

Calendar for May 1901 showing days of the week and dates.

ENCOURAGING PAPER FROM OIL EXPERT

Thinks that the indications are good.

GLENCOE AND BUXTON VICINITIES

Can not forecast definitely, however, conditions rather favorable.

The report of the oil expert has been received by the promoters of the oil field development in this county as a result of a trip made two weeks ago through the Glencoe and Buxton vicinities.

He says that over one hundred thousand dollars were squandered before oil was finally uncovered, it being discovered finally in a 4x4 shaft sunk about eighty feet in depth.

MAY DAY AT CEDAR MILL.

May Day revelings and the May pole dance have long since been considered too tame amusement for the average "young America."

ANOTHER TURN OVER.

Sheriff Sewell, on the 7th, made another turn-over to the county treasurer, taxes collected.

FRANCHISE EXTENDED.

The city council met Tuesday with full attendance. It was voted to extend the franchise to the Water & Light Company for a period of five years.

GET READY FOR THE STREET FAIR

Promises to be a Splendid Exhibition.

SATURDAY, MAY 18TH, THE DAY.

Managers Met in This City Yesterday For Final Arrangements.

The managers of the Washington County Street Fair met in this city yesterday for final arrangements.

Those present were: President, Eff Schieffelin; Riley Cave, secretary, and superintendents, Samuel Moon, W. McQuillan, Louie Manning, N. P. Oakerman, R. H. Greer and James H. Sewell.

Butter, cheese and dairy products will be exhibited in the Finney building; chickens, poultry, rabbits, etc., will be exhibited in coops along the curb; sheep and goats will occupy pens fronting Main street; cattle and dairy stock will be exhibited on the streets from Northrop's hotel to the Odd Fellows' building.

DEATH OF JONATHAN SHUCK.

Jonathan Shuck, a pioneer of 1852, died at the home of a grandson, at Scholls, Monday, May 6, and was buried Tuesday, Undertaker Lamm, having charge of the funeral.

PUBLIC SALE OF HORSES.

At the Hillsboro fair grounds, Saturday, May 11, 1901, commencing at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, I will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, and without reserve, about twenty-two (22) head of geldings, mares and fillies, mostly standard bred, and suitable for driving, riding or light work.

TERMS OF SALE.

Notes with approved security, due in six months from the day of sale, and drawing interest at 6 per cent per annum, will be accepted in payment.

NICHOLAS LONG DEAD.

Nicholas Long, of this city, died at his home in the eastern part of town, Saturday, April 4. Deceased was born in Audrain county, Missouri, 47 years ago, and came to the farm in South Tualatin. He will build a large barn this summer, and otherwise improve his place.

BUSINESS ANNOUNCEMENT.

Having purchased the entire stock of furniture and undertaking goods of P. O. Brown, I can offer the public anything in that line at bargains.
