

CRIMINAL CASES FOR NOVEMBER TERM

Washington County Circuit Court.

BUT ELEVEN CRIMINAL CASES

Valentine Bauer will Answer for Shooting at Mrs. Overroder.

Circuit court will convene on Monday, Nov. 28, and the calendar has been made up by Clerk Imbrie.

Valentine Bauer, charged with shooting Mrs. Lizzie Overroder; August Hieckethier, charged with shooting Frank Mueller; W. W. Rambo, charged with assisting a prisoner to escape; J. C. Townsend, charged with assault with a dangerous weapon; John Brooks, charged with threatening to kill; also with having sold liquor without license; Thomas Johnson, a public nuisance; O. Johnson, forger; Alfonso Wardle, larceny in a dwelling; besides two other unimportant cases brought up from justices' courts.

Hon. Thos. H. Tongue was in attendance at the supreme court at Salem today.

H. Wehrung & Sons is the place to buy your winter overcoats. Call and price their goods.

Miss Nora Hager, who has been attending school at Oregon City, has returned on account of illness.

Notice! All old notes and accounts must be settled. Do not forget your doctor this fall. J. P. Tamsie, M. D.

Lost—Brotherhood of St. Andrews badge, small black silk with red cross interwoven. Finder please leave at this office.

Read the telegraphic news in THE ARGUS. No other paper in the county seat gives such a complete service. The people want all the news.

E. E. Colestock gives you the best shave in the city. Hair cut at popular price. Try his bath. Don't forget the place—City shaving Parlors, Main street.

H. Wehrung & Sons have a fresh barrel of small pickles on tap. Their stock of groceries is complete. Remember their motto: "Low prices and full weight."

Lost: Between Hillsboro and Farmington, on Oct. 15, a lady's purse containing small sum of money and other small articles valuable only to loser. Finder will be liberally rewarded upon leaving same at the Argus office.

Attention, Ladies! H. Wehrung & Sons have a complete line of ladies' and Misses' kid gloves at $1, $1.25 and $1.50. Fit guaranteed. These are new and stylish lines. Drop in and examine before buying elsewhere, and you will buy from them.

The Rev. C. F. Clapp, Forest Grove, will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday evening. His appearance that night will begin a series of nightly meetings to last through the week. Mr. Clapp is a favorite speaker wherever he goes, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Quite a number attended the road debate at the school house last Friday. The subject was, "Shall county road tax be paid in money?" Affirmative, Fred Cornelius, Marion Everson and Mart Hazen. Negative, Louis Rood, Edward Cantowine and Miss Young. The judges awarded the affirmative to the victory.

Dr. Tamsie received a telegram Saturday last, from Mexico City, old Mexico, to effect that Richard J. Wilcox had accidentally shot himself in the leg, with a revolver. The patient is doing well but is confined to the hospital. It may be possible that the leg will have to suffer amputation at the knee. Wilcox was well known here and is a locomotive engineer. For several years he has been running an engine on one of the big roads down there. The Odd Fellows' lodge at the City of Mexico are taking care of him, and see that he is getting good attendance and nursing.

The following is going the rounds of the papers, composed it is said, by a member of the Third Regiment—but unless he is one of the fortunate ones to get a discharge his wish in the concluding sentence has not been realized: "Our father who art in Washington, McKinley is thy name. Thy kingdom come in Cuba, as it has in the Philippines. Give us this day our daily hard tack and our passes. And forgive us as we forgive those who rob us of our liberty and try to starve us to death. And thou had better not lead us to Cuba, but deliver us from starvation, for thou art the eagle, the stars and stripes of freedom forever and ever. I want to go home. Amen.—New Jersey Ex.

Wesley Boscow writes a private letter from Skagway and in it he says he will be home to eat Thanksgiving turkey—that is, next Thanksgiving—a year hence. He expresses great faith in the Teslin strike and says he is going in to the mines in the spring. He is sanguine that he will have struck something good in the new district. He recently saw a man who had seen John Morgan but a few weeks ago, and who stated that he had several men to work for him by the day. Wesley says he likes the Alaska country quite well and would not prefer to be here, outside of the claims of old friends and his relatives.

There will be a shooting match at Witch Hazel farm, near Reedville, Saturday, Nov. 19, at 10 a. m. There will be plenty of turkeys and a cordial invitation is extended to all marksmen in the vicinity. Johnny, get your gun!

