WANN. For Treasurer THOS. TALBOT. For Assessor MAX BURGHOLZER. For Commissioner E. J. WARD. For School Superintendent J. T. DORRIEN. For Surveyor THOS. S. WILKES. For Coroner Dr. W. P. VIA.

SOME TRUTHS.

The Simon-Corbett candidates are trying their old tactics. They are going about saying they are not pledged to any senatorial candidate. That they are already sworn to Corbett-Simon support there is no possible doubt. Were these senatorial aspirants decent citizens no one could object. But Mr. Simon is enjoying his office today as the result of dishonest politics; as the result of primary theft of the most flagrant type; he enjoys the office notwithstanding he was not the choice of any considerable number of the voters of the state. Here in this county their lieutenant, Mr. Cornelius, instructed from Multnomah, worked months and months to put up a legislative ticket in harmony for the Jew and his protegee, Mr. Corbett. To get such a ticket, Boss Cornelius played every game of politics. The corruption in the primary elections throughout the county is of too recent occurrence to need special naming. The trading with delegations and candidates for the county ticket helped Mr. Cornelius to get his ticket through. The nominations are Mr. Cornelius' nominations and he in turn is owned by the Jew boss, Mr. Cornelius, after this is done, gets on the ticket with Multnomah behind him. He knew that this county had no use for him, although he had a party majority. The rotten methods employed by the gang under his dictation are a matter of recent history. Too many good citizens know that they have been disfranchised. It is to be Corbett-Simon or nothing. Mr. Cornelius and his ticket may think they have a walk-over, but they will find there is a citizenship in this county which will not tolerate the foulness he has thrust upon them.

THE AMERICAN POSITION.

There are those who are unduly exercised lest American sympathy for the Boers shall cause war should this sympathy find open expression in congress. There is no possible danger of this effect. The British ministry is not looking for war with any considerable power. The British people, on the whole, do not, nor have they in the past, sympathized with the English penchant to jump, the world over, on small powers for the glory of conquest, and the best proof of this is the way Gladstone was sustained in his treatment of the Dutch in the Transvaal. But Rhodes has worked Chamberlain into the mess and the valiant Dutch, whose women fight in the trenches for cherished principles, are to be crushed, while "civilized" America serenely looks on and allows British officials to open our official mail. American administration, under Mr. McKinley and a so-called republican congress, bows to highhandedness, when a word would have long since stopped the aggression. The Dutch fight for freedom is sneered at as a barrier to civilization which must be overcome. Everything is smacking of a surrender of cherished institutions. The Dutch are "non-progressive" and wrong—this of a people who have three times moved into the wilderness! One note to the powers would stop the outrage. The administration can't say the world. Why? Because McKinley is not his own master. The "Anglo-Saxon" must rule, because, for most, our English dictators say we must be quiet. The administration's position in this matter is one of extreme regret to all true Americans.

A MATTER OF NATIONALITY.

It has been a matter of supreme satisfaction to Benj. Cornelius that he thought he controlled the German vote of Washington county. It has been his open boast to his most intimate friends that he "can deliver the goods." THE ARGUS does not believe that the gentleman can deliver anything of the kind. Mr. Cornelius has no use for the Germans except to vote them. He was in supreme command at the last county convention. The Germans were not with him. They received no recognition whatever. He simply assumed that they could pay taxes; they could vote the republican ticket (put up by him, of course) but they were not good enough to be represented on the ticket. He reasoned that he could "whip them in, anyway, with the cry of "national honor" and party." He may get fooled. The German element in this county pays a huge tax. They are good enough to pay and rarely go delinquent. But they are ignored when it comes to "pie." Ben must have "pie" for his crowd of Simonites. The union ticket has not discriminated against nationality. With the union people a citizen is a citizen.

THAT HOSPITAL STORY.

