A GREAT COMMONER.

Abraham Lincoln today stands without a peer in the history of our country. Washington and the fathers built, but Lincoln held together when that task was a thousand fold greater than the building. Lincoln was the man of the period, and his great fame is attributable to his sturdy sense of honor; his determination to adhere to one line of duty, and his deep sense of the honor imposed upon him by the American people. He was not interested in corporation gain and commercialism, and he appreciated the fact that there were many whose commercialism militated against the success of Union arms amongst those who pretended to be the friends of the State. Lincoln sought but one object—the preservation of the Union. To this end he lent all the energies of a great soul and strength of a sympathetic brain. He lived to see the fruition of his hope and the posterity of the South loves him today because posterity sees him as he was—a man with convictions pure and honest and with love of country first in his heart. Lincoln was a great commoner, and his peer in America history is yet to be registered. Modern statesmen, by comparison, insult his memory. Imagine, if you will, Lincolnian loftiness of purpose in a Mark Hanna or Wm. McKinley.

THIS IS TERSELY PUT.

Up to the present time it has cost the British government some $600,000,000 in the endeavor to absorb the Dutch republics in South Africa, and upwards of 25,000 lives of the officers and soldiers and the end is not yet. Does it pay? The commercial incentive for the subjugation on the Filipino insurgents is hardly as flattering to trade as anticipated. Over six thousand soldiers have lost their lives out there, either by the bullet or the inhospitable climate and considerable more than two hundred million dollars have been expended thus far, with much more to follow ere peace is assured. But what about the trade balance side of the question? During the closing quarter of the past year the exports to the islands figured up $1,487,655. On this amount $679,145 were forage supplies for the army; $260,637 were intoxicating liquors for exhilaration of our soldiers and demoralization of the natives, while the comparatively small amount of $447,872 comprised bread—stuffs, manufactures, etc. From the sordid standpoint of self fish commercialism, does it pay, to say nothing of the continuous sacrifice of life—Appleton (Wis.) Crescent.

THE STRAIGHT WAY OUT.

Senator Teller, the author of the joint resolution of congress defining the purpose of the United States in ordering Spain out of Cuba, points the straight way out of the difficulty which Mr. McKinley seems to be desirous of complicating. It is directly in line with the simple solution named by The World: Keep faith with Cuba by making the islands free and independent, as we promised to do, and seek in the regular way through treaties such protective rights and compensatory privileges as are necessary and proper in the circumstances. Senator Teller insists that the United States, through the President in his executive capacity, shall carry out its pledge to make the island free. We can then secure from Cuba, as a sovereignty, "such assurances by treaty that may be passed upon by the President and the Senate as to protect this country and the Cubans from any possible calamity that has been suggested as likely to occur through premature independence and self-government." This is the legal, the honorable, the regular and only straight path out of the Cuban complication. If we mean to keep our word and to preserve undimmed the shining distinction of being the only nation that ever went to war to free another people from tyranny and oppression, this is the path we shall follow.—N. Y. World.

If there is a man in Oregon who conscientiously believes that H. W. Corbett would make a good United States Senator, that man should be pitied. He has absolutely nothing to recommend him except his seeds. But a little money seems to be of more importance these days than other qualifications. Corbett is not wanted by the people of Oregon, and he should be kept at home. That he will not, if elected here, to serve out the term, is the general opinion of those who know him intimately. He wants the honor, his lieutenants have done plenty of indecent work to help secure this for him; he is spending plenty of money to attain what he covets, and he stands a good chance to make the election, after all. If Oregon wants the reputation of being the chief "gazaba" of all the fool states she should send the old corruptionist back to Washington.

THE Weston (Umatilla county) census enumerator was a crank on algebraical signs. But he is widely known as a man who is not a positivist, and he always qualifies his assertions by either a plus or a minus sign. When he "censured" Weston he felt that he did not have them all in the modest 600 shown by his totals, and thereby hangs a tale. He wanted to be loyal to the town, so he put a "plus" mark to the 600 addition. Not having room on the proper margin, he placed it in front, and the Washington compositor set it up as "2" and Weston goes before the world and in the Athena Press as having over two thousand dollars—people in its limits. Col. Wood, on seeing the figures, immediately gave orders to issue the Weston Leader as a daily, but was chilled on receiving a telephone message from Boyd, of the Athena Press, asking for the loan of three dollars to go the county seat. So the daily is "off" and Weston's population in the air.

THE legislature has not passed another bounty law, as is popularly supposed by many in the state. The appropriation recently voted was for the purpose of paying the over $100,000 in warrants which were drawn under the old law. As Oregon does not believe in repudiating its obligations these warrants have to be paid. But it is a big thing for Washington county to have to pay nearly three thousand dollars for two pitiful scalps. The sheep men have a bounty in the shape of a heavy tariff; they have the use of public ranges in many places; they are specially favored in many instances—and yet they want the Willamette Valley wheat farmer to pay for coyote killing. This may be all right for the Eastern Oregon man, but it is a burden, and an unjust one, on our valley farmers who are raising wheat for glory and borrowing money to pay taxes.

Mr. Towne's Reply to Depew.

Senators are talking of a very witty reply by Charles A. Towne, of Minnesota, to Senator Chauncey M. Depew, of New York.

At the conclusion of Mr. Towne's speech last Monday, he received congratulations from many of his associates, including Mr. Depew, who had been an interested listener throughout. "Mr. Towne," said Senator Depew, "fine, your diction elegant, your personality superb, and your argument damnable."

"Mr. Depew," replied Senator Towne, "I am delighted to know you approve of the only features of it you could comprehend."

Senator Depew laughed as heartily as others who heard it at Mr. Towne's retort.—Watchman

A GENTLE HINT.

In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature, rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day,—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, half the deaths resulting directly from this cause. A bottle of Boschee's German Syrup kept about your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing consumption, hemorrhages, pneumonia, severe coughs, croup, or any disease of the throat or lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you.
