

ELECTION DAY PASSED QUIETLY

The Unionists Win a Great Victory at the Polls.

THE CORNELIUSITES ARE RETIRED

It was a Protest by Good People Against Dirty Political Work. The general election has passed and the good people of Washington county feel better over the result of the vote than they have ever felt over the outcome of any contest since civil rule commenced in this section. It was a fight by the people; it was a victory of the people; it was due; it was met; and it was met—met by sturdy ballots. The union party had the support of nearly all the populists, the democrats, the silver republicans—and last, but not least, it had the support of hundreds of decent republicans, who were disgusted at the way primaries had been stolen by the bosses who put up the opposition ticket. The union ticket elected a joint senator; its state senator, its full representative, its sheriff, clerk, recorder, surveyor, and coroner. The Corneliusites made a special effort to elect their legislative ticket until a few days before the election, when they found it hopeless; then turned all their attention to electing Thornburgh and Jack. The forces under Ben Cornelius were thoroughly demoralized and the ticket put up by the boss met with a defeat such as has never been equalled in the history of the county. It was a contest for purer elections and the victory is all the more gratifying for that reason. The opposition succeeded in electing their treasurer, assessor and school superintendent. Wilcox was elected by a majority of only 7.

THE SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES.

- Union Ticket—W. H. Wehrung, state senator for four years. Alex Sweek, joint senator for four years. Hubert Bernard, representative for two years. O. E. Edson, representative for two years. Dr. A. W. Vincent, representative for two years. George A. Morgan, county clerk. John W. Sewell, sheriff. Ralph Wain, recorder. E. J. Ward, commissioner, four years. Thos. Wilkes, surveyor. Dr. W. P. Via, coroner. Republican Ticket—George H. Wilcox, assessor. H. A. Ball, school superintendent. Rodolph Crandall, treasurer.

HARK, FROM HEPPNER.

Born—In Heppner, on the evening of May 26, to the wife of J. J. Beal, a ten pound boy. Mother and child doing well. Father still alive.—Heppner Gazette.

Mr. Beal is well known in this vicinity, being a native of Forest Grove, and a son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Beal. For several years he taught school in this county, afterward going to Heppner, where he is in business. THE ARGUS congratulates the happy parents.

The regular monthly session of the city council was held on Tuesday evening. The bill of T. H. Green, marshal, for May, $20 and Light & Water Co. for $195.80 were audited and ordered paid. The Street Committee was instructed to sell the old bell tower for the best possible figure. It was also recommended that property owners cut the thistles in streets and alleys about their premises. A special session was held on Thursday evening and the bill of Phil Withycombe for tile, $182.95 was audited and ordered paid. The recorder was also authorized to transmit $400 to Ladd & Tilton bank by July 1st to pay interest on city bonds. It was also ordered that the street committee and street commissioner proceed to make the repairs to sidewalks and street planking as provided for in ordinances No. 182, 183 and 184, at the expense of the property owners. The time for the completion of the Third Street ditch was extended to July 15th.

Notice—Mr. A. E. Cooper, G. A. P. D., C. R. I. & P. Ry., 250 Alder St., Portland, Ore., advises me that his company will run four special cheap excursions to the East, leaving Denver, Colorado Springs and Pueblo June 23, July 12 and 20 and August 4. He will be pleased to answer any inquiries. H. Schulmerich, Postmaster.

The Crescent is the popular wheel at a standard price and no better wheel at any price. Call on Hoyt, the Jeweler, and see them.

On next Thursday to Saturday noon Dr. Lowe, the oculo-optician, will be at the Tualatin. See him if possible, his first day, as he is always rushed his last day. If you are subject to headaches, Dr. Lowe especially invites you to call and see him.

C. King, of near Cedar Mill, lost one of his barns on the night of May 30, by fire. W. King was at the barn with a lantern, feeding the stock. He set the lantern down and went to an adjoining barn to get a sack of oats. While absent he heard the dogs barking, but paid no attention as he supposed they were only having a campaign with the cats. When he came in the open he saw flames coming from the building. The lantern had been tipped over. He hurried to the fire, but the hay was caught and the flames were rapidly spreading. By a narrow margin he drove the cattle and horses out of the building, some of them being almost forced out. The family, being in bed, were late in giving him assistance, and when they came to his aid the flames were shooting through the roof. The barn contained five horses, two cows, one calf, three tons of hay, nine sacks of oats, fifty sacks of potatoes, and the loss is estimated at $350. Insurance, $180. The second barn, 40 feet distant, was damaged about $28, although the building was saved. The loss is covered by insurance in the Oregon Fire Relief Association.

