

COLONEL POLLOCK DIED AT CORNELIUS

Veteran of Two Wars Passes Away

WAS A PIONEER OF PACIFIC COAST

Served in the Campaigns Against the Nez Percés, Hannocks and Putes.

Colonel Robert Pollock, U. S. A., retired, died on his farm near Cornelius, at 3:10 Sunday afternoon. The cause of death were congestion of the lungs, heart failure, and exhaustion, caused by a recent severe attack of the grip. Colonel Pollock was in his 82nd year. He was a veteran of the Mexican and Civil Wars. He took active part in the suppression of Indian uprisings in the Northwest.

Colonel Pollock was born in Philadelphia in 1819. He entered the Army at the age of 25, as Sergeant in the First Virginia Infantry, and saw his first service in the Mexican War. He served through this war and was mustered out with a commission as First Lieutenant. At the end of the war he was left on the Pacific Coast, where he engaged in the mining business. He was a member of the first Fraser River expedition, and his magnificent physique and great strength enabled him to stand the hardships of the trip better than the majority of his companions.

At the outbreak of the Civil War Colonel Pollock enlisted and was appointed Major of the Third California Infantry. Much to his disappointment his regiment was kept on the Pacific Coast fighting Indians, although its members raised $10,000 to pay their transportation to the scene of war. In 1864 he was made a Colonel of volunteers. In 1866 he was First Lieutenant of Company D, Twenty-first Infantry, stationed at Bidwell, Cal. In 1873 he was appointed Captain. One of the officers of his company at that time was C. E. S. Wood, of Portland, who was then a Second Lieutenant. Mr. Wood speaks very highly of his old Captain. He was a kind man to his subordinates, but was a stern disciplinarian.

In 1875 Pollock's command marched from Bidwell, Cal., to Camp Harney, thence to The Dalles, where it embarked for Vancouver. 1877 Captain Pollock was engaged around Umatilla in quelling the Indians. He commanded a company through the Nez Percés campaign, taking part in the two days' fight at Clearwater, where he showed great personal bravery. He also served through the campaign against the Hannocks and Putes.

Cigars at F. J. Barber's, 2nd St.

Attorney Geo. R. Bagley made a business trip to Portland Tuesday.

Go to F. J. Barber, Second Street, or a neat shave or hair cut. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Gardner spent Sunday in Portland, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Elwell.

Of course you want the best going. Go to H. Wehrung & Sons for your dress goods, Henriettas, chevilles, serges, etc.

Geo. Harrow, of Portland, the first of the week purchased a span of horses from Hillsboycie brothers, of Farmington, for the reported price of $225.

Chas. Doughty, of this city, and who was in Co. H, Second Oregon, on the Philippine campaign, states that he has enlisted with the regular army at Vancouver and will soon go to Manila.

E. P. Stevonton, who resided for years near Laurel, but who now makes his home in Portland, was in town yesterday, attending to business connected with his Washington County interests.

Washington county veterans have been granted pensions and increases as follows: Original pensions, Silas Dickerson, Cornelius, $6; Frederick Myers, Laurel, $8; increase, Alva H. Schofield, Glenwood, $8.

Benton Killen talks of putting in a 300-acre onion patch on his Washington county ranch. This will be the largest yet in the county, or the state for that matter, and the soil is said to be first-class for the production of that highly scented fruit. If Mr. Killen puts in such an acreage he will put in a drier, and have things in first-class shape for the business. Many have made fortunes in onion raising in this county, and there is big money in the industry.

One desiring a few hours of recreation will make no mistake in attending the performance of "The Star Boarder," which will be presented at the Opera House, March 4. The play is a farce comedy with plenty of songs, dances, medleys, and high class vaudeville numbers. Mr. Boyle will make everybody enjoy themselves during his clever rendering of several comic roles, and Miss Sue Belle Mead will be seen in her element as a comedienne. The company is a large one and have made a tour from Maine to California, playing to crowded houses and delighted audiences everywhere. General admission 35 cents; reserved, 50 cents.

J. G. Henriel, now of Portland, but who for years lived near Farmington, was in the city last Friday evening, and assisted Lowell Bros' Orchestra at the masquerade. Mr. Henriel is one of the most famous violinists in the Pacific Northwest, and Washington county has in the past witnessed the light fantastic to his melody with a relish that justified his reputation. The violin on which he played last Friday is one of the finest on the coast, and he has refused $1000 for it more than once. He is now engaged in making and repairing violins in Portland, and instruments come to him for hospital work clear from Boston. Everybody at the dance voted him the finest player that has held forth in this city, as yet. Mr. Henriel was Mr. Rowell's instructor, and is known to all county violinists.

