

THE RESULT OF THE AUDITING ACCOUNTS

Several hundred dollars have been paid.

COUNTY TREASURY GETS BENEFIT

All the ex-officers have paid charges against them—no exception.

When the experts, Messrs. Clark & Buchanan, had finished their labors, all balances found by them to be owing the county from the ex-officers had been paid with the exception of one. Henry P. Ford, ex-sheriff, had not settled, and claims that the charges against him can not be collected.

All others, however, have paid the balances found and the county treasury is nearly a thousand dollars the better.

Ex-County Clerk Goodie, $324.99, the different items being: chattel mortgages, $10; marriage licenses, $11.25; error footing fees, $5; redemption $53.04; justice court costs, $106.85; trial fees, $43.50; court reporter fees, $100.

Ex-sheriff Bradford, $440.91, the items being: bicycle tax, $73.75; tax rolls, regular and delinquents and mileage, $366.16. The bicycle tax of $73.75 was money at Forest Grove and Mr. Bradford had notified Sheriff Sewell, when he turned over the office, that it was there.

Ex-Clerk Imbrie, $136.30, being for fees $70 on which he will receive a rebate of $7.00 for overpayment; tax redemption $66.30, which he turned into the county through Clerk Morgan.

The county court will no doubt press Mr. Ford for a settlement as soon as possible. The county is about several hundred dollar, anyway, by reason of the expiring.

ASK FOR REV. OBERG'S RETURN

The official board of the M. E. church of this city held a meeting Tuesday evening, and by unanimous vote, ask for the return of Rev. H. Oberg for another year.

Whereas, The first year's pastorate of Rev. Harold Oberg at Hillsboro church of the M. E. church is about to close, and

Whereas, We have, during the time he has been with us, found Bro Oberg to be a true, conscientious Christian man, and efficient preacher and a good, faithful, energetic pastor, and believe that the best interests of this church will be promoted by his return for another year; therefore be it

Resolved, By the official board of this church that the presiding elder of this district be and is hereby requested to use his influence at the annual conference to secure Bro Oberg's return to this charge for another year; and be it

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forthwith transmitted to the presiding elder, Rev. D. A. Waters, at Salem, Oregon, and that another copy thereof be presented to Rev. Harold Oberg. W. N. Barrett, Chairman of Official Board. Mary L. V. Hoyt, Secretary.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

We wish to say to the people of Washington County who feel an interest in making an exhibit of our products at the State Fair at Salem, which commences Sept. 17, that we are anxious to show this county up to its best merit.

Sam Rihner, a well-to-do German farmer from Shelby, Iowa, accompanied by his wife, was in the city the first of the week, having returned from a visit to John Hilbrun, of beyond Glencoe. He is a bright and intelligent citizen. He related to an Argus man that he had always been a republican—but this fall, it is different.

Carstens Bros. keep a fine line of rustic, flooring and shiplap on hand, also doors and windows. Prices reasonable. Leave orders at Manning or Hillsboro. Estimates on building materials.

Many have said that mules have no sense. Don't you believe it! A pair of Missouri mules hitched to a great big lumber wagon took a spin down Main Street, Tuesday with no driver on the vehicle. They made a pretty run, but unlike horses, steered clear of "entangling alliances," and after a good quarter's run, were caught, looking as ashamed as only Missouri mules can look after they have "done run away." Nothing was injured—not even the spring seat. Had these mules been horses—this wouldn't have been a mule story. They had been tied to a post in front of Lanikin's undertaking establishment from which place they broke loose.

Remember that John Dennis will open his store in the Bailey-Morgan brick about September 1st. He has secured a fine line of boots and shoes and will sell them at prices which will make their own sale. He will also carry a splendid line of groceries. Lay in your fall boots and shoes and groceries by selections from entirely new stock.

The school ma'ams of Washington county have been enlivening Hillsboro with their presence this week. We all remember, how we, as little chaps always loved them, and how much we owe to them, as men and women. We all remember our first trip to school and that school ma'am—we never forget her. As we grow older we did not forget her, and we who now are growing "shiny" on our plates—like Brother Gault, of the Independent, and Long, of The Argus—look with reverence on the school ma'am. Just why we have remembered the school "dad" is a different story.

Leave your orders for fresh Portland bread at Gates' Ice Cream Parlors. Two deliveries per day. 10:30 a. m., and 4:30 p. m. Plain bread, three loaves for a dime; cream, French and Twist, five cents per loaf; Pullman, ten cents per loaf.

