HOW WE ARE EUROPEANIZED.

Consul Wildman, our representative in the Orient, treated with Aguinaldo just as though he were acting with instructions from Mc-Kinley. It will be noticed that while the expansion organs have viciously assaulted Wildman, he has received no rebuke from the administration. This is prima facie evidence that Mr. Wildman did not exceed his authority by one jottle. Taken throughout, it appears that Mr. McKinley has been forced to his present position on the Philippine proposition by the syndicates, backed by the politicians and officers of the army. To go the Boers clean them out, bag and whead with the policy of expansion, as outlined by our Jingoes, requires a large standing army, plenty of army contracts, plenty of debt and more or less military promotion.