Good stock ranch of 160 acres, three miles southwest of Forest Grove. Ten acres cleared, eight acres under good fence. Fair house, large barn, smoke and chicken houses, fine spring of water close to house, place well watered, handy to creamery, market for fruit, Forest Grove. Fine for wood and grapes; small bearing orchard; in foothills. For sale at $7 per acre. Call on or address Dr. C. E. Geiger, Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Cawse, who reside north of this city, and who are well known to county people, celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary February 23. A very enjoyable time is reported. Those present were: Messrs. and Mrs. James Alec Gordon, E. L. Schefflin, W. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Schwanke, Mrs. Shaner and son, Mrs. Tamesie, Mrs. Hill, Mr. Setzman, the Misses Nellie and Aaron Gordon, Clara and Flora Bennett, Jennie Smith, Mary Tamesie, Alma and Ida Schwanke, Dora, Mirta and Mary Harns, Adelaide, Mable, Mable, Flora, Fannie, Eva, Jessie and Bertie Cawse and Messrs. Schwanke Jr., Andrew Stewart and John and Jos. Cawse.

If you want to look dressy and neat, go to Aug. Tews, the Second street Hillsboro tailor, and give him your measure for a spring and summer suit. His work gives eminent satisfaction. Ask any of his patrons.

The Amus will soon publish a Washington county edition, setting forth the various advantages of this particular section, and it hopes to give a complete resume of our resources, our closeness of Oregon's greatest market, and our claims on the future. The issue will contain considerable half tone work, and an endeavor will be made to eclipse any effort of the past, pertaining to Washington county. Several thousand copies will be published for Eastern circulation.

Men's and boys' suits at H. Wehrung & Sons. We beat Portland every time. Call and examine our stock. Bargaining now for spring stock room. We mean business.

M. G. Wills has proven that cucumbers can successfully be produced in the winter time, as he brought to the city the other day a fine specimen of that sort of melon. It was very large and is on exhibition at Heide's office. Mr. Wills recently sold the farm, which was 290 acres of the old Col. Meek place, to John Connell, for the reputed sum of ten thousand dollars. There is one hundred and fifty acres in cultivation, and the ranch is one of the finest and most productive in this section.

To make room for our new stock of goods now on the way we will dispose of all broken lines of merchandise at prices that will surprise you. Schulmerich Bros.

Forest Grove has a ladies' band. There are ten pieces, and each player gives promise of talent. The members follow: Miss Pearl Walker, tuba; Katharine Shannon, baritone; Laura Jackson, second tenor; Helen Chandler, first tenor; Emma Staehr, first alto; Lyda Staehr, second alto; Maud Buxton, solo alto; Theresia Stribich, bass drum; Mabel Wirtz, snare drum; Stella Via, cymbals.

Another knock down—not a fist combat but a knock down in price at Schulmerich Bros' store. Some overcoats, ladies' cloaks and capes, at cost.

Peter Stevens, who with his family, resided here the latter part of winter, occupying the Hicks Home, recently moved to Pleasant Home. Word was received here yesterday morning that he had suddenly died at that place. Mr. Stevens came here from Troutdale, and was a lumberman. He leaves a small family. His estate is valued at perhaps $4,000.

Come and see our new stock of hats and suits just received. We defy competition. Schulmerich Bros.

The 16 year-old daughter of Mr. J. J. Roberts, of Mountaineale, was thrown from a horse the first of the week and sustained a badly broken forearm, right arm. Dr. Tamesie was called and attended the patient, who is now resting easy. Miss Roberts was riding a horse, and the animal fell, causing the accident.

Now is the time to subscribe for THE ARGUS.

OUR POPULATION BY PRECINCTS

Cornelius in the Lead With Over 1000.

AS GIVEN OUT BY CENSUS BUREAU

Some Figures That Might be of Interest to Argus Readers.

The census bureau has sent out circulars giving the subdivisions of population for the State of Oregon, and it contains precinct population for the entire State. Washington County's precinct population is below given and Cornelius precinct leads all other in the county:

Table with 2 columns: Precinct Name and Population. Includes Beaverdam (755), Gale Creek (894), Easton (398), Columbia (724), Cornelius (1041), Dairy (882), Dilley (427), East Butte (539), East Cedar Creek (614), Gale Creek (614), Mountain (435), North Forest Grove (814), North Hillsboro (698), Reedville (646), South Forest Grove (773), South Hillsboro (916), South Tualatin (771), Washington (699), West Butte (568), West Cedar Creek (714).

