Born Friday, April 2nd to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Young, near Hillsboro, a 10 pound baby girl. All are doing well.

The Kodak is all the rage these days, and many and amusing are the errors of amateur operators. One young gentleman of this town bought one, took a snap shot of a desired point, and went home to develop the film. Instead of developing the film, he put the paper protector in chance and threw the film away.

About eighty in number congregated at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Hare Tuesday night and tendered Rev. Egan P. Hughes, of the Congregational church, a surprise in honor of his 34th birth anniversary. The event was really one of the social occasions of the season.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered.

Mr. Cady, our county treasurer, states that he will proceed to liquidate the state tax without further ceremony, and as fast as incoming money will permit.

David Patterson, of Portland, has been spending several days in this city, the guest of his son, Hon. G. W. Patterson.

It is surprising what a "wee bit of a thing" can accomplish. Sick headache, constipation, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness, are quickly banished by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small pill. Safe pill. Best pill. W. E. Brock.

I have an overstock of tea, and to the first 50 purchasers I will give 50 cents worth of tea and a 50 cent English Terra Cotta teapot both for 50 cents. Don't wait till they are all gone, but call early at Brown's Cash Grocery, Hillsboro.

The hounds of John Brooks, of Phillips, killed a panther. Mr. Brooks treed him. The brute measured eight feet.

Mr. Charles Elwel, of Portland, spent Sunday in the city. It is not known whether he is looking for a post office or a farm—presumably the former as he belongs to the Portland postal department.

Sure Kill Squirrel Poison 5 lbs for 95 cent at Brooks.

Theodore Pointer, the Sylvan farmer, was up Tuesday trying to straighten out a muddle in the school affairs of 42 joint.

Don't allow the lungs to be impaired by the continuous irritation of a cough. It is easier to prevent consumption than to cure it. One Minute Cough Cure taken early will ward off any fatal lung trouble. W. E. Brock.

A. Nelson, one of the trustees of the Oregon Fire Relief Association, of McMinnville, was down Saturday from Yamhill and adjusted the Blanchard barn loss. Mr. Blanchard will receive his check in a few days.

THIRTY-TWO FARMERS

Will Experiment on Sugar Beet Culture.

SMALL TRIAL CROP THIS SEASON

W. V. Wiley Elected Chief of the Hillsboro Fire Department—Hillsboro's Whist Player Returns With Honors.

There seems to be an earnest desire upon the part of Washington county farmers to try the sugar beet industry in a practical manner and some thirty two have already taken seeds for planting from the Board of Trade committee.

The handling of the crop, manner of planting, cultivation etc, will be under the direction of the Oregon Agricultural college, and the best possible results are thereby hoped for.

Each person taking seeds is well known and will do his or her best to give the matter a thorough test. These names are viz: Henry Matthes and Newton Wohmer, Laurel; M. C. Lincoln, B. P. Cornelius, John Joss, O. J. Tompkins, Glencoe; Thos. Emerick, Wm. Mohr, F. Doughty, A. G. Anderson, Loul Manning, Peter Gottlieb, Geo. Billings, W. R. Jackson, P. H. Baughman, of Hillsboro; J. G. Rev Father DeRoo is having his new book (Ancient America Before Columbus) copied in typewriting.

It is reported that quite a lot of stealing has been going on about Centerville lately. It would be well for the thieves to take sacks without holes, then they would not be so easily traced. Frank VanLoos has commenced freighting to Portland again.

FROM PHILLIPS.

J W Toelle spent last week at home, from Washington state.

Saturday last the young people had a "rattling" good dance at Mr Nelson's.

The Misses Mary and Minnie Preints visited at the West Union school last Monday. They report a good progressive school.

Mr F Kruger has left for British Columbia. He is missed by the Rock Creek Literary—especially the feminine part.

The Bethany Brass Band will take in several new members.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Winter still lingers in the lap of spring—and that is no josh.

A Thornburg and son were down from Manning the first of the week, in attendance at Commissioners' court.

The sale at the Imbrie farm on Tuesday of this week was well attended and nearly all things sold at good round prices.

Farmers, attention! Now is the time to poison squirrels by using Sure Kill Squirrel Poison, 5 lbs for 95 cents. For sale by W. E. Brock.

Brother Craig, of the Hatchel, got after the grand jury last week. After reading a full column one was at a loss to find the point of his story.
