THE FIFTY-SIXTH CONGRESS

Senate Adjourned Early as a Mark of Respect.

HENDERSON ELECTED SPEAKER

Objection Raised to Roberts Taking the Oath and Action Postponed Pending Report of Special Committee.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Appropriate tribute to the memory of the late Vice-President Hobart was paid by the senate today at its first session of the 56th congress Monday. The session lasted only 33 minutes, and only the most formal and necessary business was transacted. After the adoption of the usual routine resolutions and the administration to the new members of the oath of office, Sewell (Rep. N. J.) presented fitting resolutions upon the death of the vice-president, the resolutions were ordered to be communicated to the house of representatives, and the session, on motion of Kean (Rep. N. J.) was suspended.

As usual on the opening days of congress, the senate chamber was a veritable conservatory. Pending the actual convention of the senate, the chamber presented a most animated and picturesque scene. The galleries were filled with a brilliant and distinguished audience.

Two protests were filed, one against the seating of Quay and the other against Clark, of Montana.

In the House.

Washington, Dec. 5.—Enormous crowds witnessed the opening scenes in the house yesterday. The principal interest centered in the disposition of Roberts, the Mormon representative from Utah. Those who anticipated a sensational denoument were disappointed. The programme outlined by the Republican leaders at their conference Friday night was partially carried out. The objection to the administration of the oath to Roberts was entered by Tayler, of Ohio, as predicted, and he stepped aside without protest except to ask if by doing so he waived any of his rights. To this the speaker responded in the negative. There was not a protest from any quarter against the objection to the administration of the oath to Roberts, but on the contrary the only voice raised, except that of Tayler, was that of McRae, a Democrat of Arkansas, who joined with Tayler in his protest. Tayler offered his resolution to refer the case to a special committee, and by mutual arrangement the consideration of the resolution was postponed until tomorrow, in order that the routine business in connection with the organization might be transacted today.

Although Roberts was not sworn in today, he secured a seat. This was by an accident, pure and simple. In the seat-drawing lottery, no provision had been made for Roberts, but when the drawing was completed two others, as well as himself, had not been provided with seats, and the speaker asked and secured from the house permission for those members who had not drawn seats to make such selections as they could. Under this authority, Roberts got a seat in an obscure portion of the hall. His daughter sat in the gallery and watched the proceedings from beginning to end.

After the election of Speaker Henderson and his induction into office, the appointment of the usual committees to wait upon the president, the seat-drawing contest, with the usual amusing features, went off without a hitch. The only feature out of the ordinary was the reception of the Reed rules as the rules for the present congress. They were adopted by a strict party vote.

Seldom, if ever, have such enormous crowds swarmed around the house to witness the opening scenes of the session as besieged the doors today.

Very early in the day a monster petition, said to consist of 7,000,000 names, protesting against the seating of Roberts, was brought into the hall. It had been collected by the New York Journal. It consisted of 28 rolls of names, each about two feet in diameter, encased in the American flag. These rolls were stacked up in the area in front of the clerk's desk and were viewed with great curiosity.

COAL MINERS STRIKE.

Women Use Guns and Knives to Drive Men From Work.

Cheyenee, Wyo., Dec. 6.—A week ago 600 miners employed in the mines of the Diamondville Coal & Coke Company, at Diamondville, Wyo., struck for an increase in wages. Their demands were refused, and a small force of non-union men went to work. At an early hour this morning a mob of 300 women and girls, armed with guns, knives, clubs and stones, marched to the mines and compelled the operators to flee.

The miners at work were dragged from the mines and also driven away. Several were injured by being struck with clubs, and one man was shot at, presumably by one of the number of strikers concealed near the mines. The small force of deputies guarding the company's property was powerless.

The miners have been importing arms and ammunition and more trouble is looked for.

Caught in a Cave-In.

Denver, Dec. 4.—By a cave-in at the excavation for a sewer at Thirty-fourth and Downing avenues this evening, several laborers were buried. The bodies of George Holts, C. A. Carlson and Henry Nelson, have been taken out. It is not known how many were in the trench, but the foreman believes all are accounted for.

Masons will Celebrate.

Washington, Dec. 6.—Arrangements are about completed for the Masonic celebration of the centennial of the death of Worshipful Master George Washington, on December 14. Large numbers of Masons from all over the United States and from Canada are expected to attend.

