Sure Kill Squirrel Poison 5 lbs for 95 cent at Brooks.

The private school commenced Monday morning with a very good attendance and the familiar ringing of the public school bell still has its charm.

A fresh barrel of pickles at Greer's.

Miss Anna McDonald, of Forest Grove, spent several days last week in this city, the guest of Miss Ethel Merryman.

Jesse Stewart and Fred Rod have returned from Portland where they have graduated out of the business course at the Portland Business College.

I have an overstock of tea, and to the first 50 purchasers I will give 50 cents worth of tea and a 50 cent English Terra Cotta teapot both for 50 cent. Don't wait till they are all gone, but call early at Brown's Cash Grocery, Hillsboro.

Chas. Naylor, well known here as a horseman, has sold his racing mare, Kitty Kisber, to E. House. Charley Woods says he will leave the turf for good, having sold all his stock.

G. W. Hermens will hereafter conduct his Centerville sawmill, the company to which he had leased the property having disbanded. So our Centerville correspondent says.

Torturing, itching, scaly skin eruptions, burns and scalds are soothed at once and promptly healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the best known cure for piles. W. E. Brock.

William Ehler has been admitted to citizenship, taking out his final papers on Monday of this week.

Mrs. H. P. Ford, who has been ill for some time, will be taken to the Portland hospital next week to receive treatment.

Remember you can save money by buying your seeds of Bob Greer.

Walter McKinney has been able to be at his desk several days this week, and the clerk's office seems once more familiar. J. W. Morgan has been acting as clerk in the court room.

Don't allow the lungs to be impaired by the continuous irritation of a cough. It is easier to prevent consumption than to cure it. One Minute Cough Cure taken early will ward off any fatal lung trouble. W. E. Brock.

H. Hutmman, one of our well known citizens, has for several days been suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

A large number of witnesses were up Tuesday on the Warren case, and when asked by counsel where they resided, answered, "New Jerusalem." No witnesses from that section were liable to over-ruled although the court over-ruled Mr. Adams' motion to that effect.

Schulmerich & Son is the place to buy a new hat for small heads or big heads. Can fit any man or boy.

Mrs. George O. James, of Forest Grove, will leave this week for a visit to her old home in Chicago, Illinois.

Large licensees have been granted to Harry E. Johnson and Andrew Larsen and Mrs. M. Buerger; George Zimmerman and Miss Mary E. Jones. Mr. Zimmerman is a well known young man of Glencoe and Mrs. Jones is daughter of Mr. Mrs. John Johnson residing about two miles from

Sam Moon, the Centerville dairyman, was out in the windstorm Thursday last looking after his cattle. Old Boreas' first cousin blew goodnatured Sam to the ground, and as fast as he would arise, down he would go again. He finally grabbed hold a small grub and clung to it until the wind subsided. His shouts were heard all over the Centerville "downs."

Many cases of "Grippe" have lately been cured by One Minute Cough Cure. This preparation seems especially adapted to the cure of this disease. It acts quickly thus preventing serious complications and bad effects in which this disease leaves the patient. W. E. Brock.

Mrs. Pelton and two children left for Stella, Washington, last week where they will spend the summer.

During the recent trials where in the language would hardly grace a drawing room, the order of Judge McBride that all under twenty-one be excluded from the court room met with popular favor. Heretofore little boys have made a practice to be present at such cases.

They are so small that the most sensitive persons take them, they are so effective that the most obstinate cases of constipation, headache and torpid liver yield to them. That is why DeWitt's Little Early Risers are known as the famous little pill. W. E. Brock.

A. K. Watson, the Mountaineer merchant, has been attending court for several days as a witness in a state case. He reports an addition to his family—a boy, born March 16th.

Week before last the Hatcher told us what a nice lot of little boys the grand jury were. Last week the grand jury told us what a nice little boy the Hatcher man was. What will we have this week?

E. E. Turner, of Compton, Mo., writes us that after suffering from piles for seventeen years he is completely cured them by using three boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures eczema and severe skin diseases. W. E. Brock.

Messrs. Geo. Schulmerich and Al Latham visited Delphos Lodge at the Grove last Saturday night to attend anniversary exercises. The grand chancellor, Oliver, was present and delivered one of the grandest public speeches yet heard in this county on Pythianism. The Delphos boys regally entertained their guests with a fine lunch at the close.

Charles True, the Middleton bridge builder was in the city the first of the week.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it. W. E. Brock.

The trout season opens today and many a speckled beauty will sacrifice its life to the relish of our sportsmen. E. D. Thorne is one of our most successful sportsmen and he already has promised "frys" for seventy-three different families. This will not inconvenience him as he knows where the trout nest.

