OREGON AND CORBETT

Henry W. Corbett, the Portland aged millionaire has again shed his castor into the Oregon senatorial ring and the poor old superannuated moneybags hopes that he will be rewarded—because, as he expresses it, some one has tried to blackmail him. The people of Oregon do not want Mr. Corbett to represent them in the National senate; that one thing is sure. His own city went against the republican party because the old gentleman was an old avowed candidate. While the republican party has a majority in the legislature, it has been much reduced from the last session's figures, and all this because Corbett was known to have been a candidate. Corbett is the man who spent money to debase legislators; he is the man who sent money to Driver in the hopes of getting support from him for the senatorial robe. He is a corruptionist of the first water, and he thinks his scads are irresistible. Oregon does not want him. Corbett and Donald McKay have incited some of their dirty work in Washington County politics—and they were rebuked here as well as in their own county. If Oregon shall never have another senator it will be better than sending this feeble and egotistical old corruptionist back to Washington as the choice of the state.

Let Mr. Corbett get out of Oregon politics and stay out. His money is no recommendation—except to the venal, and, if he be elected it will be nothing but a purchase pure and simple.

WHAT THEY STAND FOR

Sound money is indeed "a universal interest" and an intensely practical and personal one, especially to the poor. Mr. Bryan is not doing himself or the democratic party any good in keeping 16 to 1 at the front.—N. Y. World.

This is indeed rich coming from a journal which holds that imperialism is the paramount issue. But it must be remembered that the World was one of the most bitter partisans against Mr. Bryan in 1896. Mr. Bryan and the platform upon which he stands are for the preservation of democratic government and for the protection of the producers after the government is preserved.

C. E. S. WOOD ON BRYAN.

Hon. C. E. S. Wood, of Portland, who bolted Bryan in 1896, is now out for the democratic candidate and a recent ratification meeting in Portland, said:

"We are here tonight to approve and ratify and intend to elect to the office of president of the United States a man of character, a man of force, a man of intelligence, a man of education; but above all a man who is true to his convictions and does not trim his sail to every political breeze. We are here tonight to ratify and to stand upon as a platform the Declaration of Independence. If Thomas Jefferson were a live, he would be with us tonight, because his were the hands that penned in ink the declaration. 'All men are created free; governments derive their just powers from the consent of the governed.' If George Washington were alive, he would be here tonight. He drew his sword that he might proclaim to the world the same immortal thought. If Alexander Hamilton were alive he would be here tonight, for he said, 'The constitution of the United States is not so much its written constitution as it is the Declaration of Independence.' If James Madison were here tonight he would be a democrat. He said that these United States are erected in the 13 independent states, with no powers or desire for foreign possessions of colonies. If Abraham Lincoln were alive, he would be here tonight and I do believe his murdered spirit is here with us on this occasion. He said when a man governs himself, that is self-government; but when he governs another, that is despotism.

IT IS SAID that C. S. Jackson, of the Pendleton East Oregonian, intends coming to Portland in the near future to start a daily paper. If this will only materialize it will mean much for Multnomah and Portland, to say nothing of the rest of the state. Jackson is able and fearless and he has a way of putting things that takes with the general public. Portland needs another paper and needs it very badly. One paper in a city of the size of Portland is not enough. There is more than a matter of news in this. Were it only that, the Oregonian would fill the bill. But a newspaper such as the Oregonian, in its support of men and measures, should have no monopoly, for it grows venal in time and ceases to discriminate between the just and the unjust. Let the new paper come as soon as possible.

The Oregonian says that it isn't saying very much about politics just now. This is true. It is waiting for the bosses to give it its cue.

H. W. Corbett says that he has been the victim of blackmail. Very likely this recent case has more foundation than the old gentleman will admit. Oregon is quite familiar with the tactics of the old fraud who has been sending Christmas presents to impecunious legislators.

Because an inferior number of Boers will not stand up and be annihilated by a vastly superior force of British, the loving Oregonian says they are "cowards." How pitiful that fifty thousand Boers will not stand up in an open field against four or five times as many British and be murdered just to satisfy the Oregonian's idea of bravery!

CHAMPION BINDER

Stands HEAD AND SHOULDERS above all — as these will testify —

Tammington, Oregon, May 30, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland, Gentlemen—Your binder received in due time and I must say that the Champion binder I bought of you last year has given perfect satisfaction. Respectfully (Signed) C. A. Keith.

Gaston, Oregon, May 20, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland, Gentlemen—in reply to your letter of the 14th I will say that the Champion binder I purchased of you last season has proved highly satisfactory. It cuts, elevates and binds in all kinds of grain, making compact bundles, and never missing except through some fault of the white. Any one needing a binder will make no mistake in getting a Champion. Yours Truly, (Signed) H. J. Cason.

Schools, Oregon, May 26, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland, Gentlemen—Your letter of inquiry of May 24th received. In reply will say that the Champion binder we purchased of you last year gave us good satisfaction. On our hill land especially it did us good service. I cut over hill sides that heretofore had not been cut except with a grade. On the level ground it did us good work as any one could ask for. Respectfully, (Signed) W. W. Joseph.

Forest Grove, Oregon, May 29, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland, Gentlemen—The Champion binder I bought of you last year gave me perfect satisfaction. It performed its work like a charm. It has my decided preference over any machine of which I have any knowledge. Yours Truly, (Signed) A. Hinman.

Logan, Oregon, May 26, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland, Gentlemen—I will answer your kind letter. The Champion binder I bought from your firm last year is a very good one. It runs easy and does its work to perfection. Yours Respectfully, (Signed) Jacob Huber.

Elwood, Oregon, Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland, Gentlemen—Whoever this may concern, the Champion binder has given first-class satisfaction, and also the Company has been very accommodating. Yours Truly, (Signed) Jesse Cox.

Mountaindale, Oregon, May 28, 1900. Dear Sirs—The Champion binder that I bought of you last year has given good satisfaction. I think it is the lightest running binder I have seen. I had a heavy crop of down grain last year and cut it with one span of horses. Respectfully, (Signed) M. W. Hahn.

Forest Grove, Oregon, May 29, 1900. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., Portland, Gentlemen—The Champion binder I bought of you last year gave me perfect satisfaction. It performed its work like a charm. It has my decided preference over any machine of which I have any knowledge. Yours Truly, (Signed) A. Hinman.
