AS OTHERS SEE WASHINGTON CO. PROSPECTS.

Why we should feel that we are favored.

OPINION OF A KANSAS FARMER.

Who is coming to Washington County to reside.

Washington County is specially favored because of its proximity to the city of Portland, which in population is yet in its infancy.

"Among the newcomers is W. H. Rogers, of Sedwick City, Kan. He has been in Oregon for several weeks with his family, and has concluded to purchase land in Washington County where, according to his own words, he will be near a big city, so that freighting and marketing his products will be no great task.

"It's just as easy to buy land near a big city as near a little one," he said, and the market is much better in the former.

He has been considerably over the state, however, and has found that the chances for the farmer of small means are much better here than in Kansas.

"There are splendid opportunities in Oregon," he said, yesterday, "for a man with $500 to $1,000 to invest as he can buy the makings of a fine home with that amount. Land is valuable in Kansas and a quarter section cannot be purchased for less than $500 to $1,000.

"Crops have been very good in Kansas this year and prices have been fair, so agriculture is flourishing there, but I don't like the hard winters nor the hot Summers. I can stand the cold better than I can the heat.

"Oregon should be better advertised in the East than it is. If the people of my part of Kansas knew what a paradise you have out here, they would all be coming out. Good crops are not the rule every year in Kansas, and so times are not always as prosperous as now. I think now is a good time to move, while lands are in briak demand back there.

"Kansas people are in ignorance of Oregon's fertility and resources. We hear only of Oregon being a state where it rains six months out of the year, and yet I've been here four weeks and so far it's drouth, and have not found anything to dread. The warm gentle showers I very much enjoy, and they have not yet been frequent enough to cause inconvenience.

"Oregon should send literature to every postoffice in Kansas describing the real conditions here. In this way, your state would soon be populated by farmers who would be glad to take up the unoccupied lands, or to buy homes in the pretty valleys, where there is now so much room. A good many of my neighbors will come on next Spring as I have taken pains to acquaint them with conditions here."

Now is the time to subscribe for THE ARGUS.

The revival services in the Methodist church closed last Monday evening, after a four weeks' service. The conversions were large and the church enjoyed a general quickening. The pastor was ably assisted in the service by Mrs. Barrett, of Port Townsend, an evangelist of considerable ability.

Phoenix Lodge Knights of Pythias, of this city, Monday evening elected the following officers: H. T. Latham, chancellor commander; W. E. Boucsein, vice chancellor; J. M. Wall, prelate; L. M. Hoyt, master of work; H. T. Bagley, keeper of records and seal; Dr. W. D. Wood, master of exchequer; G. W. Schulmerich, master of finance; G. A. Wehrung, master at arms; Wm. Benson, inside guard; B. A. Barber, outside guard; L. W. House, trustee. The boys are talking something about having a public installation.

TWO YEARS' SENTENCE IN PENITENTIARY

Given to John E. Porchet, the Larcenist.

PLEADED GUILTY TO THE CHARGE

Stole J. T. Young's Horse Last March. Taken to Salem.

John E. Porchet pleaded guilty last Friday to the charge of larceny and was given two years in the penitentiary. Porchet it was who recently entered the barn of R. H. Walker, near Cedar Mill, and stole some harness, a saddle, a robe and other articles. The harness he took to Portland and sold in a pawn shop. Later on he took the collar, and, as the police were on the watchout for him, he was nabbed. Judge McBride appointed H. T. Bagley to defend the prisoner, who had also been indicted for the larceny of a horse from Young, last March. The attorney advised him to plead guilty and take his sentence as the best way out of his crimes.

CITY COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

The new city council held an adjourned meeting on Wednesday evening. The mayor announced the standing committees as follows: Finance, John Milne, E. C. Brown, John Northrop, Street Committee, John Northrop, John Dennis, John Milne, Water & Light Committee, E. C. Brown, W. J. Benson, J. P. Tamiesie, Sanitary Committee, J. P. Tamiesie, John Dennis, W. J. Benson, W. P. Atkinson was nominated by the mayor and confirmed by the council as City Marshal. The petition praying for vacation of alleys in Ennes Addition was taken from the table and allowed. The subject of licensing drays was referred to a special committee consisting of Milne, Tamiesie and Northrop to report at next meeting. The Water & Light committee was instructed to confer with Mr. Gates relative to proposition for purchase of Water & Light plant and the finance committee was directed to inquire into the subject of refunding city bonds. Repairs ordered to be made in 2nd St. planking near city hall. The recorder was instructed to transmit $400.00 to Ladd & Tilton to pay interest on bonds. Adjourned to meet on January 2, 1901.

