Daily Mail Departures: Portland and Eastern via S P, Portland via Glenwood, Lenox & Bethany, Corvallis & Way, Portland & Way, Forest Grove, Washington and Laurel leaves at 10:30 a. m. and arrives at 3:45 p. m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

Everything is "Clondyke" With "Clondyke or bust" it may be the latter.

Come to THE ARGUS job office for printing at modern prices.

Miss T. E. Webster, of East Portland, and Sunday with Mrs. R. Cave, of this city.

Wanted: To trade a good pony for a fresh milch cow. Enquire at his office.

J. N. Grable is building an addition to his residence in South Hillsboro.

An elegant upright piano for sale cheap. Enquire at C. H. Koch's meat market.

Schulmerich & Son carry a stock of the best grade of binding twine very low prices.

H. Wehrung & Sons are making reduction in the price of clothing or the next 30 days.

S. A. D. Meek was in town Tuesday and gives the information that he is running his threshler full last.

A good paying laundry in a west de town, for sale cheap. Good reasons given for selling. Enquire at this office.

New potatoes are selling at from 10 to 50 cents per sack. Old potatoes are slow sale at from 25 to 30 cents per sack.

Circuit court adjourned today, the docket being pretty well cleared. In another column is the disposition of the cases tried since last week.

Burning, itching skin diseases instantly relieved by De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve unequalled for cuts, bruises, burns. It heals without leaving a scar. City Drug Store, W. E. Brock.

While Mrs. C. Koch was coming home from Portland Tuesday evening, and just entering the suburbs, her horse took fright, threw her from the vehicle and severely bruised her. Nothing serious resulted.

Thomas Tucker's melon patch on Main street is the Eden of vision to the small boys—and it is quietly whispered that even some of the staid old benedicti have "Eve-it" designs on the luscious fruit of the vine.

Don't nauseate your stomach with teas and bitter herbs, but regulate your liver and sick headache by using those famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. City Drug Store, W. E. Brock.

The Crandall brick is about completed, the wood work and painting being rapidly pushed. The Schulmerich brick, two story, will soon be constructed, and these two buildings will add much to the business stability of Second street.

Ed Schulmerich and family, John and Miss May Willis and Miss Etta Schulmerich, returned Tuesday evening from a several days outing at Garibaldi. They had a splendid time, notwithstanding the wagon was tipped over on a steep grade. No one was injured.

It was P. T. Barnum who said the American people like to be humbugged, but however that is it has nothing to do with E. R. Miller's Second Street Barber Shop where you can get the best shave in the city at the most reasonable rate. Only boot black stand in the city.

Captain James McCulloch has delivered his first consignment of Bryan's book, "The First Battle" and the volume is neatly bound and typographically neat. The work is characteristic of the man and his principles, and presents many new features of the money question.

Every American citizen, white, black, gold standard or silver, should read "The First Battle."

Col. G. D. Campbell says he is afraid some of our Clondyke contingent in several weeks will be singing to the tune of Beulahland; On Chilkoet's stormy mount I stand Wishing for that happy land— That happy land I left behind, Sweet Oregon, so calm and kind! No more I see the fields of grain, No truly it does give me pain— I'll sell my mule, I'll sell my pack, Then will I quickly hurry back, Back to the land of grain and vine, Where do the sun-kissed apples grow— And maidens fair with forms divine— A fool I was, Clondyke to go!

T. R. Cornelius, one of Washington county's first pioneers, was in the city Tuesday and in response to an interrogatory relative to the "Washington Invincibles," mentioned in a clipping published in this paper and taken from the Pacific County (Ilwaco Washington) Tribune, told our reporter the following: "Company D, one hundred strong was organized in this city, in the court house square, October 14th, 1855. We elected officers, myself being elected captain, and at once marched to Portland, where we were mustered in. We then went into the Yakima country and engaged in service. Our company was named by the ladies of this county as the 'Washington Invincibles,' after Washington county, then the foremost developed in the state." Mr. Cornelius promised more data relative to the making of the flag in the near future.