Miss Emma Everitt, of Portland, was in the city last Sunday, the guest of her father, Judge S. Everitt, and her brothers and sisters. She has received the appointment as Matron of the Hospital at the Oregon Soldiers' Home at Roseburg. Miss Everitt is a graduate of the Woman's Hospital at Philadelphia, Pa., and is thoroughly capable of filling the new position to which she has been called.

Just received—a handsome line of Pulley Belt rings for the ladies; sterling silver, gold and silver plate and nickel. Call and see them at Hoyt's, the jeweller. Prices cheaper than Portland. These are the handsomest things in the market.

Some party or parties shot two cows while they were in the pasture near Phillips, the other day. They belonged to J. J. Whitten and were valuable animals, one of them being worth $100. There is nothing to identify anyone with the shooting. Both cows were dead when found. Mr. Whitten says he has no enemies to whom he could ascribe the act and he is at sea for motive. Some one will get into serious trouble some of these days.

Fall and winter clothing now being received at H. Wehrung & Sons. Best selection ever made in Washington county. You can not do as well elsewhere. Call and examine and get our prices. We buy to sell.

We have just discovered why Brother Gault, of the Independent, hits the Bue Mountain Ice Trust so hard. At first, of course, the spectacle of a good Hanna paper fighting a trust, was a curiosity. But this is very easily explained—and THE ARGUS doesn't blame Brother Gault for his anger. It appears that Mr. Gault bought an ice cream freezer a few weeks ago with the idea of manufacturing the delicacy at home. He was obliged to buy ice. This is why he kicks at the ice trust.

H. Wehrung & Sons have taken the agency for the famous Monarch Tailoring Co. We can outfit the largest or the smallest with tailor-made suits. Perfect satisfaction guaranteed. Why not try us?

Sam Rihner, a well-to-do German farmer from Shelby, Iowa, accompanied by his wife, was in the city the first of the week, having returned from a visit to John Hilbrun, of beyond Glencoe. Carstens Bros. keep a fine line of rustic, flooring and shiplap on hand, also doors and windows. Prices reasonable. Leave orders at Manning or Hillsboro. Estimates on building materials.

A. M. Austin, deputy sheriff of Benton County, was in the city over Sunday, calling on his many friends here. Mr. Austin was here ten years ago and at one time worked for Col. Thos. Cornelius, in the Dairy Creek sawmill. He has been a resident of Benton County for several years and finally drifted into politics. He is a hail fellow well met and the boys all had a regular re-union.

Fall and winter hats—finest shapes and great quality—at H. Wehrung & Sons. Come and see us before purchasing elsewhere.

ESSIG INSURANCE CASE IS SETTLED.

A. O. U. W. LODGE OF KANSAS

Was going to throw the money into the courts for adjudication.

Conrad Essig, who died last winter while enroute to Oregon City, on a Southern Pacific train, left a policy in the A. O. U. W. of the State of Kansas. The beneficiaries were Magdalena Essig, his wife, and William, a son, who is a resident of Spokane, Wash., $500 to the widow, and $1500 to the son. Prior to his death he tried to make a change of the beneficiaries but had not completed the same when death came.

His wish was to give his minor children who live here with a second wife, each the sum of five hundred and the son at Spokane, the other five hundred. The case has been settled by an agreement of the Spokane beneficiary to take $1,500 and the minor heirs here to take $500, $200 of which is to be contingent upon proof of the death of Essig's first wife, from whom Essig had been separated for years and in whose favor the policy operated in the sum of $500.

Essig's desired change was manifested by writing, witnessed, on the back of the certificate, but the Grand Lodge of Kansas decided to throw the matter into the courts and have the rights adjudicated. The settlement steps litigation and is considered the best that could be done considering the state of affairs.

PUBLIC SALE.

The undersigned will sell at his farm, in Cornelius, the following personal property, commencing at 10 o'clock a. m., on

Set heavy work harness, set plow harness, set double buggy harness, 2 set single harness, 2 full Jersey cows, to come in soon; 8 months old Jersey heifer, 3 1/2 inch Newton wagon, buggy, cart, sulky, track bike, horse boots and blankets, 1 1/2-inch plow, cultivator, track drag, cradle, drag, 10 tons timothy hay, set blacksmith tools, ewer, 2 hogs, 2 doz. chickens, Champion mower, nearly new; good Osborne binder, hay rack, hay rake and many other articles too numerous to mention.

Terms of Sale—A credit of 14 months will be given on all sums over $10 at 8 per cent interest with approved note.

THOMAS TALBOT, Wm. McQuillan, Auctioneer.

PROBATE.

Estate of Hiram Burt, deceased; final settlement of estate approved and closed of record.

