VALLEY CROP REPORT.

Portland, Ore., April 18—The weather was very favorable to the growth and development of vegetation, and to farm work.

Fall and winter sown grain are making good growth. Early spring grain has made marked growth during the past week.

Fruit prospects continue most excellent. Fruit bloom has commenced to fall in the southern counties.

Essays on milk are good, perhaps, but cream is better. We give you the cream of the clothing subject when we say that for "style, service, satisfaction" and price H. Wehrung & Sons clothing carries the palm.

People who have old magazines, periodicals, illustrated matter, pictures, etc., which they are in the habit of consigning to the waste baskets, are requested to send in same to this office, from whence they will be sent to the Inspector of Light Houses for this district, who, in turn, will send them to the various light ships and light houses, where the lonely lives of isolated men can be brightened in a large measure.

Dr. F. J. Bailey is now located in this city.

Hon. S. B. Huston was a Portland visitor the first of the week.

Wednesday morning we had our first warm rain and it was welcome.

The court yard is putting on its annual coat of blue and gold.

Greer's is the place to buy garden and field seeds.

It is said that Washington county's delegation was the only one at Astoria that voted as a unit not to seat the regular Multnomah delegation—that which is called the "Simon delegation."

The Webfoot that doesn't like rain is a rarity; so is the person who doesn't know that Wehrung & Sons' clothing contains more "honesty inside as well as outside" than any other make afloat!

Hon. J. N. Brown returned Monday morning from a trip to the republican state convention. He received a nice complimentary vote for the office of Attorney General.

The farmer, the mechanic and the bicycle rider are liable to unexpected cuts and bruises. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best thing to keep on hand. It heals quickly and is a well known cure for piles. The Delta Drug Store.

W. J. Morgan, brother of J. W. J. and Geo. W. was in the city Sunday, the guest of his brother. He is managing a trading stamp company, Portland branch, and is doing a nice business. This was his first trip to the city in eight years.

Justice Smith reconsidered his refusal to grant a change of venue in the case of State vs Ordway, and allowed the matter to go before Hicks. E. B. Tongue and W. F. Klineham appeared for the defense, and H. T. Bagley for the state. Upon cross examination of the prosecuting witness, Justice Hicks decided she must answer the question "Are you a habitual user of morphine?" Whereupon, Bagley lost his equanimity and moved a dismissal, which was granted.

Eleanor A. Bailey, who died in this city Saturday last and was buried Sunday, was born near Lexington, Kentucky, October 18, 1818. She was married to John Bailey in 1837, the couple taking up their residence at Green Castle, Indiana, where seven children were born to them, three of whom survive her: E. C. Bailey, of Salem; John E. Bailey, a merchant of Forest Grove, and Mrs. Rufus Waggener, of this city. Mrs. Bailey came to Oregon in 1873 and has ever since resided in this state. More than fifty years ago she united with the M. E. Church, at Green Castle, Indiana.

Brother Atkins, of the M. E. pulpit, this city, and Brother Gault, editor of the Independent, had a little altercation last Thursday evening that nearly led to an exchange of physical demonstrations. They were discussing the Cuban proposition. Br'er Gault seemed to think that Br'er Atkins was "for peace at any price" and intimated that there were "too many traitors in the country." Br'er Atkins orally resented this position, and matters grew warmer and warmer. Br'er Gault insinuated that he was a warm torpedo and Br'er Atkins counseled peace, to no avail. Br'er Gault warmed up to the subject matter. Br'er Atkins remonstrated and said that he could not allow a man to call him a traitor, and our worthy editor intimated that he could put the parson "hors du combat" in less time than the Spaniards blew up the Maine. Br'er Atkins said he couldn't do it. At this time a pedestrian came into court—or, into their presence—and the whole affair was called off. The whole controversy was swift from start to finish. Br'er Gault sustained the reputation of journalists, while Br'er Atkins, always forcible, did not use all his ammunition, judging from his excellent Sunday sermon.

WASHINGTON COUNTY TO BE REPRESENTED

At the Trans-Mississippi Exposition.

PROPERTY OWNERS SHOULD AID.

Will Redound to our Everlasting Benefit. Push it Along.

Mr. F. S. Peet, of Portland, Assistant Secretary of the Oregon Commission, Trans-Mississippi International Exposition, which opens at Omaha, June 1, this year, was in the city today, looking up the Washington county exhibit.

The Oregon building will 30x30 and 56 feet in height and built out of Oregon timber. Arrangements will be made to have this year's samples of grains and fruits sent back to re-inforce those left over from the World's Fair exhibit.

Our various soils will be sent back with proper analysis, statistics as to yields relative to products of all kinds and the movement will be productive of much good to our county and state.

The eyes of eastern farmers who for years have contended with drouth and flood, are turned towards the northwest and the Willamette valley, where crop failure is never known and where nature never fails her children, should attract their attention.

Many homeseekers will visit the exposition and if Washington county shall be represented it will be of vast benefit to us in getting that class of immigration which will tend to develop our many thousands of acres of idle land.

Let every farmer and fruit raiser help this project out as much as possible. From time to time progress will be noted in these columns, and in the meantime, for further particulars, see or write J. F. Batchelder, Secretary of the Commission, Portland, Oregon.

SPAIN GIVEN THREE DAYS TO ANSWER

She Refuses to Evacuate from Cuba.

OUR FLEET WILL START FOR CUBA.

The War will Doubtless Commence at Once. Thought Spain will not Back Down now.

President McKinley yesterday sent an ultimatum to Spain, accompanying it with the concurrent congressional resolution instructing him to intervene to stop hostilities and to use armed force at once, if Spain should refuse to evacuate from Cuba.

