WHY NOT THE BANKERS?

Some of the republican journals of the East are now complaining that there is too much evidence of banker dictation in our affairs of government. This is certainly very refreshing, coming from the very sources of support of republicanism. Those citizens who are now complaining about this little matter are to be pitied. There was not a day during the last ten years that democratic journals did not sound the alarm, and show that we were going from a government by the popular will to a government by the banks. Every man of intelligence who cast his vote for Mr. McKinley knew that he was casting it for a banker administration. He knew, if he knew anything at all, that it was a contest between the people at large and the corporations. He knew that McKinley's election meant the greatest success of the bankercrats and corporationcrats. That is all there is to it. Why should not the bankers rule the country? They are good business men, and their holdings have nothing to do with patriotism. You are getting a business man's administration, pure and simple. By business men we mean men who first look out for themselves and use patriotism as a sideshow on national holidays. The banks and the trusts are made up and managed by our most successful men—and these are the men who are in control of our affairs of government. You voted for them, and there is no reason to complain. Thea are different now than they were prior to election. These kicking journals should hold their peace. They are getting just what they voted for. That is all there is to the situation.

CRYS ITS DISEASE.

It really amuses THE ARGUS to witness the terrible excoriations that our friends, the enemy, the trusts are getting from the editorial department of the Oregonian. That journal has suddenly discovered that there are trusts and aggregations of capital that have abnormal appetities and abjures the octopus that is trying to swallow up the body politic. This is novel, this "abecedarian" of republicanism in Oregon telling about the iniquities of trusts, etc. It somewhat reminds us of an old veteran of the war of Venus telling about his incurable diseases.

Proverbs for the President.

(From the Springfield Republican.)

When President McKinley kissed the open Bible in taking the oath of office it is said that his lips touched these verses in the 16th chapter of Proverbs:

He that handleth a matter wisely shall find good; and whoso trusteth in the Lord, happy is he.

The wise in heart shall be called prudent; and the sweetness of the lips increaseth learning

Very pat indeed, but another piece of McKinley luck, no doubt, in missing some of the other passages in which the Book of Proverbs abounds. For example:

It is an abnomination to kings to commit wickedness, for the throne is established by righteousness.

There is a way that seemeth right to man, but the end thereof are the ways of death.

Remove not the ancient landmark which thy fathers have set.

And of the seven abominations unto the Lord:

A proud look, a lying tongue and hands that shed innocent blood.

CHANGE IN REVENUE LAW.

The new revenue bill to take effect July 1, will make a very material reduction in the total amount of revenue collected. Below are given some of the principal items of the new bill.

The tax is repealed on bank-checks, certificates of deposit, promissory notes, money orders, bills of lading for export, express receipts, telephone and telegraph messages, insurance policies, leases, mortgages, manifests, powers of attorney, notice of protest, proprietary medicines, warehouse receipts, chewing gum, perfumery and cosmetics.

On tobacco, cigars and cigarettes, the revenue is considerably reduced.

A reduction of forty cents per barrel was made on beer, the tax being fixed at $1.60.

The tax was repealed on bonds, except on bonds of indemnity.

Conveyance where the consideration is less than $2.500, are exempted; where it is above $2, 500, a tax of 25 cents for each additional $500, is fixed.

Steamship tickets below $50 in value are exempt; for $50 and above the rate is 50 cents for each $50.

The present law relating to the taxing of legacies is so modified as to exclude from taxation, legacies of a charitable, religious, literary or educational character.—Ex.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, God in in his incrutable wisdom has brought the long and useful life of our dear sister to a close; in the death of sister Cornell, her family mourns the loss of a loving wife and devoted mother, may we, the members of the Relief Corps, bring memorial tribute to her worthy integrity and benevolence; therefore, be it

Resolved, that it is but a just tribute to the memory of the departed to say that in the death of our dear sister, we mourn for one who was in every way worthy our love and esteem.

Resolved, that the heartfelt sympathy of this Corps be extended to her relatives and friends in this, their sad bereavement.

Resolved, that one copy of these resolutions shall be given to the family of deceased and one copy sent to the county papers; also that the charter be draped in mourning for thirty days.

Treasurer's Notice.

All County Warrants of Washington County, Oregon, endorsed "Not payable for want of funds," prior to Sept. 1, 1900, will be due and payable on and after April 1, 1901. Interest will cease after that date, excepting warrants numbered 1159 to 1167, inclusive, of class V.