This makes a total of 14,467, over one thousand more than that of Yamhill county, and the tenth county in the state.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The local teachers' institute was called to order at Cornelius last Saturday morning by Supt. of Schools Ball. After singing 'America' the attendants joined in discussing 'School Room Ventilation,' which brought out many new ideas. Mr. S. J. Ennis then read an able paper on 'The Child.' This was followed by a song, 'Fairy Belle,' by the advanced pupils of the Cornelius school.

D. M. C. Gault, who is an old instructor, and a former superintendent of this county, gave an interesting resume of public school work. After this number the teachers were seated to a banquet prepared by the patrons of the school. In the afternoon Mrs. C. P. Blanchard introduced the subject, 'How can a Proper School Sentiment Against Fardiness, Absence and Disorder be Secured?' which was very interesting to teachers and listeners. This was followed by Messrs. Dorrien, Adams and Swope, who gave well defined ideas on the subject.

A song by a part of the Cornelius school children, entitled, 'The Shining Way' was followed by Master Roy Sturdevant.

Prof. Adams explained the 'Relation of British Rulers since the Accession of Henry VII as a factor of United States History' in a pleasing manner. After recess Prof. Case presented the subject, 'Mental Arithmetic' in a comprehensive manner.

Supt. Ball is to be congratulated upon his efficient institute work, as it is of much benefit to teachers. Those present were:

- FOREST GROVE—Ward Swope, M. C. Case, Lillian Porter, Gertrude Edley, Beatrice Burkhead, and Grovaine Baldwin. CORNELIUS—E. W. Moon, F. B. Briggs, J. T. Dorrien, Lawrence Dixon, Alida Alton, Lillian Biggs, and Louisa Moberly. HILLSBORO—H. A. Ball, B. W. Barnes, S. J. Ennis, A. W. Tupper, Florence Olmstead, and Mrs. C. P. Blanchard. PHILLIPS—A. W. Smith and Albert Wilson. BETHANY—John Reichen. GLENCOE—Ora Bondurant. DILLEY—Coral Wilkes. REEDVILLE—U. S. and Alice McHargue.

Mrs. T. S. Wilkes.

Mrs. Nancy Northrup Wilkes, wife of County Surveyor P. S. Wilkes, died at their home north of Cornelius, Tuesday evening, Feb. 26, 1901, from tuberculosis. Deceased was born in Crescent City, Cal., Dec. 24, 1860, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perrin G. Northrup, well known in Washington County. She was married to Mr. Wilkes Jan 1, 1880. The husband and five children survive her. Mrs. Wilkes was very popular among her friends and associates. The dread disease which carried her away she contracted from the little son which passed away some months ago. The funeral took place today at 2:00 p. m., and interment was in the Wilkes cemetery, near Greenville.

Dead Letters.

The following is the list of letters remaining in the Hillsboro post office unclaimed: L. C. Brown, Chas. M. Hayes, W. C. Taylor.

All letters not called for by March 9, 1901 will be sent to the dead letter office. One cent will be charged on each letter called for. R. WAGNER, P. M.

Attention, G. A. R.

The comrades of General Ransom, Post, G. A. R., are requested to meet on the first Saturday in March, at the hall. Important business. By order of Commander.

Edward L. Naylor, of Forest Grove, through Attorney S. B. Huston, has brought suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company, asking for damages in the sum of $109.41, for alleged negligence on the part of the company relative to a shipment of hay delivered them in November 1899, at the Forest Grove station. The complaint states that the plaintiff had delivered on the 1st of November of that year some baled hay, and that the road did not move it until six days later, and that in consequence of such dilatory tactics the hay became ruined for sale. He therefore asks for the price of his hay, less transportation charges and so Mr. Naylor goes up against one of the biggest corporations on earth.

The masquerade last Friday evening at the Opera House was well attended and the affair passed off very happily. Supper was served at the Hotel Hillsboro, after which the mirth was continued until a late hour in the morning. The costumes were amusing and ridiculous, as the case might be, and the prizes were well won.

Chas. H. Boyle, who will appear in the title role of the refreshing farce comedy, 'The Star Boarder,' which will be given March 4th, at the Hillsboro Opera House, presents a type of character which is not at all unusual, and which provokes so much merriment in every day life that its possibilities as a stage caricature may be well understood. Mr. Boyle is surrounded by gay comedians and a bevy of charming young ladies who add not a little to the merit of the production. We have had many clever attractions in our city, but it can safely be stated that nothing can equal the funny situations, and clever satire presented in 'The Star Boarder.' General admission, 35 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents.

