THE ELECTION IS OVER.

The election is over, and things have settled down to their usual serenity. The result, generally, in this county, has been a vigorous protest of a whole people against brutal politics; against crooked work to carry precinct delegations to a county convention in favor of a Portland Jew or a Portland banker.

When a political boss tries to do these things through the aid of his henchmen; when the essence of decency is forgotten and men are called vile epithets because they will not endorse such robbery, then comes the test of whether our citizenship is reliable or unreliable. THE ARGUS has been very careful to state only the truth in these matters, as has ever been its policy. It depended on respectable citizens to assert their rights at the polls, and have their votes counted at the primaries. THE ARGUS relied on this. Its confidence has not been shaken in the least. The result has shown us that the masses of the people of Washington county are honest and that they will not brook dishonesty in political life. The republicans who aided in this grand result have shown us that they have a regard for decency, and that they are not to be classed with that element which does what a boss says must be done. They have shown us that they are not going to tolerate rottenness, but are going to have their votes counted, and that people will assert themselves when they know their rights are being assailed. It has been a victory of the people, irrespective of party, and, for this, it is the grandest. THE ARGUS, against the vehement protests of the two so-called "republican" papers (but which in fact by their sourliness and obsequence have been nothing but two scabby intolerant campaign sheets engineered by the lowest type of a political boss) has appealed with all its feeble ability to the people of Washington, begging a rebuke to the ungodly practices of pothouse politicians. Native son, American born, German American, Swedish American, and people of all extractions, commenced to assure this paper that the parting of the ways had come for once. "We will stay with you," they said, and stay, they did. The boss and his immediate cohorts were downed—and downed so badly that they will never again crack the party whip or crook a primary. It was a victory of the wholepeople of Washington county. It was due; it was meet; THE ARGUS in its meek and humble way contributed what it could towards the revolt. Its feeble voice asked for good government and the sturdy sons, irrespective of party name, came to the ratification of pure government. THE ARGUS is satisfied.

Wherever the skunk goes, he succeeds in getting into political oblivion. Praters of honor and virtue who know neither are always properly measured by intelligent communities. Mr. Eddy and Mr. Gault have discovered that Washington county has a public conscience; and that coarse work will not always be swallowed by decency. The citizens of Washington have done well—irrespective of party.

The saddle on the mule's tail, in last week's Independent was so small that even Ben was thrown out. It might fit the "Hootchy-Kootchy" monkey. The balloon cartoon in the Independent a few weeks ago is very suggestive. Wehrung and Sewell run "out of sight." THE ARGUS' "gas" was heavy enough to carry the decent republican vote.

"THE ARGUS" write-ups of its candidates read so much like obituaries, that their appearance seems premature. They would be more in order after election. "Independent. Perhaps, Brother Gault, you would like to use the write-ups for some of the Boss Cornelius' papers (but which in fact by their sourliness and obsequence have been nothing but two scabby intolerant campaign sheets engineered by the lowest type of a political boss) has appealed with all its feeble ability to the people of Washington, begging a rebuke to the ungodly practices of pothouse politicians. SELF-CONFESSED "STINKARD."

There is one regret that the Times has had, and that is over the dirty controversy it had with THE ARGUS during the campaign. There has never been a paragraph written for this paper on the subject that the writer hasn't felt like going out and getting kicked by a mule. It was a dirty, disreputable business all around, and this individual cannot be dragged or commanded into another such. But we were in it, and it wouldn't do to weaken under fire; now that the scrap is over, however, it can do no harm to 'fess up—Forest Grove Times.

Here is a pretty self-confessed stinkard; a man who tries to get a public officer to stand in to rob a man; a man who insinuates his skunk nature into falsehood and dirty allegations at the behest of a

The worthy citizens of Gales Creek are having some contention, which, of course, is very good natured, over the lines of their gardens. They have sent for a surveyor, but somehow the dispute won't be settled. So they agreed to send down to Hillsboro for advice. After getting no satisfaction they visited this office to subscribe for this modest journal. Telling us of the trouble we promptly told them how to settle their dispute. They were to go to Boss Cornelius and borrow that famous tape-line, multiply the result of the measure by 2, divide it by Boss Ben's majority in Multnomah county, add thereto the cubic contents of the gall owned by the boss, and by these lines decide the dispute.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE State of Oregon, for Washington County.

Iyman T. Wilcox, Plaintiff

S. F. Penfold, Jesse L. Penfold, Henry Penfold and Catherine Penfold, Defendants.

To S. F. Penfold, Jesse L. Penfold, Henry Penfold and Catherine Penfold, the above named defendants:

In the Name of the State of Oregon, you, and each of you, are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled Court and suit on or before the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons, to-wit: On or before the expiration of six weeks next from and after the date of the first publication of this summons, the first publication thereof being on the 7th day of June, 1900; and if you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in said complaint, to-wit: For a judgment against the defendants, S. F. Penfold and Jesse L. Penfold, and each of them, for the sum of $500, with interest thereon since January 1, 1898, at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, for the aggregate sum of $2750; and for the sum of $75 attorneys' fees, and for the costs and disbursements of this suit, and for a decree foreclosing a certain mortgage mentioned in said complaint, and which mortgage was executed by the defendants, S. F. Penfold and Jesse L. Penfold, to plaintiff on August 29, 1894, and which is recorded on page 482 of book "28" Records of Mortgages in said Washington County, Oregon, upon the following described real estate situated in Washington County, Oregon, to-wit: Being the southeast 1/4 of the northeast 1/4 of section 10 in town 2 north, range 5 west of the Willamette Meridian, containing 80 acres, more or less.

