

HOTLY CONTESTED CRIMINAL TRIAL

The jury on the case of State vs James Lee, Jr.

DELIBERATED THRO' THE NIGHT.

Huston and Tongue Aply Defend while Cleeton and Asst. Dist. Attorney Bagley Vigorously Prosecute.

One of the hottest contested trials yet heard before the current term of circuit court was begun Tuesday morning and closed last night just before the supper hour.

At 4:16 this afternoon the jury brought in a verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment.

BOOK SOCIAL

At the Grange Hall Under Auspices of Epworth League.

At the "Book Social" to be given by the Epworth League at the Grange Hall, Friday evening, December 3rd, the titles of forty books will be represented by as many different persons.

WEDDING BELLS

Dr. A. B. Bailey and Miss Mary Ethel Merryman United Yesterday.

One of the prettiest home weddings of the year was that solemnized last Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Merryman, at which their daughter, Mary Ethel, was married to Dr. Augustus B. Bailey.

At thirty minutes past two, as Miss Tongue played the beautiful strains of the march from Lohengrin, the bridal party descended the staircase into the broad hall.

Strayed—A light red cow, about 8 or 10 years old; carries a coarse sounding bell; joint of one horn broken off. Strayed from back of Glencoe. Leave word or address John Hiltbrum, Glencoe, Oregon.

Forest Grove Pythians have changed the date of their "rank work" and will not confer the same until Saturday night, December 11th.

On Saturday, December 4th, 1897, General Ransom Post, Number 69, G. A. R., will elect its officers for the ensuing year.

E. J. Ward was down from Gaston Tuesday and brought in a fine sample of flour manufactured by the Gaston Co-operative Mills.

There will be a musicale at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Hare on Friday, December 10th, under the auspices of the Ladies Society of the Congregational Church.

Calvin Jack Jr's record of eighty one still stands at the Mitchell bowling alley. Thomas Mann is next highest, having bowled seventy-one last week.

All persons indebted to the firm of H. Wehrung & Sons, by note or account, are requested to make settlement by December 1st, 1897.

The Grand Jury adjourned Tuesday evening to meet again on the 12th of December, when they will hear the Experts' report.

Rev. Dech will fill his place in the pulpit of the Evangelical Church, next Sunday morning, the 6th of December.

Hon. H. V. Gates left Tuesday evening for one of his periodical trips through Eastern Oregon and Idaho.

Circuit Court STILL GRINDING

Calvin Pomeroy's Trial Set for November, 1898

DISAGREEMENT IN DILLERY CASE.

Anton Pfanner Appears as a Witness Against his Estate The Grand Jury Finds Several Bills.

Friday—: Judgment granted against Defendant Pem Patton and bondsmen for costs of lower court. Defendant had been convicted of assault and battery before Justice Dalstrom, fined $50 and costs.

The re-trial of Calvin Pomeroy, on charge of receiving stolen goods, for which he was convicted in the year 1895, was set for trial on November 2nd, 1898.

Jury brought in a disagreement in case of Joseph Dillery vs John Borwick, suit to recover a team and for damages.

Grand jury reported two true bills. Saturday—: Lena Soderstrom vs J Soderstrom. Divorce granted.

Benton Bowman appointed to defend John Moore, charged with aiding a prisoner to escape. Trial set for Thursday forenoon.

Demurrer in Britcher v Garbarino, suit to enjoin defendant against maintaining a dam, argued and submitted.

John W Shute adm de bonis non estate Martin Manning petitioned for payment out of Pfanner estate, insolvent, the sum of $879 belonging to said estate.

State v William Henry Warren charged with rape, dismissed. Grand jury reports five true bills.

Monday—: Ledrick Rabe charged with selling liquor to minors, will be tried on December 2nd.

C P Bacon vs J W Lawyer: Suit to recover possession of a farm near Beaverton, leased to defendant, on alleged violation of the lease; jury found for the plaintiff, the owner.

Bagley & Brown, attorneys for J W Corey, entered a plea of not guilty to charge of selling liquor to minors.

COL. A. M. COFFEY

The Oldest Mason in Missouri Died This Week at Knob Noster.

Tuesday morning's dispatches relate the very recent death of Colonel A. M. Coffey, of Knob Noster, Missouri. He was the oldest Mason in Missouri, and would have been ninety-four years of age had he lived until next spring.

G. N. Thomas, for seventeen years a resident of near Beaverton, was in the city Tuesday, a guest of his daughter, Mrs. I. E. Berst. Mr. Thomas is an enthusiastic silver man and never forgets that it requires it to run a newspaper.