Private Roy Latham, Co. H, Second Oregon, writes from Manila, under date of Sept. 27th, stating that many of the boys want to return, now that the war is over. He sends word that The Argus is received regularly and that the boys are always glad to get home news. He states that it was reported at the time, around Manila, that the volunteers would be mustered out about Nov. 15. Roy says: "I go down town about once a week and get a square meal, for which I pay $1.50—so you see I am bound to keep in good form."

R. E. Bryan & Son have just received their fall shipment of jackets, capes and mackintoshes. It will pay you to look at these goods and compare prices before purchasing. See introductory price of Schilling's best coffee.

Justice of the Peace Phillips was in the city from Corvallis this morning and reports that he solemnized the marriage of Mr. R. S. Prudeaux and Miss Vera M. Phillips, on Wednesday, Nov. 16. The happy pair are members of the Weber Dramatic Co., and were married during a lapse in a rehearsal, which was being conducted on the stage in Hendrix hall.

The Grange store is the place to buy your stoves, air-tight heaters, ranges, cook stoves—stove furniture of all kinds. Full line of groceries. Best teas, coffees and spices in the market—Schilling's best. Prices will please you. Call and see for yourself.

The following named received certificates at the examination held last week: First grade: Hattie Moore, Greenville. Second grade: Daisy D. Curtis, Gales Creek. E. X. Harding, Gaston. Third grade: Jessie Mitchell, Vernonia; Lillian Briggs, Cornelius; Katie Jenck, Beaverton; Mrs. Orilla Grimes, Farmington; E. P. W. Harding, Gaston.

Go to C. R. Boyd for your rough and dressed lumber of all kinds. Dressed lumber a specialty. Maple, cedar and fir. Splendid quality, lowest prices. Call at Mill, or address C. R. Boyd, Phillips.

The Bethany Club will give a masquerade ball, Saturday evening, Dec. 3, 1898. Admission, 50 cents; supper, 25 cents. Toelle Orchestra. Plenty of room for horses in new shed. Everybody invited. Good time. No disreputable characters. Prize for best lady's costume; gentlemen's costume; and prize for most comical costume.

There will be a Thanksgiving ball at the Schiefelin ranch, near Centerville. The Walker Bros. orchestra will furnish the music and a splendid time is anticipated.

O. H. Haugan, for several years connected with the Farmington creamery, left on this evening's train for Madison, Wisconsin, where he will attend the state agricultural college, for three months, taking a post graduate course in dairying. Mr. Haugan will return to Oregon next Spring.

Go to F. J. Barber, Second Street, for a neat shave or hair cut. Satisfaction guaranteed. Fine bath room in connection.

Thomas Connell, of Glencoe, was in the city today, and states that R. Connell has located in Portland where he is interested in a feed mill as well as a sash and door factory. He is also doing a little commission business, in car load lots.

Turkeys are roosting very high, both in the trees and market. Thanksgiving day will soon be here.

Walter McKinney will soon depart for Eastern Washington in the hopes that the high altitude may be more to his liking than the damp of the Willamette Valley. Mr. McKinney has made many friends by his courteous treatment of the public while acting as deputy in the county clerk's office. His many friends in this vicinity wish him ever success, wherever he may go.

H. Wehrung & Sons' stock of Gents' and Ladies' Mackintoshes is complete. Prices from $2.50 to $12. No trouble to show goods.

By special request, the pastor of the M. E. church, Rev. R. A. Atkins, will deliver an address, the subject of which will be "The Virgin Mary," Sunday.

Plows! Go to the Grange store for your Oliver Chilled and steel plows. The best in the market.

A GRAND TRIBUTE TO PRIVATE OLIVER

Nearly 500 People Attended Memorial Exercises.

MANY PEOPLE TURNED AWAY

The Christian Endeavors and their Aides Pay the Last Mark of Respect.

Nearly 500 people attended the memorial services held in the Congregational church last Sunday evening in honor of late private, Co. H, Charles Percy Oliver. Many were turned away as there was such an assembly that long before the hour of opening, every inch of standing room was occupied. The memorial exercises opened with a Dirge by the band, followed by the audience singing "Nearer, My God, To Thee". The pastor then offered prayer. The program was:

Solo by Miss Grace Poe. Memorial, interrogative and responsive exercises by pastor and endeavors. Quartet by Miss Grace Poe, Mrs. O. B. Gates, Messrs. Fred Vroman and Dorr Waggener. Placing shield, "To the Memory of C. P. Oliver," gold lettered on black background, upon easel draped in black and white. Mr. C. B. Jones bearing shield and presenting same to the Misses Grace Poe and Josie Schulmerich. Prayer of blessing by pastor.