E. Quick, well known here, now residing at Tillamook, was badly injured by a beer bottle hitting him on the head while he was unloading hay, the other day. The bottle is supposed to have been thrown by someone who did not know Mr. Quick was in the vicinity.

When you are looking for something for Christmas, go to Greer's. He has everything you will need.

The members of Griffin Cabin, Native Sons, are requested to be present at a special meeting, Dec. 19. Business of importance to be transacted.

One of our pioneers and Indian War Veterans, A. H. Garrison, last Thursday evening created a ripple of excitement by going to the cemetery and sending word to town that those who wished to see him alive must come down there. Several gentlemen went after him on the supposition that his mind had failed. Upon finding him he told them that he had taken poison. He was brought to town and Dr. Bailey administered an antidote. Garrison told the doctor that he was tired of life and had taken several anti-septic tablets. He rested fairly easy that night and was soon able to be around. Mr. Garrison is a very hard working man, and, being old, his fatigue probably got the best of his mind for the time being. He was examined for his sanity Saturday, but was pronounced sane.

Commencing Saturday, Nov. 3, in the afternoon, Wehrung & Sons will issue tickets for each dollar of cash purchase for premiums as follows: first premium, a $10 Oregon wool blanket; second prize, Gent's $10 overcoat; third prize, set of 1847 Rogers Bros.' silver knives and forks, value, $5.25.

Father DeRoos, who for several years was resident priest for Yerboort, and who has been a resident of Oregon for many years, has at last seen his "History of America prior to Columbus" published, and the Oregonian has given it lengthy review in its editorial columns. Father DeRoos is well known among historical writers and he handles his subject with style and vigor. His statements are well fortified with history gleaned here and there, and it is safe to say that the volume will take front rank in the literary world of historic settlement. We are pleased to know that the author has been identified with Washington county, and that his work is recognized to be one of merit by the leading journal of the Northwest.

Fall and winter clothing now being received at H. Wehrung & Sons. Best selection ever made in Washington county. You can not do as well elsewhere. Call and examine and get our prices. We buy to sell.

Forest Grove's city election now pending, promises to be of much interest as it will be a wet or "dry" council which will be elected. There is a strong sentiment there to have a saloon and license it at $1,000 per year, and the anti-saloon sentiment is just as strong, if not a little more determined. The college, of course, will fight the proposition of licensing saloons, as such a move, they allege, will be of detriment to the University. The fight promises to be very interesting to the two moral towns of Hillsboro and Cornelius—to say nothing of Beaverton.

Remnants sold at Schulmerich Bros. Regardless of cost, we intend to sell all old stock at greatly reduced prices. Come and examine the bargains.

G. W. Larkey, of Sedalia, Mo., and representing W. H. Franklin, who has the mail contract between this city, Glencoe, Phillips, Cedar Mill, Lemox, Bethany and Portland, via these offices with Hillsboro as a starting point, is in the city this week endeavoring to get a contractor to fill the service until June 30, 1902, when Mr. Franklin's contract expires. Mr. Larkey will be here several days and can be seen at the Tualatin.

Schulmerich Bros., the leading dealers in plows, harrows and all agricultural implements, sell below Portland prices.

The reception committee is making great preparations to give the dairymen a warm welcome when the annual meeting takes place here in early January. Souvenirs have been ordered and will be presented to the attendants. The committee intends to see to it that the dairymen will leave the city with pleasant recollections of the 1901 annual meeting.

H. Wehrung & Sons are now receiving their fall line of boots and shoes. For quality and low prices we defy competition.

The company which played "Under Sealed Orders" at the opera house Tuesday evening, from the standpoint of talent, was the best that has been in this city for years and it is regrettable that the house was not better. This was a splendid attraction and each is well up to his or her part. Play goes missed a treat by not attending. Sergeant Liggett—"Aint I a sad old dog?"—was well worth the price of the admission, alone.