W. T. Gardner, the superintendent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid Society, was out Tuesday taking an active interest in the case of State vs. Warren.

The many friends of L. A. Whitcomb and wife are wishing them success in their new home in California, whither they have removed to permanently reside.

It is surprising what a "wee bit of a thing" can accomplish. Sick headache, constipation, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness, are quickly banished by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small pill. Safe pill. Best pill. W. E. Brock.

J. I. Knight has returned from his health trip to Boise City, much improved. He has lost some of his adipose tissue, but has a healthy color in his cheek. His many friends are pleased to see him home. So is the "kid."

Hillsboro has not been behind the age in many respects, even if it be a small town. In Brock's Drug Store a fine life size painting of Mrs. Dr. Tamiesie and child, is on exhibition. The work was executed by Miss Rose Wilcox and is very true to life. In The Delta window is a very fine crayon bust of Attorney Geo. R. Bagley, the artist being Mr. Clyde Reeves.

His Honor Judge McBride seems to feel that Portland attorneys think a "ooow county" court can be made a foot ball. They will have a case set for hearing and then not appear, but telephone out on that day asking for a continuance. The Judge has given notice from the bench that his court can not any longer be Fitzsimmoned by the Portland legal talent.

The wind raged Thursday last all over the Northwest, blowing in this vicinity at about 55 miles an hour. Many fences were blown down and buildings in some localities suffered. Loui Manning was quite a loser, his large hay shed being unroofed, much fence prostrated and about one hundred cords of wood overturned. Trees were blown across the roads in all localities and travel suffered for several days.

CIRCUIT COURT STILL IN SESSION

MANY STATE CASES

THE DOCKET IS ABOUT CLEARED

John Moore and The Downs Woman are Sentenced—His Brother and Florence Cameron Plead Guilty and Get off With Light Fines.

On Friday last John Moore and Lou Downs were tried for unlawful cohabitation. John M. Wall was appointed counsel for defendants and Dist. Attorney Cleaton and Geo. R. Bagley appeared for the state. Nine witnesses for prosecution were examined and three for defense, inclusive of the two defendants. Saturday morning the jury returned a verdict of guilty and the judge imposed a sentence of six months in the county jail upon Moore and three months in the Multnomah county jail upon the co-defendant.

The trial of State v H B Hollenbeck, on a charge of alleged rape occupied Saturday and Monday. Ten witnesses for state. Eight for defense. Jury retired Monday evening, staying out until Tuesday 4:40, when, upon failing to agree, they were discharged. Defendant is held in custody until further disposition of the case.

On Tuesday morning, S B Huston, Attorney for defendants Ralph Moore and Florence Cameron charged with unlawful cohabitation, had defendants change plea of not guilty and enter plea of guilty. A plea for the court's leniency brought the following sentences: Moore to be fined one hundred dollars or serve 50 days in the county jail; Florence Cameron, fifty dollars fine or twenty five days in the county jail. Indictments of adultery was dismissed upon motion of district attorney.

The remainder of Tuesday was occupied in the case of the state v W H Warren, on trial for alleged rape, his daughter being the prosecuting witness. Five witnesses for state and eighteen for defendant. Jury retired and on Wednesday morning returned a verdict of not guilty. Defendant was placed under bonds of $500 on another charge, gave bail and was released from custody.

The case of State v Chas and Janey Parrot for alleged larceny of $400 from the house of Isaac Allen long last January, came up yesterday. Nine witnesses testified for the state and eight for the defense. The court held an evening session and the jury retired at a late hour. This morning a verdict of not guilty was returned. The indictment alleging subornation was dismissed on motion of the district attorney. The Ditchburn disbarment proceedings will be heard at an adjourned session.

Confirmations—Dundee Mortgage & Trust Investment Co v R W Williams; M J Sammons v E H Malleis; Union Savings Bank v J R Miller.

Order for Sheriff's deed—John Aspinwall v H C Breeden; George Graham v Jacob Penning et al; Richard Lardner v Elizabeth Patton; E L Olson v Betty Anderson; C F Plympton v Eugene D White.

Action of Mary M Hughes v Nellie Green was dismissed upon motion plaintiff's counsel.

Kenyon Crandall v C H DeLaney and wife. Default and Decree.

Plaintiff allowed 60 days to file bill of exceptions in matter of Edw Boyd v M Boyd.

Edward Boyd v Michael Boyd, action for damages, verdict rendered for the defendant. Non suit granted.

