RED CROSS HAVE SPLENDID PROGRAM.

Interesting Evening at the Grange Hall, May 30.

EVAN P. HUGHES' ABLE ADDRESS.

The Society netted about seventeen dollars for Monument Fund.

The Red Cross and Emergency Corps entertainment at the Grange Hall Monday evening was a decided success. The ladies netted about seventeen dollars, which will go into the county monument fund. Rev. Evan P. Hughes delivered a very ably address on the origin and work of the Red Cross, covering its forty years of existence, and the noble manner in which it reached the suffering of wars. The exposition was replete with information and his auditors went away with an entirely new idea of the popular conception of the society.

Mayor Barrett talked for some time upon the county monument, explaining how the idea had originated and applaudidg the hearty reception the monument was receiving. The remainder of the numbers were: Reading, "The Woman who went to the Field," by Miss Addie Bryan; Recitation, "The Young Soldier," Jeanette George; Violin Solo, Don Hare; Solos, by the Misses Grace Poe, E. Johnson, Mrs. Wells and Dr. C. B. Brown, and four selections by the orchestra.

Ground bone for chickens, 2 cts per pound, at Greer's.

Hops are growing nicely and the vines in many yards have already reached the tops of the poles. The wet weather has been rather favorable to rapid growth.

Go to F. J. Barber, Second Street, for a neat shave or hair cut. Satisfaction guaranteed. Fine bath room in connection.

Wilhelm Ott, has brought suit against Marianna Ott, for divorce, on grounds of desertion. They were married in Russia in 1875, and separated in this county in 1888.

Schulmerich & Son's for gloves See their job lots, 50 and 75 cents per pair

It is with some degree of pride that the Argus can state that it is the only county official paper printed in Washington Co. This had not occurred to its management until a prominent public man called its attention to the fact -so dull it is, that there is nothing, after all, in being too darned smart, and we are not sorry it is so.

Plaid and check ribbons and dress trimming, all of the latest designs, at H. Wehrung & Sons'.

Hon. W. D Hare will leave next Monday for Indianapolis, Indiana, to attend the Supreme Lodge, Ancient Order of United Workman. He expects to return by July 1, if not sooner. Wm Colvig, of Jackson county, Mr. McFadden, of Salem, and Mr. Whalen, of Portland, go with them. Mrs. Briggs, of Wasco county, goes back to represent the Degree of Honor.

Representative Tongue made the Memorial address before the Portland Grand Army and Relief Corps, Tuesday evening.

The Hillsboro High school graduates for the term just closed are: Lennie Paisley, Venus Coburn, Dell Young, Emily Young, Minnie Heidel, Etta Kimberlin, Ella Bridges, Mabel Mullin, Jessie Epperson, Winnie Lincoln, Etta Jackson, Martha Ingram, Mae Imbrie, Fred Everson, Jennie Greer, Orpha Peters, Fred Cornelius, Inez Luce, Sam Lawrence, Ruth Moreland, M. S. Hazen, Edna Imbrie.

The creamery output in this county this summer promises to eclipse that of any previous season, Pasturage is in excellent condition.

It is stated that Patrick Forrester, who died at Cedar Mill last week, leaves a little home for his wife, and a certificate of deposit in Ladd & Tilton's bank, Portland for $20,000. The great part of this fortune was made raising potatoes on his little ranch, he having had but a few hundred dollars when he located there years ago. He leaves no children, and all his estate goes to his wife as the legal heir. And yet, under the law, his widow must give bonds in the sum of $40,000.

Mrs. J. A. Benson, of Cottage Grove, was in the city this week, the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. A. Imbrie. She returns home this Friday morning.

Dr. S. T. Linklater, attendant physician, is highly gratified at the mental and physical improvement of Sheriff Bradford, and he expects the patient, unless he suffer a relapse, to be out of his room within a fortnight. The report sent to the Portland daily by the Forest Grove correspondent, which appeared yesterday morning, was about ten days behind the actual state of the patient.

The Clerk's receipts for May were $129.55. The Recorder's office received fees in the sum of $148.05.