Fall and winter hats—first shapes and great quality—at H. Wehrung & Sons. Come and see us before purchasing elsewhere.

Robert Weathered, late of Nome, and a brother of T. S. Weathered of this city, is here on a week's visit, after which he will go to Baker County and the upper country mining districts. In the spring he will again visit the Nome country.

H. Wehrung & Sons have a small lot of choice A 1 Alsike and clover seed, Oregon grown.

Hon. W. H. Wehrung is absent this week at Salem, where he is in attendance at a meeting of the State Board of Agriculture.

Schulmerich Brothers have blasting powder on sale at their store.

LOUIE HOW HELD FOR MURDER

Brought to this City Sunday Morning.

WILL HAVE EXAMINATION FRIDAY

State Thinks It has Evidence Sufficient for Trial.

Louie How, the Chinaman who was living with Gue Sui, who was murdered at Raleigh, this county, was Sunday night brought from Oregon City and lodged in jail at this place by Deputy Sheriff Wall on an information charging him with the murder. How had gone to Portland, and was kept in confinement for several days, when evidence sufficient for an information was found by the local officers here. Deputy Sheriff Bradford went to Portland Saturday evening and took How in custody, leaving immediately for Oregon City to avoid habeas corpus proceedings. He was then brought overland to this place. He will have his hearing tomorrow.

After Louie was brought here he was examined by Dr. Bailey, who found that his head was badly beaten. Judge O'Day, of Portland, is counsel for the Celestial.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Judge McBride has adjourned circuit court for the present, and may not appear until some time in January and possibly not until the March term. Before leaving, he disposed 1 of the following business:

The case of Dillely vs. Borwick, over the possession of a team, which has been once to the Supreme court has been set for the first day of the next term.

Alonso Emmons vs. Hamilton et al, case from Dillely, suit for money alleged to be due plaintiff and suit of J. K. Boyd against the same parties, same complaint, both decided in favor of defendants.

Decrees of divorce: J. A. Vaughn decree from Annie Vaughn, defendant to have custody of minor child, Ellie Bryant divorced from J. F. Bryant, maiden name, Collins, restored to plaintiff. Thompson vs. Thompson, decree granted.

Assignee of Anton Pfanner estate insolvent, authorized to sell 4 lots in Forest Grove to the city for $100, without advertisement.

Claim of H. T. Bagley, for defending Jos. Parchet on two indictments, $30 allowed by the court.

ILLEGAL VOTING CASES.

The Reedville cases of State vs. Sophia Nordlund, Hanna Olson and John Borwick were brought up this week, the first two being discharged upon motion of S. B. Huston, counsel for defense, because of defective indictments, and the latter went by a jury and a verdict of "Not Guilty" was returned. The contention of Mr. Huston was, and it was followed in the instructions of the court, and in the verdict by the jury, that Mr. Borwick had voted with the idea that he had a right to so vote, part of his real property lying in the district and that as intent was the essence of crime, he should not be convicted.

PROBATE.

Estate of Wm Noland, deceased. Order of May 26, 1896, not being entered, it is now ordered that the same be entered and that L. K. Adams be appointed guardian ad litem heirs of Grace Johnson and Hugh and Bertha Noland.

Estate of W. F. Ralston, deceased. Administrator authorized to sell personal property at private sale.

Estate of Irad Richardson, deceased. Annual report filed and approved.

Estate of Susan Stanley, deceased. Ordered that citation be published in a newspaper to Edna Stanley, one of the heirs of said estate, to appear at the court room January 16, and show cause why an order of sale of realty shall not be made.

DONELSON-BOWSER.

Married, at high noon, Wednesday, December 12, 1900, Mr. Oscar Donelson and Miss Henrietta Bowser, both of this city. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Bowser, Rev. H. Oberg, officiating. After the ceremony the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and the bride and groom were seated to a sumptuous dinner. The groom is a brother to W. O. Donelson, of the Climax Mills, and the bride is popular in church and society circles in this city.

In the evening a number of the young lady friends of the bride, assisted by Claude Greear and Harvey Humphreys, went to the residence of Mr. Bowser and proceeded to serenade the happy pair. They were invited in and the company visited a pleasant hour, enjoying a musical program.

Toys, toys, toys! Go to Greer's for toys. $150 collection.
