

THE NOMINEES ON THE UNION TICKET

A Word or Two Regarding Their Candidacies.

A GOOD REPRESENTATIVE TICKET

Men of Reliability, Reputation and Capabilities.

THE ARGUS believes it tells the truth when it says that the Union ticket is growing in strength every day. The great convention—the largest in numbers ever assembled in the county—nominated these men without one inharmonious vote. The ticket has gone before the people of Washington county, with no primary steps to taint its membership. It is comprised of honorable and trustworthy men.

Alex. Sweek is the nominee for joint senator for this, Multnomah and Columbia counties. He is an old time Washington county boy, and is a man of ability. He has been honored in his own county, Multnomah, in the face of a big republican majority. He is the opponent of Brog, Cornelius, whom the people of this county retired 10 years ago.

W. H. Wehrung, the union nominee for senator, was born in this county. He is a successful business man of Hillsboro, and he has a wide and honorable acquaintance. Mr. Wehrung is the president of the State Board of Agriculture, and has done much to reform that institution from the state of regard in which it had been sunk by politicians. He has given the board a business administration. Mr. Wehrung is capable and trustworthy.

Hubert Bernards, a prominent farmer and dairyman of North Forest Grove, and a man who is universally respected and esteemed; O. E. Edson, a veteran of Co. B, 1st Colorado Cavalry, Civil War and proprietor of the Dairy Mills, is a man who is well-informed and a good business man; and Dr. A. W. Vincent, a practicing physician of South Tualatin, are the union nominees for representatives. All of these candidates are fully capable and worthy of the honors of election. These men, including W. H. Wehrung and Alex. Sweek, are in favor of and pledged to the Union platform, and will work for, and are in writing pledged to Direct Legislation.

George A. Morgan, the nominee for county clerk, is well known in this county. He is a brother to James W. Morgan, who has been one of the most efficient men ever in the clerk's office, either in the capacity of clerk or as deputy. Mr. Morgan, if elected, will make an official who will do his full duty to his constituents and the public. Mr. Morgan, while working in the timber some months ago, had the misfortune to injure his knee, and he is crippled for life, in all probability. He did not seek the nomination, but it came to him unannounced. No citizen will quarrel with his conscience who votes for him for county clerk.

John W. Sewell, the union nominee for sheriff, is a native son of Oregon, and to know him is to give him your immediate regard. As a matter of fact Mr. Sewell probably has more friends and fewer enemies than any other man in Washington county. For years and years he has resided on the North Plains, admired and respected by all who know him.

Ralph L. Wann, the popular young teacher now engaged in a term at Blowing Rock, is the union nominee for recorder. He is worthy; he is capable; he is industrious. Here is a young man worthy of any man's vote. He is a thorough gentleman; he is liked by all who know him. He, too, has a physical infirmity, and it was of him and Mr. Morgan, the candidate for clerk, of whom the Simonites said, "The Unionists want to make a hospital out of the court house." A vote for him is a vote for your better nature.

Thos. Talbot, the nominee for treasurer, is a Cornelius business man who is well known to the people of the county. He is capable of handling the business of the treasurer's office in a thorough and satisfactory manner. Mr. Talbot is a man of sound judgment, has excellent business qualifications, and will make a model official.

Mux Burgholzer, of Buxton, is the union nominee for assessor. He is a man of intellectual attainments and a thinker—not a mere scholar. He is a German by birth and he has every sympathy for the people who produce. Mr. Burgholzer is a farmer and has whittled a home out of the timber. He is all citizen and a vote for him can't be for wrong.

For Commissioner. E. J. Ward, of Gaston, is the candidate for commissioner. Mr. Ward is a young man of industrious habits, good judgment, careful in his dealings and is eminently capable to look out for the best interests of the county as one of its board.

For Surveyor. Thos. S. Wilkes has the reputation of being and is, one of the finest civil engineers who ever ran a line in Washington county. He work has stood the tests of the highest courts—but everybody in the county knows Wilkes and knows just what he can do. Mr. Wilkes receives the endorsement of prominent people of all parties in this and Columbia counties, whenever he has performed services.

For Coroner. Dr. W. P. Via, one of Forest Grove's leading physicians, is the union nominee for coroner. The people of Forest Grove say he is good enough for any office within the gift of the people of the county. The ARGUS believes them. We should have a coroner centrally located—should we not?