Schulmerich & Son sell more implements than any other firm in this county. The reason of this is low prices and the best of quality. They are agents for Osborne and Deering harvesting machinery, Rock Island plows and harrows, Fish wagons. Get their prices before purchasing. W. V. Wiley, E. B. Sappington and W. E. McCourt have been elected delegates to attend the Grand Cabin of Oregon Native Sons, which convenes at Portland June 13, 14 and 15th. Hon. W. N. Barrett, who is one of the Grand Cabin officers, will also attend. The Native Daughters have elected Mrs. D. M. C. Gault and Mrs. W. H. Connell to represent them at the Grand Cabin. Mrs. Mary Wehrung was elected as alternate. The grand bodies will meet at the same time, and will also be there when the Pioneer's Association is in convention.

Talk about shoes for men, women and children—if you don't believe H. Wehrung & Sons have the most complete line in the city you should go, and satisfy yourself. Also a few odds left over, regardless of cost, if we can only fit you. Come and see us.

Thos. Talbot, who was the union nominee for county treasurer, was defeated by only a few votes. He was eminently qualified for the position, but his political enemies used his deafness against him. This would have made no difference as to his filling the office, but many did not look at it that way. Talbot is to be congratulated on his splendid run, anyway. He has always filled public office to the satisfaction of his constituents, and he has many more friends than votes. Owing to the recent death of Mrs. Talbot, he did not make an active canvass or he most assuredly would have been elected.

H. Wehrung & Sons have just received a full line of silks, satins, braid trimmings, embroideries, laces, handkerchief linen, dotted swisses, percales, dress goods and ribbons. Call and see our lines before buying elsewhere.

Last Thursday evening after prayer meeting the members of the M. E. church attended the parsonage in a body and presented the minister a present in the shape of a timepiece, a handsome gold watch. The pastor was entirely taken by surprise, and expressed his pleasure in a few well-chosen remarks.

When you wish to buy a bicycle, call on G. A. Wehrung. He sells the Chainless Columbia at $60 and $75. Columbia Chain, $40 and $50. Hartford, Chain, $30 and $35. Pennant, Chain, $25 and $30.

Hon. W. D. Hare, who is one of the trustees of the A. O. U. W. Supreme Lodge departed Wednesday evening for Sioux Falls, Dakota, to attend the annual convention of that body. Mr. Hare is one of the best known workmen in the United States, having been a member of the Supreme Lodge as a delegate to the Supreme convention for many years. The ARGUS wishes him a pleasant trip.

Don't fail to get one of those K. N. & F. Co. suits while their stock is complete in all sizes, at H. Wehrung & Sons. Also splendid line of overcoats. No trouble to fit you and no trouble to show you our lines.

Now that election is over perhaps the roads will not suffer the strain they have endured for so many weeks. With twenty or thirty rigs, daily, going over the highways, carrying the loads of anxious hopes, the farmers must have thought that the officials elect would know something of the needs of the various road districts, anyway.

H. Wehrung & Sons are now issuing tickets on the second wheel to be given their patrons this season. Each $1.00 cash purchase entitles you to a ticket on a 1900 Columbia.

J. Q. Johnson and family, who have been in the city from Mountain Precinct, for several days, returned home yesterday morning. "Farmer" still remembers the old railway days.

JUNE TERM OF COUNTY COURT.

What the County dads have been doing.

BRIDGES AND ROADS CONTRACTED

The claims allowed will be published in next week's issue.

Ordered that county road No. 379 be opened and established.

Ira E. Bradley, Henry Dooley and Channey West appointed viewers to meet at the house of Chas. Burr on Monday, June 18, and view road 383; and same to meet June 19, and view road 384.

Bull Mountain Road, No. 147, ordered established; the surveyor to be paid $5 per day.

Receipts of Recorder's office, $167.90; Clerk's office, $210.15; approved. Warrant for $133 audited to M. M. Mead, for fill completed near Tigardville.

Bids on bridge and fill near E. Carstens' place—Mead & Nelson, $208; J. J. Weik, $259.83; M. S. Dailey, $230; W. C. Ingles, $116.30; J. W. Goodin, $222; A. A. Mead, $240.

It was therefore ordered that Mead & Nelson be awarded the contract.

Bids on Dyele bridge and fill: Dailey, 102; Mead, 70; A. A. Mead, 99; O. Garrigus, 190; J. J. Wismer, 135. M. M. Mead awarded the contract at $79.

Appointment of A. A. Phillips as bicycle tax collector was approved.

Ordered that the county clerk draw warrants for the legal fees of the judges and clerks of election. The claims allowed will appear in this paper next week. Court adjourned.