Solo, "Star Spangled Banner," by Miss Johnson, of Salem. Memorial address by Rev. Evan P. Hughes. "America" by assembly, accompanied by band. Benediction. The church decorations were very beautiful. The arch and chancel were draped in black and white and there was a great profusion of flowers. A handsome Christian Endeavor monogram was suspended from the arch.

The Christian Endeavor and Eastern Star, of which the deceased was a member, the Grand Army Post, the Women's Relief Corps, and the Red Cross and Emergency Corps, (Private Oliver was doing occasional hospital work at Manila with the Red Cross) were present in bodies and bore the colors of their respective societies. The floral star by the E. S., and the easel by the Emergency Corps and Red Cross, were emblematic of the occasion. Representative of the Endeavors, Mr. Hughes said, in part:

"The object of this meeting is not the glorification of war, nor to develop the brutal in man; nor to kindle in our youth, admiration for an occupation that is barbarous. We are here to honor the patriotic dead and we can best do that by teaching the upholding of principles for which they have fought and died. History proves that Americans are a people of peace, instead of war, and that we go to war only when stern necessity and justice demand, and then, with a fervor which makes it a religion. It is wrong to praise and laud war, per se, and yet there are times when moral necessity makes war inevitable. Our war with Spain was in the interest of humanity, and while some have said it was hastened by politicians for political advantage, I can but think, nevertheless, that it was an inevitable and irresponsible conflict, a foregone conclusion. The destruction of the fleet at Manila was but the completion of the trend of events which began when the mighty Spanish Armada met defeat in the British channel.

"The best way to honor our patriotic dead is to live as manly, straightforward, moral, Americans." The speaker declared that true patriotism was something different than the "flamboyant noise and clatter" counterfeited often seeking its title. He stated further, that a true patriot need not, and did not fear European combinations, but was ever on guard against the enemy from within. Patriotism is the essence of justice. There was no patriotism in selling and bribing votes, employing official positions as rewards for political servilement above the public welfare and partisanship above loyalty to trust and truth. The speaker said: "We need men—true loyal men to combat these institutions, men with high ideals."

"After paying a glowing tribute to the worth of the dead soldier, he closed with this sentence: "The American Republic will emerge from its trials, purified and more glorious—one condition qualified—'Americans, be true.'"

For Sale: House and lot in this city. Neat residence, good repair; barn, chicken house and yard; orchard. Will sell for cash, reasonable. Call at this office.

Tualatin Chapter O. E. S., No. 31, of Hillsboro, Oregon, will hold memorial services on account of the death of Bro. C. P. Oliver, who was a member of said chapter. Said services will be held at the next regular meeting of the Chapter, which will be on Tuesday evening, November 22, 1898. All Master Masons and their families are cordially invited to be present. By order of Laura Waggener, W. M.; attested by E. O. Crandall, secretary.

Riley Cave has just received in stock a lot of good cross-cut saws, steel wedges, sledges, single and double bit axes, and other goods. More are coming.

E. J. Mendenhall was down from Buxton today and states that on the 2d inst., sitting as U. S. Commissioner, he held one Herman Fuellner, of Braunsport, Columbia county, to appear before the U. S. grand jury to answer the charge of having written an obscene and scurrilous letter to A. Schmidline. It seems that the defendant had "blacked" his wife's eyes and that she left home and went to Schmidline's house where host and hostess welcomed her. Fuellner, in exasperation "got funny" and wrote himself into trouble.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a fair on the evenings of November 28th and 29th. A splendid programme on each evening.

Alonzo Sigler has removed the remains of his father, buried on the Sigler donation 36 years ago, to the Odd Fellows' cemetery. He also took up the remains of a brother, buried several years later. Considering the lapse of time, the remains were in a fair state of preservation.

Go to the Grange store for your hardware and tinware; finest in the market.

County Judge Rood yesterday ordered Cyrus Naughan, of Middleton, aged 26, committed to the insane asylum. The young man has been growing mentally worse for a number of years. Deputy Sheriff Deichman executed the commitment.
