Opposed to Gold Mono metallism. Believes in the Bimetallic Standard Dear Money means Debased Property, and Profitless American Product. Our Consequent loss is our Creditors' Gain. Has no use for Marcus A. Hanna

NOW A BRITISH ALLY:

Congressman Tengue, just prior to 1895, wrote a letter severely condemning the present system of finance, going so far as to state that it was a "Paradise to creditors but a hall for everybody else," or words to that effect. Mr. Tongue is now up to a vote to make it "more so." Will he vote to make it more of a Paradise and more of a hell? Of course he will. Why? Because, as the Oregonian would say, "It is broader policies!" In this letter, Mr Tongue, with his great heart beating for the producing classes, said:

"It is easy of comprehension why Eng-land, the creditor nation of the world, should favor contraction of the world's money and a limitation of money metal. Having no silver mines of her own, and being a purchaser of both silver and food products, it is equally easy of comprehen-sion why she should use every effort of diplomacy and legislation to diminish the value of both, but why the United States a debtor nation, with extensive silver mines and vast stores of food products to sell, should voluntarily assist in carrying out the same policy and dim-inish the value of her own resources, "passeth understanding." Unfortunate for the welfare of the country it contains too many people, who, surrounded by huge blocks of well secured, interest earing obligations, are interested in leg islation that makes money dear, and everything else cheap; who not engaged in productive industries themselves, are anxious to secure the product of the toil of others at the least possible outlay."

We bring this dead history before the people of Washington county to show them what Mr. Tongue thought when wheat and hops and cotton were the same prices as at present; to show them that Mr. Toague, having taken lessons from the bankers, is prepared to vote an English policy under which producers must labor; to show them that Mr. Tongue of 1894 was for American producers, acng to his own assertion, and that in accordance with this same dictum he now stands ready to "make it a hell" for everybody, except the "creditor class." What kind of a political weather cock is Mr. Tongue, anyway? According to his own logic he is now a British ally against American in-

"THE KING CAN DO WRONG."

The Independent, a little republican paper published in Hillsboro, Transvaal is right and that every Mary Donelson and hd to August Washington county, Oregon, last week quoted the Roseburg Plaindealer to effect that no one believed that Mr. Geer had given a promise of office, for $1.000, to H. power of the holders. We are gradually drifting to European condition, and before very long we shall have all those iniquites of gradually drifting to European government from which our alien population fled when seeking American shores. Is there no sober second thought-no deliberate judg ment -to blight this deadly blossom while yet in the bud? Must we, perforce, because it is re-inforced by the venal press of our country, take up a dark age military system that has robbed for centuries, and is still robbing, all Europe?

A TEST OF STUENGTH,

A "civilized world" looks on at the attempts of a bully nation to bruise a small nation in South Africa, and not a protest is uttered by a power. This is an earnest of just how much power is possessed by Great Britain. Great American newspapers which a year or eighteen months ago forcibly presented the subject as one of theft, now remain silent fighters, to crush an infant power. But the civilized world sees that all is not rant and hypocrisy. Beneath the shirts of the sturdy Dutchmen in the Transvaal are hearts which know no fear and English hired men find it no small task to even whip the Boers. hold their own.

ONLY A MATTER OF NEWS.

THE ARGUS gave the matter of the missing notice of appeal in the Haines-Cadwell case just as it comes before the public record. It accused no one; it accuses no one; and it doesn't care who stole it, if it were stolen It has no interest i: the case, whatsoever. It was published as a matter of news and such are reported not drowned, and that circumstances unpleasant though they will be home Christmas. they may be to all concerned, are legitimate as news. LOVE LIBERTY NO LONGER.

The liberty loving and generous part of the alien born population should not lose sight of the fact CF Wickland to Theodore Weber that the great dailies of republican management have declared flatfooted that England's cause in the CI, Crocker to J A Thwaite 40 a possible argument is used to belittle the sturdy Dutch of South Africa who are fighting for the very existence of their nation.
