

CASE OF SMALLPOX IN WASHINGTON CO.

Near the Multnomah County Line near Hillsdale

PATIENT WELL QUARANTINED.

Dr. Bailey, of this city, says the case is well developed

Miss Maggie Heft, the daughter of a German residing near Hillsdale, just this side of the Multnomah County line, according to the authority of Dr. F. A. Bailey, of this city, has a well developed case of smallpox.

THE FOURTH OF JULY.

The day of all days as an American holiday was yesterday celebrated at all points in Washington County.

The parade was under the direction of Hon. B. P. Cornelius. The band led and its splendid appearance and the music dispensed—the best ever heard in the county—were remarked by all.

After the parade, Dr. F. A. Bailey, in a pleasing address, introduced the speaker. Miss Minnie Heidec recited the Declaration of Independence in her usually splendid style.

The games and races were full of interest. Claude Greer won both the mile and four mile bicycle races, getting the first prize.

Married, June 29, 1900, at the residence of J. M. Haynes, Rev. J. M. Barber officiating.

Brick for Sale. The undersigned now has brick for sale at his yard, 1 mile west of Centerville.

Joseph McCourt, well known in this city, and who is a brother of W. E. McCourt and Mrs. Jos. Downes of this city, suffered a severe kick from a horse the other day while working in the Frazier barn at Portland and was taken to the hospital, where it was necessary for him to undergo an operation.

C. H. Large, who for eight years has been in the employ of the City & Suburban Railway Co., at Portland and who has recently purchased a five acre tract east of the city, has left the employ of the company and will make his home with us for a while.

If you are contemplating the purchase of a bicycle, do not fail to see the 1900 Crescent and Cleveland wheel, at Hoyt's, the Jeweler.

While Father Levesque, of Cedar Mills parish, was absent in Portland yesterday the Rectory was entered and considerable property taken. The thief entered through a window. Many valuable articles were taken away, among which was a valuable silver chalice, a gold watch, a gold pencil, and many of the Father's personal souvenirs, which were beyond valuation.

Schulmerich & Son sell more implements than any other firm in this county. The reason of this is low prices and the best of quality.

Cornell Brothers, of Glencoe, have purchased a new threshing outfit, consisting of a Niagara Pitts separator and a double cylinder Buffalo Pitts engine.

When you wish to buy a bicycle, call on G. A. Wehrung. He sells the Chainless Columbia at $60 and $75.

Vendel Scherschel, a prominent Cedar Mill citizen was in the city Monday morning and states that he has not yet discovered traces of the men who robbed him a few months ago.

We lead in low prices—others follow; we lead in best quality at bottom figures. "Sixteen ounces to a pound and thirty-six inches to the yard," is our motto.—Wehrung & Sons.

The residence of Dr. A. Standlee, of Cornelius, was burned with its contents Monday evening, while the family was absent.

Henry P. Ford, the Portland detective and who is well known in this city, has gone to Savannah to bring back the man who murdered the man Kirk, the first mate of a vessel in port at Portland a few months ago.

Louis Ennis, of South Tualatin, is authority for the following story, and he says it is gospel: "Geo. S. Campbell, who resides near Laurel, has a cow which is furnishing material for speculation as well as for the dairy."

F. M. Heidec makes a specialty of buying and selling timberlands. Office on Main Street opposite Tualatin hotel, Hillsboro, Ore.

M. M. Mead and Wm. Nelson are putting in a fine bridge up above Greenville, between the Carstens Mill and the West ranch. Mr. Creps, who was in the city Monday, says the bridge will be about 242 feet in length and average about 31 feet high.

Chas. Casteel, who was unfortunate enough to lose an arm in the Tualatin Mill, a few months ago, and Adolph Cimino, both of Tualatin, were in the city the first of the week, qualifying as road supervisors and constable, to which offices they were respectively elected last month.
