

—E. E. Colestock gives you the best shave in the city. Hair cut at popular price. Try his baths. Don't forget the place—City shaving Parlors, Main street.

—Hon. T. A. McBride is of the opinion that the demands of necessary legislation will force Governor Lord to call an extra session. There are numerous reasons why something should be done—one of them being the fact that Circuit Judges throughout the State can get no pay for their services until an appropriation is made. Two years will be a long time to wait, but the judiciary is not alone in the predicament.

—The president of The Royal Tailors has just arrived from Chicago. For the present he can be seen at the express office where John Brown would be pleased to give the public an introduction and explain his business while here in the city. It is to the interest of all enterprising citizens to call soon.

—Hon. S. B. Huston attended to legal business in Portland today.

—I have an overstock of tea, and to the first 50 purchasers I will give 50 cents worth of tea and a 50 cent English Terra Cotta teapot both for 50 cents. Don't wait till they are all gone, but call early at Brown's Cash Grocery, Hillsboro.

—Ulrich Kampf, the Glencoe cheese maker and dairyman, was in town this morning.

—B. M. Collins, of Gales Creek, is in the city, and is one of the jurors in the Circuit court. Mr. Collins is in favor of having the Veteran's re-union at this place this summer, and informs us that the executive committee of the association will meet in Beaverton the first Thursday in May to decide upon location. He tells us that the inaugural ball at Eli Smith's, Gales Creek, was a great success.

President, Mrs. E. M. H. Thorne.
Vice-presidents, Mesdames A. B. Waggener and John Masters.

Oregon's Grand Chancellor.

Hon. Turner Oliver, of LaGrande, Grand Chancellor of the Oregon Knights of Pythias, visited this city Monday evening and spent the time profitably with the boys of Phoenix Lodge. Mr. Oliver is a prominent merchant of LaGrande and was for two terms County Clerk of Union county. He will return to this county in about three weeks, when he will visit Glencoe and Forest Grove lodges, and perhaps deliver a public address under the auspices of Delphos lodge at the Grove.

PARROT FAMILY AGAIN

Prosecuting Attorney Alleges Subornation

BROUGHT BACK FROM PORTLAND

W. H. Burns Gets $400 Damages From N. P.---Death of M. M. Abbott---Probate Record.

It is reported that Chas. Parrott and wife, who are under bail to appear before the Circuit Court to answer a charge of alleged larceny of money from the residence of Isaac Allen, attempted to vacate Tuesday, getting as far as Portland, where they now live. The District Attorney feared this was their purpose and had them held at that city. Officer Begley brought them out last evening. The Parrotts claim they were not trying to get away. On Tuesday, the District Attorney filed an information against the Parrotts, alleging that they had solicited one W. T. Atkinson to falsely swear he had purchased from them, early in January, hay and potatoes, paying therefor $25. The Dist. Att'y alleged that such alleged false testimony would have been material to the case of State vs Parrotts wherein Allen was prosecuting witness. Judge Smith thereupon issued a warrant for their arrest and it was upon this information that they were returned.

Settled Without Suit.

W. H. Burns and wife came out on Monday evening's train and were guests at the home of W. V. Wiley. When Mr. Burns left this city last autumn he went in the N. P. train service, running on freight out of Tacoma to Ellensburg. One night while the train was running thro' one of the numerous tunnels in the division, a rock, loosened by the jar of the train, fell and struck Burns on the head, giving him such an ugly wound that he has since been unable to perform manual labor.

As soon as he was able he came to Portland and took charge of the Quimby Bar. The other day the Northern Pacific Claim agent paid him $400 as damages for the injury received, and this was accepted by Burns rather than to have a long drawn law suit with the company.

Death of M. M. Abbott.

M. M. Abbott, one of Hillsboro's quiet and unostentatious citizens, passed away Sunday at 3:30 p. m. after a several weeks' illness superinduced by consumption. He was buried Tuesday in the Masonic cemetery, under the auspices of Tuality Lodge, A. F. and A. M.. Deceased was a native of Fayette county, Iowa, where he was born in 1854. He came to this state from Nebraska in 1890 and has been a resident of Hillsboro ever since. He leaves a wife and brother in this city to mourn his loss. Mr. Abbott was a man of very quiet disposition and was universally respected.

—Quite a number of Hillsboro people were much interested in the Carson City fight, Wednesday, and as usual, there are now many trying to explain why Corbett was defeated. Before the battle there were only six or seven Fitzsimmons' men in the town, but since the result has been announced it has been reasonably hard to find a man but who thought the Australian had a great chance to win. It is not expected that the Washington county grand jury will find a bill against the two pugilists.

—Sheriff Bradford will this week turn over about $7000 to Treasurer Cady, and this will eat considerable of a hole in the warrant debt.

—Kid gloves, all shades, styles and prices at Schulmerich's.

—Upon information sworn to by H. L. Kocher, alleging that the defendant had sold liquor contrary to the state statues, one John Woida, of Sherwood, was yesterday brought to this city upon a warrant issued out of Judge Smith's court.