The Simonites are sneeringly making the remark that "the Unionists desire to make a hospital out of the court house." This is certainly an unmanly attitude and certainly can give them no satisfaction. The Corneliusites who are making these thrusts are no doubt referring to G. A. Morgan, the candidate for county clerk and Ralph Wann, the candidate for recorder. Mr. Morgan is a native of this county. He is a brother to J. W. Morgan, Mr. Imbrie's deputy, whom everybody knows. He has always been a hardworking citizen. His industry has never been questioned. While working in the timber for J. C. Hare, the lumbermen, he had the misfortune to injure his knee. The leg has never fully recovered notwithstanding the best medical aid in the state was procured. He is unfortunate in this regard. But he is all man. As to Mr. Wann, the candidate for recorder, his misfortune has never kept him from being industrious. That these men are unfortunate should not drive support from them—neither should they be targets for unmanly remarks. Their opponents are strong robust young fellows. THE ARGUS (nor have its friends) has never asked anyone to vote for Messrs. Morgan and Wann because of their infirmities, and because their opponents were able to physically meet conditions any and everywhere, but it does deem these sneering remarks about "making a hospital out of the court house" as very little and very unjust. It would appear that service is all that is required in an office of this kind, and if an infirmity of the kind suffered by these candidates is to provoke sneering remarks, it is time that just citizenship irrespective of party, should take a stand in the right direction.

THE SIMONITE SKUNK.

The Forest Grove Times must not expect the people to pay attention to its ravings. Its editor, although here but a short time, is gaining a record for "cute" work which has done that gentleman much harm. A thing which tries to get a sheriff to stand in with him to rob a paper that puts in a bona fide bid is not entitled to, nor does it, receive respect. The poor little skunk can throw its effluvia to its heart's content and it will simply

HAVE YOU LAND TO CLEAR?

If so, you need a tree and stump machine that will enable you to clear it the easiest and cheapest way possible. These machines are built by a firm of 40 years' experience and cannot be beaten. It will pay you to investigate. Will furnish testimonials on application.

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS.—"I can recommend the No. 2 Machine to all who want a strong, handy machine. It is the best in the market for the money. J. A. Zimmerman."

"I bought a No. 2 machine from Mr. Pearson and find it easily handled, durable and light, easy to set and move around, and strong enough for two horses. Wm. Schulmerich, Farmington, Oregon."

"Hillsboro, Ore., March 2, 1900.—I have been using one of these machines for three months on my farm, two miles southwest of this city, and it has given perfect satisfaction. It will do all that Mr. Pearson has claimed for it, and were I to live on a farm where I had any considerable grubbing to do, and could not get another machine, I would not sell the one I have for $100. It is a great labor saver and is well worth what I paid for it—in fact it is an almost indispensable adjunct to a farm where there is any grubbing or stump-pulling. Of course, I blast the larger stumps first, and then use the puller to take out the large roots. It is a very powerful machine, and I will be pleased to recommend it to those who have this nature of work to perform. H. EVERITT."

Call on or Address, H. C. PEARSON, Farmington, Ore.

smother in its own odor. Eddy found out that Sheriff Bradford did not stand in to help rob THE ARGUS. The people of Washington county, Oregon, are not yet ready to endorse this skunky little thing. The Simonites have "too much Eddy" already. They are getting topehavy with such things. If anyone thinks that THE ARGUS is lying about this matter of Eddy, let them at once ask the sheriff as to its truth or falsity.

DR. BENARD DALY.

The candidate for congress on the Democratic and Peoples ticket was born in Ireland in 1858. He came to this country when quite young and was educated in Ohio, being graduated by the Ohio Normal University on July 23rd, 1886, receiving the degree of B. S. He studied medicine in the University of Louisville, Kentucky, and was graduated by that institution with high honors. Has been a teacher in the Ohio Normal University. Came to Lakeview, Oregon, 1887. Was elected to House of Representatives, 1892. Was elected to Senate 1896, from strong Republican District, carrying his own county 247 votes when the county went Republican 150 for state officers. Has been mayor, councilman and health officer of Lakeview. Has been a school director of schools of Lakeview for nine years and is at present chairman of the Board. Has been president of Agricultural Society of Lake county for ten years. Has been a Regent of the Agricultural College at Corvallis. His vote on every proposition coming before the legislature was on the side of right and justice. He settled in Lake county in 1887, and by industry and economy has accumulated some property. He has some interest in the bank of Lakeview, a private banking institution but his bank has never foreclosed a mortgage and has never forced a collection nor sued any one. He is a thorough scholar, a pleasant gentleman and one who will faithfully represent the people of the first district in congress.