Estate of John Smith, deceased; will admitted to probate and Theo Vandeyke appointed executor without bonds. Appraisers are J. W. Vandervelden, John Vandervelden and Theodore Vandeyke.

Guardianship of Warren minors; annual report and account filed. Maggie Warren, being of legal age, her settlement and her receipt is accepted.

Guardianship Mary Jane Thompson, feeble minded; ward reported dead, and final report accepted. Estate turned over to father of ward, and guardian and bondsmen discharged from responsibility.

Estate of Jos D Hite, deceased; inventory filed and ordered that property exempt from execution be set over to the widow of deceased.

Estate of William Wilson, deceased; ordered that executor have authority to sell personal property at private sale for cash in hand.

Pacific University promises to eclipse all former terms this fall and the faculty and instructors are all feeling encouraged over the prospects. The demand for rooms, houses and board at the College City indicates that the enrollment for the term soon to commence will be much larger than at any time in the history of the institution. Those who desire to know more about the school and the attendant expense will do well to read the advertisement in another column.

Isaac Leisy and wife will soon leave for Swee, Idaho, where they will visit with their son, Isaac B. They intend remaining several weeks. The Argus wishes them a pleasant trip.

The Methodist Sunday school of this city held a very enjoyable picnic at Davis' Hill, Wednesday.

Wm. Bagley, of Leisyville, has the finest crop of hops yet raised in his yard. The hop is not as large as usual but of a much better quality and weight. If good weather prevails from now on the harvest will be a very rich one for growers. Zina Wood has a magnificent crop and J. H. Sewell, as usual, is in it with a yard of great promise. J. Whitmore, of Laurel, states that his section will come to the front with a crop of good yield and quality. Prices are not looking up quite as well as they did a few days ago but there is every indication that a good figure will prevail.

If you are not buying groceries from H. Wehrung & Sons you are making a mistake. Best and freshest line and at prices that other dealers cannot meet.

J. E. Reeves, the Cornelius farmer and warehouse man, was in Portland the last of the week and barely missed the train Saturday evening. He concluded to walk out from town, and did so, much to the surprise and joshing of his many friends who know how well he likes to walk. He is now seriously thinking of entering some long distance walking tournament and if he can find a match he will dispose of his blooded horses at once.

C. L. Hinman, the Forest Grove harness man, will sell you harness, whips, saddles, etc., at prices which will give him your trade.

Commencing with Saturday, Sept. 1, each $1 cash purchase will entitle you to a drawing on each of the following prizes. First, a handsome $25 sideboard; second, gentleman's $4 umbrella; third, lady's $4 silk umbrella; fourth, choice of boy's $5 suit or girl's $5 dress. H. Wehrung & Sons, corner Main and Second streets, Hillsboro, Oregon. Most complete stock of general merchandise in Washington county.

H. Wehrung & Sons are now receiving their new and splendid lines of dress goods. Handsome flannellettes for ladies' wrappers. Call and inspect—and then you'll buy. We buy to sell.

Portland merchants are sending out circulars asking for your trade during the Carnival. When you go to Portland, be very careful, or, during the rush attendant the great crowd which will be there, you will be charged much more for your purchases than you would be right here in Hillsboro and Forest Grove. There is a moral to this: Spend your cash with the merchants who extend you accommodations when you most need them.

F. M. Heidel makes a specialty of buying and selling timberlands. Office on Main Street opposite Tuslatin hotel, Hillsboro, Ore.

Rev. B. F. Moody, who has been occupying the Congregational pulpit for several weeks, returned Monday to San Andreas, Calaveras county, California, where he is engaged in Evangelistic labors. Mr. Moody has many friends in this city who wish him every success in his labors.

Regular services at the Christian church Sunday. Preaching at Farmington at 3 P. M.

Grand Chancellor J. P. Kennedy, of the Oregon Knights of Pythias, did not visit the local lodge here Monday evening as advertised. His visit has been postponed until the first meeting in October. The members of the fraternity are requested to call and help the boys entertain the distinguished visitor.

We sell bread that pleases. Buy from us and you get fresh and wholesome bread. Nothing French or fancy—but staple. Delivered at all hours. City Bakery, Main Street, Hillsboro.

L. S. Nicholson, who recently came to this place from Nebraska, states that at Omaha he prepaid, in full, $18.75 for freight charges on some household goods. When they arrived in Portland he was obliged to pay $25 more. He rather thinks there is but little virtue in a prepaid bill of lading.

You will soon want to buy harness. Remember that C. L. Hinman, of Forest Grove, keeps the most complete stock in Washington county. Prices reasonable.