One of the little daughters of F. H. Bower was Tuesday thrown from a pony and suffered a fracture of one of her forearms. Dr. Linklater was called to attend, and the little one is getting along nicely. The family resides near the Minter Bridge on the Nichols place.

Jos. M. Gleason, aged 32 years, and son of M. J. and C. E. Gleason, died at the residence of the parents, near Reedville, Feb. 24, 1901, a sufferer from consumption. Deceased for several years had taught school in this county, and was considered one of the brightest young men in the work. For some months he was troubled with the disease which carried him away and he was obliged to give up his labors. He but recently returned from a trip to Eastern Oregon.

S. H. Dunbar will be in Hillsboro every Saturday after March 1, until further notice, with his Percheron Stallion, Oregon.

Bicyclists are required under the new law to pay a license of $1 for the maintenance of paths, etc. This should certainly be cheerfully paid, as the money will be spent, Washington County has a good many miles of paths, and this money will put them all in good shape and make possible many miles more of good wheeling. No one can object to so small a tax if he can own a wheel. It is simply paying a dollar more for your wheel, and for that dollar you will get tens of dollars worth of comfort. So every one who has a wheel should pay up and look and feel cheerful. But hold—the matter of license, under the law, will be optional with the county court. What they will do is a question.

The reopening services of the Tualatin Plains Presbyterian church (commonly known as the Scotch church) will be held next Sunday at 11 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

Quite a number of home-seekers are coming this way to purchase homes, and it appears that Washington county is going to get her share from this on. People are beginning to realize that there are advantages in having farms close to a big city, where trips to market can be made in a day. Heretofore we have not been getting any proper proportion of immigration, but through continuous efforts by Mr. Heide, Washington county is being properly advertised.

The physicians report considerable illness yet prevalent throughout the county. Spring will open up in a few days, however, and then we shall have healthy weather. There is nothing like a little sunshine for the rheumatism.

Ex County Clerk R. B. Goodin, who is now in the employ of the state at Salem, is one of the happiest fellows in Marion county just now. R. B.'s first four children were all girls—but the monotony was broken on the 18th of February, when Mrs. Goodin presented him with a sturdy young chap of the male persuasion, who is said to look a great deal like his paternal ancestor. Here is to you, Richard, and may he emulate his Grandpa Goodin.

Mr. Schmeltzer, a prominent Scholls farmer, is agitating a fat stock show to be held in connection with future expositions to be held in Portland.

J. J. Meacham, of Mountaineale, was in the city yesterday, and made the Argus office a pleasant call.

Chowning, Dilley, J. R. McClarker, South Tualatin, Ed Schulmerich, Hillsboro.

This venire has the usual 31, and includes the seven for the grand jury.

WANN-MULLIN.

Married, at the residence of the officiating justice, J. P. Randall, of Hillsboro, Feb. 27, 1901, Mr. Edgar D. Wann and Miss Mabel A. Mullin, both of Hillsboro, Oregon. The groom is well known here, is a son of Geo. Wann and a brother to County Recorder Ralph Wann. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Mullin. THE ARGUS congratulates them.

LINCOLN-HAAS.

Married, Feb. 21, 1901, at the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. W. E. Smith, Hillsboro, Oregon, Mr. Albert Lincoln and Miss Elizabeth Haas, of Glencoe. Both are popular young people in their vicinity. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Lincoln, of Glencoe.

Sergeant McKay Dead.

Charles R. McKay, who died of pneumonia Monday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. W. White, No. 6314 Washington street, Portland, was a pioneer of 1841, and a veteran of the early Indian wars. He was born at Winnipeg, Manitoba, in 1829, came to Oregon when but 12 years of age and resided in this State continuously since that time. He served during the Cayuse War of 1848 with distinction, as Fourth Sergeant, under Captain Shaw and was at one time the bearer of confidential messages between General Howard and Chief Joseph. The funeral was held at Glencoe, Washington county, at 11 a. m., and the interment was in Harrison Cemetery.

Miss Elizabeth Matlock, of Heppner, is in the city this week, the guest of Miss Marie Tongue.

Patronize home industry—try Spencer's Best Extracts—absolutely pure. Once tried, then always used.

Hon. Thos. H. Tongue is expected to be here in time to participate in the March session of the circuit court.

G. W. Harrow, of Portland, was in the city Tuesday, on business, and while here was the guest of John Peters and family.

Dr. C. H. Rafferty, of East Portland, is out at Mountaineale this week, attending the bedside of his mother, a pioneer of 1862, who is very low.