M. H. Mann, who is managing Alto Mann, at the Wiley stables, in Hillsboro, says he is getting many more mares this season than he expected. Blood tells, and this scion of Altao 2:09¼, will leave some of his posterity for the turf. Alto Mann is a wonder in horseflesh, a great big handsome black, standing sixteen hands, and has not a white mark on him. He is now on his fourth year and has developed wonderful action and speed, patterning after Altao. Breeders will make no mistake in using this fine horse. It will be remembered that last week's Rural Spirit has the following to say of Alto Mann's sire: "Altao 2:09¼, has trotted 49 winning heats in 2:30 or better, which is more than either Allerton 2:09¼, Directum 2:05¼, Nelson 2:09, Kremlin 2:07¼, Wm. Penn 2:07¼, Arion 2:07½ have to their credit." This should settle the question of superiority for once and all and any one who wants a colt from the greatest living horse family should have Alto Mann as the sire.

Don't think you can cure that slight attack of Dyspepsia by dieting, or that it will cure itself. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will cure it; it "digests what you eat" and restores the digestive organs to health. Delta Drug Store.

Mrs. G. W. Marsh left her home last Wednesday evening and search did not discover her whereabouts until Monday. The Sunday Oregonian continued an article and photo of the missing woman, and by the likeness she was identified at North Yamhill. She was brought home Tuesday and is now under the care of Dr. F. A. Bailey of this city.

Glencoe and Hillsboro are building a bicycle path between the two places. The track will run via Loui Manning's, on past Ross' and Connell's and via the Jackson school house. Work was commenced Monday morning and the Connell Bros. start the ball rolling by building a mile of road at their own expense.

H. Wehrung & Sons' stock of ladies' and gentlemen's fine shoes is comlete. A few lines of ladies', gentlemen's and childrens' shoes are going at greatly reduced prices.

J. P. Hicks, now of Henley, Cal., was in the city to spend Decoration Day. Mr. Hicks says he likes California, but it does him good to get back to Oregon once in a while.

Dr. C. B. Brown is spending the week in the city.

What is Kodol Dyspepsia cure? It is the newly discovered remedy, the most effective preparation ever devised for aiding the digestion and assimilation of food, and restoring the deranged digestive organs to a natural condition. It is a discovery surpassing anything yet known to the medical profession. The Delta Drug Store.

Mr. C. P. Hall and wife, formerly of Reedville, now of Portland, were in the city Monday.

County Clerk Imbrie has received 26 copies of the 1899 session laws. Each county officer and commissioners will receive a copy, bound in sheep. Each qualified justice of the peace will also receive a copy, bound half-sheep. Justices may call on Clerk Imbrie and receive copy, thus saving postage.

Dr. J. E. Adkins returned from Heppner last week.

The consolidated bands of Washington county met in this city last Saturday evening and discoursed a number of pieces in the court-yard The boys will start Sunday for the Albany tournament, taking the charter car out of Portland Sunday night or early Monday morning The Hillsboro boys have their new uniforms and they will make a splendid appearance.

J. A. Campbell, the Christian minister, and well known here, was in the city Decoration day. Mr. Campbell is now located at North Yamhill.

Hillsboro has a bright young elocutionist in the person of Miss Minnie Heidel and her recitation at the court house on Memorial Day won her the admiration of one of the largest audiences yet assembled in the auditorium. Miss Heidel has much histrionic and elocutionary ability and with culture is destined for a wider than a local reputation.

The Argus has just completed printing a new constitution and by-laws for the Volunteer Fire Department.

Nearly a hundred Hillsboro people were excursionists to Portland Tuesday. The chartered car left at 7:30 in the morning and the visitors have not yet all returned, their transportation being good until Saturday night.

Hon. S. B. Huston was a Portland visitor Thursday evening.

The county court has employed a Portland book binder from the firm of Glass & Prudhomme to bind the old record volumes and tend to their preservation. He is working on the books and will be employed several days.

Mrs. Nancy Walker, who has been a resident of Forest Grove for forty years, and who sett'led on the Tualatin near this place, in 1845, died at the age of 82 years, the other day, while on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Bybee, of Jacksonville.

The stock of groceries at Wehrungs' is complete. Highest market price paid for produce.

Charles Mason, of beyond Glencoe and who went to Honolulu as a soldier, was in the city the other day. Charles says he is glad to get back to old Oregon.

Chas. Kuyart, of Bethany, had his right lung drained by Dr. Tamiesie yesterday. The physician, by use of an aspirate took a cubic gallon of pus from the organ. He lives and doeth nicely.