Peruvian Cabinet Crisis.

Lima, Peru, Dec. 5., via Galveston.—Owing to the attitude of the chamber of deputies, the members of the cabinet have tendered their resignations to the president.

ROBERTS EXCLUDED.

The House Ordered an Investigation of His Case.

Washington, Dec. 7.—After an interesting debate of three hours, the house today, by a vote of 302 to 30, adopted the resolution offered by Taylor, of Ohio, Monday, for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the charges against Brigham H. Roberts, the Mormon representative-elect from Utah. Previously the house had rejected a substitute resolution offered by Richardson, the leader of the minority, to allow Roberts to be sworn in and to send the whole case to the judiciary committee. The substitute resolution, however, by no means commanded the full Democratic strength. Only 57 members voted for it. Of the 30 who then voted against the Taylor resolution, all were Democrats except two—Loud and Newlands.

By the terms of the resolution Roberts is not only excluded from all participation in the proceedings of the house until the committee reports and the house passes upon his case, but he is denied a seat in the hall. Whether this will be interpreted to deny him admission within the chamber pending the disposition of his case is yet to be decided.

The reading of the president's message was completely overshadowed by the dramatic proceedings which resulted in the action of the house today. The galleries were thronged with spectators, mostly women, who sat patiently through the three weary hours that preceded the debate, and then waited on three hours more until it was concluded.

The most remarkable feature of the debate was the fact that Roberts' presentation of his own side of the case, which lasted almost an hour, became so absorbing that he won the sympathy of many of those in the galleries, and was several times showered with applause. It was evident that he realized that the house was overwhelmingly against him, and at times he spoke defiantly and fiercely.

During the debate Grosvenor of Ohio rose to repel indignantly an insinuation of Roberts that the president had knowingly appointed men guilty of polygamy to federal offices in Utah.

The Day in the Senate.

Washington, Dec. 7.—Today's session of the senate lasted two hours and 40 minutes, practically the entire time being consumed in the reading of the president's message. The reading was largely perfunctory, few senators according it any attention.

The announcement of the death of Senator-elect M. L. Hayward, of Nebraska, was received by the senate with sincere regret. Although he was not officially a member of the body, he was well-known to many of the senators and by them was held in high regard. At the conclusion of the reading of the message, the senate adopted resolutions of regret presented by Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, and as a mark of respect adjourned immediately.

ATTACK UPON VIGAN.

Filipinos Assaulted the Garrison, Killing Eight Americans.

Manila, Dec. 7.—Last night a force of insurgents, estimated at 800, attacked the American garrison of 200 at Vigan, proivnce of South Ilocos. The American loss was eight killed and many wounded.

After very hard fighting the Filipinos were driven off and through the mountains, leaving three dead. Colonel Bisbee is now reinforcing the garrison.

Fears are entertained regarding various small bodies of General Young's troops in the province of Abra.

Manila, Dec. 7.—General Hughes now occupies Santa Barbara and Cabutan, Island of Panay, his lines extending 35 miles north of Ilo Ilo. He has occupied 20 towns. The inhabitants are returning with white flags. Their fear of the Americans is diminishing as they learn they will be well treated.

It is impossilbe to get the insurgents to fight. They are retreating to the mountains, and no more organized resistance is expected. Hughes continues advancing north and spreading his lines.

LINED UP ON THE TUGELA.

Fifteen to Twenty Thousand Boers Waiting for Buller.

New York, Dec. 7.—A dispatch to the Herald from London says:

It is now certain that the Boers are in great force on the further side of the Tugela river. The Boer army, which invaded Natal, was put by good judges at 25,000 to 30,000 men. If we accept the latter figure, and deduct 2,000 from losses which may have been made good by disloyal Dutch recruits from Natal, and another 10,000 for the remaining force at Ladysmith, the total of the army confronting General Buller may be from 15,000 to 20,000 men.

In the meantime, some news has come through from Ladysmith showing that while on the one hand the Boer's bombardment was becoming severe, on the other one of the naval guns had once more silenced the big Boer 40 or 100-pounder.

General Gatacre has occupied and secured a large quantity of corn which would doubtless have been commandeered had the Boers been allowed to make a longer stay.

Train Struck an Electric Car.

Nebraska City, Dec. 7. — Senator Hayward, who has been ill for several weeks, died at 6:20 this morning.