R. E. Bryan & Son successors to Bryan-Laidlaw Company are making a clearance sale of summer goods, remnants, hats, clothing, light shoes and underwear. They are making a specialty on groceries and one dollar will buy more from them than from any other house in the county. Money saved is money made. Call and be convinced.

Beaverton entire, turned out Tuesday evening and tendered a reception to its visitors from the east. Mrs. Shepard and the Misses Edna and Frank Hills, Ada Haller and Celia Adams, of Kansas, and on their return from the California Endeavor Convention; and Mr. John Lee and daughter, Est of near Madison, Wisconsin, guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cady. The reception took place in Morton's Hall, being presided over by Rev. Tiggert. Impromptu addresses were made; after which a delightful program of music etc., followed. Ice cream and cake concluded the evening and the visitors will return east with a correct idea of Oregon hospitality.

John Griffin, of Zanesville, O., says: "I never lived a day for thirty years without suffering agonizingly until a box of De Witt's Hazel Salve cured my piles." For piles and rectal diseases, cuts, bruises, sprains, eczema and all skin troubles De Witt's Hazel Salve is unequalled. City Drug Store, W. E. Brock.

The Washington County Teachers' Institute will convene at Forest Grove on August 24th, at 10:00 a. m., and continue four days. Superintendent Craig states that the very best of exercises educational will be held. Two of Portland's high school principals will be present. Other attractions will be added as long as the institute fund holds out. Forest Grove is one of the most pleasant little cities in the northwest for such intellectual work, and the place of meeting is well chosen.

"They don't make much fuss about it." We are speaking of De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles. They never gripe. City Drug Store, W. E. Brock.

The show window in Brock's Drug Store was the first of the week the scene of much attraction. Some one had gilded a rock nearly the size of a man's head, labeled it valued at over $10,000, and as having been taken from the Clondyke. Many who had never seen gold in its native state were taken "in," but old hands at the business knew the bright yellow color was not right. It was a very clever take off and elicited much comment, besides giving many the Alaska fever.

J. A. Benson, a non-in-law of the late Robert Imbrie, is in the city with his family to remain for several weeks. Mr. Benson has been in ill health for several months and has just returned from a trip to Arizona and Colorado, where he hoped to gain his once time vigor. As a last resort he has taken the back track to old Oregon where his many friends hope that rest and relief from business will bring him round. His business at Cottage Grove is under the supervision of his brother.

Vim, vigor and victory—these are the characteristics of De Witt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness and all stomach and liver troubles. City Drug Store, W. E. Brock.

A business man of this city made a count of the loads of hay passing into the city Saturday last. He reports 50 having passed through Main street, alone, and half as many coming in on Second street.

E. E. Colestock gives you the best shave in the city. Hair cut at popular price. Try his baths. Don't forget the place—City shaving Parlors, Main street.

The Southern Pacific is building a new station building at Forest Grove and agent Glaze has a smile on his usually serene and placid "phys."

Messrs. and Mesdames G. A. Wehrung and G. W. Paterson, and family of the latter started yesterday morning for an outing at Newport.

Jas. McCulloch is handling Bryan's book, "The First Battle" and is making great headway in placing orders. Give him an order.

Get yourself a guaranteed all wool suit of clothes for only $6.50. For full particulars call at Brown's Cash Grocery.

THIS COUNTY REPRESENTED AT CLONDYKE

Several Start so as to be in the Field FOR NEXT SEASON'S PROSPECTING

Off for the Gold Fields of Alaska to Make a Fortune in the new Eldorado.

Washington county has had a touch of the Clondyke fever in its most malignant form, and as a result will be represented in that Alaska Eldorado. The Elder will sail the latter part of the week and those who are going from here have made ready in a rush. John J. Morgan, formerly of this city; M. G. Wills, the veteran prospector and miner of the '60's, now owning the Courtney Meek farm; T. C. and Con. McNamer, brothers living at the Grove and well known all over the county; equipped with both mules and provision, will leave provided transportation facilities are not cut off.

