BUT TWENTY ONE ROAD DISTRICTS

Now in Washington County Instead of 57.

SUPERVISORS ARE ALL APPOINTED.

Each Precinct in County is Now a Road District.

The county board was in session the first of the week, and the first business transacted was to make a few precinct changes and then establish each precinct into a road district. This makes but twenty one road districts instead of 57, as formerly. The supervisors are appointed by the board for the last time as each precinct, will hereafter commence with next June, elect its own supervisor. This is a good idea, as it will stop political complaint and the road supervisor business can not be used to satisfy political benches—not intimidating, of course, that the present two republicans on the board would take orders from any political boss, as we know, certainly, that Washington county "haint got none of them 'ere bosses." The new list of supervisors are:

Table listing supervisors for various precincts in Washington County, including names like East Cedar, West Cedar, South Tualatin, etc.

Judges and Clerks of election—

The first three names after each precinct name are the judges, the chairman being first named; the last two names of each precinct list are the clerks.

WILLIAM B. McLIN SERIOUSLY WOUNDED

By Walter Thompson His Brother-in-law.

TRAGEDY 'AS AT BOULDER CREEK,

In California, Tuesday Afternoon. May be Fatal.

Harmon McLin, of this city, yesterday received the following telegram from Boulder Creek, California, the message explaining itself: "Boulder Creek, Cal., Jan. 16.—Your brother, W. B. McLin, was very seriously shot by Walter Thompson here this afternoon. He wishes you to come immediately as he may die. Answer quick. A. L. Seidinger, Constable, Boulder, Creek."

Thompson is a brother-in-law to McLin and the shooting is supposed to be the upshot of family affairs. Thompson went down to Boulder Creek several months ago and McLin and family followed soon thereafter. Thompson has a mother living at Cornelius, and his grandfather, H. H. Hendrix, also lives at that place.

W. C. T. U. COLUMN.

An old Opinion Still True.

There is in the British Museum an old volume of bound pamphlets presented by King George III, in which is the following passage: "A drunkard is the annoyance of modesty; the trouble of civility; the spoil of wealth; the destruction of reason. He is the brewer's agent; the tavern and ale house benefactor; the beggar's companion; the constable's trouble. He is his wife's woe; his children's sorrow; his neighbor's scoff; his own shame. In summer he is a tub of swill, a spirit of sleep, a picture of a beast, and a monster of a man."—Contributed.

CHARGED WITH BEING TOO MUCH MARRIED

One Wife at Salem, Another at Hillsboro.

FRANK M. GARDNER IN CUSTODY

Brought Down From Wasco County, by Constable Sappington.

Constable Sappington Saturday evening returned from Wasco county, having in his custody Frank M. Gardner, who is charged with being a polygamist. It appears of record in Marion county that in 1885 Gardner married Alice Church, of the vicinity of Salem. One child was born to them. Several years ago Gardner left his wife and took employment as brakeman with the Southern Pacific on the Portland-Corvallis line. October 6, 1896, he married Mrs. Emma Phillips Ford, of Hillsboro, formerly of Cornelius, and to whom he represented that he had procured a divorce from his first wife. The first wife recently became ill and went to a hospital in Portland, where she met a Hillsboro man who had a wife under the doctor's care at the same place. Making inquiries, she found that Gardner had again married, and she at once notified Deputy District Attorney Bagley to have the arrest made.

Sappington took the warrant and located Gardner on the Biggs railroad in Wasco county. When in Portland the prisoner wanted to see his first wife at the hospital, but this was not allowed. Gardner is of good height, not overly large, and is of sandy complexion, wearing a sandy-brown mustache. While in Hillsboro after his second marriage, he rarely came up town. He was always industrious. If the offense be proven against him he will get not less than 6 months in the county jail nor more than 4 years in the penitentiary.

The defendant was taken before Justice Smith, Tuesday, where he waived examination and was remanded to jail in default of $500 bonds to appear before the circuit court.

TWENTY FOUR MILLS GENERAL TAX FIXED

On Valuations of 1899 Tax Roll.

TEN THOUSAND LESS THAN LAST.

State tax $4,552.10 Lighter Than Last Year.

The County board has levied the tax for the 1899 valuations of the assessment roll. It is a total of 24 mills, and is:

Table showing tax rates for various categories: State Levy, mills (4.30), Coyote Tax, mills (25), Indigent, fixed by law (5.00), Levy, County General Fund (12.35), On the valuation of the roll, $3,288,210, the levy will create a tax of: State tax $20,715,728.00, Coyote tax $22,052.50, Indigent Soldiers $28,927.00, School tax 16,441,050.00, County General $40,609,399.95, Total tax for collection $78,917,494.

Last year's 1898 roll levy was: State tax $25,568,889.57, Indigent 468,577.00, Schools 22,428,850.00, County General $1,299,084.00, Total tax on 1898 roll, $29,765,400.57.

Thus it will be seen that the taxes to be raised this year will be $10,798.38 lower than the tax levied on the 1898 roll, which was a 20 mill levy on a valuation of $4,485,770. Without going into fractions of dollars, the county will collect and pay $4,853 less to the state than last year; collect $5,987 less for schools; $659.89 less for county purposes; $119.75 less for indigent soldiers' fund; and collect a tax of $822.05 on "coyotes" fund, a luxury provided by the last legislature.

R. E. Bryan is out from Portland this week, managing Bryan & Son's while Lieutenant Bryan has been enjoying a vacation in the Metropolis.