Strayed—A light red cow, about 8 or 10 years old; carries a coarse sounding bell; joint of one horn broken off. Strayed from back of Glencoe. Leave word or address John Hiltbrum, Glencoe, Oregon.

Forest Grove Pythians have changed the date of their "rank work" and will not confer the same until Saturday night, December 11th. Knights of the county are requested to take due notice.

On Saturday, December 4th, 1897, General Ransom Post, Number 69, G. A. R., will elect its officers for the ensuing year. A full attendance is requested. J. P. Hicks, adjt. H. L. Locke, P. C.

E. J. Ward was down from Gaston Tuesday and brought in a fine sample of flour manufactured by the Gaston Co-operative Mills. It is a fine product and is equal to any output in the county.

There will be a musicale at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Hare on Friday, December 10th, under the auspices of the Ladies Society of the Congregational Church.

Calvin Jack Jr's record of eighty one still stands at the Mitchell bowling alley. Thomas Mann is next highest, having bowled seventy-one last week.

All persons indebted to the firm of H. Wehrung & Sons, by note or account, are requested to make settlement by December 1st, 1897.

The Grand Jury adjourned Tuesday evening to meet again on the 12th of December, when they will hear the Experts' report.

Rev. Dech will fill his place in the pulpit of the Evangelical Church, next Sunday morning, the 6th of December.

Hon. H. V. Gates left Tuesday evening for one of his periodical trips through Eastern Oregon and Idaho.

Every delicacy used in mince meats and fruit cakes to be found at Bob's Headquarters for Groceries.

Circuit Court STILL GRINDING

Calvin Pomeroy's Trial Set for November, 1898

DISAGREEMENT IN DILLERY CASE.

Anton Pfanner Appears as a Witness Against his Estate The Grand Jury Finds Several Bills.

Friday—: Judgment granted against Defendant Pem Patton and bondsmen for costs of lower court. Defendant had been convicted of assault and battery before Justice Dalstrom, fined $50 and costs.

The re-trial of Calvin Pomeroy, on charge of receiving stolen goods, for which he was convicted in the year 1895, was set for trial on November 2nd, 1898.

Jury brought in a disagreement in case of Joseph Dillery vs John Borwick, suit to recover a team and for damages.

Grand jury reported two true bills. Saturday—: Lena Soderstrom vs J Soderstrom. Divorce granted.

Benton Bowman appointed to defend John Moore, charged with aiding a prisoner to escape. Trial set for Thursday forenoon.

Demurrer in Britcher v Garbarino, suit to enjoin defendant against maintaining a dam, argued and submitted.

John W Shute adm de bonis non estate Martin Manning petitioned for payment out of Pfanner estate, insolvent, the sum of $879 belonging to said estate.

State v William Henry Warren charged with rape, dismissed. Grand jury reports five true bills.

Monday—: Ledrick Rabe charged with selling liquor to minors, will be tried on December 2nd.

C P Bacon vs J W Lawyer: Suit to recover possession of a farm near Beaverton, leased to defendant, on alleged violation of the lease; jury found for the plaintiff, the owner.

Bagley & Brown, attorneys for J W Corey, entered a plea of not guilty to charge of selling liquor to minors.

COL. A. M. COFFEY

The Oldest Mason in Missouri Died This Week at Knob Noster.

Tuesday morning's dispatches relate the very recent death of Colonel A. M. Coffey, of Knob Noster, Missouri. He was the oldest Mason in Missouri, and would have been ninety-four years of age had he lived until next spring.

G. N. Thomas, for seventeen years a resident of near Beaverton, was in the city Tuesday, a guest of his daughter, Mrs. I. E. Berst. Mr. Thomas is an enthusiastic silver man and never forgets that it requires it to run a newspaper.

Strayed—A light red cow, about 8 or 10 years old; carries a coarse sounding bell; joint of one horn broken off. Strayed from back of Glencoe. Leave word or address John Hiltbrum, Glencoe, Oregon.

Forest Grove Pythians have changed the date of their "rank work" and will not confer the same until Saturday night, December 11th. Knights of the county are requested to take due notice.

On Saturday, December 4th, 1897, General Ransom Post, Number 69, G. A. R., will elect its officers for the ensuing year. A full attendance is requested. J. P. Hicks, adjt. H. L. Locke, P. C.

E. J. Ward was down from Gaston Tuesday and brought in a fine sample of flour manufactured by the Gaston Co-operative Mills. It is a fine product and is equal to any output in the county.