Voluntary Increase in Wages.

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 6.—The Burnham-Hanna-Munger Dry Goods Company today announced a voluntary increase in wages of its 800 factory employes of 5 to 12 per cent.

Appropriations Asked for.

In the estimate of appropriations for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1901, the war department asks for $90,112,851 and the navy $76,469,690. The grand total is $631,081,994. This exceeds the present year's estimates by over $38,000,000. The pension department estimate has been reduced.

FILIPINO FORCE SURRENDERS

Eight Hundred Tagals Laid Down Their Arms.

AMERICANS AMONG PRISONERS

Lieutenant Monroe, of General Lawton's Force, Accepted the Surrender of General Conon's Force.

Manila, Dec. 4.—General Conon surrendered 800 officers and men with rifles, several Americans and 70 Spanish prisoners and the garrison at Bayombong, province of Nueva Viscaya, to Lieutenant Monroe, with 50 men of the Fourth cavalry.

Otis' Report of Operations.

Washington, Dec. 4.—General Otis' advices to the war department show that the advance into the interior is being vigorously pushed, and the American troops continue to drive back and disperse the scattered bands encountered. He states that Captain Warwick, of the Eighteenth infantry, was killed in an engagement at Pasi, Ilo Ilo province, November 27.

CALIXTO WAS ASSASSINATED.

He and Alvarez Stirred the People up to the Point of Insurrection.

Manila, Dec. 4.—The steamer Salvador, from Zamboanga, island of Mindanao, which has arrived here, brings details of the occupation of the town by Commander Very, of the United States gunboat Castine.

The revolutionists in Mindanao were led by Alvarez and Calixto, who left Luzon some time ago and for the last seven months had been stirring up the people, winning a considerable following. The commercial depression and the lack of food resulting from the island's blockade set the people against the revolutionists and culminated in the assassination on November 15 of Calixto, a firebrand and the real leader of the revolution, by Midel, mayor of the town of Tetuan.

Midel, under a pretext, secured Calixto's presence in Tetuan and where the mayor station guards. The latter fired a volley, killing Calixto instantly. Midel at once repaired to the Castine and arranged with Commander Very for the occupation of Zamboanga. Commander Very asked that Dato Mandi, with 500 of his followers, stationed on a neighboring island, come to Zamboanga.

The following morning Midel raised the American flag over Zamboanga, the insurgents offering no resistance and evacuating the town. The Castine was saluted with 21 guns, and Commander Very landed 100 bluejackets and took possession of the town and fortifications. Datto Mandi's men arrived in the afternoon. They were armed with wooden shields and swords, and were used on picket duty.

Commander Very dispatched the gunboat Manila on November 15 to Jolo to convey troops to reinforce him. A company of the Twenty-third regiment, under Captain Nichols, arrived on November 17, and two more companies followed them shortly. Mandi's followers then returned home and Alvarez sought to arrange for a surrender of the arms and the artillery pieces.

On the afternoon of November 20, Midel called a meeting of the local chiefs, who formally deposed Alvarez as leader of the revolutionists in the island and elected Midel president of the new insular government established under American sovereignity and control. The chiefs formally requested Commander Very to grant exemption from taxes until the re-establishment of commercial relations, permission to carry arms in the mountains, religious freedom and the power to conduct local government as they had previously done, which requests, pending the arrival of Brigadier-General Bates, the military governor of the district, the commander granted.

Commander Very then effected an apparent reconciliation between Alvarez and Midel and their followers, Alvarez signing a formal resignation of the position of revolutionary leader on November 22, at a point on the coast near the rebel town of Mercels. Alvarez delivered 14 Nordenfeldts and Maxims, with ammunition, which were stored on board the Castine. Eight Nordenfeldts and Maxims were delivered to the army at Zamboanga, as were also 200 rifles and ammunition. The artillery came into possession of the revolutionists from six Spanish gunboats bought by the army from Spain, which the revolutionists looted before the Americans could get possession.

Alvarez and only a dozen followers left, the remainder of the revolutionists having scattered and returned to their occupations. Commander Very, having started to occupy Zamboanga, is considered to have handled the situation in its many phases with energy and diplomatic skill.

Wood Will Return to Cuba.

Washington, Dec. 4.—General Leonard Wood will return to Cuba next week. He says he expects to remain in the line of the army as long as he lives and is permitted to remain.