Dead Letters.

The following is the list of letters remaining in the Hillsboro post office unclaimed. Clark Cooney.

All letters not called for by June 16, 1900 will be sent to the dead letter office. One cent will be charged on each letter called for.

H. SCHULMERICH, P. M.

Finest line of spring dry goods in Washington county at Schulmerich & Son's. Cheapest in price, and best in quality and selection.

Sunday will be observed as children's day in the Methodist church. Appropriate services will be held in the morning. In the evening, the children and the young people will render a good program. Everybody will be given a cordial welcome.

R. G. Leedy has been elected as executive of the State Grange. Mr. Leedy is a citizen of Tigardville, and has always been an active worker in Grange circles, and his preferment is a pleasant recognition of his services in this regard. Mr. Leedy will fill the position with honor to himself and credit to the Grange.

E. J. Lyons made a business trip to Portland the first of the week.

The defeat of Max Burgholzer, for assessor, by seven votes, is regretted by the many friends of the Buxtonite. Mr. Burgholzer was called home the last few days of the canvass, owing to the illness of a child. Had he been able to have remained in the field he would have been a winner. He made an unselfish campaign, with a strong man against him—that is, a man who was considered one of the strongest by his own people—and the way Max went down the line is to his credit.

Quite a severe stabling scrape occurred Monday. Little Harrison Houghson and Jonnie Creighton indulged in a school boy quarrel and the latter stabbed the former with his pocket knife, inflicting a severe and dangerous wound just below the collar bone on the right side. At the preliminary examination the Creighton boy was bound over to the grand jury and held in $200 bonds—Beaverton Correspondence.

The Metropolitan Printing Co., of Portland, has sued T. W. Thompson, of Gaston, for an alleged claim of over two hundred dollars. The company alleges that it furnished The Hatchet printing material and labor while Mr. Thompson was allowing his name to stand at the head of the paper's editorial page as owner; that Thompson was the owner, so forth and so on. The company alleges that part of the material which was furnished, has been paid and sent on a balance. The Hatchet was started by Austin Craig, several years ago and at first gained much popularity. Later on it encountered financial difficulties and from then on it had a troublous voyage on the sea of journalism. Mr. Craig, its original editor before Mr. Thompson became abdicated to the newspaper fever, was a very bright young man and as a country newspaper man, had few equals. It is understood that Thompson's name was placed at the head of the editorial page only as a matter of accommodation to Mr. Craig and if he is forced to foot the bills of the paper which has gone defunct he may have a heavy load to carry. It takes money to run even a country newspaper.

For each dollar in cash spent at H. Wehrung & Sons you will receive a ticket entitling you to a drawing on a Wheeler & Wilson, drop head, 5 drawer, $50 sewing machine; second prize, bicycle for boy or girl.

Dr. Sandford, of Glencoe, and who has been ill for several months, was in the city yesterday, and made this office a very pleasant call. It pleases his many friends in this city to see him able to be around. And we are sure that his many friends in his section, and in the country, will be pleased to learn of his complete recovery.

We lead in low prices—others follow: we lead in best qualities—others follow: "Sixteen ounces to the pound and thirty-six inches to the yard," is our motto.—Wehrung & Sons.

J. W. Armsworthy, of Wasco, Sherman county, is visiting with relatives in this section, and is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Masters. Mr. Armsworthy is an old time newspaper man, and made this office a very pleasant call. He will remain for several days.

Call on the undersigned for large cabbage plants during the planting season and get your wants supplied with any number you may desire.—O. C. Zook, Hillsboro.

Joplin & Eiesbitzsch, Portland contractors, passed through the city Monday evening, enroute to Yamhill, where they will haul telephone and telegraph poles to fill a large contract for northwest delivery. They took four fine horse teams with them, and will be hauling for several weeks.

Bicycles, bicycle sundries, second hand wheels, wheels to rent and repairing neatly done, at McCormick's bicycle store. Get ready for the bicycle parade.

There will be a social dance at the Hillsboro opera house, Saturday evening, June 16th. Randall's orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets, 50 cents; supper extra. Splendid time guaranteed. Cigars at F. J. Barber's, 2nd St.

Official Vote of Washington County, June Election, 1900

Table with columns for various candidates and precincts, including names like Bernard Daily, James K. Sears, and various party affiliations.

Constitutional Amendments lost by a large majority. Precinct candidates' votes will appear next week.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Held in this City, Thursday, June 7th

WAS A VERY PLEASANT SESSION

Twenty-Seven Schools Reported—Forty Delegates with Credentials.

