

Published at the Post-office at Hillsboro, Oregon, as Second class mail matter. LUCIUS A. LONG, EDITOR. County Official Paper. ISSUED EVERY THURSDAY. The Argus Publishing Co.

Some of our Democratic newspapers are having hysteria because Mr. Marcus A. Hanna is to ride with McKinley in the inaugural parade on the 4th of March. Why in the name of the Empire should not Mr. Hanna ride with the President? Who was it that bled the corporations that Mr. McKinley might be our executive? Who was it that roused the patriotic corporations to the sense of danger of the republic-empire? There is but one reply—"Mark Hanna." Who was it that patriotically had the flag raised on a certain day with orders given out that democrats and populists were to be howled down as men who would ruin the country? Mark Hanna? Who was it that instilled the fear of ruin into the hearts of the dear down-trodden trusts which were being abused on every crossroads by villainous democrats and populists and caused to flow from trust coffers the "dough" that made the biggest country saver fund that was ever poked into a campaign? Mark Hanna, of course. Who was it that went to the ship owners and induced them to "help save the country" a little and squeezed enough out of them to give the campaign sack embolism? Mark Hanna, of course. Why should democratic and populist papers have hysteria, because he is to ride with our emperor-president? There is reason in all things—and Mark is the truest logician of them all. For the truth of this little discourse, just ask Harvey Scott, of the Oregonian.

NOT DEAD, BUT SLEEPING. The well-laid plans of the shipping subsidy fraud have gone wrong, and every good citizen will rejoice accordingly. The danger, of course, is not over, but it has been postponed, and every day of the present unparalleled prosperity that deep-water shipping is now enjoying lessens the probability of the iniquitous subsidy bill becoming a law, even though a special session was called to force it through. The protective tariff which permitted the organization of the most colossal trust that the world ever saw will prove quite a load for the party in power to carry. It is doubtful whether it could stand up under the added burden of the subsidy bill, whose sole object was to perfect and amalgamate the interests of a clique of millionaire shipowners into a trust that would not only absorb all the subsidy, but would drive small competitors to the wall and throttle competition. The Republican party has had a narrow escape, but it has only scotched the subsidy snake. It may yet be compelled to kill it, or it may cause serious trouble when it revives.—Oregonian.

BRINGS THE BLUSH. Senator Eugene Hale recently paid a fine tribute to the "country editor." Every time a country editor reads his eulogy it makes him blush. Much of it is true but much of it is romance. Here is what he said in the Senate: "He is a packhorse of every community, the promoter of every laudable enterprise, the worst underpaid laborer in the vineyard. Counting his space as capital he gives more to charity, his means considered, than any other member of society. He is a power in politics, a pillar of the church, a leader in the struggle for better morals. He is pre-eminently the friend of humanity. Line upon line, paragraph upon paragraph, day by day, he is embalm-ing in cold type facts from the Herodotus, Tacitus, Sisonidi, Macaulay of the future will write the history of our times. He fully chronicles our advent into the world, briefly notes our springings and our down-fall, and sorrowfully records our exit. "We are all more or less—generally more—his handwork, and the creature should not be ungrateful to his creator. Without his generous and enthusiastic labors most of us would never have been here, and when he tires of us, most of us will return to private life amid rural scenes propitious for secret meditation and silent prayer. Working night and day during the campaign, when the election is over and the time comes for the distribution of the leaves and fishes—now vulgarly called "pie"—by some strange lapse of memory he is generally forgotten."

It is said that the editors of the republican county papers are very much alarmed over the possibility of the democrats and populists in the legislature turning in and electing Hon. John H. Mitchell. As they well know, there is a bond of sympathy between the Anti-Corbett wing of the republican party and the unionists in this and Multnomah Counties, and they are in fear that it might be cemented. This being the case, they are worried lest they will not get at the public crib by such conditions. So far as their votes are concerned, they will do as they please. So far as THE ARGUS is concerned, it has sense enough to realize that the good people of this county last June made common cause for the downfall of Corbettism and the Simon-Corbett gang. So if the Washington County delegation shall support any good and decent anti-Corbett man for Senator, it will say Amen, and take the consequences. THE ARGUS believes that such action would be endorsed by ninety percent of those who worked for throwing out the gang of primary stealers in this county—the gang that was engineered by orders from Corbett and Simon and their henchmen.

Dead Letters. The following is the list of letters remaining in the Hillsboro post office unclaimed: Andrew Bendler, Wm E Buckner, Miller Eric, T B Perkins, John R Sawyer, Mrs Hickenbottom. All letters not called for by March 2, 1901 will be sent to the dead letter office. One cent will be charged on each letter called for. R. WAGNER, P. M.

HOW IT IS DONE. The first object in life with the American people is to "get rich," the second, how to retain good health. The first can be obtained by energy, honesty and saving; the second, (good health) by using Green's August Flower. Should you be a dependent sufferer from any of the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Appendicitis, Indigestion, etc., such as Sick Headache, Palpitation of the Heart, Sour Stomach, Habitual Constiveness, Dizziness of the Head, Nervous Prostration, Low Spirits, etc., you need not suffer another day. Two doses of the well-known August Flower will relieve you at once. Go to The Delta Drug Store and get a sample bottle free. Regular size, 75 cts. Get Green's Price Almanac.
