

THE NATIVE SONS' NEW YEAR'S BALL

At Opera House, Tuesday Eve., Jan. 1, 1901.

SOCIAL EVENT OF THE SEASON.

Promise of a Splendid Time—Second of a Series.

Griffin Cabin, Native Sons, of this city will give the second annual ball of the order on Tuesday evening, January 1, 1901, thus starting the New Year by a social event that will make all participants glad and all sorry who remain away.

The prize cake walk will commence at 10:30 sharp, and will be open to all who wish to compete for the prize.

The grand march will commence at 8:30 sharp and will be headed by a Native Son and a Native Daughter. At 11:30 the revellers will unmask, and then supper will be served at the Hotel Northrop.

Born, Monday, December 24, to the wife of O. B. Gates, of Hillsboro, a daughter.

H. F. Behrens, of Portland, where he is conducting a meat market, is in the city today, a guest at the Hotel Hillsboro.

Walk into the coming one hundred years with a pair of shoes bought from Dennis'. They will carry you through.

Enjoy the new century by buying your groceries at Dennis', where you will find just what you want to please your taste.

All the boys from the Corvallis College and the University at Forest Grove are home this week, spending their Christmas vacation.

Thos. Allman, of Cathlamet, Wash., and formerly a resident of near Reedville, was in town today, on business with the county officials.

Mrs. H. Oberg was last Saturday called to Salem to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. T. F. Royal, who had fallen and fractured her hip. At last accounts Mrs. Royal was resting comfortably at the Salem hospital.

Next Monday evening the Methodist church will hold a watch-night meeting. The services will begin at 9 o'clock in the evening. An appropriate program will be rendered. A cordial welcome to all.

Some one broke into the station at the depot last evening but Agent Beckwith reports nothing missing nor is anything damaged except the intruder tried to pull the door open and succeeded in pulling one of the inside knobs off the lock.

Washington County has increased in population from 11,972 in 1890 to 14,467 in 1900, an increase of 2,495. This is a very good showing but the census of 1895 shows that we have lost since that time. But just watch us grow in the future.

Wm Reid, who started to build to Astoria from this point several years ago, is out in an open letter, endorsing the Oswego—Hillsboro route for the proposed line of Railway leading to the Nehalem from Portland. He says that this is the ideal route without doubt—and you should know.

"The Passing Away of the Nineteenth and the Coming of the Twentieth Century" is the theme of what promises to be a very interesting meeting at the Congregational church next Sunday night. It is designed to emphasize the wonderful achievements of the departing hundred years and the outlook for the next century. Dr. F. A. Bailey, Mr. John M. Wall and Mr. Evan P. Hughes are the speakers and the services plan to occupy the usual length of Sunday meetings, commencing at 7:30. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

For several years, owing to the hard times, Dr. Linklater has not pushed the collections of his accounts, but as he is adopting a new system of ever ready account keeping and as the present century is ending, he requests all indebted to him to settle by cash or note to Dec. 31 this year. He finds it is now imperative to know just how those whom he has trusted are to be classified. He has quite determined to find this out and this century end is the proper time. At the end of next century he will not be in practice and his patients will need no attendance.

Has anyone noticed that no more has been heard of the robbery (alleged) of one Will Webber, who was here to locate the Nehalem railroad and buy all the timber land this side of the Cascades? It will be remembered that Webber kept it pretty warm here for several days—that is to say—his stomach, filling it with the hottest of rum slings, while holding imaginary séances with Jim Hill and the shade of Collis Huntington. Webber rolled them fairly high until a twenty was gone and his board bill became embarrassing, then went out and conveniently robbed himself and reported the robbery. He was an opium fiend and his story did not hold together. He imposed it, however, on the newspaper across the way, but Detective Ford and K... who happened to be in the city, soon ran him ashore. It is a wonder that Webber did not lay his alleged robbery on the "Wolves," an order whose members are sworn to not drink booze in Portland concurrently with attendance of prayer meetings in a Hillsboro church—like one of the saintly critics of this city has done in the past.

Commencing Saturday, Nov. 3, in the afternoon, Wehrung & Sons will issue tickets for each dollar of cash purchase for premiums as follows: first prize on a $10 Oregon wool blanket; second prize, Gent's $10 overcoat; third prize, set of 1847 Rogers Bros' silver knives and forks, value, $5.25.

The proposition of E. W. Haines to furnish Forest Grove with lights and water will be published in the Forest Grove Times, in response to the request of property owners. It has been proposed to discontinue the system owned by the town, in the interest of economy, as Mr. Haines' offer was generally considered to be much cheaper. The council has given his proposition favorable consideration, though not in an authoritative way. It did not care to go against the wishes of the people, however, and readily honored a petition to have the offer printed. The question is the one topic of discussion here, and it is hard to tell what action will be taken in the matter.—Later. The deal is off.

Remnants sold at Schulmerich Bros. Regardless of cost, we intend to sell all old stock at greatly reduced prices. Come and examine the bargains.