The annual school meeting for the election of a director for one year will take place at the public school building on Monday, March 4, at 1:30 p. m.

'A Tragedy; In Five Acts' will be the theme at the Congregational church next Sunday, 11 a. m. Mr. Hughes, Pastor, occupying the pulpit. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

The report was current on the street this morning that Mrs. Wm. Hay had expired at the family home last evening. This is not true, although the estimable lady is expected to live but a few hours.

Mrs. Miles E. Everitt, who is at one of the Portland hospitals, is getting along very nicely and will soon be sufficiently convalescent to return to her home in this city.

State Treasurer Moore has Washington county charged up with back tax and interest in the sum of $2,603.20. As a matter of fact the tax as charged represents an interest charge and not a matter of tax. This is on the back mortgage tax, and the county, when the state brought suit in the circuit court, paid the original tax, but refused to pay the interest. There is said to have been a supreme court decision to effect that the state can not collect interest on taxes from counties, and on this condition the county court would not pay the interest claim. Included in the amount as given is the coyote tax for the year 1900.

Good roads are needed, but people never think of whether the roads are good or bad when on the way to buy footwear at Dennis'. The knowledge that they will get a great article of footwear at living prices smoothes the track and makes the trip to town a pleasure.

Mrs. Nancy Maryott Cornell, of this city, dropped suddenly dead at her home in this city Friday evening, from neuralgia of the heart. Deceased was born in New York State, Jan. 18, 1841, and at the age of fourteen moved to Wisconsin, where she wedded Lewis Cornell in 1865. From Wisconsin they removed to Nebraska, where they resided until 1888, when they came to Oregon. She was aged 60 years, 1 month and four days. She leaves a husband, two sons and two daughters to mourn her loss. The funeral took place Sunday from the Methodist church, and interment was in the Old Fellows' Cemetery at Hillsboro.

The legislature has adjourned, but Dennis, Main street, has not. He is still selling the finest groceries, fruits and table supplies on sale in the city. His elegant stock speaks for itself.

The funniest thing in politics was an argument yesterday between W. H. H. Myers and Wm. Reidt. Mr. Myers is from Forest Grove, while Reidt hails from Portland. Each says he is a democrat, but neither knew the politics of the other. Each supposed the other was a republican. One was in favor of Corbett and the other was glad that he was beaten. They went at it hot and heavy. When mutual friends told them the true situation there was soon a cessation of hostilities.

All women naturally have neat feet—then why not add to the natural neatness by buying footwear that will not rob the charm of symmetry. You can do this by buying your shoes at Dennis'. Call and be convinced.

The Maccabee order at this place is taking on new life, and is initiating new members at almost every meeting. The order has adopted new by-laws and those who desire can, aside from the life insurance, take out sick benefit by paying a small sum extra. The team has got down to work and the initiatory exercises are very entertaining both to members and candidates.

Bicycles, new and old, cycle sundries, baseballs, bats, mits and gloves, fishing tackle, pocket knives and razors, at McCormick's store. All who attended the Washington Birthday exercises at the M. E. Church last Friday evening, given under the auspices of the Epworth League, report it as one of the finest entertainments ever given in the city. Many of the characters were dressed to represent the colonial period, and the exercises and tableaux were more than excellent.

The successful numbers at Wehrung's drawing were, respectively, 409, 1406 and 3005.—Bring in your tickets and get your premium.

Farmers report fall sown grain as growing very nicely, and looking very sturdy. Cover in places was slightly frozen out, but not to impair the stand to any extent. Now if we can only have no cold weather we will beat the record this year, worms or no worms.

W. H. H. Myers, the Forest Grove politician, was in the city yesterday, discussing the recent senatorial election.

Early garden is being planted these days, and early peas are sprouted in several gardens. Now is the time to get in and rid yourself of that unsettled feeling—and a little exertion in the back lot will take the tuck out of you and make you feel that you can rest almost anywhere.

Wm. Reidt, of Portland, and who has property interests in this city, was in town yesterday, doing business.

Herman Schulmerich will depart for Sumpter some time next week and will be accompanied by Geo. Biersdorf. They will commence active work on their mining property as soon as the snow is sufficiently melted to permit operations.

Snow Drop Flour is best.

Miss Everitt, who is matron at the Oregon Soldiers' Home, at Roseburg, is a daughter of S. Everitt, of this city, instead of a niece, as reported last week, in the article on the Home in this paper.

Jesse Crandall returned Saturday from a three months' trip to Cheboygan, Mich., and other Eastern points.