There will be a musicale at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Hare on Friday, December 10th, under the auspices of the Ladies Society of the Congregational Church.

Calvin Jack Jr's record of eighty one still stands at the Mitchell bowling alley. Thomas Mann is next highest, having bowled seventy-one last week.

All persons indebted to the firm of H. Wehrung & Sons, by note or account, are requested to make settlement by December 1st, 1897.

The Grand Jury adjourned Tuesday evening to meet again on the 12th of December, when they will hear the Experts' report.

Rev. Dech will fill his place in the pulpit of the Evangelical Church, next Sunday morning, the 6th of December.

Hon. H. V. Gates left Tuesday evening for one of his periodical trips through Eastern Oregon and Idaho.

Every delicacy used in mince meats and fruit cakes to be found at Bob's Headquarters for Groceries.

JUMPED HIS BOND DID GUS SEIDLER

Indicted for Selling Liquor to Minors.

J. C. LATTA WILL HAVE TO PAY $500.

Seidler's name Called Three Times in Court and the Defendant Answered not. Bail Declared Forfeited.

Some time in September, Gus Seidler, a saloon man of Cornelius, was arrested for selling liquor to minors. Judge Dalstrom, of the Grove, held the defendant in the sum of $500 to appear before the Circuit Court, Jack Latta, of the Grove, and F. Seidler, of Cornelius, defendant's father, signing bail as sureties.

On Tuesday morning Sheriff Bradford called Seidler's name three times in the Circuit Court room, and no response being heard, Judge McBride declared the bond forfeited.

The Sheriff stated that he could not find the defendant. Seidler Sr., who is on the bond, has no property assessed to him and the bond must be met by Latta, who has one hundred and sixty acres of land. Seidler left Cornelius several days ago.

THE COUNTY DEBT The Size of the Principal Upon Which the County Pays Interest.

Nearly all taxpayers generally like to know just how the county stands as the figures are some index of tax levies of the future.

To cure a cold in one day take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. For sale at the Delta.

Glencoe postoffice money order disbursements for the month of November were more than for any previous month, to wit: $478.35. The following letters are advertised: Nate Barrett, J W Saxton and Thomas Farrel. Alice M. Sandford, P. M.

R. H. Greer has just received a full line of syrups. Try his famous New Orleans Molasses.

Mrs. G. C. Green, well known here in years ago, is in the city from Seattle, to spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. L. L. Whitcomb. Her husband is a salesman for an Alaskan commercial company at St. Michaels.

J. J. Karstetter superintendent of the Reedville farm and Wiesenbach road supervisor, were up Monday and spent the day. They probably came came up to get search warrants to find some of road bottoms down their way.

New stock of boots, shoes and clothing, this week, at Schulmerich & Son.

Judge M. L. Pipes, a prominent Portland attorney, and who last year was associated with Hon. S. B. Huston and James McCane in the defense of X. N. Steeves, was in the city yesterday.

The best two bushel seamless sacks for 20 cts at Schulmerich & Son.

Elsie Jones, the eldest daughter of Henry Jones, of above Glencoe, while at school Tuesday, fell and dislocated her elbow. Dr. Sandford replaced the member and she is doing nicely.

"Fall hats, full of value, full of fashion." H. Wehrung & Sons.

E. B. Tongue has been admitted to practice in the courts of Oregon, if he makes as good a lawyer as the Congressman he will have made a sufficient mark for one man.

Anton Pfanner was in the city Saturday attendant at circuit court on matters relating to his insolvency. He has been stopping at Woodland, Washington, for some time.

Wood wanted at the Photo Gallery. Be careful what you shoot when out hunting. The game law for Chinas, pheasants, grouse, etc prohibits their killing after the first of the current month.

W. W. Brannin, valley route agent for the Morning Tribune, was in the city Tuesday morning, gathering in subscriptions for the new morning daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwell returned to Portland Friday, after having spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Elwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tucker.

T. W. Thompson, the well-to-do farmer of Wapato, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Thompson is interested in the Gaston flouring mills.

A party coming out of the Klondike met J. J. Morgan within eight miles of Dawson City, some time in the latter part of October.

J. A. Bowen recently returned from Heppner and is at present acting as agent for the Morning Tribune, Portland's new daily.

Attorney W. M. Langley was down from the Grove the first of the week attendant at Circuit Court.

JUMPED HIS BOND DID GUS SEIDLER

Indicted for Selling Liquor to Minors.

J. C. LATTA WILL HAVE TO PAY $500.

Seidler's name Called Three Times in Court and the Defendant Answered not. Bail Declared Forfeited.

