STEPHEN A. HOLCOMB HERE 55 YEARS

Came to Oregon in the Year 1845.

VETERAN OF THE CAYUSE WAR Never Was in Court but Once—Caused a Man.

Stephen A. Holcomb, who resides near Phillips, is one of Washington county's earliest pioneers, having come to Oregon in 1845. He was born in Ohio in 1822. He was married September 15, 1850, to Miss Amanda Lee, of this county, and who came to Oregon in 1847.

Mr. Holcomb was one of the first school directors of the first school district established in Washington county, and he and Isaac Butler, of Hillsboro, are the only survivors of the organizers of the school, which was started in '47. He was in the Cayuse war of 1847-8 and was as far up as the Palouse country. Mr. Holcomb is now 78 years of age and is still very active.

Mr. Holcomb was never brought into court but once, and that was years ago when he came to Portland, around that time he had been removed from a postmaster's position. The trouble was started through the man who was named, who was a temperance man, but who had been intoxicated in Portland, and the joke having been repeated by Mr. Holcomb, the temperance man retaliated by circulating the removal report.

Mrs. Holcomb yet lives and their family consists of six grown sons and one daughter.

Thos. Paulsen, of Garden Home, and who is one of the county's most successful dairymen, being president of the State Dairy Association, was in the city Wednesday evening, conferring with Hon. W. H. Wehrung as to the probability of having the annual meeting of his association held in Hillsboro in January. Mr. Wehrung assured him that the meeting would be cared for free of expense, and hopes that a favorable decision will obtain. The meeting would be of immense benefit to the county at large, and besides, it would afford a splendid time for the farmers here to get together and see about the establishment of a creamery here at Hillsboro. By all means let us secure this meeting.

H. Wehrung & Sons are now receiving their new and splendid lines of dress goods. Handsome callonettes for ladies' wrappers. Call and inspect—and then you'll buy. We buy to sell.

John Peters, who for years has been conducting the Thos. Connell ranch west of this city, met with a severe accident last evening. While caring for a bull, the animal attacked Mr. Peters and had him pinned to the ground for ten or fifteen minutes. One rib was badly broken, and three were badly contused. The animal had been dehorned or the attack might have resulted fatally for Mr. Peters. Dr. Wood is attending the injured man and states that he does not think he is injured internally, although his body is badly bruised. Mr. Peters has the sympathy of many friends, who hope he will soon be on his feet.

If you are not buying groceries from H. Wehrung & Sons you are making a mistake. Best and freshest line and at prices that other dealers cannot meet.