Mrs. H. M. Roberts, of Harriensburg, Oregon, who has been visiting with Mrs. L. A. Wood, her sister, departed Friday last for Portland, where she will visit relatives.

Following is a list of our loads shipped from Forest Grove during year 1899, furnished Tex Amos, by Agent L. G. Singleton:

Table listing various goods and their quantities: Flour (417), Hay (210), Oats (19), Potatoes (19), Mill Feed (32), Wheat (2), Lumber (29), Hops (2), Posts (2), Hogs (2), Total (426). This does not include local shipments which would average about 50-car loads during the year.

Dr. Large, the Oregonian correspondent sends the following to that paper under date of Jan. 15: The old city council held its last meeting Saturday night. Wednesday evening the newly elected city officers will qualify. The council had a lively discussion Saturday, when Recorder Langley presented bills amounting to over $70 for costs incurred in the prosecution of Charles F. Miller, a druggist, for the sale of intoxicating liquor in violation of city ordinance. Councilmen Knox and Row said that it had been represented to them that a fund had been raised by citizens here to prosecute illegal liquor selling, and that out of this fund the expenses, if any, to the city would be met, and they protested against auditing the bill. A vote, however, was taken, three voting aye and three no. It being a tie, the mayor voted that the city pay the costs. This case has been appealed to the circuit court, which will add at least $100 more costs to it.

"I am indebted to One Minute Cough Cure for my health and life. It cured me of lung trouble following grippe." Thousands owe their lives to the prompt action of this never failing remedy. It cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia, grippe and throat and lung troubles. Its early use prevents consumption. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results.—The Delta Drug Store.

Cornelius, that great little city on the Baseline road, noted for not owing a cent and having money in its treasury, and yet having good street lights, is just now shining as a shipping point of no small importance. For the year 1899, that city shipped 334 car lots, tabulated as follows:

Table showing shipping quantities for various goods: Wheat (42), Oats (26), Flour (30), Hay (58), Straw (17), Potatoes (11), Onions (13), Hops (5), Lumber (49), Wood (39), Miscellaneous (54), Total (334).

What is the matter with little, old, reliable, up-in-the-air, head-up, high and mighty Cornelius, even if it occasionally does have a sidewalk row.

Talk about shoes for men, women and children—if you don't believe H. Wehrung & Sons have the most complete line in the city you should go and satisfy yourself. Also a few odds left over, regardless of cost, if we can only fit you. Come and see us.

The case of State vs Fred Durig, charged with having two years ago killed a canine for Jacob Reis, was Monday morning dismissed by Judge Smith, the private prosecutor failing to put in appearance. The cost were taxed to the private prosecutor. A few days ago went to Deputy District Attorney Bagley, who refused to prosecute and now the defendant will have cost to pay if he is worth anything.

Don't fail to get one of those K. N. & F. Co. suits while their stock is complete in all sizes, at H. Wehrung & Sons. Also splendid line of overcoats. No trouble to fit you and no trouble to show you our lines.

A very pleasant party, the numbers being games and refreshments, was given Friday evening, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kimbrell, in honor of Miss Orpha Peters of Forest Grove. Those present were: The Misses Ethel Wehrung, Ella Bridges, Orpha Peters, Bettie Bridges, Eva Catching, Eva Cornelius, Etta Kimberlin, Pratt Vickers, James Se well, Don Hare, Adolph Siegrest, Will Pittenger, Fred Everson and Bert Hager.

For the next thirty days H. Wehrung & Sons will make the following reduction in ladies and gents' neckties: Present price, $3.00, reduced to $2.40; $3.50 value, reduced to $2.90; $4.00 value, to $3.20; $5.00 value, to $4.00; $6, to $5.

The residence property offered for sale by R. A. Ellis, and situated on Seventh and Baseline, this city, is the finest in town and is offered at a figure exceedingly low. It is finely furnished, the grounds are set to choicest fruits and flowers, and the purchaser will be fortunate to secure such a model home at so moderate a figure. If you are wanting a home, here is your chance to get it at a great bargain.

For sale or trade: 75 acres farm with Hillsboro or Portland for a market. 60 acres under plow. Good house, barn and outbuildings. Will sell for cash or trade for another farm more suitable for running stock. Inquire at Anas office.

O. E. Elliott and wife, of Marshland, Columbia county, are for a few weeks the guests of C. R. Bradley and wife. Mr. Elliott is one of Columbia county's successful lumbermen and he is his product to the Portland mills. He will put in an engine next season and see whether or not it beats teaming.

The modern and most effective cure for constipation and all liver troubles—the famous little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers.—The Delta Drug Store.

The steady rains of the last few days have swollen all the country streams and if the thing keeps up much longer we shall all be building arks. Cigars at F. J. Barber's, 2nd St.

LEWIS DENNIS, SALEM, IND., SAYS, "KODOL DIAPYPSIA CURE DID ME MORE GOOD THAN ANYTHING I EVER TOOK."

It digests what you eat and cannot help but cure dyspepsia and stomach troubles.—The Delta Drug Store.

Fred L. Mack, of Wasco, Sherman county, is in the city, the guest of Luther Gosey. He will remain for a nother fortnight. Sherman county was somewhat hurt by the short crop this year and the low prices prevailing. The Wasco bank went under and many depositors lost their surplus money. Poor crops, with poor prices on top, will work enough hardship, Mr. Mack thinks, without adding bank suspensions.
