Subscription: One Dollar per Annum, Six Months, 60 Cts; Three Months, 35 Cts. Opposed to Gold Mono Metallism. Believes in the Bimetallic Standard. Dear Money means Debased Property, and Profitless American Product. Our Consequence loss is our Creditors' Gain. Has no use for Marcus A. Hanna.

INDIANS NOT WANTED.

The smallest man in political life today, is the nonentity who wants to straddle on important issues—issues which, in decent honesty, should be met, and settled. This is the spot-man—the man who sees in political power nothing but pecuniary benefit. He is always in politics; he stands for nothing; he is full of deceit, and he takes his pledges and platforms full of ambiguity, that when in power he may have license to betray. Of such, is McKinley; of such is Whitney and his cohorts. They are like agents. They fear a positive declaration, and they look upon a people as something to be hoodwinked. Let us have men and measures in our next presidential campaign. Let the agents in control of Mr. McKinley come out and tell us what they want in unmeasured terms and let the democracy stand either for debased product or profitable product. Kick the unseemly straddlers out. Indians are not wanted in American political life.

ANNOYING, OF COURSE.

Some of our big-republican dailies are in a rage because they cannot see that democracy is taking gold-standard advice—from advisers who would like to control all political action. The real democracy of the country does not necessarily consist of fools, and fools they would be, were they accept promptings from the commercialism of the country. So, the bogie man, silver, continues to annoy our delicate and sensitive brethren, for he threatens to get a considerable larger support than hitherto.

The old cry of "fool" and "lunatic," which will always force-fool and lunatics, is now being brought to bear upon a long suffering public. This is the last ditch for commercialism. It is their extramundane. This they use to frighten the simple minded, and the easily frightened, but it will have no effect upon the thinking citizen who intelligently fights the effort to debase the product of the farm. It is really pleasing to read this extreme nonsense, coming from our brethren of the gold press. It is an indication that all is not as pleasant for them as it might be.

SHOULD FARMERS STACK?

The old admonition, "Farmers stack your grain" comes with redoubled force this year. While very little damage, as yet, has resulted, it is very well for farmers in the valley to exercise every prudence in the harvesting of their crops. Weather, here, is very uncertain, and the few dollars spent in stacking wheat is well expended. As rain in August is very uncommon, it is thought by many that it is about an even thing, in the long run, to let the grain remain in the shock. Two years ago, however, Washington county suffered considerable loss through lack of stacking, and unless it breaks away, this year may repeat the experience.

THE OREGON volunteers are to be given a royal welcome in this city, Saturday. Their number is short but two, C. Percy Oliver and John Spierings Jr., who sleep in the Luzon. We are proud of our returned volunteers, and they are a fine, manly body of men. Hillsboro is theirs, and Washington county is richer in citizenship because of their return. Give them the glad hand.

The Oregonian, in not standing by the administration's Philippine policy, is guilty of a considerable treason. That able paper should remember that it is easy, very easy, to paper Filipinos, but to typewrite and call them the Tagals out of existence, is another matter. As Otis is an expert in this line, Mr. McKinley has done his whole duty. The President's real delinquency has been in not capturing Edward Atkinson's printing press and turning it loose on Otis first, the Filipinos afterward. The Argus doesn't like to see the Oregonian go back on its old slogan, "Stand by the administration!"

THERE is some talk of a republican ticket whose candidates are opposed to militarism and imperialism. There is a good opportunity for John M. Palmer and Gen. Buckner.

It is very, very sad, to think, to know, that such rampant, belligerent and scrappy patriots as H. W. Scott and Henri Watterson are obliged to stay at home and guard the "copperheads," when this could use them to such advantage in Luzon.

The Oregonian's dozen or thirteen returned volunteers who so ardently advocate forcible subjugation of the Philippines should have remained at Manila, and reenlisted. It is a poor policy that will not exact active support—instead of "words! words! words!"

The democrats of Iowa have met, endorsed the Chicago platform, gave W. J. Bryan their support for 1900, and placed in the field Fred White, as their candidate for governor. The populists have united with the democrats and the utmost of harmony prevails. The silver republicans will heartily support the ticket and Iowa bids fair to be entered up as against debased product.