Dr. Daly has lived in a republican district, yet has been honored by the people as a democrat by election to the state senate. He was a supporter of Mr. Bryan in 1896 when perhaps it would have been more popular in his county to have been a "flopper." Through all the years that he has been in public life he has been true to his political conceptions. He has never trimmed; never flirted with political ideas. He is intensely American in his ideas and believes in the highest form and conception of liberty. Like all democrats, he naturally chafes at the attitude of the administration in not quickly calling to account the British interference with the mail of the American representative in the Transvaal. Mr. Daly is a scholar and a thinker and will ably represent the First district in Congress. Recognizing his strength the opposition press is already mis-stating his positions on public questions. Mr. Daly is in heart sympathy with the parties which have honored him with the nomination.

SENATOR ADAMS' bill regulating warehouses, grist mills, and flouring mills, relative to the storage of grain, met with an unexpected death in the senate on Thursday last. And yet it was a commendable bill, providing protection for farmers from the operations of grain grafters. But it would appear as though a useful measure for the benefit of the farmers would not pass this year. After the bill was read, Senator Haines moved its indefinite postponement. Adams made a vigorous protest against it, but it was defeated 15 to 9.—Salem Independent.

Perhaps Mr. Haines was interested in a warehouse.

A vote for Ben Cornelius' ticket is a vote to perpetuate the crooked work at the primaries; a vote for his ticket is a vote to disfranchise people who do not steal primaries. The Cornelius ticket is built upon a system of jobbery that has no equals in the political annals of Washington county. Hundreds of republicans knew this and yet were powerless to prevent it. Will they endorse this rottenness at the polls? Will they allow the tricksters to tell them that they must vote corruptionists into power in order to maintain "national honor"? How much honor have these fellows who do dirty work for Corbett, Simon & Co.? How much "honor" was there at the primaries and in the county convention.

THE death of Jacob R. French reported in another column, will cause genuine regret in the hearts of the many pioneers who have known him for so many years. His unobtrusive manner, his genial good-fellowship, his kindness and his tender care of his little family after the death of his wife, are things which won for him a great esteem and regard. The waters of the Pacific, under which his body lies, never closed over a more manly man.

Mr. Hanna says that he will have nothing to do with politics this year. This is probably on a parallel with a statement that Corbett and Simon have nothing to do with politics in this county.

Let us hope that this will be a poor year for the Corbetts. Jeffries whipped the cub Corbett the other night. Now let decency in Oregon politics give the venerable old codger of that name, of Portland—the man who makes impetuous legislators Christmas presents of $15 a knockout blow in June that will be an historical epoch for a state corruption ridden. The more power to respectable citizenship!

Mr. Eddy, of The Times, and Mr. Gault, of the Independent, had a love feast this week, Monday, and it is supposed that ways and means were devised to annihilate THE ARGUS man. These two cohorts of Simonism are having a great deal of trouble over the attitude of this paper, but as Mr. Eddy "jobbed" Mr. Gault out of sixty dollars a few months ago, it is supposed that Mr. Gault will not be overly anxious to take lessons from the little importation from Forest Grove.

The Times skunk deals in cowardly insinuations—cowardly little skunk—but makes no direct statement. This is a characteristic of a fool and coward. The Argus states facts and stands ready to prove them. Stick a pin there, people!

Mr. S. C. Spencer, of Portland, addressed about fifty people in the court house last Friday evening, under the auspices of the Simon-Corbett ticket. It was a frost, pure and simple. Mr. Spencer is a very entertaining talker and it is unfortunate that he appears before the public as a supporter of the worst element ever in control of Oregon politics. The fact of the matter is the better element of republicanism is not going out to hear a re-hash of Joe Simon's political cud.

The Siletz Indian can vote; the scum of the Portland slums can vote; but a respectable woman cannot. Let fair citizens vote for the equal suffrage amendment. Then should a woman desire to exercise the right she can do so. If there are women who do not want to vote when the right is theirs, let them refrain; but this is no argument against the right. Women are the real creators of good citizenship. Give them a voice in citizenship. It will then be their privilege to use or reject as they see fit.

The Oregonian is now supporting the administration policy in all its disgraces. It wants national honor saved. It expects to see Asiatic expansion and militarism endorsed. It advocates what it once intelligently opposed. There was a time when that paper was on the right path—many times, one might say. But when the campaign rolls around it goes for everything in sight that smacks of Hanna. A few weeks ago it said congressmen who vote for the Porto Rico tax could not hope to be elected on that issue. This is an issue that is above many others in the minds of many. But the Oregonian supports the whole thing.

R. S. Lybarger, of Dilley, passed through the city this morning, enroute home from a trip to Portland.