DECORATION DAY. Decoration Day was appropriately observed in Hillsboro. In the morning, General Ransom Post and Woman's Relief Corps, preceded by the band, and accompanied by the school children, marched to the cemetery, where the graves of the dead were wreathed with flowers, after proper ceremony. The following graves were decorated by the soldiers:

- J. N. Ferris, Co. A, 28 Con. S. W. Rose, Co. 1, 10th Md. Chas. Stewart, Seminole War. Geo. Sigler, Indian War. Chas. Bowen, Co. K, 2nd Iowa. W. W. Anson, Co. 1, 9th Iowa. G. J. Fishburn, Civil War. John Phillips, Co. F and U S I. Capt. Jas. McCulloch, Civil War. K. S. Whitlow, Civil War. W. M. Brown, Mexican War. H. Patterson, Indian War. H. Watson, Co. G, 14 Iowa. Ed. Street, Spanish War, 2nd Ore. P. M. Dennis, Co. D, 3rd Iowa. Sam Williams, Indian War.

In the evening the court house was crowded to hear a splendid program. The addresses were excellent and the recitations were superb. The following were the numbers:

- Music.....Band. Prayer.....Rev. Oberg. Music.....Quartette. Address.....W. N. Barrett. Recitation.....Eula Hoyt. Address.....H. T. Bagley. How Betsey cut the Stars.....Five Little Girls. Recitation.....Clara Plow and Solo.....Miss Johnson. Recitation.....Elythe Haines. Solo.....Jennie Greer. Address.....H. V. Gates. Recitation.....Gracie Annans. Address.....R. Crandall. Flag Drill. Recitation.....Minnie Heidel. Decorations for unknown dead.....Six Little Girls. Tableaux.....Band. Music.....Band.

PITIED, THEN EMBRACED. Boss Cornelius' arrangements were somehow "ran a rye" the other evening and the result was that a distinguished Simonite was lost in a strange land. The Boss had made arrangements to go to Sherwood to hold his meeting Monday eve, he went to Forest Grove. He found no one to meet him. He paraded up and down the streets for some time and was variously sized up as being either a shoe drummer or a candy man. One politician who saw in the stranger a possible vote for the Cornelius ticket, gave him the "high sign" then gave him what railroad men call the "high daddy"; then "ahead three cars." This was all Latin to the genial Chinooker, and the politician, assuming a fierce look approached and handed him a card bearing this strange legend.

"A. T. Knox Esq.," "Date to King Ben Cornelius, and Grand Counter." "Chas' lips trembled; his frame shook; his knees smote nearly sounder; with a sigh of relief and a sonorous sob, Charley embraced Andy, saying, "Rescued; rescued; I'm Charley Talbot, and I'm to speak here tonight for King Ben and his retinue;" "Well, by gosh," says Andy, "I'll steer you up against the old man—and he needs you bad, Charley, he needs you bad. All these republicans who don't believe stealing primaries and counting out the proper way to save the national honor are going with the enemy and Ben needs you bad." And then the telephone bells were ringing and the date and Charley were there. "But the King of the County was not to be found. Likely enough he was dreaming he was out in the hills holding an imaginary joint debate with the "ARGUS" editor.

Strayed from the Imbrie pasture, one gray horse, six years old, weight about 900. Finder will be rewarded by Housley & Ernest, Hillsboro.

For Assessor. Mux Burgholzer, of Buxton, is the union nominee for assessor. He is a man of intellectual attainments and a thinker—not a mere scholar. He is a German by birth and he has every sympathy for the people who produce. Mr. Burgholzer is a farmer and has whittled a home out of the timber. He is all citizen and a vote for him can't be for wrong.

We'll open up. The Simon sack, and Lie some." "And you must holler, To doos and pop. That old gag 'twaller, Joe's flippy flop, To Bed, Thome!" E. W. Bundy, late of Menomonic City, Dunn county, Wisconsin, was the first of the week the guest of the family of Dr. R. Sandford, of Glencoe. Mr. Bundy is the son of one of Wisconsin's famous jurists, Judge E. B. Bundy, a man pre-eminently of the people. As a democrat he was for years elected to a circuit judgeship in a district which was overwhelmingly republican. As a man, his honor was unimpeachable, and as a judge, he was incorruptible, having the confidence of the common people, irrespective of partisan feeling. The corporations at last defeated him, but only after many attempts to fill his place with one of their sympathies. Mr. Bundy will remain on the coast and will practice law. The Editor of THE ARGUS was an old-time school mate of the visitor and had not seen him for nearly fifteen years and was naturally very much pleased to meet him.

Washington County's First Frame School.