Of this representation M. G. Wills is the only one who has had what may be termed practical experience in mining. "Gip," as he is familiarly known, "has been there" in the early days during the Clearwater and Placerville excitements and pulled out good stakes each time. However, all are sturdy and THE ARGUS hopes that they will come back with money enough to buy the court house and build a new jail. There is no question about gold being there; indomitable energy, coupled with some guiding hand, should enable a man to strike something rich as soon as next spring opens. Success to them all and may their shadows never grow less, even while on Chilcat's stormy summit.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A Number of Cases Disposed of.

Confirmation in the cases of E. H. Hyde vs. W. T. Muir, and Mark T. Cox vs. J. L. Lafferty. In re assignment of N. A. Barrett; assignee ordered to pay John Milne $31.90 out of the assets on hand for necessary expenses. George and Rurnania Landes vs Henry and Kate Latham, foreclosure default and decree. Petition of J. L. Gregg in the Pfanner assignment, for offset of accounts; allowed. J. W. Shute vs. Allen Parent; decision declaring a bond for a deed of mortgage, and that the same be foreclosed and the property sold. Moore, Ireland & Co., vs Benjamin T. West, action for money and to set aside a deed; attached property ordered sold, and that the consideration of the deed, $200, be a first lien on the proceeds of the sale; plaintiff to recover court costs except fees of witnesses. In re assignment of Charles Collins; order issued requiring assignee to file list of creditors within 30 days. Tualatin Mills Company vs W. E. Taylor; foreclosing mechanic's lien; plaintiff given 30 days in which to reply to answer. Mabel Powers vs Ira F. Powers; divorce granted plaintiff on grounds of desertion.

Claims Allowed.

At the recent adjourned term of commissioner's court, the following bills were ordered paid: T. G. Todd court.....$ 4 80 D. B. Reasner court.....$ 9 00 T. C. Johnson Bridges.....69 00 D. H. Smith.....2 00 H. A. Ruble.....2 00 J. P. Tamiesie.....2 00 W. E. Hysmer.....2 00 W. E. Bailey.....5 00 J. A. Chapman.....2 00 N. S. Nelson.....2 00

Nothing Like It.

Wilbur's Oil of Gladness—rheumatism, neuralgia, toothache, headache, sore throat, sprains, bruises, dysentery, cholera morbus, cholera infantum—for both internal and external use. It will remove more pain and in less time than any other medicine on earth. For pain in back, side, stomach, bowels, or any other part of the body it is instant relief. Price 50 cents. Sold by W. E. Brock.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

George McNelly, son of E. McNelly, was out yesterday bidding adieu, preparatory to heading for Forest Grove.

Forest Grove enjoyed a church wedding on Tuesday evening at 9:00 o'clock the contracting parties being Andrew D. Allen, of that city and Miss Esther Martin recently from the east; officiating clergyman, Rev. Starr.

Demities, mulls and ducks at H. Wehrung & Sons for actual cost the next 30 days. Those who trade with H. Wehrung & Sons know their prices are the lowest. Those who do not trade with them should know this.

J. J. Morgan, who spent the best part of his life in Washington county, and who now resides in Portland, was in the city Sunday, the guest of T. D. Humphreys. He has the Clondyke fever in the most malignant form and sails for the gold regions on the 30th inst. All who know him wish him all possible success.

THE LILES WOMAN HAS LOST HER LIBERTY

Now Lays in Jail in Default of Security.

VERBAWDEHE IS UNDER BONDS

What the Justices Courts Have Been Doing—More Work by the Circuit Court.