The Teachers' Institute at Dilley, last Saturday was a great success. John R. Willis delivered the opening address. Prof. J. H. Stanley, of St. John's, made a splendid address upon educational work, which was received with much enthusiasm. The balance of the program was: Percentage, M. C. Case; Use of Blackboard, Lena Stillwell; Teaching as a profession, G. A. Peterson; Recitation -- Methods in reading, Martha DeWitte; Drawing, Miss Rose Wilcox; Class Exercises, Miss H. B. Anderson. The attendance was unusually good.

Born: at Lennox, June 1, a son, weight 12 lbs., to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Emerick. The little fellow is a grandson of Sol Emerick, who died in Idaho a few months ago.

Deputy Sheriff Deichman and Assistant Max Crandall are putting in all their spare time making up the delinquent tax roll. It will yet be some time before it can be placed in the hands of the clerk. There are delinquent on the 1898 roll, not quite $12,000.

R. Irmler, Mr. Holz, Cornelius, and Julius Asbahr and John Witt, of South Tualatin, passed through the city for Bethany this morning, to attend a meeting of the Bethany mutual insurance association. Officers were elected for the ensuing year.

Deputy District Attorney Bagley was called to Forest Grove yesterday to prosecute R. G. Dorris, a sewing machine agent, who was charged with assaulting two young men who reside near Dilley. Bagley ascertained that young Dorris had sailed into the two youth because they were abusing two women, Mrs. Lane, and her daughter. Dorris heard the torrent of abuse and went to the rescue. He landon both of them quicker than the legendary winking of a lamb's tail, putting the ladies' assailants hors du combat. After getting the straight of the affair, the prosecuting officer moved a dismissal, which was granted, and then advised Forest Grove people to present young Dorris with a benediction inscribed on morroco, for his valor.

For superior Photos call at the new studio, five blocks east of the Court House.

The Fire Department met last evening and signed up their new constitution. Two new members, Messrs. E. B. Tongue and A. J. Henderson, were elected to membership. The Department, since consolidation, is stronger numerically, than ever it was before, and new members are constantly being received. The Board of Fire Delegates, Messrs Chief Wiley, H. Schulmerich, J. B. Wilkes, Benton Bowman and E. B. Sappington, are worthy fellows and will do much toward making the Department a monument of protection.

A good record—out of 34 settings of 15 eggs each, Black Minorca, sold by R. H. Greer in two months, each setting averaged thirteen chicks! Bob is still selling settings of 15 for 50 cents per setting.

Preston Jackson is out about forty or fifty dollars as a result of the raid made upon his sheep last week by Hillsboro curs—that is to say, "dorgs." Mr. Jackson made two good dogs in the melee—good allee same "good Indians"—having shot them too dead and full of holes to skin. City Marshal Gheen is to strictly enforce the dog ordinance and will commence the collection of license at once, killing all canines whose owners will not pay. The Argus humbly asks Mr. Jackson's pardon on behalf of the town, for having city pups which have a tooth for mutton; but mutton is "good eatin'," Pres.

Don't forget the W. R. C. dinner, June 3rd, and supper of hot biscuits and maple syrup, 15 cents each.

W. M. Gallagher, of Bryan, Pa., says: "For forty years I have tried various cough medicines. One Minute Cough cure is best of all" It relieves instantly and cures all throat and lung troubles, coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, la-grippe and pneumonia. Delta Drug Store.

The measles are still going the rounds throughout the county.

H. P. Ford, Washington county's ex-sheriff, now on the Portland detective force, was in the city Saturday evening and returned Sunday. H. P. is winning laurels in the service and that he will soon be on the top of the ladder is the general opinion of those who know him.

Mrs. Jennie Chapman was in the city from Portland, Monday, the guest of her sister.

Two sixteen-year-old boys yesterday went into an alley between Base Line and Washington streets and stripped for regular Queensberry knockdown. Marshal Gheen caught them after a few plunges had been made and took them before Recorder Bowman, who let them go after a severe reprimand. About thirty youngsters were witnesses to the affair. Recorder Bowman will give the next offenders the limit of the law.

Miss Carrie Carter lectured to the W. C. T. U. at the court house, Sunday afernoon.

Messrs. W. N. Barrett, W. H. Wehrung and E. C. Shulmerich will represent the Hillsboro Masonic Lodge at the Grand Lodge in Portland, week after next. Mrs. W. N. Barrett, Dr. F. A. Bailey and Mrs. Henry Wehrung will represent the Eastern Star. The Eastern Star will meet next week, one week earlier than the Masonic body.