Russel & Co v A J Wilkes et al; case dismissed as against Wilkes.

M A Danks v F J Williams, as constable. This was an action for alleged wrongful seizure of property while acting as an officer, said property being at the time held by Jos Reid, Mrs Danks and others claiming ownership. Jury drawn and evidence submitted. Verdict returned for Mrs Danks covering recovery of property and granting $25 damages.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.—Mrs. J. A. Imbrie has returned from her California trip much improved in health. She brought with her a box each of lemons and oranges from the orchard of Clyde Wyckoff, formerly a grocer at Mt. Tabor, near Portland. One small lemon branch amongst her collection has 9 full grown lemons attached. Mr. Imbrie wrote her while in California requesting her to get him a curio of some kind, for a paper weight, to be used in his office. The little boy brought home the desired memento—and it is a full grown horned toad. This office returns thanks for oranges and lemons.

—Sure Kill Squirrel Poison is guaranteed to kill. For sale by W. E. Brock.

Mr. M. J. Greene, special agent of the German Alliance Fire Insurance Co., was in the city Wednesday.

If you like good bread you can make it from Crescent flour. Ask your dealer for it.

Chris Hesse and Ferd Groner were up from Scholls yesterday and reported high water on the lower Tualatin and bottoms. Scholls, they say, has been very fortunate in rain-fall, having no more than Hillsboro.

Forest Grove bakers always use Crescent flour.

M. J. Ballantyne will preach at the Evangelical church next Sunday evening. All are cordially invited.

Try Crescent flour. The best is always the cheapest. Ask your dealer for it.

The Hext Concert Company which appeared at the Opera House Monday evening under the auspices of the band fulfilled the expectations of the public in every way. It is very safe to say that it was really the finest treat the town has had for many years, and the band boys and general public are well pleased.

Farmers, attention! Now is the time to poison squirrels by using Sure Kill Squirrel Poison, 5 lbs for 95 cents. For sale by W. E. Brock.

Eugene Jackson, accompanied by Loren Jackson and wife, left the first of the week for the Okanagon Country, going overland.

Call and see Haines & Bailey's new spring goods. They have a fine assortment.

Mrs. Peter Boscow is in Portland at the bedside of her son Arthur, who is suffering from an attack of rheumatism.

E. J. Lyons takes this means to advise those indebted to him to settle by the first of April, or the accounts will be placed in an attorney's hands for immediate collection.

Almost all the onion raisers of this county sold their products at low prices, although the Fanno Brothers realized the top market of San Francisco and Portland. Potatoes go at from 60 to 75 cents per sack. If the weather clears up so that farmeas may put in onions by May 1st, a good harvest will be the result.

One minute is all the time necessary to decide from personal experience that One Minute Cough Cure does what its name implies. W. E. Brock.

Married: On March 25th, 1897, at Beaverton, Oregon, Miss Mabel Vaughn to Mr. Bert T. Widell, Rev. Taggart officiating.

E. E. Colestock gives you the best shave in the city. Hair cut at popular price. Try his baths. Don't forget the place—City Shaving Parlors, Main street.

The board of trade sugar beet committee is having many calls for seed and the bulk will soon be exhausted. This fall we will know exactly what can be done in producing this crop.

When you want a first class shave or an up to date haircut remember to call on E. R. Miller, the Second street barber. Most fashionable in the city.

C. H. De Laney was down from Mountaineer this week on business with the county. Mr. De Laney is one of the progressive farmers of his section.

Schulmerich & Son keep a line of agricultural machinery at prices to suit the times. See them and get prices before purchasing.

Snow and rain, with an occasional glimpse of the sun, is not so bad after all, when we read of Eastern storms and inundation in the Wisconsin and Mississippi river valleys.

Kid gloves, all shades, styles and prices at Schulmerich's.

Schulmerich & Son buy goods cheap and sell them cheap.

The Jackson bottom is again inundated and carps are very numerous. Jesse Crandall is authority for this and says he saw an immense school of these mud suckers the other day.

Miss Lucy Humphreys will teach the spring term of school at Greenville, while Miss Rose Wilcox will teach at Shady Brook. Both are of the late corps of Hillsboro teachers.

Some weeks ago this paper contained an article naming De Soto as he who hunted for the fountain of youth. Our school ma'ams haven't as yet called us down so we will correct the ugly wound given history. It should have named Ponce de Leon. We want to be again at peace with the world.