A great twist the Liles have been having in court. Last Friday the Liles woman had an examination before Judge Smith on an alleged charge of adultery with John T. McNamara. The husband, who swore out the complaint, backed down at the last minute and refused to swear to what he had previously sworn to in the complaint. Both defendants were then discharged. Saturday evening the woman and Verbaudehe, Frenchman, were examined before Judge Hicks on the same charge. Both were held to the grand jury, the Frenchman giving bail and the woman being remanded to jail. Tuesday of this week the husband, Liles, was tried before Judge Smith on a charge of perjury, but his lawyer presented the view, that, no matter how he had sworn in the complaint, the law granted him the privilege of not swearing against the wife. This being the case, that part of the evidence was not material, and not being material, perjury was not committed. Judge Smith discharged, much to the chagrin of the deputy prosecuting attorney, and to the pleasure of the defendant's counsel.

Later—The Liles woman has been allowed to take her departure from custody under the condition that she and her worthless husband, and immediately leave the county, and never return, the commitment to stand over the woman indefinitely. This arrangement pulls the Frenchman, Verbaudehe, out of a bad scrape—not necessarily.

It heals everything except a broken heart, may be said of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve. Piles and rectal diseases, cuts, burns, bruises, tetter, eczema and all skin troubles may be cured by it quickly and permanently. City Drug Store, W. E. Brock.

Hon. W. D. Hare and J. C. Lamkin returned the first of the week from A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge, and report that the order has adopted the classified plan. This is the modern way of fraternal insurance and places the Workmen in the vanguard of beneficiary orders. For years the classified assessment orders have been taking in the younger members of society to the detriment of Workmen, but the bar sinister has been removed and we predict a great future growth for that oldest of fraternal insurance organizations.

Everything in the line of Drug-gists' sundries, soaps, brushes, sponges, toilet articles and perfumes sold at 25 per cent. reduction for cash at the Pharmacy—we must make room for large arrivals of goods soon due from the east.

Judge T. A. McBride and C. E. Runyon, court reporter, will leave St. Helens the first of next week to cross the Columbia river, go by wagon to the foot of Mount St. Helens, thence by pack horses and saddle animals to a camping place on the slope where they will enjoy good fishing and recreation for several weeks. It is hinted that the Clondyke craze has caught them and when they are in St. Helens snows, feeling the gentle zephyrs wafted from the Columbia, they will imagine they are on Chilcoot Mountain, making for the gold field.

"I crave but One Minute," said the public speaker in a husky voice; and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure, and proceeded with his oratory. One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled for throat and lung troubles. City Drug Store, W. E. Brock.

George McKay, who has interests in stock near Mitchell, close to Prineville, brought in 35 head of range horses Saturday last and auctioned off some of them at the Wiley & Dennis barn. A few of the best looking animals went as high as $30, but the demand was limited. The two vaqueeros who were with the outfit were the cynosure of all eyes and $250 being raised to see one of the most fractious horses ridden, the crowd witnessed the throwing, saddling and mounting as they do it east of the mountains, a good hardy setto of bucking and kicking, and it soon was all over.

Why wear your patience out trying to cut with pot metal knife or scissors that won't hold an edge, when at the Hillsboro Pharmacy you get a genuine warranted article for the same money?

James Townsend, of Centerville, is having more fun with the Washington county justice courts than any other man in the county. This time he is charged with carrying concealed weapons. Adam Beal, a neighbor, swore to the information, and the case comes up before Justice Dalstrom, of Forest Grove. Townsend is a pretty good sort of a fellow only he is a trifle windy at times. Attorney Adams defends.

Curtis Birdsell, of East Portland is in the city this week, visiting with his sisters, Mesdames E. L. McCormick and John Dennis.

Count Recorder McCormick and wife and Calvin Jack Jr. Sunday at the home of the latter at Farmington.

Why let the insects destroy your hop crop when Whale oil soap kept at the Pharmacy, is sure death for the pests?

H. Wehrung & Sons are closing out their entire stock of shirt waists. Your choice for 50 cents.

E. B. Sappington has moved into the W. W. Williams residence on Washington street.

Elegant shirt waist sets at Hoyt's, Second street.

If you take this paper—news! Commissioners' Court will be in session next week. See advertisement for bid bridges for Washington county.