U. S. Minister Woodford conveyed the papers to the government and the following message, received at 1:35 this afternoon, explains itself: R. Cave: Spain rejected McKinley's ultimatum and gave Minister Woodford his passport. [Signed] Oregonian.

The next move will doubtless be the sending of a fleet and an army to take Cuba from the hands of Spain. This means war, unless something unforeseen occurs.

UNION CALL.

To the Washington county populists, democrats and silver republicans: For the purpose of nominating a Union county and legislative ticket, it is recommended that each party organization shall hold separate primaries to elect delegates to their county conventions, which said three county conventions will be held at Hillsboro, Oregon, on Thursday, May 4, 1898. JAS. H. SEWELL, Chm. Union County Com. Hillsboro, Apr. 9, 1898.

Chairman Wood has issued the call for the republican county nominating convention. The date of primaries is set for April 30th, and the convention on May 5th. This will make the meeting come one day later than the silver conventions.

Mrs. Minnie Rebinsdorf, of Hillsdale, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Nickell, of above Mountaineer, Tuesday April 12th, and was buried Thursday. The family desires to thank the many kindnesses extended to them during her illness.

Messrs. Redmond & Sappington have purchased the Bacon stables and will run them in conjunction with those on Main street. It is probable the Second street barn will be used simply for stable purposes, the two corrals being easily thrown into one. The boys are rustlers and popular, and this will give them sufficient business for profit. Mr. Bacon goes to Tillamook to take personal charge of the stage line.

Candidates for republican nomination are working hard putting up their fences. Since this county is anti-Simon and the state convention was controlled by little Joe, there is much dissatisfaction prevailing. It has just dawned upon many that Corbett is the logical candidate for United States senator under the procedure of the state convention and many see what was not admitted before, that Mr. Geer was really the Corbett man for Governor. In this county there is a majority against the Simon-Corbett combination and the feeling is so strong that Corbett supporters may find it hard to get on the republican ticket. It is recognized that your "Uncle Ben" has the hardest fight of any to get on the ticket and if he is beaten for the nomination, it may give the anti-enough courage to put up a new ticket while they are at it.

SENDERS OF MONEY

Will do well to Read the Following Comparative Table.

People do not generally know that it is sometimes cheaper to send money through Shute & Foote's bank than by the mails. For instance the comparison is viz:

Table with columns: P. O., B.K., For over $ 2 50 and up to $ 5... 5c, For over 5 00 and up to 10... 8c, For over 10 00 and up to 20... 10c, For over 20 00 and up to 30... 12c, For over 30 00 and up to 40... 15c, For over 40 00 and up to 50... 18c, For over 50 00 and up to 60... 20c, For over 60 00 and up to 75... 25c, For over 75 00 and up to 100... 30c

Preserve for future reference.

Dead Letter.

The following is the list of letters remaining in the Hillsboro post office unclaimed:

Mr. Charley Fisher. All letters not called for by April 30, 1898, will be sent to the dead letter office. One cent will be charged on each letter called for.

Treasurer's Notice.

ALL COUNTY WARRANTS ENDORSED prior to April 1, 1897, are now called for, and interest will cease after this date. Hillsboro, Oregon, April 18, 1898. A. B. CODY, County Treasurer.

H. A. Ball writes us from Bethany that his school in district 74 has an enrollment of 46 and an average attendance of 36.

Schulmerich & Son will have a special sale on umbrellas for the week commencing April 16. All umbrellas and parasols at reduced prices.

The semi-annual meeting date of the Washington Veteran Association has been changed. See notice elsewhere.

Forest Bridges returned to school at Corvallis the first of the week, he being the only one now attending from this city. Forest passed a splendid examination and will finish the course if his health will permit.

Penmanship—1 Term, 24 Lessons. Professor E. H. Conner will open a writing school Monday at the public school building. Hours from 4:00 to 5:00, and 7:30 to 8:30 p. m.

The last three weeks have been of great benefit to the farming community. The major portion of the crop is put in and the lowlands are rapidly being cropped. Unless hard rains come the grain will all be sowed from a week to ten days earlier than usual.

Many more farmers than usual are breeding their nares this year. For several years there has not been much of an increase in horses and the county now affords but four or five stallions of repute. Next year will be a good time for a colt show.

The house swore that it would not concur with the senate, but virtually did so. This reminds one of a happening which took place in this city a year or so ago, when the marshal ordered a man to "get out of town at once." "I'll not do it," said the fellow, "but I'll walk out at once."

Forest Grove, April 18.—John Macrum, who left here about two months ago for the Klondike, has returned. He and others formed a copartnership and purchased an outfit and provisions enough to last them a year. The treasurer of the party, whose duty it was to pay bills and keep an account of the expenses, all the money being given into his custody, was selected by a majority vote. The party had only one more trip to make in order to get their outfit over the pass, when the treasurer, on being asked for some money which was needed, said he had just loaned all the money for a few hours. Mr. Macrum lost $200 and found it necessary to sell his outfit at a sacrifice and return home. The defaulting treasurer was formerly a student at Stanford university.—Oregonian.

NOTICE TO VETERANS.

Owing to the fact that there will be county political conventions held at Hillsboro, on May 4 and 5, and that many veterans may be in attendance at each of these, it has been decided, after due deliberation and counsel, to change the order calling for the semi-annual meeting of the Washington County Veteran Association at Beaverton, Thursday May 5, to read "Saturday, May 7." Comrades and members will please govern themselves accordingly. H. F. GORDON, President. R. W. McNURT, Secretary.
