JUDGE CHAS. T. TOZIER BURIED SUNDAY LAST

Was an Honored Oregon Pioneer. DIED AT WALLACE, IDAHO, JULY 6. One Time Sheriff of Washington County. Universally Beloved.

The remains of Chas. T. Tozier, one of our Hillsboro friends, were brought from Wallace, Idaho, Saturday evening, and buried in the Masonic cemetery west of the city.

Mr. Tozier died at Wallace, July 6, from the results of blood-poisoning, and, as he had been quite healthy, his demise was a sad surprise.

Chas. T. Tozier was born in Indiana in 1832 and was married to Caroline Miner in 1855, who died in 1856. To this union one son was born, Edgar A., now living at Blairtown, Iowa.

On August 1, 1858, he married Miss Ziralda P. Mayfield, of Cass County, Nebraska. To this union two sons and three daughters were born.

One of the daughters, Rosella, lies buried in the Masonic cemetery west of this city.

Judge Tozier was sheriff of this county four years, having been elected in 1872, was two terms representative from this county and served as County Judge for four years.

He was always congenial, made many friends and was honored and respected by all. He always liked Hillsboro and had hoped some day to again make it his home.

He was a member of the Masonic and Odd Fellows lodge of this place. He helped to build the M. E. church here and was a member until the time of his death.

His death came suddenly, himself not realizing or thinking he was in any danger. The first intimation his family received was a telegram stating that Judge Tozier was dying.

Albert and Nellie, his son and daughter, at once started for Wallace, Idaho, but did not reach there until death had claimed him.

Mrs. Tozier has been confined to her room for nearly four months. The children are Edgar A. Tozier of Blairtown, Iowa, Albert, Nellie Tozier and Mrs. Edyth Weathered of Portland and Leroy M. Tozier, of Dawson City.

The funeral occurred Sunday morning from the M. E. church, Rev. R. A. Atkins delivering the sermon. The Masons had charge of the interment. The floral offerings at the cemetery were exquisite, the pillar of flowers three feet in height being very beautiful.

VALLEY CROPS WILL BE SATISFACTORY

So Says B. S. Pague in his Weekly Crop Report. HAY CROP IS BEING HARVESTED. Fruit Crop Very Light but Berries Promise a Good Yield.

Director Pague explains the Willamette valley crop situation as follows: "The second crop of alfalfa is being cut in the southern counties. The cutting of wheat for hay has commenced in a few sections. Clover, timothy and cheat continue to be cut. The hay crop is turning out as well as it has ever done.

Fall-sown wheat, oats and barley are turning yellow; in a few favored localities barley harvest has commenced. Early-sown spring grain has commenced to head. The spring grain promises well; the yield will not be as heavy as the fall-sown. The reports indicate that the grain crop is in a fairly satisfactory condition, not as good as in some years, but better than in others.

Strawberries are about over. Cherries are ripening; Royal Anns are about two weeks late in ripening. Apples, pears and prunes have not changed in condition; dropping has ceased and the fruit now on the trees will probably mature. The light fruit allows of an extra good growth of wood, so that the orchards are really benefited by the light crop. Peaches are ripening in the southern counties. In Jackson county there is a good crop; in other counties there will be little, if any, more than that required for the local markets.

"Hops are making good growth; lice are increasing and spraying has commenced in many of the yards. The current condition of the vines is favorable for a good crop. "Garden produce is making good growth; rain is needed more for gardens than for anything else. Raspberries are ripe and very plentiful. Blackberries promise a good crop.

"To day the crop prospects from western Oregon are fairly satisfactory. In eastern states the present crop prospects of Oregon would be called excellent, but compared with usual conditions in Oregon they must be classed as only fair."

TO WELCOME VOLUNTEERS.

Pursuant to the call of the Mayor of Hillsboro, Or., a number of the citizens of the city met at the court house on Friday evening, July 7th, to arrange for a proper reception of our soldier boys on their return home from Manila. The Hillsboro Band kindly played a few pieces from the portico of the court house, after which the Mayor called the meeting to order. After a general discussion it was voted unanimously that the citizens of Hillsboro and surrounding country should turn out and meet the boys at the train upon their return, and that the Hillsboro band be invited to be present. It was thought best to have the general reception to the boys from this county at a later date, and on motion of Hon. S. B. Huston the following committee was appointed by the Mayor: to arrange for the said reception: Hon. S. B. Huston, Rev. E. P. Hughes, Rev. R. A. Atkins, H. T. Bagley, and Messrs R. E. Bryan, W. E. Thorne, H. V. Gates, R. W. Waggener, Griffin and Latham.