Schulmerich & Son can sell you the best binder in the market. See them. Teachers' examination at the Grove on Wednesday, August 11th. See notice.

The Climax Milling Co. is ready to buy wheat. Hillsboro market price is 68 cents. Threshing is in full blast and the roads will soon be lined with teams hauling wheat to market.

Read the House committees on the first page. Also a review of the action of the special session.

Nathaniel Francesco is advertising to prove up on his homestead near Fir, this county. He will go before the county clerk.

J. A. Kirkwood has been acting as city marshal for several nights. Mr. Lane having been assisting Benson at the foundry.

J. I. Knight and family leave this week for Seattle, instead of Spokane. Their many friends here wish them every success.

The barometer is falling this morning and we may have harvest rain on our hands. Vegetation needs it—but nothing else does.

A smelter is being put up at Northport, Washington, and by the way, this means much for H. P. Ford's mining properties near that place.

Walt Taylor goes to St. Helens Sunday morning with 5 horses for the use of Judge McBride and Court Reporter Runyon to pack in to the mountain, fastnesses.

D. McCammish, Hillsboro's old prospector, has the gold fever and wants to go to Alaska. Transportation is the only barrier and up to late hour he had not yet obtained passage.

The case in the circuit court of Joseph Rogers vs. one of our county school districts will not be decided by Judge McBride until the November term of court. At that time a written opinion will be filed.

Wm. Bouscien was down from Mountaineer today and states that Meacham King is well patronized by summer resorters. L. P. W. Quimby, the Portland horseman, is one of the visitors.

Hon. T. H. Tongue has received an appointment on one of the House committees—on that of Agriculture. Inasmuch as Oregon has but one senator [it seems that Oregon has but one senator] it seems that Oregon has not fared as well as it might.

Farmers will have a good crop this fall and wheat is a fairly good price. Those who owe will have a chance so liquidate to some extent. Remember THE ARGUS first, last and always. We write a poor hand, but shall be pleased to improve by writing receipts.

Microscopic examination shows that rust has attacked both fall and spring sown wheat. The fall wheat will not suffer, being so far along, but the crop of spring sown may cut short the prospective yield. Already some fall sown grain has been threshed and yields as high as 35 bushels to the acre have been reported. Still it is—Oregon against the world!

THE ARGUS special reporter detailed to go with Independent and Other Side representatives to Davis' Hill to observe the annular eclipse of the sun which occurred between 5 and 7 o'clock this evening, tarried too long in the arm of Morpheus and this paper can not truthfully say its lookout saw the eclipse of our lightgiver. Whether or not the other two reported for duty is not known.

It's nothing but Clondyke. The men all talk of it; the women all talk of it. Men gather in knots on the street and read about the famous Eldorado. Even the babies chatter about it, and Riley Cave says a mosquito came into his shop the other day, made for his ear, and in falsetto key, whistled "Clo-o-on di-ike! Clo-o-on-di-ike! Clo-o-on-di-ike! What Riley said will not be reported.

An interesting case just decided in the circuit court was that of F. Y. Ralston, administrator of the estate of W. F. Ralston, the late Gaston hotel keeper, against Henry Hamilton. Suit was brought to recover $386 alleged to have been assumed several years ago, by Hamilton, a mortgage in favor of Ralston. Hamilton denies having assumed the mortgage but Judge McBride held in the affirmative. Hon. S. B. Huston was for the plaintiff and Smith & Bowman for defendant.

The members of the H. A. C. a new organization, accompanied by ladies, made a pleasant visit to Soda Springs Wednesday. Mrs. O. B. Gates and Miss Lena Waggener chaperoned the young people and all report an excellent time. Those attending were Messrs. Fred Vrooman, Dorr Waggener, Will Siegrist, George Merryman, Frank Stewart and Fred Butler, of the Club, and the Misses Wilma Waggener, Alice Merryman, Mary E. Leton, Mabel Moreland, Constance Smith, Stella Boscov, Emily Essner and Flossie Weathered.