His First Report.

Washington, Dec. 4.—In the first annual report of Secretary Root, just made public, frequent reference is made to the report of General Otis to show the magnitude of the task set for him in the Philippines with the inadequate forces at his command when the outbreak came, and a high tribute is paid to the courage of the troops who, in the face of great hardships, voluntarily consented to forego an immediate return to their homes upon the expiration of their terms of service.

Powder Mill Blown Up.

Columbus, Kan., Dec. 4.—One of the main buildings of the Laflin-Rand powder works, located four miles north of this place, was blown up about 1 o'clock this afternoon. William Cushman, a workman, who was the only person in the building, was killed. Two other men who were working near by were slightly injured by flying debris. The property loss is about $25,000.

Dispatches found on prisoners show the Boer loss at Belmont to have been only 10 killed and 40 wounded.

Physic Street, Canton, China.

Canton possesses the queerest street in the world, in spite of the fact that in nearly all the big towns in China there are some remarkable streets. The chief thing of interest attaching to this eccentric thoroughfare is the fact that it is roofed in with glazed paper fastened on bamboo and contains more signboards to the square foot than any other street in any other country. The next interesting fact about this Canton byway is that, though a business street, it contains no other shops but those of apothecaries and dentists' parlors; no professional men but doctors. It is a sick man's paradise and a Chinese physician's Klondike. They call it Physic street, which is descriptive if not picturesque.

A New Feature in Western Traveling.

The Pullman Company now operates two grades of sleeping cars via the Rio Grande Western Railway. The ordinary sleepers are entirely new, and the berths, both upper and lower, are fitted up complete with mattresses, blankets, sheets, pillows, curtains, etc., with stoves arranged for making tea, coffee, etc., requiring nothing to be furnished by passengers. Uniformed Pullman porters are in charge of the cars, who are requred to keep them in good order and attend to the wants and comforts of passengers. The cars are very handsome and commodious, and while not so elegant, are just as comfortable as standard or palace sleepers. Both first and second-class passengers are permitted to occupy these cars on payment of the Pullman berth rates, which are less than half of the rates charged in the regular Pullman palace sleeping cars.

The ordinary sleepers are carried daily on trains via Rio Grande Western Railway between Denver and San Francisco and Portland. On five days in each week the sleepers are run through between Los Angeles and San Francisco, or Portland and Denver, Omaha, Chicago and Boston.

American Dentists Annoyed Abroad.

American dentists are acknowledged to be the most skillful in the world. Many of them are practicing with great success in Europe. In Germany they are subject to considerable annoyance. Their American diplomas are not respected. They cannot buy anything at a drug store except on a prescription signed by a German physician.—Chicago Chronicle.

Fifty Years a Pensioner.

A typical instance of the effect of a pension on longevity comes from Luton, where the death has occurred of a man in his 80th year, who enjoyed for over half a century an annual allowance from the war office. He was born in 1818, in Canada, where his father was a soldier, and at the age of 8 became a drummer boy, subsequently blossoming into a full-blown private of a foot regiment. He never did any fighting, and retired at the age of 30, with a pension, on account of ill-health. A few years later he joined the Bedford constabulary, and attained to the rank of sergeant, subsequently becoming an instructor of fife-and-drum bands, and holding the post of drum major in the Luton volunteers.

"How long should mourning gowns be worn by a widow of 22?" was the question that came sobbing through the mails. Now it chanced to be the sporting editor's day off, and the religious editor, therefore, was attending to the Side Talks with Young Persons. "There is no hard and fast rule," wrote the religious editor, confidently, "but they ought to come down to the boot tops, at least." This incident illustrates the occasional awkwardness of a newspaper standing as a bulwark of morals to the exclusion of everything else.—Detroit Journal.

Conan Doyle's Marriage Maxims.

In his latest novel, "A Duet," Conan Doyle lays down some "Maxims for the Married" that are worth framing and hanging over the mantle piece in every new home. Here are a few of them:

Never both be cross at the same time. Wait your turn.

You were gentleman and lady before you were husband and wife. Don't forget it. A blind love is a foolish love. Encourage the best.

If you take liberites be prepared to give them. There is only one thing worse than quarrels in public. That is caresses.

Money is not essential to happiness, but happy people usually have enough. So save some.

The easiest way of saving is to do without things.

If you can't, then you had better do without a wife.
