

ATONED FOR HIS CRIME.

L. W. Melson, the Murderer, Executed at Grants Pass.

Grants Pass, July 5.—Lemuel W. Melson was executed here today. He abandoned all hope yesterday. He was taken into the Episcopal church and baptized by Rev. Isaac Dawson.

There was a great many people in town to witness the hanging. Sheriff Hiatt issued 100 invitations, and besides those in the enclosed space the court-house yard is well filled.

At 10:01 Sheriff Hiatt and his deputies, with Melson, ascended the scaffold. When asked if he had anything to say, Melson said:

"I am guilty of killing Perry, and am sorry for it. May God have mercy on my guilty soul."

Melson was perfectly composed and calm. He bid the sheriff good-bye, and at 10:13 the drop was sprung.

WEYLER WANTS MORE MEN.

Will Demand Sixty Thousand Additional Troops.

New York, July 5.—A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from Havana says: General Weyler will require at least 60,000 more troops to conquer the eastern provinces and hold them for Spain.

All regular troops that can be spared from Pinar del Rio, the western trocha, Havana, Matanzas and Santa Clara districts, are being concentrated at Sancti Spiritus, where Weyler has directed the immediate organization of 14 columns, at the head of which he will try to drive Gomez across the new trocha and invade Puerto Principe province, where Calixto Garcia's forces are said to be massing.

Weyler expects a great pitched battle when he meets Garcia, the result of which may be the turning point in the war. Should Weyler's army meet with defeat, Spain will then be ready to listen to President McKinley's offers of intervention.

El Comercio warns the government that agents of the American sugar trust are now in Cuba buying up all the best plantations, and urges Weyler to prevent by special decree foreigners from buying or holding real estate here in future.

CLOSE CALL FOR JACK TARS.

Thirty Men Scalded on Board of the Monitor Puritan.

New York, July 5.—Thirty men narrowly escaped death in the boiler-room of the monitor Puritan. That they were not scalded to death is due to the presence of mind of one of the crew.

The Puritan is moored at the foot of the main street of the Brooklyn navy-yard, and has been undergoing repairs for her boilers. The repairs had been completed and the men were only putting on the finishing touches at the time of the explosion.

When the burst of steam came from the boiler August Wilson, the boiler-maker, in charge, ordered the men to get out of the room. Wilson was the last to get out, and while he was trying to find the entrance to the engine-room, he heard the report of the explosion, rushed into the room. Cowie made several attempts to get to the valves, but was held back by Wilson.

The cause of the accident was the blowing out of the crown sheet in one of the boilers. It was a miracle, the

AN OPEN LETTER TO MOTHERS.

We are asserting in the courts our right to the exclusive use of the word "CASTORIA" and "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," as our Trade Mark. I, Dr. Samuel Pitcher, of Hyannis, Massachusetts, was the originator of "PITCHER'S CASTORIA," the same that has borne and does now bear the fac-simile signature of CHAS. H. Long Distance Telephoning. A merchant in an Eastern city not long ago happened to meet a business acquaintance in a public station as he was paying for a 30-minute conversation and smiling over it. The merchant's comment upon the size of the transaction was met by the remark that a trip to Chicago had been saved and $500 made on the order which had just been taken by telephone.

HOW HE TOOK A BRIDE.

The Indirect Way This Man Had of Selling His Vote.

A few years ago, when a United States Senatorial election was impending in Ohio, one of the leading candidates needed another vote to make his election sure and his campaign manager, after canvassing the situation, began work upon a bucolic representative from one of the Western Reserve counties, says a correspondent.

The old man grew very indignant at the first hint of money in connection with his vote. He fumed a great deal, swore a little and very melodramatically asserted that "his manhood was not for sale at any price."

"You will readily understand, sir," he added, "that having so much at stake as I do it would be impossible for me to entertain for one moment any proposition you might make to try to influence my vote in this matter. My vote is not for sale, but I have no ill feeling toward you for what you have tried to do. And as proof of that fact I'll go right over to your room now and join you in a social game of euchre, just between ourselves."

"All right," assented the lobbyist, "I'm pretty busy, but I guess I can find time enough for a single rubber with you. How about stakes?" "Twenty-five hundred a corner." "No—two thousand."

They played. The lobbyist lost. The

Two San Francisco grocers—Ring Bros.—won $100.00 each because they sent the most before June 15th.

But grocers and clerks can get more tickets consumers; so we also paid $100.00 each to the named below:

Mrs. Wm. Funk, Winnemucca, Nevada, 732 tickets. Mrs. L. Daring, 819 Bryant Street, San Francisco, 73 tickets. Mrs. Daring got a number of friends in San Francisco and near by (one keeps a boarding house) to give her tickets; and she used the tea herself.

By the way, she uses Schilling's Best baking powder and extracts—too bad she doesn't know how good Schilling's Best spices are! But she says the extracts and baking powder are wonderful.

A woman in Stockton, who keeps a restaurant, came very near getting a prize. She deserves one for supplying her customers such good tea.

Better read our advertisements every day—some contain suggestions how to win the prize.

By the way, grocers can't compete for the two $150.00 prizes offered for the most yellow tickets in one envelope between June 15th and August 31st. They can, however, compete for the $100.00 prize.

Franklin's Bequest in Court. If Benjamin Franklin, one of the wisest of men, could have foreseen the difficulties and complications that have grown out of his famous bequest to the city of Boston of $5,000, more than 100 years ago, he would probably have cancelled that part of the will, or at least made its provisions very different, remarks the Buffalo Commercial.

How Hawaii is Promoted. As we have now started toward the annexation of Hawaii, but natural that Americans want to pronounce the name of the forthcoming new territory correctly. The correct pronunciation is "HAWAII," the "H" sounded as the "H" in "time," and the "I" as in "we," the accent being on the second syllable. It is well to know how the new territory is pronounced, says the Chicago Tribune, even before it enters into the Union.

New Use for Sand Blast. The sand blast has frequently been adapted to a number of ingenious operations, and the latest phase of its utility is in the cleaning of ships' bottoms. The Atlanta, one of the United States men-of-war, was recently dry-docked and by means of compressed air sand was forced against the sides of the vessel, cleaning and polishing the iron and steel as bright as silver.