Some time in September, Gus Seidler, a saloon man of Cornelius, was arrested for selling liquor to minors. Judge Dalstrom, of the Grove, held the defendant in the sum of $500 to appear before the Circuit Court, Jack Latta, of the Grove, and F. Seidler, of Cornelius, defendant's father, signing bail as sureties.

On Tuesday morning Sheriff Bradford called Seidler's name three times in the Circuit Court room, and no response being heard, Judge McBride declared the bond forfeited.

The Sheriff stated that he could not find the defendant. Seidler Sr., who is on the bond, has no property assessed to him and the bond must be met by Latta, who has one hundred and sixty acres of land. Seidler left Cornelius several days ago.

THE COUNTY DEBT The Size of the Principal Upon Which the County Pays Interest.

Nearly all taxpayers generally like to know just how the county stands as the figures are some index of tax levies of the future.

To cure a cold in one day take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. For sale at the Delta.

Glencoe postoffice money order disbursements for the month of November were more than for any previous month, to wit: $478.35. The following letters are advertised: Nate Barrett, J W Saxton and Thomas Farrel. Alice M. Sandford, P. M.

R. H. Greer has just received a full line of syrups. Try his famous New Orleans Molasses.

Mrs. G. C. Green, well known here in years ago, is in the city from Seattle, to spend the winter with her mother, Mrs. L. L. Whitcomb. Her husband is a salesman for an Alaskan commercial company at St. Michaels.

J. J. Karstetter superintendent of the Reedville farm and Wiesenbach road supervisor, were up Monday and spent the day. They probably came came up to get search warrants to find some of road bottoms down their way.

New stock of boots, shoes and clothing, this week, at Schulmerich & Son.

Judge M. L. Pipes, a prominent Portland attorney, and who last year was associated with Hon. S. B. Huston and James McCane in the defense of X. N. Steeves, was in the city yesterday.

The best two bushel seamless sacks for 20 cts at Schulmerich & Son.

Elsie Jones, the eldest daughter of Henry Jones, of above Glencoe, while at school Tuesday, fell and dislocated her elbow. Dr. Sandford replaced the member and she is doing nicely.

"Fall hats, full of value, full of fashion." H. Wehrung & Sons.

E. B. Tongue has been admitted to practice in the courts of Oregon, if he makes as good a lawyer as the Congressman he will have made a sufficient mark for one man.

Anton Pfanner was in the city Saturday attendant at circuit court on matters relating to his insolvency. He has been stopping at Woodland, Washington, for some time.

Wood wanted at the Photo Gallery. Be careful what you shoot when out hunting. The game law for Chinas, pheasants, grouse, etc prohibits their killing after the first of the current month.

W. W. Brannin, valley route agent for the Morning Tribune, was in the city Tuesday morning, gathering in subscriptions for the new morning daily.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Elwell returned to Portland Friday, after having spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Elwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tucker.

T. W. Thompson, the well-to-do farmer of Wapato, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Thompson is interested in the Gaston flouring mills.

A party coming out of the Klondike met J. J. Morgan within eight miles of Dawson City, some time in the latter part of October.

J. A. Bowen recently returned from Heppner and is at present acting as agent for the Morning Tribune, Portland's new daily.

Attorney W. M. Langley was down from the Grove the first of the week attendant at Circuit Court.

Fred McLeod, the Section Foreman of Dille, who for some time has been quite ill, died yesterday at the Portland hospital.

City election is drawing near. Tomorrow night the mass meeting will put up a ticket.

Every citizen should turn out so that the policy of the ticket may be fully understood.

If but a few go and a ticket so nominated be elected, no one should complain. Attend, and if the policy don't suit you, get forty or fifty taxpayers together and have another mass meeting.

The following notice has been received by Judge Cornelius: "Salem, Ore., Nov. 30th, 1897. To the County Judge—Charles G. Bishop who was committed from our county Aug. 3, 1896, eloped from this institution November 28, 1897. D. A. Paine, Superintendent, Asylum for Insane."

John Ditchburn, an attorney of Portland, will be tried for unprofessional conduct, at some future date during the current term of court. Judge Burnett will very likely hear the case, as McBride was present at the time the alleged breach is supposed to have occurred.

Edgar J. Bryan returned this morning from a trip to California, coming in on the steamer Columbia. When steaming by Astoria the vessel run into a cannery, shaking up the passengers considerably. The mishap occurred on account of a heavy fog.