Hon. T. H. Tongue went to Portland Tuesday evening and delivered an address to the Grand Army of that city.

Those desiring stand rights at the Veteran's reunion and Fourth of July celebration at Cornelius, can see the committe at 1:00 p. m., Saturday, June 10 and get terms. The committeee will meet on the grounds at Cornelius.— H. Corum, C. C. Hancock, Ernest Haberstroh, Committee.

John Goodin and J. C. Corey, prominent Glencoeites, were in this city today.

Are you going to build a good home? If so, do you want the best lumber you can get for your money? If so, come and see us and our stock, or drop us a card.—Mountaindale Lbr. Co., Mountaindale Or.

H. Wehrung & Sons are now buying wool. Farmers having wool to sell will do well to get together and let the firm handle their clips. Highest market price.

John Milne departed for San Francisco last evening to be absent ten days. He is looking after the flour milling business.

HOW WE OBSERVED DECORATION DAY

Four Hundred People Witnessed Exercises

PATRIOTIC ADDRESSES WERE MADE

Public School Participated in the Program.

Decoration day was suitably observed. General Ransom Post and the Woman's Relief Corps, preceeded by the band, marched to the cemetery where a very impressive ceremony was conducted and the graves of the departed soldiers and friends beautifully spread with flowers; after which they returned to the city and continued the exercises in the court house, convening at 1:30 p. m.

Patriotic addresses were delivered by Hon. W. N. Barrett and Deputy Dist. Attorney Bagley and likewise by Mr. Harvey Miller, a visitor from Vancouver.

The address of Mr. Barrett was replete with inspiring sentiment and displayed a masterly conception of our nation, its institutions, and its veterans.

Too much cannot be said for Mr. Bagley and Mr. Harvey Miller. Their addresses were exceptionally fine and delivered with dramatic effect. Being but young men, it is safe to predict that should their lives be spared, a splendid future is before them.

Mr. M. S. Hazen led the High School exercises in an oration which met with general applause.

The exercises of the school children were nicely rendered and with pleasing effect—the readings and the young ladies who assisted were truly enjoyable, displaying much culture and study. Thus did our people display their appreciation and love for the Grand Army of the Republic and its dead and honored heroes. The school program was:

Oration— Decoration Day.....M. Hazen
Recitations:—
Marguerite.....Grace Reeves
Pride of Battery B.....Jeanette George
The Men who never die...Elzora Haines
The Whistling Regiment.....
.....Tennie Weatherred
The Independence Bell..Maud Baggerly
The Wounded Soldier.....Ruth Luce
Memorial Day.....Ruby Plowman
The Nation's dead.....Minnie Heidel
Strew flowers o'er the Nation's dead...
.....Robbie Weatherred
A nameless Grave.Marguerite Redmond
Lonely Grave.....Effie L. House
Other exercises and drills by the school children.

The band was present and rendered several patriotic pieces.

WILL MEET JUNE 3, 1899.

Mayor W. N. Barrett hands the following for publication:

To the Committee on Monument Fund: You are hereby requested to meet at my office in Hillsboro, Or., Saturday, June 3, 1899, to discuss ways and means and formulate plans for unanimity of action in collecting the funds for the purpose of erecting a county monument in honor of our volunteer dead of the Spanish—American war. I advise that a chairman, secretary and treasure be selected at that date.

W. N. BARRETT,
Mayor of Hillsboro, Oregon.

The Volunteer Fire Department met last evening with the largest attendance at roll call since the city was incorporated. The new constitution and by-laws were signed by the entire department. Two new members were elected. The Board of Fire Delegates were instructed to meet with the council fire committee this morning to confer with them as to removing the huge fire bell to a position on top of the city hall. Messrs. W. H Wehrung and Rufus Waggener met with the Board this morning and a site selected. The matter will be acted upon at the next meeting of the council, Tuesday, next.

There is time for all things. The time to take DeWitt's Little Early Risers is when you are suffering from constipation, biliousness, sick-headache, indigestion or other stomach or liver troubles. They never gripe Delta Drug Store.

Elmer Borwick, the 16-year old son of James Borwick, residing near Reedville, while attempting to take a shot gun down from its hanging place yesterday morning, through accidental discharge of the weapon, lost a part of his hand. He was taking the firearm down to shoot a hawk, when the trigger caught. He was brought to the city and the wound dressed by Dr. Linklater and he is now getting along quite well.