RODOLPH CRANDALL,
March 21, 1901. County Treasurer

MRS. MARY RAFFETY.

The late Mrs. Mary Raffety, of Mountaindale, was a lineal descendant from one of four brothers by the name of Huber who migrated from Bavaria, Germany, and located on a township of land in Pennsylvania during the time of William Penn. They organized a colony which is still in existence, and which keeps a record of births, deaths, etc., to the present time. Two of the brothers returned to Germany, one remained with the colony and one went west to Indiana. After being in America for some time, the name of Huber was changed to Hoover. Felix Hoover married Miss Mary Stover. These were the parents of Mrs. Raffety. After their marriage they moved to Illinois and took up a land claim. Mr. Raffety was the last of the Felix Hoover family. Her life was of that womanly and motherly character and she never entertained a thought wrong or unchristian. One of her main objects in life was to instil brotherly and sisterly affection among her children. She finished her life a self-sacrificing, lovable woman.

Deceased was married to Samuel Butler Raffety in 1838. Eight children were born to the union: Dr. Charles, R. M. and Dr. Dav Raffety, now reside in Portland; Sarah E. Raffety-Miller, resides in San Jose, Cal.; Emma B., who died in 1860, the result of an injury, at the age of 11; Samuel J., Jacob C. and Mary Louise are residing at the old homestead at Mountaindale. At her death, Mrs. Raffety was 77 years, 11 months and 9 days of age.

The funeral services were conducted by E. P. Hughes, of Hillsboro, Tuesday.

Born, March 17, to the wife of Jos. Haines, of Beaverton, a daughter.

"THE COMMONER."

Mr. Bryan gave out the following interview Dec. 15:

"I have for several years had in contemplation the establishment of a weekly newspaper and this seems an opportune time for undertaking it.

"Intending to devote my life to the study and discussion of public questions, I have chosen this method because it will best accomplish the purpose which I have in view. Through such a paper I shall be able to keep in touch with social, economic and political problems. The paper will at the same time if successful, provide an income sufficient for my pecuniary needs and this kind of work will allow me more time with my family than I have been able to enjoy for several years past.

I expect to lecture occasionally, especially in college towns where I can speak to students, but my principal work will be done with the pen, or perhaps I should say, with the pencil.

"The paper will be called The Commoner and will defend the principles set forth in the Kansas City platform. The first issue will appear in January. I shall be editor and publisher.

The Commoner is $1 per year. ARGUS and Commoner, $1.75.

Administratrix' Notice.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been by the County Court of the state of Oregon for Washington County, appointed administratrix of the estate of John W. In the Name of the State of Oregon, you, and each of you, are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed herein within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer the complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief demanded in his complaint, to-wit: For a decree reforming and correcting a certain deed of conveyance recorded on page 438, book 45, Records of Deeds for Washington County, Oregon, and executed by John W. G. Shock to John Smith, by inserting the word "environs" immediately after the word "Cornelius" in the description of the lands therein described, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may appear equitable.

The date of the first publication of this summons is February 21, 1901, and the order authorizing the service of this summons by publication requires you to appear and answer on or before the expiration of six weeks from said date. This summons is served upon you, and each of you, by publication by order of the Honorable L. A. Rood, Judge of the County Court of Washington County, Oregon, by an order made and dated at Chamber at Hillsboro, Oregon, on February 19, 1901.

JOHN M. WALL,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

$500 REWARD.

Notice is hereby given that the County of Washington, State of Oregon, will give Five Hundred Dollars Reward for the arrest and conviction of the person or persons who murdered Andrew Dahlberg on or about the evening of Dec. 15, 1900, in his residence near Reedville, this county.

L. A. ROOD, County Judge.
Dated at Hillsboro this 20th day of December, 1900.

Gives the Choice of Three Trains DAILY

The tourist cars, like a newspaper in a country town, certainly "fill a long felt want." A cool, clean, well ventilated sleeping and observation car, equally free from the discomforts of the old fashioned passenger coach and the stuffy heat of the over-luxuriously upholstered drawing room and sleeping cars, and at a moderate extra fee, has solved the problem of providing attractive accommodations for the general public. The O. R. & N. runs three of these cars daily between Portland and the East. A porter is in charge of each car to look after the wants and comforts of the passengers. For rates and particulars write to A. L. Craig, General Passenger Agent O. R. & N. Co., Portland, Oregon.