The State Association of Congregational Churches will convene in this city, at the Cong. Church, September 25, 26 and 27 with a convention consisting of over 100 delegates. This is the annual meeting and will be of much interest to all concerned.

H. Wehrung & Sons are now receiving their full line of boots and shoes. For quality and low prices we defy competition.

R. H. Walker and family of Cedar Mill, were in the city Tuesday evening, present at the lecture by Prof. A. B. Coffey, of the Washington State University, delivered in the court house. Mr. Coffey is a nephew of Mrs. Walker.

J. T. Dorrien, of Cornelius, has had charge of the vocal exercises during Teachers' Institute. Attention is called to the advertisement of the public sale of Thos. Talbot, at Cornelius. Lovers of good horseflesh will find it to their advantage.

Eugene Humphreys departed for Heppner yesterday morning, where he will work for a livery firm.

SUPT. H. A. BALL TO BE CONGRATULATED

Finest Institute Ever Held in Washington County.

ALL HIGHLY PLEASED WITH WORK

Instructing was Splendid and Evening Addresses of High Order.

Superintendent Ball, of the county schools, is to be congratulated upon the fact that his selections for this year have given Washington county one of the most beneficial and instructive institutes ever held in our school history. School work and school methods have been thoroughly analyzed, and there is not a teacher in attendance but who appreciates the benefits derived from the session. The program was as follows:

- Monday Morning. 9:30—Arithmetic.....D. A. Grout 10:05—Physiology.....C. W. Durette 10:50—Reading.....D. A. Grout 11:25—Civil Government.....C. W. Durette Monday Afternoon. 1:50—Grammar.....D. A. Grout 2:20—Orthography.....C. W. Durette 3:00—History.....D. A. Grout 3:35—"Personality of Teacher and Student,".....A. B. Coffey (Continued Tuesday.) Monday Evening. 8:00—Lecture, "Fruits of the Press,".....A. B. Coffey Tuesday Morning. 9:30—Physiology.....C. W. Durette 10:05—Arithmetic.....D. A. Grout 10:40—Civil Government.....C. W. Durette Tuesday Afternoon. 1:50—Orthography.....C. W. Durette 2:20—Grammar.....D. A. Grout 2:50—Recess Tuesday Evening. 8:00—Lecture, "Young America,".....A. B. Coffey Wednesday Morning. 9:30—Arithmetic.....D. A. Grout 10:05—Civil Government.....C. W. Durette 10:50—School Registers.....State Supt. Ackerman Wednesday Afternoon. 1:50—Opening 2:50—Grammar.....D. A. Grout 3:10—History.....D. A. Grout 3:45—School Management.....C. W. Durette Thursday Morning. 9:30—Arithmetic.....D. A. Durette 3:10—History.....D. A. Grout 3:45—School Management.....C. W. Durette Thursday Evening. 8:00—Lecture, "Home, School and State,".....C. W. Durette Prof. A. B. Coffey, of the University of the State of Washington, was one of the favorites of the meeting, and his addresses at the courthouse Monday and Tuesday evening were enjoyed by appreciative audiences. He was one of the most interesting and able of the speakers and lecturers who have visited Hillsboro in the last decade. His points were clearly made and his vein of humor were sufficient to keep his audience in the best of good nature. Prof. Coffey has eloquence and ability, and his addresses will long be remembered by those who heard them. State Supt. Ackerman was present one or two days, and barring his temper, was in good form. Prof. C. W. Durette, of Mt. Labor, was one of the strongest of the instructors, and he made many friends among the teachers. His address in the court house this evening, "Home, School and State," was well attended, and met with popular approval. Mr. Durette is a thorough school man, and that he is not mediocre is attested by the fact that he does more school work than any other man in the state.

Those attending are:

- Hillsboro—Lura May Willis, Amy Willis, Grace Boscoe, Mary Luce, Annie Reed, Jennette Archibald, S. J. Barnes, G. V. Dougherty, Mrs. C. P. Blanchard, Alma Bowman, Dell Young, Ralph Wann, Erma Latham, Albert Latham, Lula Mann, W. A. Tupper, Tennessee Weathered and E. W. Moon and Lucy Humphreys.

- Forest Grove—Katherine Stribich, Emma Gordon, Gertrude Eddy, Orell M. Beal, Fanny Burke, Frances Meyers, Lorena Gleason, Mary Clark, Manchie Langley, Alice Porter, Myrtle Porter, Beatrice Burkhead, Geraldine Baldwin, Lillie M. Porter, Ward Swope and Josephine Case.