A few miles northeast of Hillsboro, in the heart of what is known as the North Plains of the Tualatin stands the first frame school building erected in the County of Washington, a silent memoir of the pioneer wilderness and the struggle for better condition. The building will be torn down this summer, as it was replaced with a modern structure a few years ago, after it had given service for nearly 50 years. The first real school meeting of the settlers was November 21, 1851 and at this assembly was organized District No. 1, its numerical title still clinging to it. The body was made up of six or seven pioneers, all of whom have passed away except Stephen A. Holcomb, who still lives at West Union. The directors elected were James W. Chambers, whose daughter, Mrs. Dr. F. A. Bailey, now resides in this city; D. T. Lenox and Caleb Wilkins. It was voted to raise $500 and the site of the building was on the S. A. Holcomb donation claim. But one vote structure 20 feet wide and 30 feet in length. Amasa Brooks and J. A. McCoy took the contract, put up the building and May 17 the directors gave their note, on 13 days' time, for the cost thereof, $550. Miss E. H. Lincoln was the first teacher in the new building. Judge E. D. Shattuck was the first School Superintendent to turn county school money over to the district. In 1852 there were 18 pupils, which was increased to 47 in 1853. At this school attended Congressman Tongue, his first initiation in public institutions after reaching America from England. The old records are very interesting and have many entries unique and suggestive of pioneer life. One paragraph reads: "Dr., to John H. Smith—dollars paid on order John H. Smith for part of a term of school; teaching discontinued in consequence of Indian hostilities and the raising of volunteers." This was when the people of the district built a fort for defense against Indian attack. Some of the earliest pupils of the school are: Thos. Muzzey, now in Alaska; Mrs. Muzzey Imbrie, of Hillsboro, wife of County Clerk; Mrs. E. A. Bailey, of Hillsboro; James A. Imbrie, present County Clerk of Washington county; Mrs. Chambers, Conestock, of Portland; Mrs. Maroon McLin, Mrs. E. S. Stone, Mrs. Alonzo Sigler, Mrs. Mary Malone, George Butler, of Hillsboro; Samuel Lenox, of Gaston and Mrs. J. Q. A. Young, of Cedar Mills.

Deceased was born in County Tyrone, Ireland, October 9, 1809, and emigrated to this country in 1829, settling in Pennsylvania. He was the father of Thomas L. McEldowney, deceased, who a few years ago was one of the most prominent breeders of registered stock in the state. Deceased was married to Anna Law, in Mercer county, Pa., in 1834, to which union there was born seven children, two of whom survive, Samuel, a resident of Chico, Cal., and a daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Patterson, of Bonanza. His wife died in Cal. in 1879. In 1863 he crossed the plains to Virginia City, Nev., later going to the California mines. From California he came to Oregon in 1880. Mr. McEldowney had been an Odd Fellow since 1847, having joined the order in Pennsylvania. For years he was a member of the Presbyterian church but since coming to this state, affiliated with the Baptists. The funeral services were preached Monday afternoon and the remains interred in the family burial ground at Riverview cemetery, Portland, Tuesday.

H. Wehrung & Sons have just received a full line of silks, satins, braid trimmings, embroideries, laces, handkerchief linen, dotted swisses, percales, dress goods and ribbons. Call and see our lines before buying elsewhere.

A well dressed and rather nice appearing fellow answering to the name of David J. Houghton, was Tuesday brought in from the country by A. H. Garrison, who found the stranger acting rather curiously. Houghton told Garrison that he alone could converse with planets. As Brother Garrison was not familiar with the working off of the fag end of what is commonly called a "jag," he thought the man was crazy and brought him to Sheriff Bradford. The captive was examined by Dr. Linklater late that evening, and was allowed to go on his way rejoicing. He claims to recently have come from California, and from his conversation it was found that he was really somewhat of a scientist. It is thought that perhaps it was his research for bacteria in fragments that gave him his wandering thought. It is quietly hinted that he and two others are prospecting for gold in the county.

Talk about shoes for men, women and children—if you don't believe H. Wehrung & Sons have the most complete line in the city you should go and satisfy yourself. Also a few odds left over, regardless of cost, if we can only fit you. Come and see us.

The ditch on Second street has been lowered one foot below the original survey, which necessitated the taking up and replacing some considerable tiling. The excavators have reached the business part of the city, and are getting along very nicely. Every little while they fish out some kid who falls in, but usually with very little damage to the juvenile nose.

Bertram Van Cleave, salesman for the Wiley B. Allen Piano and Organ House, and Mr. Reed, one of the managers, were in the city this week, doing a rustling business. They make a great pair for business, and the prospective buyer who gets away from them is very fortunate—and the man who buys is fortunate, as well.

Don't fail to get one of those K. N. & F. Co. suits while their stock is complete in all sizes, at H. Wehrung & Sons. Also splendid line of overcoats. No trouble to fit you and no trouble to show you our lines.

The complaint that the winter wheat is being injured by the wet, cold and dismal weather is becoming augmented as the weather clerk fails to ring in a change. Many fields look very yellow, and unless the change comes before long, there will be a very short crop of fall-sown grain.

H. Wehrung & Sons are now issuing tickets on the second wheel to be given their patrons this season. Each $1.00 cash purchase entitles you to a ticket on a 1900 Columbia.

Virgil Watters, who is a brother-in-law to W. V. Wiley, is the union candidate for county clerk in Benton county. He will very likely be elected as that county has highly honored him in the past. And Virgil is one of the kind that properly appreciates the confidence reposed in him.