Also the N E 1/4 of S W 1/4 section ten (10) township two (2) North Range five (5) West of the Willamette Meridian and containing 40 acres of land, and ordering that said real estate be sold in the manner provided by law and the proceeds applied to the satisfaction of plaintiff's said judgment and that the lien of his said mortgage be ordered to be prior and superior to all claim, interest or equity of each of the defendants herein, and for such other and further relief as to Court may appear equitable.

This summons is served upon you by publication, by order of Hon. L. A. Root, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon, which order was made and dated on June 7, A. D. 1900.

SMITH & BOWMAN, Attorneys for Plaintiff.

FARMS FOR SALE

Those who want to buy Washington County farms will do well to call and investigate the following offers: Inquire at THE ARGUS office.

125 acres—10 acres under cultivation, 50 acres in pasture, 25 acres in brush and timber; good house and barn; good orchard; well watered; 1/2 mile from Reedville and railroad; 1/2 mile from school. Price, $20 per acre.

31 acres, 1 mile from Greenville—10 acres in brush; good five-room house, barn and out buildings; 1/2 mile to P. O. and school; 6 miles to R. R. Price, $600.

125 acres—100 acres in cultivation; 7 acres of fine beaverdam land; will produce 400 sacks of onions per acre; good 8-room house, cost $1500; good barn; other buildings; orchard and berry bushes. This farm is in 2 miles of Hillsboro and finely situated; can be divided, if necessary. Owner in failing health and getting old, is cause of selling. Price, $40 per acre, on easy terms.

200 acres—200 acres in cultivation; 100 acres of good timber suitable for cord wood; house and barn; good orchard; 2 miles from Hillsboro and on main road to Portland. This farm has running branch and several springs that furnish abundance of water the year round. This farm being situated so near town is well suited for dairying and gardening, as well as grain and hay raising, and is one of the greatest bargains in the county. Price, $20 per acre on easy payments.

200 acres—in high state of cultivation, mostly Beaverdam land; 1/2 mile from railroad station and town; 15 miles west of Portland. There is a fortune in this farm for some gardener. This land is cheap at $50 per acre; it can be had for $30 per acre, if sold soon.

44 acres all prairie land, except 8 acres of oak; well located, being only 15 miles from Portland. Price, $1300.

20 acres near Reedville—5 acres in cultivation. Price, $600.

A good sawmill, with or without dwelling and homestead, and 800 acres of good timberland. A fortune for the right man.

50 acres of nice smooth land; 40 acres in cultivation, best of soil. Price, $1000.

80 acres unimproved land; well located, being only 2 miles from Creamery, P. O., etc.; easy to clear. This is a snap at $600.

CHAMPION BINDER

Stands HEAD AND SHOULDERS above all others, — as these will testify —

Farmington, Oregon, May 30, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland. Gentlemen—Yours received in due time and would say that the Champion Binder I bought of you last year has given perfect satisfaction. Respectfully, (Signed) C. A. Keith.

Gaston, Oregon, May 20, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland. Gentlemen—In reply to your letter of the 24th, I will say that the Champion Binder I purchased of you last season has proven highly satisfactory. It cuts, elevates and binds in all kinds of grain, making compact bundles, and never missing except through some fault of the twine. Any one needing a binder, will make no mistake in getting a Champion. Yours Truly, (Signed) H. J. Cason.

Scholls, Oregon, May 26, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland. Gentlemen—Your letter of inquiry of May 24th is received. In reply will say that the Champion Binder we purchased of you last year gave us good satisfaction. On our hill land especially it did us good service. I cut over half an acre that heretofore had not been cut except with a cradle. On the level ground it did as good work as any one could ask for. Respectfully, (Signed) W. W. Jacquith.

Logan, Oregon, May 26, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland. Dear Sirs—I will answer your kind letter. The Champion Binder I bought from your firm last year is a very good one. It runs easy and does its work to perfection. Yours Respectfully, (Signed) Jacob Huber.

Elwood, Oregon. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland. Gentlemen—Whoever this may concern, the Champion Binder has given first-class satisfaction, and also the Company has been very accommodating. Yours Truly, (Signed) Jesse Cox.

Mountaineer, Oregon, May 28, 1900. Dear Sirs—The Champion Binder that I bought of you last year has given good satisfaction. I think it is the lightest running Binder I have seen. I had a heavy crop of down grain last year and cut it with one span of horses. Respectfully, (Signed) M. W. Hahn.

Forest Grove, Oregon, May 29, 1900. Gentlemen—The Champion Binder I bought of you last year gave me perfect satisfaction. It performed its work like a charm. It has my decided preference over any machine of which I have any knowledge. Yours Truly, (Signed) A. Human.

We have a whole book of such letters. Send for it. Letters are from parties we have sold to and show what the machines will do HERE—not in Kansas or Nebraska.

Champion Force Feed Elevator—Guaranteed to waste less grain than any other. This Elevator has a world of good points—all explained in Catalogue. Send for one.

Eccentric Sprocket Wheel Gain of 16 1/2 per cent in power at time when other machines choke

Have you seen our DRAW cut mower? Strongest cutter on earth. Guaranteed to cut where all others fail. In heavy alfalfa the Champion Draw-Cut stays at it when others have choked and quit. Our Hay Maker Champion Mower for stumpy ground has no competition. Get Champion Catalogue.