This vicinity seems to be turning out its share of teachers. Geo. Tamiesie has been teaching the Roy school; John Willis is teaching at Bethany; Ralph Wann holds forth in the Mead district; Miss May Willis is at the helm in the Schulmerich district; Frank Stewart soon commences the Beneficial school; Al Latham wields the ferule at the Shute school; Jesse Shelley is the Shute Hazel instructor; Perry Corum teaches at Mountaineer and Miss Jennie Archbold is engaged at the Haywood school.

ANOTHER PIONEER PASSES AWAY

THE RUSE WORKED

HOW LAWYERS SOMETIMES DO

Kocher Goes After "Vox"—Hillsboro Romance—Executor's Sale of a Large Amount of Personal Property.

Another Pioneer Dead. Peter Kindt, the pioneer of Kinton, and postmaster at that place has departed from scenes of his last forty years, having died Sunday night after an attack of pneumonia lasting but a few days. Deceased was a native of Pennsylvania and came to this state in the early '50's, crossing the plains in company with Miles Davis. Mr. Kindt was a man of sterling character and was the center of a large pioneer acquaintance. He leaves three grown children, E. C. Kindt, a Portland attorney, John Kindt, living at Kinton and Mrs. Elliott, a teacher in the Hillsboro public schools.

A Very Good Precedent. In law, as well as in many other cases, there is "many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip." Attorneys are not blind to the effects of general appearances and they frequently practice little coup d'etats which are amusing yet have marked results upon juries. A recent case before the circuit court holds an example of cupidity which is worthy of narration. A man was indicted, and his counsel, two partners, went into court with the defendant and entered a plea of "not guilty." Trial was set and the attorneys set to work at the case. The junior member of the firm is noted for his fastidiousness in apparel and was rather inclined to believe his client's chances would be benefitted could his general appearance be more genteel. To the senior counsel, he said, "see here, we must slick that fellow up on the day of trial and have him appear in a decent looking suit." The senior counsel offered for service one of his old suits but it proved rather "roomy," multiplied by two Junior counsel thereupon went into his wardrobe, procured a '95 suit, attired the client and although they fitted rather "soon," went to trial with confidence benign. It is needless to say that counsel for defense secured acquittal. The junior attorney is now more than ever convinced that the "old clothes" man is a "bar militant" to legal success. How the story leaked out is not known, but there is no copy-right on the system, and the legal profession may or may not profit by the precedent.

After "Vox Populi." Mr. H. Kocher writes THE ARGUS a letter in which he goes after "Vox Populi," who last week criticized the action of the complaining witness in the case of State vs. John Wolda. Mr. Kocher says there was no justice at Sherwood at the time of the complaint, but says nothing about the recorder.

The case referred to was brought before a Hillsboro justice and dismissed for want of jurisdiction and the county will pay the costs. So far as the evidence before the grand jury is concerned, of this THE ARGUS knows nothing. Mr. Kocher says the witnesses went before the grand jury, not before a justice. As to that, the justice's record show that the case was brought and dismissed and as the grand jury brought no bill it appears that the evidence was not very strong. Mr. Kocher views the case in a personal manner, and does not confine himself to the subject matter or his declarations would have been given a hearing.

Another Romance. Hillsboro is now afforded another romance, the parties figuring in it being two popular young people, Mr. Perry Gardner and Miss Lydia Lichty, both of Hillsboro. Away last fall they were married at Vancouver, Washington, Oregon's Gretna Green, and no one has been the wiser in this section but themselves. Miss Lichty is one of our bright young women and Mr. Gardner is an industrious young fellow full of enterprise and energy. It is reported that the cause of secrecy was the bride's mother's desire that that they wait a year or so.

The young people have a very large circle of friends who wish them every possible happiness.

District No. 14. Mr. G. W. Tamiesie has just closed a very successful term of school in district No. 14. The associations of the teacher, pupils and patrons of the school have been the most congenial in nature and the teacher takes this method of thanksgiving all concerned for the uniform courtesies and kindness extended him during the term, and hopes that his pupils may in the end reach the highest planes of citizenship and honor. On Friday afternoon last the school held closing exercises, when the following numbers were presented:

Recitations—Otto Wilson, The Little Frog; Lizzie Van Domelon, Mother's Face; Henry Van de Hey, The Little Squirrel; Clara Phillips, She Loves; Jacob Van Domelon, A Difficult Task; Oliver Woods, Speak the Truth; Lizzie Van de Hey, Book Life; Logan McNew, Boys Will Drink; Rosalee Wilson, Diamond Days; Nellie Chalmers, There's Work for us All; George Roy, A Happy Pair; Lotie Wilson, What the Book Says; George Thurston, Barbara Fritchie, Song, Angry Words.