Charged With Horse Stealing. George Coughtry, of Lafayette, was arrested Saturday last on a John Doe warrant and lodged in the city bastille. Coughtry was charged with the larceny of four mares and one gelding which the sheriff had attached. The animals are owned by Robert Coughtry, a brother of the defendant. The attachment was made Thursday and on the Saturday following Coughtry attempted to run the animals out of the county. The defendant was tried before Judge Smith Monday and proved that he had no knowledge of the sheriff's attachment, that arrangements had been made to transfer the stock subsequent to attachment, and that he took possession of them in good faith. He was released from custody. E. R. Gregory defended Coughtry.

Schulmerich & Son for bargains in gloves. H. B. Nicholas, a prominent Portland attorney, was in the city Tuesday.

Miss Lena Abbott, who made her parents a ten days' visit, returned to Portland, Monday evening. If you want a wagon you can save from $10 to $15 by buying from Schulmerich & Son.

A fresh barrel of pickles just opened at Groer's.

WHEAT GROWERS SAID TO HAVE LOST

Considerable Through Departure of Portland Buyer. J. R. CAMERON LEFT FOR ENGLAND. Said to Have Left Several Washington County People in the Lurch.

It is quietly reported that several Washington county wheat growers have lost heavily through the departure for merry England of a Portland wheat buyer by the name of J. R. Cameron. This buyer had handled several years' crops for a large number of our heaviest wheat growers, and several weeks ago he unceremoniously departed for that country which now seeks with us an offensive and defensive alliance. It is said that when Cameron departed he forgot to settle with some of our citizens who had wheat stored in his care. Mrs. Martin Smith, of Lennox, is said to be the heaviest loser, her warehouse amounting to about one thousand bushels. Jacob Wilson was also a loser, and Frank McEldowney, superintendent of the Ladd farm at Mt. Tabor, was also a slight loser. Cameron was a suave and polished "geezer," and had established with people a ripe confidence.

Mrs. Eliza Crosley P. sees Away. Mrs. Eliza Crosley died at her home in Forest Grove Sunday, July 9, 1899. She was born at Mackinaw, Ill., in 1827, and was married to William Crosley at that place in 1856. She came to this county about twenty-five years ago and had resided in Forest Grove since then. She leaves a sister, Mrs. Mary Layton, Mackinaw, Ill.; two brothers, Edward Matthews, Forest Grove, Or., and Wm. Matthews, Martinez, Cal.; two sons, J. J. Crosley, and H. A. Crosley, Walla Walla, and three daughters, Mrs. A. T. Knox, Misses Grace and Wilma Crosley, Forest Grove. The remains were interred in the Naylor cemetery Tuesday, beside those of her husband whose demise occurred last April.

VOLUNTEERS AT FRISCO GOD BLESS THEM

The Transports Landed Last Night at 5:30 P. M. MUSTERED OUT AT SAN FRANCISCO. Many an Oregon Mother's Heart is Made Happy.

On Wednesday, July 12, about 5 p. m., the joyful news was received at this city that the transports conveying the Oregon Volunteers from Manila to San Francisco had been sighted off Point Reyes, north and west of Golden Gate Harbor. The fire bell was immediately given five taps with intervals between each and powder was burnt with much gusto. The vessels made the harbor of Frisco about 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon and went into quarantine. No sickness was suffered coming across the broad expanse of waters and a clear bill of health is reported. It was learned that the boys were unanimous in their demand that they be mustered out at San Francisco and so will it be. This, of course, upsets all ideas of reception at Portland, as the boys will be mustered out below and come at their own sweet will.

Many a mother's heart in Oregon is today thrilling with happiness over the prospect of meeting with the loved one. All have come home except Eugene Scully and Fred Boyd. The latter's coming is yet in doubt.