- Cornelius—Drusilla True, Alda Aiton, Lawrence Dixon, J. T. Dorrien, Louisa Mooberry, Frank Briggs, Alma Dorrien and Lillian Briggs.

- Promiscuous—H. J. Wells, W. E. Wells, Hattie Moore, Greenville; Hannah B. Anderson, Beery Barnes; Anne O'Rourke, Anna Fitzinger, Anna Theisen, Earl Fisher, Beaverton; U. S. - Ely M. Barnes, E. A. Downing, Beaverton.

Of the teachers above named, sixty four have secured schools for the fall term.

Fresh Portland bread daily at Gates'.

Much complaint is coming in that there is illegal shooting of birds in the vicinity of Glencoe. Quimby was out this way last Saturday and went out there to appoint deputies to look after that section. He has half a dozen looking after it, now, and he promises trouble if he catches any one violating the close season. The advice of THE ARGUS is for the boys to look a "leedle owl" as a close watch is being maintained. There is a heavy fur for bird shooting out of season, and although they taste a little better when the law is on, it might be well to hunt only when everybody is away from home and gone to the circus.

The rock is being hauled for the foundation of the Catholic church. It comes from the Burkhalter quarry, near Farmington.

The B. M. H. initiated five members who had graduated from the E. club. The initiating corps consisted of E. Orrida Reeves, E. Lois Weathered, E. Elnora Bailey, E. Maudina Catching, E. Jane Corneilus, E. Gertrude Wehrung and E. Tess Weathered. A very warm meeting is reported, and after which a sumptuous spread was served.

The coasters will now be rolling in, and two weeks from now will end the roll call. After all, Hillsboro hasn't been such a bad place in which to summer.

F. M. Heidel states that he and Mr. W. T. Jackson have made splendid progress in getting together their county exhibit for the state fair. They are still clamoring for samples of canned cherries, strawberries and peach plums of the fruit line. The ladies must at once come to their rescue as to these. They still want some exhibits of prize squashes, pumpkins and turnips. They have started in to secure a flax exhibit, and Gaston should be able to furnish this.

New line of Hensington, Chevoits, Serges, Sacking and Home Spuns at H. Wehrung & Sons.

Marriage license has been granted to Mr. Charles E. Bradley, and Miss Emma E. Stewart, both of Forest Grove. Mr. Bradley is one of the instructors at Pacific University, where he is in popular favor, and the prospective bride is the well known daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Stewart.

Sam Thurstall, of Phillips, was in town yesterday, having just returned from a several weeks' stay at the coast.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. church will hold a social at the parsonage Wednesday evening, Sept. 5. Good program and novel refreshments. No admission charged, but free will offerings will be taken. All are invited.

Miss Pearl Chandler, of Forest Grove, is this week the guest of Miss Alice Merryman.

Rev. H. Oberg will preach in the M. E. church Sunday morning. In the evening Union services will be held at this church and Rev. C. C. Poling will preach. Everybody cordially invited.

Mrs. S. J. Raffety, of Mountaineer, is in town this week, the guest of Mrs. R. Cave.

August Tews, the Tailor, Second street, states that he has received 500 fine samples from which to select you a suit. Get a suit that will fit as well as wear. You will save money in the long run.

Miss Jennie Greer visited with Mr. and Mrs. John Goodin of Glencoe, Sunday.

John Dennis will open his store in the Bailey-Morgan brick, Saturday. His stock of groceries makes a magnificent display. He expects his boot and shoe stock to arrive Friday.

Mrs. Nichol and son, of Portland, are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Randall.

It is reported here that John Brinsbine and Joseph Williams, hop growers of above Gaston are paying 80 cents per hundred for picking. The outlook is that picking will commence here about a week from Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Merryman are visiting this week with Mrs. A. B. Bailey, at Spokane.

Dr. J. E. Adkins has returned from Brownsville, and is at work in his dental parlors. He states that the crop shortage prevails in that section as down here in the lower end of the valley.

Money to loan. Rooms 1, 2 and 15, Morgan-Bailey block. Oats..... 4 | Hay..... 79 Flour..... 4 | Lumber..... 2

Now is the time to subscribe for THE ARGUS.

Miss Jennie Cheney, of Forest Grove, and who is a daughter of Albert Cheney, fell from a bicycle Tuesday evening and sustained a painful injury.

Marriage license has been granted to Frank Barnett and Anna E. Scott, both of the vicinity of Tigardville.

J. A. Imbrie, ex-county clerk, was in from the ranch today, and states that he expects to commence picking hops the first of the week.