Thomas Belmont has purchased the barber shop formerly owned by E. R. Miller and located next door to Koch's butcher shop. He is a good workman and well known in this city, having been employed here before. Give him a call.

Ludwig Rabe, of Cornelius, had his trial this forenoon, charged with selling liquor to two minors, Albert Wilson and Henry Cheney, of Forest Grove. Bagley & Brown defended Rabe. The jury is still out on going to press.

Treasurer Cady has received into his office since July 1st, 1896 to November 30th, 1897, inclusive, $122,931.83. He now has on hand $3,260.76 to apply to all funds, $503.74 of this belonging to the county fund.

W. W. Boscow has taken an agency for the Troy laundry of Portland, and those wishing shirts laundered will leave same at Wehrung's store before Tuesday noon of each week.

The wheat market has been very spasmodic for several days, having ran up as high as eighty cents for valley in Portland. This morning's advices quote 78 cents. Hillsboro is paying 71 cents.

Henry Meldrum, of Oregon City, and who is prominently connected with republican politics in Clackamas county, was in the city Monday night, on business with the Circuit Court.

Mr. John W. Lee, of Wisconsin, guest of County Treasurer Cady, has for ten days been confined to his room by rheumatism. He will start for California as soon as his health will permit.

Charles D. Anderson and Miss Lena Roberts, of above Forest Grove, were united in marriage December 1, 1897, at the County Court's rooms, Judge B. P. Cornelius officiating.

On each 25 cent purchase (or payment on work) at Hoyt's jewelry store you will receive a ticket, twenty of which will entitle you to six cabinet photos at the Hillsboro photo gallery.

Strayed—From the John S Jackson place, about two months ago, a two year old roan heifer, with a white stripe across the forehead. Finder please notify this office.

Experts Merryman and Ed Schulmerich are giving the county books a thorough examination and when through their report will be complete and positive.

To cure a cold in one day take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. 25c. For sale at the Delta.

Mrs. A. E. Reames, of Jacksonville, is in the city, the guest of her mother, Mrs. T. H. Tongue.

Dr. S. T. Linklater was visitor to Portland the first of the week and whi'ere the Scottish Rite conferred upon him the 32nd degree of Masonry.

Go to Thomas Belmont's for a first class shave, or hair cut. If your hair is falling out he will remedy it. Shop on Second street. Give him a call.

Joseph Bucher, who is one of Washington county's old veterans, was in the city Tuesday.

Law suits wear out the strongest; our suits outwear the longest. H. Wehrung & Sons.

Tonight's market reports quote wheat weak with a drooping tendency.

Oregon wool suits at Schulmerich & Son. See them.

THE ARGUS

DECEMBER CAL.

Calendar table for December 1897 showing days of the week and dates.

TRAINS AND MAIL SERVICE

Table listing daily mail arrivals and departures for various locations including Portland, Corvallis, and McMinnville.

STATE DIRECTORY

Congressional Delegation—Senator: G W McBride; Representative 1st dist., T H Tongue, Hillsboro; 2nd dist, Wm Ellis, Heppner. Governor—Wm P Lord. Secy State—Harrison Kincaid. Treas.—Philip Mettschan. Printer—W H Leeds.

PROFESSIONAL

BAGLEY & BROWN

Attorneys-at-Law Rooms 1-2-3, Shute Building HILLSBORO, OREGON. THOS H TONGUE, E B TONGUE, NOTARY. THOS. H. & E. B. TONGUE, Attorneys-At-Law.

H. T. BAGLEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Deputy District Attorney for Washington County. Room 13, Morgan Bld., Hillsboro, Ore.

F. A. BAILEY, M. D.

Physician, Surgeon and Accoucher Office in Hillsboro Pharmacy. Residence south-west corner Baseline and Second. All calls promptly attended day or night.

S. T. LINKLATER, M. B. C. M. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

Office at Residence East of Court House

A. B. BAILEY, D. D. S.

DENTIST

Rooms 1 and 2 Morgan-Bailey Block. HILLSBORO, OREGON.

JAMES PHILLIP TANKSIE, M. D.

PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Surgeon Southern Pacific Railroad Co. Consultation in French or English. Office and residence south of Main near 3d st., Hillsboro, Or.

WILKES BROS.

ABSTRACTORS AND SURVEYORS.

Conveyancing and fine map work a specialty. Lindsay Block, two doors north of the postoffice. Second st., Hillsboro, Or.

JOHN M. WALL,

ATTORNEY-AT-LAW Office with S. B. Huston, Union Block HILLSBORO, OREGON.

SMITH & BOWMAN,