The hop house is built with all modern improvements, is fortyeight by seventy two, and has four twenty-four feet kilns. Besides the regular storage room in the house, an ample warehouse has been built a small distance therefrom.

Mr. Salzgeber has just finished drying the year's crop, and it nets him 63,000 pounds, which, if he gets üfteen cents, will give him a clear dividend, above rental, of $6,000. If he gets but ten cents he till make $2000 above all expens This is the biggest ward on the vest side if not the biggest in the oats, and that it is good winter feed

By the time all collections have been made and dividends declared, considering loss of interest on money for the time pending settlement, if a sixty per cent settlement is effected, those having an interest in the assets may be well satisfied.