G. D. Campbell, well known here, and who has been an honored member of the Soldiers' Home, at Roberg, for some eighteen or twenty months, is down on a short vacation, and at present is visiting at the Schiefelin ranch, Centerville. He recently had the misfortune to injure one of his shoulders. "G. D. C." as we all know him here, is one of the boys, and always gets a warm greeting when he visits Hillsboro.

Strayed, from south of Cornelius, on or about the first of the month, a 2-year-old colt, roan, with four white feet. Inform J. B. Adams, Farmington. Reward.

The Jackson bottom south of town is flooded and the boys are having a great time boating. Two hunters were out late one evening last week and the heavy fog caused them to lose their bearings. They finally landed where the house is located—the premises being now in the nature of an island. Unless there is no rain for some time the water will remain where it is for some months.

If you are not buying groceries from H. Wehrung & Sons you are making a mistake. Best and freshest line and at prices that other dealers cannot meet.

Second street is receiving some repairs in front of the city hall and further south towards the depot that are not much amiss. New planking has been laid down and drivers breathe easier when going through that part of town. The fire boys can at least now get out of the apparatus room without running the risk of breaking legs.

Schulmerich Bros., the leading dealers in plows, harrows and all agricultural implements, sell below Portland prices.

Notwithstanding that every effort has been made, the search for the murderer of Andrew Dahlberg seems futile. The officers have received every possible aid from the community in which the tragedy was committed, but justice seems as far wide of the mark as the first day after the crime was discovered.

Fall and winter hats—finest shapes and great quality—at H. Wehrung & Sons. Come and see us before purchasing elsewhere.

James Sanford, a prominent Eugene Stockman, is in the city this week, the guest of A. A. Morrel and wife. Mr. Sanford is a relative of Mrs. Morrell. He says that he is much taken with this part of the Willamette Valley.

H. Wehrung & Sons have a small lot of choice Al Alsiko and clover seed, Oregon grown.

O. E. Edson, of Harrison, and who is conducting the Dairy Mills, was in the city, Monday. Mr. Edson is one of the legislators-elect, and is preparing to go to Salem for the meeting of that body early in January.

The prettiest thing in town—that Venetian granite ware at R. Wagner's.

EXCITING ELECTION AT FOREST GROVE

Question of Licensing Saloons to be Settled.

LICENSE TICKET IN THE FIELD.

A Royal Contest is Expected—Both Sides are Confident.

Forest Grove is going to have an exciting city election Monday, Jan. 14, and the lines for and against a saloon will be closely drawn. The element which favors licensing one saloon already have a ticket in the field, and the rivalry on each side is intense. The licensing element has distributed the following circular: "With the approach of the City Election comes again that old question of license and prohibition which has been fought over here year after year, at each choosing of municipal officers. But never before in the history of Forest Grove, has there been a Mayor or City Council having the courage and firmness, even though they deemed it were for the best interests of the City's welfare, financially and otherwise, to vote for the passage of an ordinance licensing a saloon, the income of which, ALONE, will pay nearly TWO-THIRDS of the YEARLY interest of the municipal bonded indebtedness, which is $1620. All voters, and especially those who have taxes to pay, can readily see that instead of the bonded indebtedness of the City growing larger and larger each year, under the license system it would get smaller and smaller, and remember that the conditions here would not be as bad with a saloon as they are now, and no more intoxicating liquor would be sold than is now sold here.

Should the following Mayor and three Councilmen be elected at the coming election, on Monday, January 14, 1901, they will vote to regulate the sale of intoxicating liquors by license. The ticket will be: F. T. Kane, Mayor; N. Johnson, Jacob Wirtz and C. L. Large, Councilmen, for two years; L. L. Langley, Recorder; W. S. Hudson, Treasurer; and Ula Hanna, Marshal.

WEHRUNG MIGHT TAKE IT.

The Oregonian correspondent at this place recently interviewed Hon. W. H. Wehrung as to the legislation he would favor in the State Senate at the coming session. The article sent is as follows: "Senator W. H. Wehrung, of Washington County, has announced his intention to labor for the following measures at the coming session of the State Legislature: "First—An equitable assessment law.

"Second—An election primary law that would do equal justice to all parties; and

"Third—Some practicable and efficient road law that would insure a better condition of the public highways, that would not be too burdensome to the taxpayer.

"My choice for United States Senator naturally would be a good, outspoken, true Democrat, and, if worst comes to worst, I would take it myself—if they would increase the salary."

KEEP THIS COPY.

For the benefit of readers the assessment, as equalized by the county board, is again published. Preserve this copy, as this table may be of value to you. The assessment is:

Table with 2 columns: Description and Amount. Includes items like Tillable land, Non-tillable land, Improvements on land, etc.

Net valuation as equalized $2,871,735 50

Unless he gets a long ways from here he will be caught, as his identification is sure anywhere a description could follow.
