Yesterday was a lovely spring day, and the change was quite a relief from the cold east wind which had been blowing for several days.

MATTER OF THIS YEAR'S TAXATION

Many Think Because the Levy is Higher.

THAT THE TAXES WILL BE HIGHER.

Will not pay as Much tax as Last year, on Realty.

It is again necessary to take up the tax question for the 1899 assessment, and the levy on which taxes will be collected this year, as many are laboring under a mistake as to the tax being higher this year than last.

For sale or trade: 75 acres farm with Hillsboro or Portland for a market. 60 acres under plow. Good house, barn and outbuildings.

REVIEW OF THE FARMERS' INSTITUTE

Held at Forest Grove Last Week.

NOTED IT A PROFITABLE SESSION.

Attendance was Large Notwithstanding bad Weather.

The weather was very unfavorable for the Farmer's Institute held at Forest Grove, Thursday and Friday of last week. Still the attendance was good.

As apples are the fruit most universally grown, he devoted his attention mostly to the pests affecting this fruit. His remarks stirred up a warm and interesting discussion which undoubtedly resulted in much good.

Mr. Fred Groner, of the School county gave an interesting talk on the much discussed "road question." Mr. Groner has evidently given the subject much careful study and although it is probable that all present did not fully coincide with his views in regard to the matter, his ideas were presented in a convincing manner.

optical views, by means of which it was rendered much more intelligible and interesting to the average listener. The different types of the various breeds of live stock were also illustrated with explanatory remarks by Dr. Withycombe. The illustrated lectures completed the work of the institute and every one who has been heard to express an opinion, says that the time consumed was well and profitably spent.

Austin Buxton, of Forest Grove, was in the city the other day, and says he feels highly elated over the success of the Farmer's Institute held at the college city last week. He thinks that these meetings will become permanent features, and will be of inestimable benefit to our farmers.