SHOULD the average American citizen attempt, and courteously, to look over the Columbia river fortifications, he would get the bosom of his pants pushed with the toe of a boot—because the information might get out to powers which hereafter might become inimical to our government. The dispatches tell us that a "bloody, blooming Britisher," an officer, was, the other day, shown the defenses! What kind of insignificant, tuft-hunting, loquacious government are we becoming, anyway?

THE REAL SITUATION.

Tuesday's dispatches in the Oregonian contain the following reference to the Philippines, written by an officer of the volunteer forces at Manila:

"The 8,000,000 people of the Philippines are as highly civilized as the 12,000,000 of Mexico. If the American people will imagine the United States to have acquired Mexico against her will, and to be engaged in an attempt to put down a universal rebellion of Mexicans with 20,000 troops, they will have a duplicate picture at close range of the situation in the Philippines, with the exception that the climate in the Philippines is to 15 degrees more than that of Mexico."

Here is the civilizing task which our copperhead stay-at-home want others to lose their lives. Public expenditure is a secondary consideration. The real "copperheads" would give these people a chance to live and govern themselves. They ask no man to offer his life for utter foolishness.

At latest accounts Wm. P. Lord had not embarked for Persia.

Governor Roosevelt evidently thinks he could fill the place better than McKinley.

"Legislate for the rich; God will take care of the poor." This is the maxim of Marcus A. Hanna, the savior of our country.

We are afraid that General Grant is not enough of a naturalist to fully appreciate the breed of lions now prowling about his kraal.

"More national debt and more for our money," will be the campaign cry of the forces in control of the grand old party in the next campaign.

Give the African of America the right to vote, but give the Filipinos hell.—Expression of those who think the Americans are turned British.

Governor Geer should have made Lee's pardon conditional that the convicted should at once enlist for Luzon and become an administration patriot.

Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, and who is a republican, says we don't want the Philippines. The Senator has evidently had his ear to the ground.

Czar Reed and Boss Crocker are coming home together on the same steamer. This is not the first time these two words have been in the same boat.

It is no wonder that Dewey remains abroad so long. He hates to come home and mix with the bunglers—the Algiers, the Corbiss, the Almans and the whole shooting match!

There is no use to complain because Spain is pleased over her $20,000,000 sale of the Philippines. She has a right to laugh when Uncle Sam draws a long face and talks about "duty."

should have no trouble in doing poor little Michigan—a state divided against itself, and by fresh waters, at that.

Dewey's lengthy sojourn in the Mediterranean might be explained upon the grounds that he feared meeting such great guns as Messrs. Hanna, Reed and Crocker, sailing under the English flag!

After all, it is not surprising that the American volunteers wanted to leave Manila and come home. People who doubt their loyalty and bravery should remember that while Oregon boys are generally very affectionate, they had the judgment to realize that they stood no show with Philippine boilies after the kiss-er reached the island.

Gold contractionists say that gold alone is honest money. Gold has doubled in value during the past twenty-five years. Therefore, if a man locked $2000 worth of gold in a safe twenty-five years ago it would now purchase property which at the beginning of the time would have commanded $2,000 in gold. Can money be honest that, locked up in a safe, will steal the property of another and transfer it to the owner of the money? —National Watchman.

Hunting For Sliders.

The agony of the commercial press over the prospective platform of the Democratic party next year shows no abatement on account of the hot weather. The organs of the bondholders and banks are frantic in their efforts to find some democrat who supported the Chicago platform in 1896 who is now of the opinion that the issues of that year should be subordinated to some other issues upon which the gold man may hope to return and regain the control of the party. But the fact that it is party cast a million more votes in 1896, in spite of the opposition of the commercial press and the goldbugs, than were cast for Cleveland in 1892, and the further fact that these are the largest numbers who have ever voted for a democrat, should not be forgotten.

Was He a Hillsboro Man?

Sing a song of penitence, A fellow full of rye Four and twenty serpents Dancing in his eye; When his eye was opened He shouted for his life: Wasn't he a pretty chump To go before his wife? His hat was in the parlor Underneath a chair, His boots were in the hallway, His coat was on the stair, His trousers in the kitchen, His collar on the shelf, But he hasn't any notion Where he was himself. When the moon was breaking, Someone heard him call, His head was in the ice box, Which was the best of all.