The eleventh annual convention of the Washington County Sunday School Association met in this city, June 7, with an attendance of forty delegates and with 27 schools reported. L. C. Walker, of Forest Grove, president. Rev. Davis Winans, of Salem, a state worker, was present. The meeting was held in the Christian church and the convention was very successful. Elder Sickafoose was elected a delegate to the state convention, which will convene at Portland, June 13-15, and at which time there will be a steamer excursion to Bonneville. A car will very likely be chartered from this point. For this purpose, D. M. C. Gault, E. B. Rice and Elder Sickafoose have been selected as a committee on transportation. The church in which the meeting was held was beautifully decorated and the ladies of Hillsboro provided an excellent dinner for the visitors, in Wehrungs' Hall, at which about one hundred were seated.

BENJAMIN'S DREAM.

I dreamed a dream the other night. When all around was still; I dreamed that Alex. Sweek and I were running up a hill.

Alex's legs were tremendous strong And mine were fagged and lame; I knew unless we scared him off That he would bag the game.

So I shouted then to Gault's boy And all the scribbling crew, To hide beside the road And scare him with a "bugaboo."

Alex would not scare at all, But kept right on the track. I shouted then to Banker Haines To drive to giant back.

And Edward true to his nature Made one terrible lunge; He saw that his efforts were fruitless So he threw up the sponge.

Then with a last despairing hope, I yelled to Henry Ford; And he stood there like a wart And never spoke a word.

Now my brother "Joe Simonetti" From congressman to justice of the peace,

When you expect to slide into office, Just prepare a little more grease.

Those present every day and not tardy are Carl Folger, Francis Mead, Harry Hansen, Nellie Johnson, Herman Zuercher, Andrew Zuercher and Maud Hansel. S. K. Skeels, Teacher.

F. M. Heidel makes a specialty of buying and selling timberlands. Office on Main Street opposite Tualatin Hotel. Hillsboro, Ore.

A very pretty home wedding occurred Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barnes, when Miss Lydia Barnes was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Edwin Ellerson, Rev. S. W. Potter officiating. The bride was very tastefully dressed in white and the groom in conventional black looked happy. The parlor was very tastefully decorated and the ceremony was performed under a beautiful floral borsheose of white carnations and blue forget-me-nots, the work of the groom's mother, Miss Edna Barnes and Mr. Wayne Wiley, cousins of the bride, as bridesmaid and best man trying ordeal and Rev. Potter very gracefully introduced the young couple as Mr. and Mrs. Ellerson. After the congratulation, the guests were invited into the spacious dining room to enjoy a bountiful repast which bespoke the efficiency of Mrs. Barnes in providing for the happy occasion. A merry party of serenaders soon came and were invited in to be introduced to Mr. and Mrs. Ellerson and were served to a part of the wedding supper. The happy young couple went direct to their own home, followed by the best wishes of many friends.—Beaverton Correspondence, Times.

August Tews will open a tailor shop in this city—Hillsboro—and be ready for business June 1st. Give him your patronage. Repairing neatly done. Shop on Second Street.

S. Everitt was elected justice in North Hillsboro; E. B. Sappington, constable; F. J. Williams, road supervisor. In South Hillsboro, J. P. Randall was elected justice; Frank Kelsay, road supervisor and Wm. Tupper, constable. The county precinct elections will be published in full next week.

Go to F. J. Barber, Second Street, for a neat shave or hair cut. Satisfaction guaranteed. Fine bath room in connection.

Two pieces of timber were sawed this week, at the Hiatt & Reasoner mill, Gales Creek, measuring 30x10x inches, and 70 feet in length and containing 1823.64 feet, broad measure, in each piece. These timbers are for a steamboat engine bed. They were ordered by C. L. Jones, of Portland, and were delivered to the cars at Forest Grove yesterday.

Bicycle repairing, turning, brazing, vulcanizing and bicycle sundries of all kinds, at O. G. Wilkes, Second Street, next door to Hotel Hillsboro.

H. H. Fenton, John Gault and Wm. Bender and R. B. Goodin were down from Salem the first of the week, to help out the election returns. Wm. Pointer, the genial old resident from this place, who also has a position at Salem, was here to exercise his voting privilege, and returned Tuesday.

If you are contemplating the purchase of a bicycle, do not fail to see the 1900 Crescent and Cleveland wheel, at Hoyt's, the Jeweler. Not a single constitutional amendment carried in this county. Equal suffrage had 805 votes, "yes," and 1123, "No," thus losing in this county by 318 votes.

Money to loan 6 and 7 per cent; Rooms 1-2 Shute Bld., Hillsboro.
